VOL. XXVI. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. SATURDAY, JAN. 2d, 1865 : 21. No. 18.

The Chronicle.

WHAT KIND OF RELIGION?—The church is assailed, says the Portland Press, because it would break every yoke and let the oppressed go free.

The clergyman, we are told, has no right to meddle with moral questions because they are mixed up with politics. If the clergyman shall not touch a moral question, what shall he do? Must he mumble over a religious creed that has no affinity for the soul's life? And can that soul have life, which ignores moral subjects; or, having no life in itself, can it impart life to others?

Religion, say these politicians, is suffering because the clergy and church are given up to questions of moral reform. And what kind of religion, pray? Is it not the religion of the heathen, which stands aloof from considerations of right and truth and Justice? Is the religion that is worth reviving a mere fancy thing, having nothing to do with the life? Is it a thing divested of moral obligations? Is it a condition or state that has no respect for the rights of friend, neighbor or stranger? Can the Christian be insensible to the good of those around him? Can he ignore the claims of humanity? What better than barbarism is a religion which takes care only of "number one," serenely looking upon the sufferings of others with no will to aid them? And yet this is the religion with which pasty politicians would curse the world. This is the mildew, impiously styled religion, that they would have revived; a religion that glorifies God with the mouth while trampling on his image with an iron heel.

☞ The Manchester Union a few days ago said, "The resolutions of '98 are excellent, but they are like the gospel of salvation to Dives. All the patriotic utterances of the past twenty years might be reaffirmed, and so might the decalogue of Moses, and the one be as apropos as the other." This seems to be a sly hit at the short platform of the democratic party in N. H. The Manchester Mirror also says "the so called Democratic platform is a mockery and cheat—a most absurd attempt at sublime indifference in regard to the war, and a most awkward effort to ignore the vital but troublesome questions of the day. It is no more a declaration of Democratic principles than of the faith of the king of the Cannibal Islands."

The Dover Enquirer, speaking on the same subject says:

The quarrel will amount to little or nothing. Everybody knows just where the copperheads of this State stand, and a cart-load of resolutions would not make the matter either better or worse for them. They believe that Jeff. Davis and his brother traitors are wholly right and ought to triumph, and whether they say so openly or not, it matters not. The patriotic men of that party have sifted out from among them, and will go for their country as they went at the Presidential election, while the other kind will continue to go for their party, let it go where it will, or say what it will.

— When a diplomatic appropriation bill was before the Senate on Friday, Senator Wade of Ohio moved to amend the clause making appropriations "for diplomatic and consular expenses in Mexico," by inserting before the word "Mexico," the words "the republic of." He said he could have nothing to do with the so-called empire there. The amendment was adopted, and so Max gets no comfort from us.

— Mrs. Eliza Ann Upright, wife of ex-Sheriff Upright of the town of Winnebago, Ill., has furnished ten sons for the United States army.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

SO WIDE IS THE FIELD OF ITS USEFULness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation; and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify to the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish our AMERICAN ALMANAC in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher W. H. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists. j20tiaw 2m Tu

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the upper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Cahoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.
WYMAN & TYLER, AGENTS,
82 Water St., Boston, Mass.
The Vernatella,
For making the Soles of Boots and Shoes water proof and wear longer, is also for sale as above.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

A Fortress Monroe correspondent says the Raleigh (N. C.) Whig comes out openly for reconstruction, owing to intestine troubles. The interior of the State is filled with deserters and outlaws, and the State militia have thrown away their arms and gone home.

The Richmond Examiner, of the 17th, concedes that Wilmington will be taken, and urges the immediate burning of the large amount of cotton centred there.

It is said that "Hangman Foote" has been released from arrest by the rebels.

In the Confederate Congress on Monday the 16th, Orr of South Carolina, rose to a personal explanation and called for the reading of an article from the Richmond Sentinel of the 14th, headed "Treason," and charging that resolutions for peace were being considered in the House of Representatives on the basis of irregular negotiation, through Commissioners, with President Lincoln. Orr, after a scathing review of the editor of the Sentinel and Jeff. Davis, made the following remarks:

Denunciation will be met with defiance. This movement was not made by timid or time-serving men, but by men sustained, as they are, by the volume of sentiment of the country and in the army, and by their own sense of duty. They are determined that, in some form, the statesmanship of the country shall be invoked in some effort to end this carnival of death by negotiation.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says Sec. Stanton's visit to Gen. Sherman has developed the fact that Sherman's views and policy on the negro question are those of the Government. His treatment of negroes at Savannah has inspired them with confidence, and they rely on him wholly.—He has borne in his heart a great scheme for their benefit, and will soon electrify the country in an order partitioning among them the abandoned Sea Island property of fugitive rebel planters.

The Tribune's Montreal correspondent, for whose trustworthiness the editors vouch, announces a proposed rebel raid over the border, for the purpose of releasing the prisoners in the Clinton prison, and that Plattsburg, Keesville, Burlington, and Waterbury, Vt., and Haverhill, N. H., will be visited.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says Gen. Butler has turned over to his successor $500,000, the proceeds of taxes on sutlers and other traders, and other moneys.

The hull of the gunboat Indianola, sunk in the Lower Mississippi by the rebels two years ago, has been raised and found to be in excellent condition. She will be rebuilt.

Col. Brayman's expedition, which left Vidalia on the 11th, for a raid through Concordia Parish, has returned with several prisoners and 170 head of cattle, besides breaking up several guerrilla bands.

The gunboat Little Rebel made a reconnoissance up the Red River as far as the mouth of Beack River, and broke up a picket station at that point. The river had overflowed its banks, and was still rising.

Deserters from Alexandria, La., report a small rebel force at that place fortifying in expectation of another Federal raid.—Shreveport has been made very strong. It has a garrison of 400 or 500 men. Harrison has a regiment of troops at Trinity.—The deserters are of the opinion that Northern Louisiana could be easily brought under the Federal rule.

The U. S. monitor Patapsco was destroyed off Charleston at 2 A. M., 17th inst. while doing picket duty, by a torpedo. 40 or 50 of the crew went down with her.

WHAT IS SAID IN CHARLESTON.—We find several extracts from Charleston papers of a late date, showing the fermentation which Sherman's approach occasions there. The Charleston Mercury says:

It is nerve that has carried Sherman to Savannah—it is that which is now carrying him him to cut the Confederacy in half.—His army is an army of discipline—an army of soldiers—not a mob of ragamuffins. He has no generals with rolls of twenty or thirty thousand men, and twenty or thirty hundred in the field. His men stand to their guns—not to people's chicken coops and barn-yards. His men are full in hand at their posts. He holds them there. He is a general.

The Charleston Courier, with more composure but equal emphasis, says:

There is more than one department of government in which reform is important. But reform in our armies is essential—is vital. Without it, the death-knell of the Confederacy is already tolled.

— The capture of Wilmington is again reported. The gold speculators in New York pretended to have the news and were acting as if it was a fact on Friday, when gold slid down from 208 to 202 1-4. In Boston, on the same day, $13,000 in gold sold for 202, and $43,000 for about 203.

— The Post Master General has ordered the Savannah Post Office reopened and appointed Jos. G. Mills, of Savannah, Post Master.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Wm. Hayes of Alton, age 83 years, while endeavoring to pull off a boot, a few days since, fell on the floor and dislocated his right shoulder. The shock has seriously impaired his health.

—— The friends of Rev. L. L. Eastman, of the Methodist Church in Sunapee, made him a donation visit on the 11th inst., and left $150.

—— In Claremont, on Tuesday, a little boy named Case had his leg broken while riding on some part of the machinery in a sawmill.

—— Col. Bell was mortally wounded in the attack on Fort Fisher, and died on Monday morning. Col. Louis Bell, of Farmington, was commissioned Sept. 18th, 1861, as commander of the 4th N. H. Regiment. He was son of the late Gov. Bell of Chester, and half brother of Hon. Samuel D. Bell. He was a young man of promise, and his death will fill many hearts with sorrow.

—— The addition to the attacking force on Fort Fisher consisted of "the Second Brigade of the First Division of the Twenty-fourth Corps, commanded on the occasion by Brigadier General Abbott of New Hampshire." We do not learn that Col. Abbott has been promoted to the rank above assigned him, but presume he is so styled by being in temporary command of the Brigade. His conduct on that occasion may however give him the deserved rank.

—— The wife of Silas Herrick of Chesterfield, formerly a resident of Brattleboro', Vt., was burned to death on Sunday last, by her clothes taking fire from a spark from the stove. Her age was 75 years.

—— In debarking from the transport Lyon, before Fort Fisher, last Friday morning, Charles M. Norton, of the 7th New Hampshire Regiment, accidentally shot himself through the hand, which rendered an amputation of the fore arm necessary. A man named Brown, belonging to Co. G, 3d New Hampshire, was lost overboard from the same vessel on the previous Wednesday evening, off Beaufort.

OUR PRESIDENT—GOD BLESS HIM!—The North American Review says "there can be but little doubt that history will record the name of Abraham Lincoln as that of a pure and disinterested patriot. She may find in his course many errors; she may point out in his character many defects; she will speak of him as a man who had to contend against the disadvantages of imperfect culture, of self education, and of little intercourse with men of high-breeding.

But she will speak also of his virtues which the hard experience of early life had strengthened in him; of his homely sincerity and simplicity; of his manly frankness and self-respect; of his large humane and tender sympathies; of his self-control and good temper; of his truthfulness and sturdy honesty.

She will represent him as actuated by an abiding sense of duty, as striving to be faithful in his service to God and man, as possessed with deep moral earnestness, and as endowed with vigorous common sense and faculty for dealing with affairs. She will tell of his confidence in the people, and she will recount with approval their confidence in him.

And when she has told all this, may she conclude her record by saying that to Abraham Lincoln more than to any other man, is due the success which crowned the efforts of the American people to maintain the Union and the institutions of their country, to widen and confirm the foundations of justice and liberty, on which those institutions rest, and to establish inviolable and eternal peace within the borders of their land."

GEN. ALFRED H. TERRY, the hero of the success at Fort Fisher, is thus described by the N. Y. Tribune:

Educated a lawyer, never within fifty miles of West Point, a child of the people, and a soldier in this war from the beginning, for conscience sake—he it is who has won in a single day a national fame and a professional military renown not inferior to the proudest. Gen. Terry was one of the few men who before the war saw the necessity of preparation for it, and who helped to put his State (Connecticut) in preparation for it, and who devoted his own energies to its approaching demands. He was among the first in the field, has served steadily and with ever-increasing distinction since, and now at a bound reaches the highest place among the soldiers of the Republic. The practical value of this success is twofold.—The port of Wilmington is closed Absolutely against blockade-running, and the town itself is imminently threatened. The landing of the troops and the subsequent movements on shore were conducted by Gen. Terry with singular coolness, good judgment, and determination. There was no hurry, no eagerness—though the circumstances might have excused it—but a quiet purpose to do the whole work thoroughly; and it has been done thoroughly.

An exceedly modest young lady, desiring a leg of chicken at the table, said: "I'll take the part that ought to be dressed in drawers." A nice young gentleman who sat opposite, immediately said: "I'll take the part that ought to wear the bustle!"

☞ An editor of a so-called "democratic" paper, the Manchester Union, says that Slavery should not be destroyed "because it cannot be destroyed without the destruction of those qualities of States and of people, which have made us a free nation."

Comment on this is unnecessary. But here the same editor yet again: he says:

The Democratic party has made great and irretrievable mistakes. Its path is hedged with empty protests, but knee-deep with human gore. Let us spare our protests now—they simply provoke derision. * * * At any rate, this whirlwind of fanaticism will continue its course; everything dear and sacred will go down before it, except truth.

No doubt the truth will survive:—but these extracts look as if the party was destined to destruction;—and as if the editor thinks they deserve destruction for being knee deep in human gore, and at the same time deserve derision for empty protests and irretrievable mistakes. We will not contradict him. U. T.

Sit in the hall in your night-clothes, with both doors open so that you can get a good draft—your feet in a pail of ice water—drop the front door key down your back—hold an icicle in one hand and ring the tea-bell with the other. He says you can't tell the difference with your eyes shut, and it is a great deal cheaper.

A cynical correspondent wishes to add that all so-called winter amusements are a vanity and vexation of spirit, having but one redeeming feature—that their infatuated devotees are obliged to pursue them in the open air. Skating, for which our beaux and belles have such a passion, he says "is pronounced by those who have made gymnastics a life study, to be one of the most useless of exercises; and when we consider that we go to a pond, freeze our fingers in fastening on our skates, strap those skates on so tightly as to check all circulation in the feet, meet with greater trials in learning how to use the skates than are met by the novice in the use of tobacco, are constantly in danger from holes or thin places in the ice, are liable to colds from the overheating of the system, and find walking after leaving the ice as difficult as for a Chinese lady of rank, it is strange that so many should be found willing to sacrifice their time and comfort to this pastime."

☞ A very heavy verdict has been given in Boston, in the case of Elizabeth Shaddy vs. Rev. Louis B. Schwarz and wife, before Judge Russel.

The plaintiff was a servant employed by the defendants in their family, and she brought this action in April last, to recover damages for slander in calling her a thief, and for assault and battery committed upon her person by the female defendant, who is a daughter of the late Deacon Grant. The defendants denied generally the allegations of the plaintiff, and averred truth as defence to the charge of slander.

It appeared that the plaintiff was thrown down stairs in a scuffle with Mrs. Schwarz, and was injured internally, probably permanently, as she has since been unable to work. The case was tried at the last term of the court, when the jury disagreed. Now a verdict was given for the plaintiff; assessing damages in the sum of $2363.

A quantity of the new three cent pieces was received in this city yesterday by brokers, and readily sold for five cents. They are not likely to be of any benefit to the public, as a premium will be demanded for them. Neither the one or two cent pieces are plenty, though Government has sent out millions within two years.—Boston Post, Friday.

The above item shows the ignorance and folly which prevail among a considerable portion of our people, in spite of schools and books. The one, two, and three cent pieces are of small intrinsic value. Their worth is placed upon them by Government stamp only—and they are really worth no more than the five cent or three cent bills, as money. It is a vain thing to argue with stupidity,—and therefore the stupid will buy and hoard for a season.

—The Charlottesville (Va.) Chronicle shows that everything is going awry, and says: "If Mr. Davis and the court were only going to dash their own brains out, we might rally from the calamity; but they are dragging the whole secession fleet after them." The Charleston Mercury, again, is furious about Davis' proposition to arm the slaves, and declares it to be a mad, desperate, absurd and reckless proposition. It also declares that "incompetency and mismanagement are riding the confederacy to ruin."

☞ An article in the U. S. Service Magazine, on the "May Campaign on the James River," says, "If the condition of this railroad is an indication of the state of railroads throughout the South, another delusion which we have cherished has been swept away. It has been again and again declared and published that Southern railroads are worn out; and we have thought that they must be in the nature of things, nearly destroyed by the wear of war. But the rails on the Richmond and Petersburg road are of the very best quality of iron, and nearly new."

—The 6 o'clock train from Boston, on Wednesday evening, had the engine and one car thrown off the track, just this side of the Parker river, at Mill-cut, delaying the train an hour. The iron work under the cars was smashed and thrown through the bottom, greatly frightening some lady passengers, but no person was injured.

— It is rumored that Senator McDougal of California will resign.

"So you are going to keep house, are you?" said an elderly maiden to a blushing bride. "Yes," was the reply. "Going to have a girl, I suppose." The newly-made wife colored, and then quietly responded that she "really didn't know whether it would be a girl or a boy."

— We must first be true to ourselves, if we would expect constancy from others.

☞ It is a noticeable fact that since the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln, one of the leading candidates against him for President, and one of the leading candidates for Vice President against his nomination have died—Mr. Douglass and Mr. Everett—and his administration has called for appropriate recognition of the solemn event in both cases. It is also noticeable that of six candidates for President and Vice President in 1860, who were not elected, the only two of the whole number who proved loyal to the Government are now deceased.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR RE-GENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

PRICE—$1 per Bottle.

HALE'S

Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

LECTURE ON PETRACH.—Mr. Wm. Seavey, of this city, a medical student, will give his lecture at the Temple on Tuesday evening next, on the life and times of the great Italian Poet; and the editor of the Journal, who knows him well, has "no doubt it will be a very good one." It will be a treat, at any rate, to hear some subject presented besides the war, which appears to be about fun out, in more senses than one.

☞ A draft of fifty seamen was taken from the Vandalia on Thursday afternoon and placed on board the Shawmut. As usual, one or two attempted to escape, but failed. One completely covered himself with coal, but was discovered by a marine, upon which he showed a little fight, but a pair of handcuffs induced him to yield.

DIED in Baldwin County, Alabama, Oct. 7, 1860, Joseph W. Frost, aged 46, son of Joseph Frost, Esq., of Eliot Me.

The father and friends of the decezzed in Eliot have received the first authentic information of the above death, since the commencement of the year 1865, by a letter from his widow, who came into our lines for that purpose. The disturbed state of that part of the country, followed by the war, had kept back the intelligence about four years.

☞ A correspondent asks, Why is the "States and Union" paper like saponifier? And answers, Because it is a concentrated lye.

☞ At the Union Republican Senatorial Convention in this city, Wednesday, Darius Frink of Newington was nominated.

☞ Several new advertisements we are obliged to defer insertion till Monday.

☞ Pres. Smith, of Dartmouth College, is to preach at the North Church to-morrow.

☞ Taggard & Thompson, Boston, have just published a very neat edition of Eaton's Intellectual Arithmetic. This Arithmetic is virtually a new, enlarged, altered and much improved edition of Colburn's First Lessons. The merits of that book no one disputes.

Eaton's Intellectual Arithmetic is formed upon the same plan, and drawn from the same source, as Colburn's, viz: from Pestalozzi. It is more gradually progressive than Colburn, thus avoiding some of the abrupt transitions which occur in his work. The exercises in Abstract Numbers are more broken up and more largely interspersed with practical questions; and thus the interest of the pupil is awakened and weariness avoided. In the matter of Definitions, and the Tables of Weights, Measures, and the examples illustrating each, it is as improvement upon Colburn.

Eaton's Intellectual Arithmetic was adopted for use in all the Public Schools of Boston, in place of Warren Colburn's First Lessons, July 5th, 1864.

For sale in Portsmouth by J. H. Foster.

☞ Harper's Magazine for February is out promptly as usual, and full of good things as ever. Mr. Foster has it.

☞ There are some classes of public servants to whom our thanks are due, as well as our dimes, for services rendered.—Ignoring all claims on the part of those engaged in printing morning newspapers, we will merely instance railroad conductors and expressmen.

We are apt to imagine it to be a great hardship if, two or three times a month, business calls us from our bed these dark winter mornings in season to take the early train for Boston, especially if there be a smart storm prevailing;—but rain or snow, fair weather or foul, the conductor's smiling face will greet us in the depot—his lantern hardly more radiant.

We seat ourselves comfortably by the fire—to doze, to read, and to look from the window as the day begins to dawn. We occasionally put our heads forth and remark how beautifully the plough throws the snow on either side of the train. The pine, hemlock, and spruce thickets, bending gracefully beneath their fleecy burdens, demand a share of our attention.

Thicker and faster comes the snow, until we begin to feel our boyishness returning, and imagine that it would be jolly to have a romp out in the storm. But what is a source of pleasure to us is a source of anxiety to the conductor, for with him punctuality is a leading virtue.

The passengers will growl and grumble at delay, trains will interfere in running time, accidents will happen to the road and rolling stock, passengers will use language of an aggravating nature, and the conductor is expected to be in good temper, and in a large majority of cases is so (externally at least.) Now we think gratitude as well as recompense is due to a class of men from whom we expect so much; instead of which they are generally talked about as if dishonest as a class, instead of being just the reverse. There is no virtue in abstaining from a sin which we can by no possibility commit; and we believe no class of men having similar opportunities for peculation with conductors, are freer from the practice thereof. X.

GYMNASTICS.

It is designed to form a Class for Children and Youth in the New Gymnastics, for Wednesday Afternoons, at Union Hall, corner Market and Hanover Streets. And all the Children are invited to attend the first lesson, on Wednesday, the 25th inst., at 2 o'clock, free of Charge.

☞ The Evening Class, for Gentlemen and Ladies, is designed for Tuesday and Thursday Evenings. Names left at Mr. Foster's Bookstore.

It is but simple justice to the Manufacturer of the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, to award him the credit of being far ahead of all competitors in catering to the luxury of the ladies, who prize nice, clean, white clothes (and what lady does not?). Our wife says she could not keep house without it. It is decidedly the Soap of the world. It is a peculiar institution of itself, and such a luxury to use it, that after one trial it is always found to be one of the most useful articles in the household. Depot, 112 Liberty street, New York. 51

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Horrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. The Wholesale Agents are Wholesale Grocers.

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it must eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. UMIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

Petroleum!

LOMBARD & GORE,

BOSTON

PETROLEUM AND COAL STOCK EXCHANGE,

99 STATE STREET,

BOSTON,

Buy and Sell Oil and Coal Stocks on Commission, in New York, Philadelphia, and in Europe.

We believe we can offer superior inducements to all persons wishing to invest in

Petroleum Stocks.

Such investments, as a class, offer greater inducements to persons of either large or small means, than any the world has ever known, not even excepting the

Siver Mines of Mexico and So. America.

The cost of obtaining this Oil is so comparatively small that

A single Well producing only 10 Barrels per Day

will yield an income, over all expenses, of more than

$25,000 PER ANNUM.

Many wells are now yielding from 25 to 75, and several have reached over 1000 Barrels, while one, (the Noble Well, on Oil Creek, Penn.,) has yielded no less than 3000 Barrels per Day, Worth $30,000 at the Wells.

The undersigned are Regular Agents for the principal Petroleum Companies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and having no more interest in one than another, persons desiring information can rely upon receiving an unbiassed account of the standing and prospects of the various companies on the market.

Enquiries by mail will receive prompt attention.

Subscriptions received to all first-class Companies upon the most favorable terms.

Receipts and Certificates will be forwarded in exchange for available funds, without charge; and Petroleum and Coal Stocks will be sold at the Brokers' Boards of New York and Philadelphia at the regular rates of commission.

We would call special attention to the following Companies now being organized in this city, viz:—

THE NEW ENGLAND PETROLEUM COMPANY,

Whose Lands are now yielding a net profit of $1450 daily, or more than $40,000 per Month,

equal to over 8 per cent. per month on their capital; and this yield is steadily on the increase. Whoever invests in this property will be richly rewarded. Those connected with it are of the highest standing.

CAPITAL STOCK, $450,000.
NUMBER OF SHARES, $90,000.
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $5.00.
WORKING CAPITAL, $25,000.

PRESIDENT—E. C. BATES, ESQ.
TREASURER—JAMES H. CLAPP, ESQ.

DIRECTORS.

Franklin Haven, Jr.,	R. W. Sears,
William Lincoln,	F. E. Smith,
D. M. Yeomans,	J. H. Clapp,
E. C. Bates.

Subscription Books are still open at our office for a limited number of Shares, which can be secured by prompt application.

The inducements to invest which are offered by the properties of this Company, and the well-known character of its managers, fully entitle the confidence of the public.

THE BOSTON & VENANGO PETROLEUM COMPANY,

we offer as "A No. 1." Although not producing at present, the prospect at least equals that of the Columbia Oil Company, of Pittsburgh, at the time of its organization, which has paid on an original subscription of $2000 a net profit of $54,500 in two years, and continues to pay in the same ratio.

Full information will be furnished in regard to the above, and all other Companies in the market, upon application at our office, personally or by letter,

P. S.—Parties remitting funds to us will please send by express, except when drafts can be obtained, in which case we will bear the charges of forwarding. In this manner they can obtain reliable receipts.

WHAT IS A

FRENCH ROLL PAN?

IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.

It is simply a nicely made

IRON PAN,

Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very

QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.

For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.

IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to

ECONOMISE

in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and

PALATABLE BREAD:

"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."

By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

Spring Roll and Cog Wheel

WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.

WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.

We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.

To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, w for the last of 1857.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove past time to be MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber, during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such numerous and decided proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful and favorable services bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made all twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and distresses in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society, self-distrust, timidity, and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the Head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, and melancholy are the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this fully valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and pleasant, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from the smallest fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while others have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which prevents them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fall up and close the pipe, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal, which can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1852.
I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mav26

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
SO WIDE IS THE FIELD OF ITS USEFULNESS and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by this medicine. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation; and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
We can only assure the public that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.
Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their name to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish our AMERICAN ALMANAC to all who apply, or give, with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.
Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass. and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thatcher W. H. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Cahoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.
WYMAN & TYLER, AGENTS,
82 Water St., Boston, Mass.

The Vernatella,
For making the Soles of Boots and Shoes water proof and wear longer, is also for sale as above.

MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

On Thursday morning, steamer Blackstone arrived at Fortress Monroe from Fort Fisher, bringing the remains of Col. Bell, of the 4th New Hampshire, and Capt. Elliot, of the 42d New York: also 210 officers and privates wounded in the late assault on that fort.

The latest news from Fort Fisher is that shortly after the surrender of the fort the rebels blew up Fort Caswell and other minor works defending the entrance of Cape Fear River. Admiral Porter officially states that Wilmington is closed to blockade runners. At the time of the sailing of the Blackstone, the smaller gunboats had entered the river and were actively employed in searching for torpedoes, preparatory to an advance.

Shortly after the capture of Fort Fisher a diagram containing a plan of the whole system of torpedo arrangements in Cape Fear River was discovered, and our naval officers were making search for a key to the diagram, by which means the infernal designs of the enemy would be completely frustrated.

Brigadier General Curtis, of the 24th army corps, was slightly wounded in the head at the assault on Fort Fisher. Capt. Lawrence, aide to Gen. Ames, was severely wounded.

The latest news from the rebel Hood is that he was marking for Mobile with all the speed he could muster. Foster's cavalry, deserters say, were terribly cut up in defending Hood's rear, and are so scattered and demoralized that their leader will never manage to collect them again. The rebel soldiers detest Hood, and call him a butcher and no general.

The Times' Savannah correspondence of the 17th says at that time the left wing of Sherman's army was moving from that city.

The Herald's dispatches repeat the statement that Wilmington has been evacuated, and expect the official confirmation soon.

800 men are soon to leave Annapolis for Savannah, to be employed in reopening railroads connecting with that city.

By Telegraph—Sunday noon.

WASHINGTON, 21st.—There have been no fresh peace rumors to-day, though contradictory versions of Blair's mission continue to prevail. Members of Congress who have spent their usual Saturday holiday in official circles, report that they do not find much confidence in Blair's mission. The latter, however, is represented as being very sanguine of success, and has declared that there will be no more fighting, and that the war will end by negotiation. The disbelief in the success of this mission has been very suddenly strengthened this afternoon by the reception of the contents of the Richmond Whig of yesterday, by which it appears that a resolution has passed the rebel Senate creating Lee Commander-in Chief of all the rebel armies, and recommending that Jeff. Davis appoint Joe Johnston to a new command. This virtually makes Lee Dictator, and removes all doubt of a peace by negotiation for the present.

The Richmond Examiner of yesterday announces that troops have been sent South and West, the details of which it declines publishing. The Charleston Mercury says the rebels have reinforced that city.

Information from the Army of the Potomac states that considerable firing took place in front of Petersburg, near the Appomattox, on Friday morning, but with what result is not known. About 40 deserters came into our lines Thursday. Reports of the evacuation of Petersburg are current.

Adm. Porter in his detailed report of the attack on Fort Fisher, gives the total number of naval officers killed and wounded at 21, and of others killed, wounded and missing, including those by the explosion, at 300. He states that the rebels have blown up Fort Caswell and the rebel steamers Tallahassee and Chicamauga, and that he will be in Wilmington before long.

☞ Perley telegraphs from Washington that the Finance Bill passed on Friday.—Although it somewhat restricts the issue of legal tenders, it virtually authorizes the issue of one hundred and two millions more in the shape of interest bearing notes. These are to be used for the payment of the army, now in arrears.

Judge Field, one of the Louisiana claimants for seats in the House, had a quarrel on the old plantation style on Friday night with Judge Kelley of Philadelphia, at the supper table of a hop at Willard's. Afterwards Fields assaulted Kelley with a knife, and cut his hand. It is doubtful whether Fields was sober.

☞ The Boston Post well and truly says "The howlings of the Charleston papers are of a piece with South Carolina's whole conduct for years past. She has been a latant braggart, full of swagger and secession, and now that the hour of punishment arrives, hides her fears in empty ejaculations of what South Carolina is, what South Carolina expects, what South Carolina wants, &c. What she wants is thorough trounced, and it is what she stands an excellent chance of getting."

CRIME IN NEW YORK.—The Journal of Commerce states that one day last week the 7th predinct police made the following startling and interesting report to inspector Carpenter.

"Upon order of Capt. Jameson, at 8 o'clock P. M., Monday, Sergeant Buckman and Roundsman Whitcomb, with the first platoon, made a descent upon the 'Rutgers Social Club,' No. 40 Rutgers street, and arrested six of the reputed members—John Tobin, alias Connolly, who stabbed officer Hiram Cole, on the 20th ult, (he is fully identified by officer Cole); Michael Whalen, a bounty jumper and deserter; also the notorious Daniel Hurley, a deserter from the Second Fire Zouaves for the second or third time; and John R. Kearns, Daniel Donovan and Thomas Brady. All six are charged with catching young ladies and pulling them into the club room and ravishing their persons, and then robbing them of their jewelry and all their valuables, if they had any.

Whalen and Hurley, charged with desertion, were passed over to the military authorities. Justice Mansfield committed Tobin, alias Connolly, in default of $2,000 bail, to answer the charge of feloniously assaulting officer Cole. Yesterday afternoon, Kearns, Brady, and Donovan were arraigned before Justice Mansfield to answer a charge of rape preferred against them by Mary Murphy, a young woman, residing at No. 109 Greenwich street. She alleges that on the evening of the 13th inst. the prisoners seized her and while passing the club-room, dragged her inside. * * When she entered the place the gas was burning brightly, which enabled her to identify the prisoners. In her struggles to escape, she was beat and kicked terribly, and one of her assailants forcibly took a gold ring from her finger. The magistrate committed the prisoners to answer the charge. Mary Murphy is a married woman, and has a husband in the Army of the Potomac."

It is safe to say that these and such as these, were the active movers in the New York Riots, whom Gov. Seymour called his immediate constituents, and who helped make up his great majority in New York City, by which he was elected the first time and was not elected the second. Of decent men, there may some doubt how they vote:—but no man doubts the party status of such rascals as these above mentioned. They are found in all cities, and always vote one way.

☞ Jeff. Davis don't believe in State Sovereignty, just now.—He pretended to do so, when the rebel States seceded. But now the Bull gores his Ox, and he thinks that alters the case. What his allies at the north will do about it, we don't say: but "a letter is published from Jeff. Davis, written over a month ago, opposing separate State action for peace, and assuming that negotiation will show that the South demands Independence, and that the North will not tender any terms but the abolition of slavery and confiscation and submission."

The sooner they submit, the better,—To this they must come at last,—submit to be citizens of the United States,—a better, sounder Union than we ever have had yet.

U. T.

CELEBRATION AT NEWBERN, N. C.—The colored citizens of Newbern, N. C., had a grand celebration on the anniversary of Emancipation Day, Jan. 1st, which, the Traveller says, shows how they have improved their freedom. The day schools, and the Equal Rights Leagues, assembled together in the forenoon, to witness the presentation of a beautiful flag to a detachment of the Heavy Artillery Regiment. The presentation speech was by a colored girl of the Palmer School, and a Massachusetts officer responded for the regiment. Following this there was a procession with bands and banners, marshals with their batons and gay scarfs, and each of the schools escorted by companies of boys armed with handsomely pointed wooden spears. Upon the arrival of the procession at Central Park, addresses were made, hymns were sung, &c. Some ten thousand persons participated in the exercises.

POCOTALIGO.—This place, at last in the possession of our army, is some 45 miles from Savannah, on the railroad leading thence to Charleston, and derives its military importance, first, from its long railroad bridge over one of those swampy streams which empty into the navigable waters of of Port Royal; and, secondly, from the fact that at this point our army gets possession of two country roads, (in a region of dismal swamps, where roads are indispensable and very scarce,) by either of which or both, a movement may be made upon Branchville and Charleston.

AN AUTHENTIC ANECDOTE. — Talleyrand was once in the company of Madam de Stael and another eminent French lady whose name we do not now remember. "You say charming things to both of us," said Madam de Stael to him; "which of us do you like best?" The wily statesman artfully replied that he was delighted with both. "Ah, but you prefer one of us," continued Madam de Stael; "suppose we were both drowning in the Seine to-night, which of us would you help first?" "I would extend my right hand to Madam de Stael, and my left to Madam, yonder." Yes, but suppose only one of us could be saved—which would you attempt to rescue? Talleyrand's diplomacy was pushed to its severest test. but not one whit discomposed, he turned to Madam de Stael and replied. "Madam, you who know so many things, doubtless know how to swim."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The death of Col. Bell at the late assault of Fort Fisher is keenly felt, especially, where he had many relations and friends. Col. Bell married the eldest daughter of Rev. Dr. Bouton.

—— The returned 8th regiment was mustered out and paid on Thursday, at Concord.

—— In the Supreme Court of N. H., in the case of Dow v Concord, for $8,000 damages sustained by a defective highway, the jury disagreed, eleven for and one against. They were out all Wednesday night.

GEO. B. MCCLELLAN GOING TO EUROPE.—Geo. B. McClellan, esq., of Orange, N. J., late Major General of the army and Democratic candidate for the Presidency, was in Newark Tuesday, and procured at the United States Collector's office a passport to go to Europe in the steamer China. He also paid $195,65 was tax on an income of $3915 during 1863. His pay as a major-general last year was $4173, from other sources $342, amounting in all to $4515, from which $600 deduction was made.

☞ Gen. Charles J. Paine, who commanded a division in the attack on Fort Fisher, is a son of Charles C. Paine, Esq. of Boston, a great grandson of the late Judge Jackson, and a descendant of Robert Treat Paine, of Revolutionary memory. He graduated at Harvard, and as a commander of colored soldiers has won distinction in Louisiana and before Petersburg. At Fort Fisher he was in command of a division which helped to keep the rebels from reinforcing the garrison.

☞ Our successes at home improve our reputation abroad. In London, President Lincoln's disapproval of Gen. Dix's order to pursue the raiders into Canada is viewed with great satisfaction. The papers generally argue that Mr. Lincoln could do nothing less, but, nevertheless, compliment him for his prompt action.

The Times, editorially, is very much inclined to sympathize with the Federals in the matter of the St. Albans raiders, and maintain that the Canadian authorities ought to have taken the risk and responsibility of detaining the raiders until the warrant was signed by the Governor General. It says:—"Whatever fault may be attached to the Canadian authorities, the Government and people of England had no power in the matter, and have no other wish than to carry out the extradition treaty with the utmost fairness and fullness."

LATE LONDON ITEMS.—Capt. Corbett, who commanded the steamer Sea King—now the pirate Shenandoah — on a voyage from London to Madeira, has been arrested for violating the enlistment act, in enlisting men for the rebel navy.

The war news further depressed the rebel loan to 52 cents, a fall of 10 cents in a week.

The Times says Sherman's skill and daring is rewarded with brilliant success, and that Thomas' victories must raise the spirits of the Federals and confirm them in the belief that throughout the South they have no enemy capable of opposing their chief armies.

The British revenue for 1864 is only 800,000 pounds below that of the previous year, notwithstanding the reduction of several millions in taxation.

The British war steamer Race Horse has been wrecked in the Crimean sea; 99 lives were lost.

Nineteen persons were crushed to death at a concert in Dundee.

The French Government and clergy manifest hostility to the Pope's letter.

— The death of Mr. and Mrs. Defrees, at Ballardvale, was occasioned by the escape of coal gas from a stove in their sleeping room, the damper in the funnel having been closed too tightly, and not from ether as was stated in the newspapers.

— There were only three days difference in the ages reached by Daniel Webster and Edward Everett at the time of their respective deaths. The former was seventy years, nine months and six days; the latter seventy years, nine months and three days.

— President Lincoln has presented to two missionaries of the Sandwich Islands, Rev. Mr. Kekela and Rev. Mr. Kankan, five hundred dollars in gold, as a reward for saving an American, Mr. Walden, first officer of the whale-ship Congress, from being slaughtered by the savage Marquesans.

— The German papers announce the resignation by the celebrated chemist Liebig, of his chair in the University of Munich. He goes to London to superintend the disinfection and application to agriculture of the sewerage of that city.

— Fifty thousand three-cent pieces were recently found in an old boiler in a cellar in Lockport, N. Y.

— The street boot-blacks in Philadelphia have temporarily abandoned their vocation, and are reaping a harvest of fractional currency by fastening on skates at the skating ponds.

— The Governor General of Canada, in his address to the Canadian Parliament, alluded to the outrages committed in the United States by bands organized in Canada for that purpose, and said he had organized a detective police, and called out a portion of volunteers, to prevent their repetition. He urges that the Executive should have increased power for dealing with political refugees who are unmindful of their obligations.

— The National Intelligencer, says, "we have no hesitation in expressing the belief that an effort on our part is being made to spare the effusion of blood in Georgia—and indeed, all along our lines—because of the not altogether hopeless conjecture that the practically subdued rebels may very soon be induced to lay down their arms. This is our belief."

Not a Bad Motto.—For the "Special Safety Matches" which ignite only on the box, the Post suggests the inscription, "Strike but Here."

— A woman died recently in Danbury of a polypus, which appeared only a year ago, in the shape of a small red spot under her right eye. At the time of her death it was the size of a quart bowl.—Hartford Times.

WANTED.—A fifer and drummer for the "March of intellect;" a pair of snuffers for the "light of other days; a ring to fit the "finger of scorn;" a loose pulley to run on the "shaft of envy;" and a table by which to reckon "figures of speech."

HALE'S

Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these free other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

☞ The habit of coasting in the streets and on the sidewalks has become so common as to cause the city authorities to take stringent measures to prevent it; therefore any one found coasting on the public sidewalk, or on the street, hereafter, will be punished according to law. Per Order.

☞ The dead body of an unknown man, which had apparently been in the water for a long time, was picked up on the Kittery shore of our river Saturday, by Mr. James Ayers of this city, and buried from our Almshouse. It is supposed to be that of one of the bounty-jumping sailors from the Vandalia, who was drowned or shot while attempting to desert. Was about 5 feet 9 inches in height, and dressed in checked shirt, dark pants, and boots, with a plaid scarf around his waist. The Aldermen deemed it unnecessary to hold an inquest.

☞ Mr. J. H. Foster has the Tribune Almanac for 1865,—a hand book for politicians, statesmen, and men of business.

POLICE COURT, Jan. 20.—Samuel Twombly was arrested on Friday, and brought before the Police Court, charged with an aggravated assault on his wife. Bound over in the sum of $200 until April. It seems that these parties have not sustained amicable relations toward each other for some time, not having lived together for the past three months or more. So Samuel vents his spleen, and amuses himself by casting vitriol upon his wife's garments, and that dastardly trick not satiating his bellicose appetite, he still continues his fun by beating his better-half on the public streets, whereupon "forbearance ceasing to be a virtue," Mrs. T. entered a complaint as above.

Sign of Peace.—Jeff. Davis' wife kissed the venerable F. P. Blair, in Richmond.

DAISY DEANE:—A SONG.

'Twas down in the meadows,
The violets were blowing,
And the spring-time grass was fresh and green;
And the birds by the brooklet
Their sweet songs were singing,
When I first met my darling Daisy Deane.

Her eyes soft and tender,
The violets outvieing,
And a fairer form never was seen;
With her brown silken tresses,
Her cheeks like the rose—
There was none like my darling Daisy Deane.

The bright flowers are faded,
The young grass has fallen,
And a dark cloud hovers over the scene;
For the Death-angel took her,
And left me in sorrow
For my lost one, my darling Daisy Deane.

Oh, down in the meadows
I still love to wander, [so green;
Where the young grass grows so fresh and
But the bright golden visions
Of spring-time have faded
With the flowers and my darling Daisy Deane.

Chorus:

None knew thee but to love thee,
Thou dear one of my heart,—
Oh thy memory is ever fresh and green;
Though the sweet buds may wither,
And fond hearts be broken,
Still I love thee, my darling Daisy Deane.

☞ Another attempt was made on Friday night to throw a passenger train from the Eastern Railroad. The 6 3-4 train from Boston, while passing through Malden, came in contact with a large stone and several sleepers which had been maliciously placed upon the track. The train was moving very slowly at the time, in consequence of the repeated obstructions heretofore near the same locality, and therefore no damage was done beyond the detention of the cars for about half an hour. The materials composing the barricade were taken up and carried to Salem. The Transcript says that "unless more energetic measures are taken to put a stop to these dangerous annoyances, it is to be feared that a shocking catastrophe may occur to startle the community and deplete the treasury of this great thoroughfare along the eastern shore. Let the villians who are so persistently endangering the lives of passengers be hunted out at all hazards."—Yes, let a vigilant watch be kept, and the infernal monsters be shot on sight.

POSTING THE BOOKS.—A loyal democratic paper says:

When summoned to this war against the rebellion, with the bombardment of Fort Sumter in April, 1861, President Lincoln issued his first call for volunteers for the Union, he said that the first service in which they would be employed would be "to repossess the forts, places and property seized from the Union." Among the regular forts thus seized and then held by the rebels were Fort Macon and Fort Caswell, N. C.; Fort Sumter, S. C.; Fort Pulaski, Ga.; Fort Clinch and some secondary works to Fort Pickens, Fla.; Fort Morgan and Fort Gaines, Ala., and Forts St. Philip and Jackson, on the Mississippi, below New Orleans. All these regular and costly works, built by the government of the United States, have been "repossessed," except Sumter. This is the last of the schedule; and from present appearances, there will not be much more fighting required to repossess all the remaining "places" seized from the Union, from Richmond to Texas.

And now, when the Confederacy is in confusion, there is a frantic effort of all the traitors and quasi traitors of the North, just to save enough of slavery, or enough of State Sovereignty, or some other herb of that kind, to heal their wounds, and get back into their old positions of place, power and pelf. But it is late in the day for them. U. T.

PETROLEUM AND COAL STOCK EXCHANGE,

99 STATE STREET,

BOSTON,

Buy and Sell Oil and Coal Stocks on Commission, in New York, Philadelphia, and in Europe.

We believe we can offer superior inducements to all persons wishing to invest in

Petroleum Stocks,

Such investments, as a class, offer greater inducements to persons of either large or small means, than any the world has ever known, not even excepting the

Siver Mines of Mexico and So. America.

The cost of obtaining this Oil is so comparatively small that

A single Well producing only 10 Barrels per Day

will yield an income, over all expenses, of more than

$25,000 PER ANNUM.

Many wells are now yielding from 25 to 75, and several have reached over 1000 Barrels, while one, (the Noble Well, on Oil Creek, Penn.,) has yielded no less than

3000 Barrels per Day,

Worth $30,000 at the Wells.

The undersigned are Regular Agents for the principal Petroleum Companies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and having no more interest in one than another, persons desiring information can rely upon receiving an unbiassed account of the standing and prospects of the various companies on the market.

Enquiries by mail will receive prompt attention.

Subscriptions received to all first-class Companies upon the most favorable terms.

Receipts and Certificates will be forwarded in exchange for available funds, without charge; and Petroleum and Coal Stocks will be sold at the Brokers' Boards of New York and Philadelphia at the regular rates of commission.

We would call special attention to the following Companies now being organized in this city, viz:—

THE NEW ENGLAND PETROLEUM COMPANY,

Whose Lands are now yielding a net profit of $1450 daily, or more than $40,000 per Month,

equal to over 8 per cent. per month on their capital; and this yield is steadily on the increase. Whoever invests in this property will be richly rewarded. Those connected with it are of the highest standing.

The inducements to invest which are offered by the properties of this Company, and the well-known character of its managers, fully entitle the confidence of the public.

THE

BOSTON & VENANGO PETROLEUM COMPANY,

we offer as "A No. 1." Although not producing at present, the prospect at least equals that of the Columbia Oil Company, of Pittsburgh, at the time of its organization, which has paid on an original subscription of $2000 a net profit of $54,500 in two years, and continues to pay in the same ratio.

Full information will be furnished in regard to the above, and all other Companies in the market, upon application at our office, personally or by letter.

WHAT IS A FRENCH ROLL PAN?

IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.

It is simply a nicely made

IRON PAN,

Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very

QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.

For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.

IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and

PALATABLE BREAD:

"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."

By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

Spring Roll and Cog Wheel WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.

WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all envean immense amount of labor and cost of material.

We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.

To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that hope is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber's need of SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a great collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, some of the claims for which unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors who apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made application for specifications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Boston, July 16, 1864. TThSly

DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No 23 Endicott street.

N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.

P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with good nurses. Charges moderate.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beyond his treatment, of the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest siffings of a chaste.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the sorts produced. Such persons should, before contracting matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Orders by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven sides are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and additional heater recently added, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large capacity for boiling or hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for setting the cook and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable article.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed, this difficulty, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coals, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your building.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

THE BLESSINGS OF LABOR. — Perhaps the least appreciated of all the blessings enjoyed by man, is that of labor. Designed as a curse by the Holy Scriptures, and stigmatized as a disgrace by those whose wealth allows them to gratify their indolence; men have ever been eager to keep up the groundless and ancient delusion. The laborer groans under the heat and fatigue of his noon-day toil, and longs for the time when he may lay aside his tools and his apron, and enjoy his hard earnings. He repines at his "hard lot," and envies the rich their ease and their leisure.

But why murmur at a blessing? Blessings come often even in disguise than in any other manner, but they are none the less blessings. Labor, and the laboring classes, have been the foundation of everything great and good that has ever existed in the world. Without it the philosophers theory—"the highest good of the greatest number," can not be realized. Indeed nothing else is productive of so much happiness as honest, earnest activity. Dissipation and excitement weaken and ruin the powers which labor strengthen. As a man,—if he will accomplish anything worthy, must work with a purpose in view; so must he, if he would enjoy the happiness and contentment labor alone can give. C. H. D.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 21, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that your PANACEA has cured with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or 6 of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No 1 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. may26

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
SO WIDE IS THE FIELD OF ITS USEFULNESS and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons who publicly acknowledge, that have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation; and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
We can only assure the public that its quality is carefully kept up to the best state it has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.
Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not admit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish our AMERICAN ALMANAC in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.
Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass, and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher W. R. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and beautifies the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Cahoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.
WYMAN & TYLER, AGENTS,
82 Water St., Boston, Mass.
The Vernatella,
For making the Sole of Boots and Shoes water proof and wear longer, is also for sale as above.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

A dispatch from Annapolis, Jan. 21st, says: "Gen. Grant arrived here to-day in his flagboat, the M. Martain. The general left at 11 o'clock for Washington, by the express train.

He is reported to have said that a deserter had come into the lines of Gen. Terry, who reported that the rebels were evacuating Wilmington after having set fire to some thirty million dollars worth of cotton, but that our troops were so near at hand as to prevent the destruction of it."

Fort Fisher correspondents say the 159th and 115th New York and 4th New Hampshire regiments were near the magazine which exploded in Fort Fisher. Between 100 and 200 lives were lost.

A private dispatch from Fortress Monroe says the two blockade runners which left Nassau on the 14th have run into the "jaws of death" at New Inlet, and were taken possession of by our blockaders off Fort Fisher. They both had heavy cargoes of army supplies, railroad iron and heavy guns. More are expected.

On the 19th all of Admiral Porter's fleet were in Cape Fear River. On the night of the 18th inst., five blockade runners ran into Old Inlet, N. C., and were captured by the fleet. Their names were not ascertained.

Richmond papers report a U. S. army advancing towards Wilmington, on the 16th, and that Gen. Sherman was moving towards Charleston.

The Richmond Whig reports a destructive fire raging at Augusta, Ga., on Sunday night, burning over four hundred bales of cotton. On Monday evening another five occurred at Hamburg, opposite Augusta, burning 1500 to 2000 bales of cotton belonging to the rebel government.

It is reported that Sherman visited Columbia, S. C., in disguise, and stopped at the Vicksburg Hotel.

At New York on Saturday the sales of gold and stocks at the Evening Exchange, reached four millions of dollars in currency.

There was a great sale of gold Saturday by one firm in New York in the interest of the Government, the amount being two hundred thousand dollars at 1.97, for two months delivery. This leads many to anticipate sales based on what is supposed to be favorable information from the vicinity of Charleston in the hands of officials, who thus operate in the gold market.

The present indications are that Gen. Thomas's army will not soon move from its present position on the Tennessee river, as winter quarters are being constructed.

Since the 1st of January 520 rebel deserters, all of whom came within the lines of the Armies of the Potomac and James, have passed through Washington.

Baltimore dispatches repeat the report of the evacuation of Wilmington by the rebels.

The five blockade runners which, not knowing that Fort Fisher had been taken, run in the 18th and were captured by Porter's fleet, are the Banshee, Gen. Whiting, Mary and Ella, Ettie and Flamingo. They all had valuable cargoes.

The Tribune's Fort Fisher correspondence says the explosion of the magazine was caused by the carelessness of our men, who were indiscreet enough to go in with lighted candles and lighted cigars. They were cautioned, but paid no heed to it.—The total loss is about 600.

A significant article appears in the Richmond Enquirer which says: After every manly effort the rebels may fail, and policy and interest would incline the rebels to submit to the United States rather than to to England, France or Maximilian. Joining their military forces they could then swamp this continent and thus at least hide their shame, while America would become the colossal power of the world.

On the other hand some Richmond editors, in view of the fact that they have lost all seaports of consequence, make great efforts to prove these disasters a blessing.

GOLD.—$26,000 were sold in Boston on Monday at 198 a. 60. The quotations vary from 200 to 201. In New York, Monday, flour was 10c lower; wheat, corn and oats lower and unsettled; pork down 50c per bbl., and lard lower, with a weak market for both articles. Cotton also declined from 5 to 7c per lb. on all qualities.

— Manufactures are developing on the Pacific slope. In Oregon City the edifice for an extensive woolen factory is going up.

— The velocity of sound decreases with the temperature. At 10° it is 1106 feet, and at zero it is only 1093 feet per second.

— The largest amount of money ever received in Philadelphia for a single dramatic performance, was on the occasion of the farewell appearance of Miss Lucille Western, in an afternoon entertainment at the Academy of Music. The play was "East Lynne," and the receipts were over $2000.

THE TORPEDO SHIP.—In powder-mill explosions, one of the most mysterious circumstances is the distance to which the fire will be communicated from one building to another. It is not uncommon for two or more distinct reports to be heard, the fire catching in one shop, and the flames an instant afterwards blowing up a second shop situated at the distance of several rods. So well is this understood by powder manufacturers that they resort to various precautions to prevent an explosion in one of their buildings from extending to the others, such as scattering their buildings at considerable distance apart, and planting groves of trees between them. The scientific American says, "It was doubtless the design to render available this power of gunpowder explosions, in blowing up the magazine ship at Fort Fisher. We should not have expected success, however, if the ship was to be fired at a distance of five hundred yards—more than a quarter of a mile. If the vessel could have been got within 100 yards, it is quite possible that the plan would have succeeded."

☞ Private advices per City of Baltimore mention that claims against the British Government to the amount of ten millions in gold, preferred by merchants and shipowners of America, were being prepared for filing in London, by Minister Adams, for ravages committed on the seas by pseudo rebel pirates who were really in British bottoms owned by the Lairds, Spence and other British merchants. Considerable excitement was occasioned by the knowledge of this fact in Government and legal circles in London.

The secesh in London were quite jubilant over the fact that the new pirates Viper and Rappahannock were upon the ocean, and predictions were freely made that American commerce had not yet received its severest blow. They evidently did not count on the capture of Wilmington releasing several of our best and fastest gunboats, who will now pay particular attention to such pirates as may have the temerity to flaunt the rebel flag at sea. It is stated that two of our fastest gunboats have been already ordered to sea, and are now on their way to Fayal to intercept these newly fledged but really dangerous pirates.

MAGNIFICENT PROJECT. — It is stated that a number of the capitalists of New York have in contemplation a plan to present two thousand millions of dollars to the government, and thus relieve the nation from indebtedness. The gift is proposed to be made in 200,000 shares of $10,000, of which A. T. Stewart will take fifty and Wm. B. Astor fifty and many others in proportion, and it is thought that a quarter of the amount might be raised in New York City. Could this project be realized it would compel the respect of foreign countries, and place the United States of America in the proudest position ever occupied by any nation of the earth.

☞ The reports that John C. Breckinridge will be the rebel Secretary of War are not likely to prove true, for the very good reason that that worthy has gone to his last account. Pretty good authority says he was shot dead about one week ago in the streets of Lynchburg by an outraged husband whose wife was led astray by Breckinridge. The facts in the case were so revolting that no arrest of the husband was made, though he offered himself up to the authorities,—says the Boston Herald.

☞ Martin Smith of Smithfield, R. I., jumped from the roof of Marlboro Hotel, Boston, on Sunday morning about 3 o'clock, breaking the sky light of the next building, and then jumped down from a five story position, upon the pavement below,—strange to say he lingered two hours; but then, death closed his sufferings. He was doubtless insane.

☞ A special dispatch from Washington Jan. 22, to the Boston Herald, says Secretary Seward yesterday informed a member of Congress that there was nothing in Mr. Blair's mission to Richmond, but that Mr. Lincoln was willing he should try again and be satisfied.

☞ Ex-Governor Dick Yates is elected Senator from Illinois, in place of Richardson. This increases the majority for the administration in the Senate; but, it is feared, leaves the number of drunkards in Congress the same as before. The whiskey interest in Chicago, compelled the Administration men to throw overboard their excellent representative, Arnold, and nominate and elect Wentworth ("long John") whom many of them never have liked.

— The Boston Recorder began in the last number of 1864, a series of editorials on Hymnology—looking to the formation of a complete series of Hymn books and music books to be the common property of four denominations.

— Illinois is having a mild open winter: the ground being bare and frozen — bad for wheat, but best for travel where no reliance on snow is possible.

— The meaning of the number on spools of thread is the number of hanks to the pound; each hank measuring 840 yards.

LOCAL.

☞ It is our painful duty to record the death of another of the sons of Portsmouth, who has just fallen in his country's service at the post of duty and danger;—viz. Acting Ensign ALFRED STOWE LAIGHTON, U. S. N., who was killed at the capture of Fort Fisher. He was the only son of Wm. F. Laighton, Esq., of this city; and his death makes a sore breach in a large circle of friends here; where this sacrifice on the altar of our country will be remembered and honored. His age was 28, and he was married but a few months ago.

☞ We understand that there is often seen in the town of Newington, an eagle who wears a bell attached to his neck. The bell has the sound of an old fashioned sleigh bell, and the bird generally roosts in company with others in the vicinity of Knight's Pines. Can any one tell us who "bell'd the cat?"

☞ Mrs. Elizabeth Marston, widow of Nathaniel Marston, living in this city with her son-in-law Mr. Asa L. Marden,—was so badly burned by fire from a kerosene lamp early Sunday morning, that she died on that day about noon. She was able to say that she came down stairs for water, with the lamp lighted; but how the fire took place she could not tell. Her age was 73.

☞ We understand that some gentlemen of this city, interested in music, are endeavoring to organize a Vocal Music Society, for practice of sacred and secular singing. Is there any good reason why it should not be done?

☞ It is easy enough to denounce theatres, cheap concerts, saloons, dance-halls, &c., or declaim against congregating on sidewalks; but will somebody please tell us what the young, especially those who have no homes, or none especially attractive, are to do with their evenings, or other spare time? Does anybody take the least pains to furnish any suitable place of public instruction, entertainment or amusement for the people? And is not somebody blameable in the matter? So long as there are always so many places of no benefit, to say the least, open to give warm welcome to all comers—ought not the cause of good morals, also to have some similar representatives?

ON THE SQUARE. — The "Square," a term for measuring advertisements, as used by printers, is a misnomer and a humbug. Formerly when coarse type was used in newspapers, a "square" signified just what it was, the actual square of the column's width. But with the introduction of smaller and smaller types, and the increase of papers of different widths of columns—the plan was adopted of calling the same number of words as had made a square in the large type, a square still; which in the multiplicity and variety of papers, makes all confusion and uncertain, so that a "square" really signifies nothing.

Latterly, the N. H. Printers' Convention adopted an inch, or 12 lines nonpareil type, as their square, which is an improvement; and the Government square has long been "300 ems" or so many words, which is all very well. Many papers, during the increase of all prices for a year or two, have reduced the size of their "square" from 16 to 12, and then to 8 lines — thus doubling their price without making any stir about it. But the term is a perplexing and foolish one, and we wish it might be abolished, and an inch substituted.

A QUERY.—The moon rises about an hour later each day. Why is that interval considerably less when it rises about midnight? For instance, Jaques' Philadelphia Almanac gives the rising of the moon on 1865, 17th 10.48; 18th 11.44—an interval of 56 minutes for one day; 20th, 0.41—an interval of 57 minutes for two days; 21st, 1.39, an interval of 58 minutes for one day; and so for any almanac for any month, and for either rising or setting. Is this so? We find we can never regulate a clock by the rising of the moon.

COOL. — For book-publishers to send Magazines and other cheap publications to country editors, in expectation of notices worth ten times as much as the books; and then forget to forward copies of any works really worth having, which they publish. That may be on the square, but really we can't see it in that light.

☞ Ticknor & Fields' new and excellent illustrated Magazine for boys and girls, "Our Young Folks," for February, is just out; and while especially attractive to youth, is not without interest to grown-up boys and girls.

☞ Wilcox & Co. of New York, are advertising the Frangipanni Toilet Powder, where they can find newspaper publishers green enough to do it for them; and agree to pay draft "at 10 days sight." But our agent found it impossible to get a "sight" at the firm (or infirm) proprietors; and a letter by mail elicited no reply. So we don't propose to let that advertisement cumber much of our space. But we see it in Boston and other papers — and wonder whether they will have their labor for their pains.

THE DAY IS BREAKING.

Men of thought, be up and doing,
Night and day;
Sow the seed, withdraw the curtain,
Clear the way!
Men of action, aid and cheer them,
As ye may!
There's a foam about to stream,
There's a light about to beam,
There's a warmth about to glow,
There's a flower about to blow,
There's a midnight blackness changing
Into gray!
Men of thought and action
Clear the way!

Once the welcome light has broken,
Who shall say
What the unimagined glories
Of the day!
What the evil that shall perish
In its ray!
Aid its dawning, tongue and pen,
Aid it, tongues of honest men,
Aid it paper, aid it type,—
Aid it, for the hour is ripe,
And our earnest must not slacken
Into play:—
Men of thought and action
Clear the way!

Lo! a cloud's about to vanish
From the day;
And a brazen wrong to crumble
Into clay;
Lo! the right's about to conquer,
Clear the way!
With the right shall many men
Enter smiling at the door,
With the giant wrong shall fade
Many others, great and small,
That for ages long have held us
For their prey.
Men of thought and action
Clear the way.

— The Scientific American says it is claimed that our telescopes are now perfect enough to discover any dwelling over 40 feet high on the moon.

—— The Herald mentions a fat pig at the Newburyport Market,—a Suffolk, nine months old, weighing 360 pounds, the clear pork on the shoulders measuring six and one half inches in thickness. It was raised by Charles Healey of Stratham.

— The funeral of J. S. Defrees and wife, killed by coal gas at Ballardvalle, took place on Friday. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Minor in Boston, who united them in marriage about a year ago. Now they were united in death, and both lay in one casket for burial.—Miss Martha Defrees, while attending the funeral of her brother and sister at School Street Church, had her pocket picked of a port-monnaie containing $22.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired result but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

CITY MARSHAL'S REPORT FOR 1864.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
Portsmouth, Dec. 31st, 1864.

To His Honor the Mayor, and Aldermen:

Gentlemen:—I would most respectfully submit the Annual Report of the Police Department for the year 1864.

The number of arrests from Jan. 1st to date is thirteen hundred and seventy-seven, (1377), for the following causes: Drunkenness 464, lodgings 486, truancy 3, deserters from the Reform School 4, adultery 4, fighting dogs 1, deserters from the House of Correction 13, night walkers 15, assaults 61, brawl and tumult 64, deserters from the navy 76, robbery 6, picking pockets 4, resisting officers 6, larceny 26, bastardy 2, obscene language 2, throwing stones 2, stealing children from parents 1, noisy shops 1, obtaining money under false pretences 1, vagrancy 11, enticing sailors to desert 1, breaking glass 3, breaking lanterns on Portsmouth Bridge 1, house breaking 6, violating Sunday Ordinance 6, committing nuisances 2, aiding desertion 1, deserters from the army 16, disorderly persons 2, keepers of disorderly houses 4, insane persons 4, deserting parents 12, fast driving 8, peddling without license 2, rescued from drowning 1, abducting minors from parents 2, suspicious persons 10, Sabbath breaking 6, keepers of houses of ill fame 2, robbing Post Office 1, store breaking 3, obstructing sidewalks 2, breaking carriages 1, obstructing streets 1, robbing gardens 3, insulting ladies on the street 1, cutting boat's painter 1, fornication 3, horse stealing 1, lost children 1. Total, 1377.

Two hundred and sixty of this number have been taken before the Police Court. One died in the Station House; thirty-two committed to the House of Correction; nine to the County Jail, and three to the Reform School. I have collected through the Police Court, in fines, costs, &c., and paid over to the City Treasurer, for which I have his receipts, eight hundred and fourteen dollars and fifty-three cents ($814.53).

And here I would most respectfully state that the duties of the Police Officers when properly attended to are arduous and very perplexing, at times requiring coolness and discretion, good judgment and firmness.—He is often called upon to act at a moment's notice, without time for reflection: if he hesitates or displays any lack of decision or courage, he is at once denounced as a coward; if on the other hand he acts rashly or imprudently, the denunciation comes equally as certain. Too much is expected by the public of Police Officers for the pay that they receive, but few offices in the gift of the City Government requiring such a combination of rare qualities as that of a Police Officer. I believe a radical reform is demanded in the Police Department. I would recommend an increase of salary, and then appoint none but those well qualified to perform the duties.

We have in our city one hundred and twenty drinking saloons beside thirty houses of ill-fame, and the number is on the increase, with a large number of disorderly persons of all kinds, who come here from almost every section of the country.

There are at the present time but three Police Officers, and as they have but fifty dollars per year, they have to attend to other business to gain a livelihood. If the City Government should see proper to increase their salary to six or eight hundred dollars, and then demand of them their whole time, I think the city would be better served than it now is. And then appoint a suitable number of Night Police to work with the Day Police, and then I think that the citizens will be satisfied with the change. I would most respectfully, in behalf of the Board of Police, acknowledge to the City Goverment our sincere thanks for the manner in which they have sustained our doings. Also to our most worthy Police Justice, Lory Odell, and his assistant, Marcellus Bufford, Esq. Most respectfully, your obedient servant, E. A. DRESSER,

City Marshal.

THE LYCEUM.—Dr. Stone's lecture drew about the average attendance of 750, despite the storm of last Tuesday evening. His theme of "England and America" was presented in his usual faultless and splendid oratory, and must have been sufficiently belligerent and bellicose to suit the most eagle-screaming Brother Jonathan. We find no fault with it, in itself—in fact we believe we can agree with all the arguments advanced; but we think the subject of the rebellion, and all that, rather trite topics to present at Lyceum, to an audience which reads the newspapers. Do, gentlemen lecturers, give us something else, a part of the time: let us occasionally have a glimpse at literature, art, science, history, or what-not—anything but eternal banging away at the one thread-bare theme, on which, all-important though it be, there is not much that is new to be said.

Judge Russell, of Boston, gives the 8th lecture, Tuesday evening of next week; and Readings by Miss Shaw of New Bedford, and a Lecture by Prof. Patterson of Dartmouth College, complete the course.

☞ Mr. Wm. Seavey's Lecture on Petrarch, is to be given at the Temple this Tuesday evening. For particulars see advertisement.

☞ It sometimes happens that true genius and enterprise is properly appreciated, but it is oftener the reverse of this. However, our friend Chandler, constructing engineer of the Portsmouth Navy Yard—one who has done much toward beautifying and otherwise improving that Yard—has been rewarded for his fidelity and shrewd management of the business of his department, by a liberal increase of salary, which of course isn't bad to take now-a-days, when it so completely damages a big salary to live. He hasn't invited us "in" yet, however.

☞ Rev. D. S. King, Special Agent of the National Freedmen's association, is now in this city, accompanied by three white slave children, (as pretty and interesting as one could wish) for the purpose of awakening the public interest in behalf of the suffering contrabands in the South, just set free by Sherman's army, and also those celebrated by the operations of the South Western Department. Money and clothing is very much needed, and an earnest appeal will be made to our citizens to do their part towards ameliorating their condition. We do not doubt that these appeals will be met with a liberal response on the part of a public distinguished for its generosity. Rev. Mr. King was present with the children at the Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, and just before the close of the services, a collection of $80 was taken. Exercises of a similar character were held in the Universalist church in the evening, where $80 were received.

THAT STEAMER.—We wonder where the iron steamer is, which the Dover and Boston folks told us was to run between this or that city and Boston. We never knew anything about her, nor pretended to. Mr. "M. R. Perkins" of Dover, we believe, is the agent; and the Boston Transcript said she was to run from Central wharf, there. Perhaps she is, but she don't seem to come to time—and it may be that the Alice Briggs is only the phantom ship which has so long floated in the diseased visions of certain parties, though we hope not.

P. S.—We have just been informed that the steamer above referred to, now lies at Dover Point.

☞ Lt. John E. Johnson formerly of Co. K., Fort Constitution, has been appointed A. A. Q. M. of the 1st Brigade Hardin's Div. 22d Army Corps.

— Capt. J. Albert Sanborn, of this city, commanding Co. E, 10th N. H. V., has been appointed Provost Marshal of the District of North Carolina, with headquarters at Newbern.

☞ It is stated that Gunner Eugene F. Mack has been ordered to duty at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

Carpenter J. W. Stimson, previously ordered to the Naval Academy, has since been placed on sick-leave.

☞ At the S. J. Court at Exeter, case No. 141, Chauncey Burton vs Levi Jewell, was tried on Monday. This is an appeal from the judgment of a Justice of the Peace, being upon an action of trespass for entering the land claimed as belonging to the pl'f, situate in N. Hampton. Plea not guilty, and title to the land claimed by deft.; question as to title here tried.

☞ The bad habit of boys coasting upon the sidewalks has become so common as to cause the city authorities to take stringent measures to prevent it; therefore any one found coasting on the public sidewalk, or on the street, hereafter, will be punished according to law.

Per Order.

GYMNASTICS.

It is designed to form a Class for Children and Youth in the New Gymnastics, for Wednesday Afternoons, at Union Hall, corner Market and Hanover Streets. And all the Children are invited to attend the first lesson, on Wednesday, the 25th inst., at 2 o'clock, free of Charge.

☞ The Evening Class, for Gentlemen and Ladies, is designed for Tuesday and Thursday Evenings. Names left at Mr. Foster's Bookstore.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it must eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never we solve if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. The Wholesale Agents are Wholesale Grocers.

There is no soap that will begin to compare with the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, and probably no other manufacturer begins to expend one-half as much money to make it worthy of the community, and the maker is richly deserving the patronage bestowed on him. It is a God-send to the world, and all who use it will agree with us that what we say is true. 52

WHAT IS A
FRENCH ROLL PAN?
IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.
It is simply a nicely made
IRON PAN,
Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very
QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.
For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.
IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to
ECONOMISE
in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and
PALATABLE BREAD:
"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."
By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

BAILEY'S
Spring Roll and Cog Wheel
WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.
WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.
We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.
To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unexcelled by any agency out of the city of Washington.

The numerous practices of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

The necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have issued, and that one is still pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made a sole report on applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No 38 Endicott street.

N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.

N. B.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distression in the process of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Rheumatic Affections, Humors, Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for pleasure or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Pimples, Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are some the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Catholicon, warranted the best preparation. Orders by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppressions, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. Invariably restored to the new mode of treatment, the most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt that greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours—9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M., as above, upon all difficult and delicate diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plate is made with a flange, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater connected, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

There is a new arrangement for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any Stove yet offered, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air ever comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed; this difficulty, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the fire, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney-top hottest part of your house.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order; thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

CALIFORNIA REDWOOD. — A correspondent of the Country Gentlemen gives some curious facts concerning the timber of the Golden State :

The redwood is only found in certain localities. At Cape Mendocino, you find immense forests, and around Humboldt Bay it grows to a very great size, and is in large forests. A lumberman from that region informs me that trees of fourteen to sixteen feet in diameter, and even eighteen feet, are not uncommon. But they leave the largest uncut, for want of machinery to handle and cut them. Trees of even ten or twelve feet, they usually cut high up by erecting a staging for this purpose.

After the timber is cut, it is then drawn to the water and floated to the mill; but there is so much water and sap in the first log that it cannot be floated, but at once sinks to the bottom; hence the first cut is left in the forests; and this seemed to me to be a wise provision of nature, for when fire gets into the forests, though it may destroy the upper part of the trees, yet the lower part has so much sap and vitality that it usually has power to resist the heat and flames, and throws out from its blackened stump, a new growth.

In color, the redwood is like our red cedar, and has a harsh, dry and brittle grain. It is more dry and brittle than our hemlock, taking easily the edge off from any plane or knife. It has the reputation of being very durable, but certainly the stumps that I saw in the valley, and the trees lying as they were cut, seemed decaying as fast as any of our northern forest timber.

I see any evidence of its extreme durability.

But it has one peculiarity, or I might say it has two. It is a principle laid down in all mechanics at the east, that wood or timber never shrinks endwise, or the length of its fibre, but always in width, the sap vessels contracting; but the red-wood of California shrinks endwise and not crosswise.—Though it is an exceeding sappy tree, more so, probably, than any other, yet its fibre contracts lengthwise, directly the reverse of all other wood. California has no tough timber fit for mechanical purposes, to answer the purpose of our oak and ash and hickory, and must import all such woods.

BE CAREFUL OF YOUR HEALTH.—"A man had better break a bone or even lose a limb, than shake his nervous system. Lord Coke requires only eight hours' application per day, for a student of the law, and Sir Matthew Hale thought six as much as he could bear; eight, he said, was too much."

A gentleman, not long since, in one of his rides in Southern Illinois, sought to make himself interesting to a good looking mother of a sweet baby, occupying the next seat in the car. After duly praising the baby, he remarked to the mother, "He is a real sucker, I suppose?" (meaning thereby a native of Illinois) "No, sir," said the lady blushing, "we had to raise him on the bottle." The gentleman resumed his reading, and has not bragged on any strange baby since.

— Mrs. Ann Misner, Superintendent of a Home for Friendless Girls in the city of New York, has obtained a verdict of $5000 against one Nicholas Langdon, the alleged keeper of a fashionable gambling house. Langdon called at the institution, it seems, and demanded to see some of the inmates. On being refused, he brutally assaulted the plaintiff, knocking her down, cutting, and otherwise maltreating her.

At a young ladies' seminary a few days since, during an examination in history, one of the most promising pupils was interrogated: "Mary, did Martin Luther die a natural death?" "No," was the prompt reply, "he was excommunicated by a bull."

— A new invention in France is said to be a pair of musical boots, which have been exhibited to the Emperor. At every step the pressure of the foot produces melody—it may be a waltz, a mazourka or an operatic air. This arrangement would be extremely convenient for a dancing master.

Money is nothing in itself; it is useful only when it departs from us.

LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

The Richmond Examiner of the 20th says refugees who reached Charleston on the 17th report that Sherman sent one corps to co-operate with Gen. Terry at Wilmington. It also says the loss of Fort Fisher was caused by Bragg failing to attack the rear of the Union force.

The supersedure of Hood by Dick Taylor is confirmed.

The Whig and Sentinel are out in extremely bitter articles against reunion.

The steamer S. R. Spaulding, from Fort Fisher 22d inst, reports that a number of our gunboats had gone up Cape Fear River, and were engaged in shelling the banks on both sides to dislodge the enemy.

Senator Wilson's new Conscription Bill meets the views of the Secretary of War.

Hon. L. T. Waters, a Democratic State Senator from Somerset county, Md., is about to be tried for acts of disloyalty in 1861. He took the oath of allegiance at the recent election. The case is of some importance, as in case of his conviction it will give the Republicans a majority in the body of which he is a member.

In Quebec, Jan. 23, in the opening debate in Parliament, the Government was sustained by a large majority, and the conduct of Southern refugees in Canada was strongly denounced. Determination was expressed to stop the abuse of asylum, and a commision was appointed to inquire into the cause of the failure of justice in reference to the release of the St. Albans raiders and misappropriation of money restored to them; also to inquire into the conduct of Justice Coursal and Chief of Police Lamothe. In the meantime the Government have suspended the Judge.

The Times Washington despatch says the Government has been assured the Canadian authorities have determined to remove all causes of dissatisfaction on the part of this country, growing out of recent occurrences. Judge Coursal will be removed. This will probably lead to a speedy abrogation of the passport system.

The Times' Washington despatch says it is generaly understood now that Blair did not go in any sense as a representative of the Government to Richmond, and that he is not authorized to encourage the hope that overtures for peace will be made or accepted, which look, however remotely, toward a division of the Union, nor on any other terms. The popular sentiment has overrated the desire of the rebel government for peace. When their armies are destroyed they will make peace. Mr. Blair has not yet returned.

By steamer Atlanta, at New York from Mobile, it is reported that a formidable expedition had left Forts Morgan and Gaines and gone up the East Pascagoula river to take a position in the rear of Mobile, placing the city partly at the mercy of our troops. The river was found navigable, and its occupation cannot fail to render the city an easy capture. Deserters report there is much dissatisfaction with the rebel government in Mobile.

Gen. Dix has ordered the suppression of the "personal notices" in the New York News, which are made the medium of communication between rebels South and North.

The Richmond papers represent Hood's army as suffering intensely until they reached a more wealthy district, when they fared better. It is thought he may be obliged to fall back beyond Coriath until the roads are repaired to that place. The Sentinel calls for a new outburst of enthusiasm and patriotic devotion. It says it would be delightful and inspiring.

Five rebel iron-clads — the Richmond Squadron—came down the James River on Tuesday morning, at 2 o'clock, to destroy our depots and works at City Point. A battle quickly ensued between them and our nearest battery or fort, in which one of the rams was destroyed. Two others were so badly damaged by shot and shell as to seek safety in flight back to Richmond, with the remaining sound ones.

The pirate Shenandoah is reported to have destroyed several American vessels off the coast of Brazil recently.

— A fire was raging in Buffalo Wednesday which destroyed over half a million dollars worth of property.

☞ All Government Officers are instructed to receive all U. S. notes for public dues, no matter how badly defaced or torn they may be, provided they are genuine, and not one one twentieth is missing, or over one tenth of the fractional currency. When more than this proportion is missing, they will be redeemed at U. S. Treasury at Washington, according to their relative value.

— Officers from City Point state that deserters come in at the rate of eighty per day. In the rebel Gen. McCausland's division, non-commissioned officers are put on picket duty to prevent desertion.

BOSTON, Jan 23d.

After a week of cold weather, with splendid sleighing, we are having our January thaw, which bids fair to put an end to the music of the sleigh bells in less than 24 hours. The various lines of horse railroads have promptly opened their tracks, except those that run through Washington and Tremont streets, where the city will not allow the snow disturbed since the storm of Tuesday last. The first heavy snow storm of the season cost the Metropolitan Company $15,000 the first week, about $7000 ot which was expended in clearing the tracks. The company have recently placed on their line a number of new patterned coaches, that are about half car and half omnibus, and are much more convenient and pleasant than the old "busses."

The funeral of Hon. Edward Everett has been the principal event of interest in this city the past week. Your readers are this will have read full accounts of the honors paid to his memory. During the hours of the services the stores were closed and all business suspended. The streets along the route of the procession were perfectly impassable.

Midshipman Louis B. Frost, of Chelsea, formerly of Portsmouth, is now at his home on furlough. He has been stationed at the school at Newport, R. I., this winter. He was a protege of Hon. Edward Everett, who procured him his furlough but a few days before his decease, Mr. Frost arriving home to find his illustrious patron cold in death. Just previous to his decease he had commenced a correspondence to have our gallant young townsman appointed to a scholarship in the famous Polytecnic School at Paris. MANNING.

It will be seen that the majorities in the three Districts are nearly alike, 104 votes being the amount of the difference between them, on the whole vote, and 48 votes the difference in the Soldiers' votes.—Monitor.

—— The Statesman mentions the fact that several new buildings in Boston are in course of construction with fronts of Concord granite, and says: "This material is now in much favor, and the prospect is that Rattlesnake Hill will be drawn upon for heavy discounts. But it can answer them. The head-workman at the quarry says one thousand workmen employed one thousand years would not touch bottom."

GOLD, to the amount of $700,000, went out from New York on Wednesday in steamer China, for Liverpool. It opened in the morning at 207, but fell in an hour to 204 1-2, much to the disappointment of some speculators.

The produce markets were but slightly affected by the rise in gold, and opened flat with a downward tendency. Sales of new pork were made in New York at $37 per barrel.

The price of cotton fell from twoto eight cents per pound on the different qualities, good middling being quoted at 85 to 88 cents. The decline since the 4th of the present month has been thirty-seven cents per pound for this quality.

THE GOLD MARKET rallied Tuesday afternoon and the "bulls" had some chance of realizing a golden calf. The quotation in New York at 5 o'clock was 203 1-2; in Boston, 204.

— When Mr. Blair entered Jeff. Davis's study, on his first visit to Richmond, the rebel chief did not at first recognize him. Davis was dressed in coarse gray homespun and looked more like a poor clerk than a President.

— It is common to speak of those whom a flirt jilted as her victims. This is a grave error. Her real victim is the man whom she accepts. This reminds us of a simile: "A coquette is a rose from whom every lover plucks a leaf; the thorn remains for the future husband."

BROOKS AND BUTLER.—In the U. S. House of Representatives, Jan. 24, the question of privilege, raised by Mr. Brooks of New York, was considered.

Mr. Boutwell defended Gen. Butler, causing the report of the Commission to be read, showing the firm of Smith & Co., from whom the gold was taken, were active bitter and unrepenting rebels; who refused to take the oath of allegiance, while Butler was in command of New Orleans. It appeared from Butler's letters that he had used the money to pay off the troops, who had been long without funds. The money was subsequently repaid to him, and he is ready to hand it over to the War Department, provided he could be released from all claims of Smith.

Mr. Brooks responded, denying any sympath with secessionists. He referred to the fact of Gen. Butler voting many times in the Charleston Convention for Jeff. Davis, and said if Butler had been the paid agent of the rebels he would not have been more efficient in disrupting the Democratic party, and thus bringing about the rebellion; that as the name of Warren Hastings was stigmatized as a robber in India, so the name of Butler would bear the association. The reason why the Secretary of War would not receive the gold was because it was illegally taken:—neither would the Treasury Department undertake to indemnify Butler. Nearly three years have passed, but still Butler retains possession of the money.

After further debate, the question of privilege was withdrawn; as Mr. Brooks brought it in for the sole purpose of spitting out his spite against Butler, which nobody doubts. Brooks' denial of sympathy with secessionists is both gratuitous and useless. His status, as the chosen representative of Gov. Seymour's peculiar constituents in New York City, is well understood over the country. Charleston was illuminated by the rebels for joy, when he and Seymour were elected together! That can't be rubbed out, whatever becomes of Butler.

The month of January has already passed, and we cannot point out one single measure which Congress has passed for the increase of the army, either in numbers or organization.

The Army Organization bill has not yet passed, and if delayed much longer its execution will take place at the opening of active operations, and the new organization will not have the benefit of a knowledge of their new officers. Fisher affording a base for operations in North Carolina, Hood's army defeated in the West, and the army of Northern Virginia as the country's only hope and reliance, it is expected that Congress would have, ere this, taken measures for the next campaign. But instead of war measures, the time has been wasted in pursuing the ignis fatuus of peace.

The Examiner of Saturday also says: "Once more it is time to have done with this peace impostare, which Congress persists in occupying itself about. Nay, if Congress do not stop it at once, and put down or brush away all who presume to take up the public time with any such trash, then that Congress itself will have to be put down or brushed away. Yes, superseded by a convention of the Confederate States."

☞ Admiral Porter says, date of Jan. 17, off Fort Fisher:

After I got three of the gunboats inside of the bar and under the Mound, the rebels prepared to evacuate Fort Caswell. Two steamers near the fort, which, I think were the Tallahassee and Chickamauga, were set on fire and blown up, after the rebels had set fire to the fort. That blew up last night, with a heavy explosion, followed by some minor ones. The barracks were apparently in flames all night, and some little works between here and Caswell blown up. I have sent vessels to see what has been done, and shall be governed accordingly. I think they are burning up everything in Wilmington, and are getting away as fast as they can.

☞ There is a story current about Green, the Malden murderer, to the effect that previous to her marriage, Mrs. Green was engaged to a gentleman, and that Green intercepted the letters between them while acting postmaster, and through deception to both, broke the engagement and offered himself. The gehtleman went to California on account of the supposed perfidy of the lady. Since his return he has learned the facts of the case, and recent developements show that Green was no novice in crime when he committed the murder.

☞ Sambo, Cuffee, Cæsar, Pompey, and the names of ancient worthies and unworthies, are played out as negro appellatives. Abraham is the popular name now, as will be seen by the following experience of a lady visitor at Norfolk:

At the contraband camp she became surrounded by a number of mothers with their babies; and placing her hand upon a little woolly head said, "what a fine little boy — what is his name?" "Abraham!" replied the mother emphatically. 'And what is this bright eyed little fellow named?' "Abraham!" was the proud response. Taking the hand of another who was trying to walk, she put the same query, and again the favorite "Abraham!" burst upon her ear; and in going around the circle she found no less than nine ebony Abrahams.

— At a fashionable dinner eat slowly — as a matter of course.

— The Armstrong gun which was captured at Fort Fisher was the one which was presented by the manufacturer, Sir Wm. Armstrong, to Jeff. Davis. A soldier describing it says it "is by all odds the handsomest gun I ever saw, being entirely of twist wrought iron, and mounted on a magnificent solid mahogany carriage."

— About thirty substitutes escaped from camp at Augusta on Saturday, a part of whom were recovered and taken back. They were presented at the Provost Marshal's office by a broker named J. F. Sullivan, who immediately left town after their escape was effected, but he was caught and brought back.

— The scandalous divorce case in New York revealed that Mrs. Millspaugh did not love her husband because, although he dressed well, he was slovenly, never would wear kid gloves, and always had a red nose. It was the red nose that estranged her affections. That was the domestic fire-brand.

— Mr. Deshier, treasurer of the Sherman testimonial fund, in a note to the State Journal, says the first contribution (after Gen. Grant's) was made by a widow lady, who, as she presented her $25, remarked, that "as a friend and neighbor, she was present at the birth of Tecumseh Sherman, and put upon him his first clothes."

— As Beecher was great in his praise of the apple, some of his friends gave him on New Year's Day an apple pie two and a half feet in diameter.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases OR BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

HALE'S

Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these free other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This has been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

Local.

[Communication.]

☞ In Tuesday morning's issue we find a brief article relative to the neglect, on the part of somebody, to provide suitable entertainments for the many who lounge about our sidewalks, or frequent the "theatre, Cheap Concerts, Saloons, dance-halls, &c.," which are open to them, to which they are invited, and by some means or other attracted. It is asked, "what are the young to do who have no homes, or none especially attractive, with their spare time?" Again it is asked, "does anybody take the least pains to furnish any suitable place of public instruction, entertainment or amusement? And is not somebody blameable in this matter?"

The writer of the article refered to, and the readers of the Chronicle generally, should know that there are some, who do feel an interest in this matter of having something else here besides "theatres, Cheap Concerts, Saloons, dance-halls, &c. open for the young of our city. The Sons of Temperance desired to have temperance meetings once a week during the present winter. The plan was to have the different clergymen of the City, deliver each a lecture in his own church on alternate Sabbath evenings, and in the Temple, on alternate Monday evenings, have public meetings, at which, instead of set lectures, there were to be addresses delivered by prominent citizens among ourselves, who could be enlisted in the good work. It was felt that meetings thus held must exert a beneficial influence upon the Community. Every Clergyman was ready to enter into the proposed plan, and, as the public knows, the Sablath evening lectures have been delivered, and will be, until each has taken his turn. But the Monday evening meetings where are they? We all felt that such meetings as were proposed being held, would be much more effectual for good, than even the Sabbath evening lectures themselves. A committee from the Sons had an interview with the Agent of the Temple, told him what was proposed, and were informed that the Temple could be had without doubt, whenever,—after about the last of November, it should be deemed advisable to begin the proposed meetings.

About the first of December the Agent was again called upon by the Committee, prepared to say just when it was wished to commence, and for what alternate Monday evenings, the Sons would engage the Temple. The answer from the agent was, that the Temple was let to a theatrical company until the first of January; and in no way could it be let to the friends of temperance. The Committee tried hard to get it for one Monday evening in December, but no, the Theatre was evidently much more needed than temperance meetings could possibly be in our goodly city. Theatre going and theatre making must be fostered and cherished here, even though Intemperance should glut itself upon the fairest fames and the brightest names in all our community. Therefore the Theatre went on, while the temperance movement was obliged to go under, because the Temple is the only place at all adapted to theatres, temperance meetings, and such like. EVEN SO.

☞ Several distinguished gentlemen visited the Girls' High School, on Tuesday: President Smith of Dartmouth College, ex-Gov. Goodwin, Rev. Messrs. DeNormandie and Adams, Dr. R. O. Treadwell, Hons. Horton D. Walker and John E. Rider, and Horace Webster, esq. They remained nearly two hours,—and the School was addressed by the Messrs. Smith and Goodwin in very appropriate remarks on the influence of women—and the importance of right culture of the physical, mental, moral and spiritual faculties;—the whole was replete with eloquent sentiment and sound practical wisdom. It was a rare treat, which the young ladies and their teachers no doubt highly appreciated.

They also visited the the Boys' School.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for February, has a fine engraving of Sabbath Eve,—a family scene; elegant cottage house, and many other embelishments.

THE REASON WHY?—The N. H. Patriot says:

Many papers assume that Mr. Foster's resolutions were rejected by the State Convention because they endorsed and re-affirmed the Kentucky and Virginia resolutions of 1798. This idea is ridiculous. * * * They rejected Foster's resolutions because they did not deem it necessary to repeat and reiterate, annually and semi-annually, their adherence to their often declared and well-known principles, and because it was feared that they might be liable to misconstruction.

This latter suggestion covers the whole ground, and uncovers the whole plot. The men who rejected those resolutions knew they could not hope to carry the election by going before the people on a platform so favorable to the rebels, and so certain to be construed in that way! Therefore they dissembled. They favor the "institution" and State Sovereignty, just as really as the resolutions do;—but they had less courage or less honesty than the other faction, to avow it. That's all the difference between them. U. T.

☞ The bad habit of boys coasting upon the sidewalks has become so common as to cause the city authorities to take stringent measures to prevent it; therefore any one found coasting on the public sidewalk, or on the street, hereafter, will be punished according to law. Per Order.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

There is no soap that will begin to compare with the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, and probably no other manufacturer begins to expend one-half as much money to make it worthy of the community, and the maker is richly deserving the patronage bestowed on him. It is a God-send to the world, and all who use it will agree with us that what we say is true. 52

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it must eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the United Petroleum Farms ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Allegheny River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,700 daily, or $622,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present subscribers $2,275,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $33,000 per day, or $11,945,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.
Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Forepaugh, and Redfield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Allegheny River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

WHAT IS A

FRENCH ROLL PAN?

IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.

It is simply a nicely made

IRON PAN,

Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very

QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.

For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.

IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to

ECONOMISE

in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and

PALATABLE BREAD:

"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."

By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

BAILEY'S

Spring Roll and Cog Wheel

WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.

WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.

We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.

To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

TOO EARLY LOST.

BY O. W. B. PEABODY.

Too lovely and too early lost!
My memory clings to thee,
For thou wast once my guiding star
Amid the treacherous sea;
But doubly cold and cheerless now,
The wave too dark before,
Since every beacon-light is quenched
Along the midnight shore

I saw thee first, when hope arose
On youth's triumphant wing,
And thou wast lovelier than the light
Of early dawning spring;
Who then could dream that health and joy
Would e'er desert the brow,
So bright with varying lustre once,
So chill and changeless now.

That brow! how proudly o'er it then
Thy kingly beauty hung,
When wit, or eloquence, or mirth
Came burning from the tongue:
Or when upon that glowing cheek
The kindling smile was spread,
Or tears, to thine own woes denied,
For others' griefs were shed.

Thy mind! it ever was the home
Of high and holy thought;
Thy life, an emblem of pure thoughts
In purest sample taught;
When blended in thine eye of light,
As from a royal throne,
Kindness and peace and virtue there
In mingled radiance shown.

One evening, when the autumn dew
Upon the hills was shed,
And Hesperus, far down the west
His starry host had led,—
Thou saidst, how sadly and how soft,
To that prophetic eye
Visions of peace and decline
And easy death were nigh.

It was a voice from the other worlds,
That none beside might hear,
Like the night breeze's plaintive lyre,
Breathed faintly on the ear;
It was the warning kindly given,
By some blessed spirits sent
From their bright paradise above,
To call a sister home.

How sadly on my spirit then
That faint warning fell!
But oh, the dark reality
Another voice may tell;
The quick decline—the parting sigh—
The slowly-moving bier—
The lifted sod—the sculptured stone—
The unavailing tear.

The amaranth flowers that bloom in heaven
Entwine thy temples now,—
The crown of glory, which God gives
To those who shadows of night,
The storm is rolling on.
Alas! how dim that burning storm
The fainting spirit brews,
When they, the lovely and the lost,
Are gone to early graves

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

Them, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

NEWTON, MASS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability have I seen in his behalf, that I would all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

EXE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWEET'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. They can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Sweet's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed the good effect produced by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWEIT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWEET: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, what my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for nearly two months without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Sweet's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEET, No. 1 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mayzs

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

These is a new style and very superior broiler and dro-boxes combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin water-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the lungs are not to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious: The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend; and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This advantage does away with the use of number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Greene, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

THE LOVERS OF CHESS.—In a work of fiction which appeared towards the close of the last century, occurs the following passage:

"It is singular that men find amusement in intense thinking in games, although it appears very irksome on most other occasions. But it is your speculative geniuses chiefly that delight in thoughtful games. The vulgar, who are accustomed to bodily labor, in like manner delight in athletic exercises. It would seem at first sight that the laboring man, by way of varying the scene, would sit down to some game that required thinking, and the sedentary professor would be forward to exercise his outward man, and revel in all the gambols of animal nature; but such is the power of omnipotent and everlasting habit, that smiths, carpenters, and shoemakers are seen in crowds playing at cricket, while gentlemen of education and fortune, forgetful of their wives and children, and the very times appointed for bodily refreshment, sit poring over a chess-board."

Ethan Allen was once sued upon a promissory note for sixty pounds, and as it was not convenient for him to meet a judgement, he employed a lawyer to procure a continuance. As the readiest means of doing this, the lawyer determined to deny the signature. The attesting witness lived in Boston, and the impossibility of procuring him would make a continuance necessary. When the case was called, Allen happened to be present, and to his astonishment, he heard the lawyer gravely deny the signature of the note. With long strides he made his way through the crowd, and confronting the amazed limb of the law, rebuked him in a voice of thunder—"Mr.——, I did not hire you to come here and lie. That is a true note, I signed it, I'll swear to it, and I'll pay it. I want no shuffling, but I want time. What I employed you for, was to get the business put over to the next Court, not to come here and lie, and juggle about it." The counsel for the plaintiff was so impressed with the stern honesty of the old patriot, that he readily consented to a continuance.

The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. YOUNG MEN.
Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their health and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 23d has the following:

There was a report yesterday that Gen. Price had captured Fort Smith, Arkansas, with the garrison of 2000 men. The report was not confirmed by official news.

We have been unable to learn Mr. Seddon's successor, though several prominent gentlemen are spoken of as likely to be appointed, among them Gen. B. Bragg. It is understood that Seddon was induced to resign by the action of the Virginia Congressional delegation.

The Richmond Whig has the following:

Private advices from New Orleans to the 4th, say preparations were making for an expedition of 12,000 men to Pascagoula.

500 Confederate prisoners arrived at Richmond, Saturday night, on our flag of truce boat. By the some boat F. P. Blair returned to Richmond. Nothing has transpired as to the object of his visit, but of course it is in reference to peace negotiations and this has grown out of his former visit. He is the guest of Captain Hatch.

The blockade runner Owl succeeded in reaching Fort Caswell the night it was evacuated, and immediately returned to Bermuda, arriving on the 21st, with news of the capture of Fort Fisher, and stopping the Maude, Campbell, Old Dominion, Dee and Virginia—all ready to sail. The Charlotte and Stag sailed for Wilmington that day. The Rattlesnake, Chamelion and Snag sailed between the 13th and 20th.

The N. Y. Times's special Washington dispatch says the Richmond papers of Monday substantially confess the evacuation of Wilmington, and that Gen. Terry is now in possession of the city.

The N. Y. Herald's special Washington dispatch says the city is filled with peace rumors. One says a member of Jeff. Davis's cabinet had made a direct proposition to or inquiry of Mr. Blair, while he was in Richmond, if the rebel Government was willing to give up the contest would the United States forego emancipation, confiscation, &c., and permit them to dispose of their cotton and leave for Mexico, taking with them their soldiers; if that were consented to, they would bind themselves to drive Maximilian out of that country, and, if necessary, annex it to the United States. Mr. Blair replied that the North would not, in any contingency, abandon emancipation, but would be merciful as to confiscation.

A City Point correspondent telegraphs that the idea at headquarters, concerning the rebel iron-clad demonstration on the James, was to create an excitement in order to cover the evacuation of Richmond.

There were four rebel iron-clads engaged in the attack, of which one was entirely destroyed and another disabled. The other two were aground, and were fired into direct by our batteries, each shot from Fort Parsons striking them fairly.

Late Texas refugees represent that the people of that State are apprehensive of an attack on the coast, and promise a determined resistance.

Gen. Sanborn, commanding the district of Southwest Missouri, has banished 48 families and 100 other men and women to a distance of 20 miles outside of his district, for feeding and harboring guerillas and bushwhackers. These people are to leave the district by the 20th of February on penalty of arrest and punishment.

The Augusta Constitutionalist of the 17th says that city is filled with fugitives from South Carolina. It would appear that a panic had seized upon the people of that State on the approach of the Union army, and that they are ready to leave everything to save their lives.

A private letter says the proposition of the rebels to make St. Marks, Florida, a blockade-running port will not succeed, as Lieutenant Rockwell has three vessels there able to put a stop to such operations.

The Nashville correspondent of the Chicago Tribune states, on information derived from the South, that the rebel army in the seaboard States three weeks since was about as follows: At Richmond, 40,000; in Southwestern Virginia, 6000; in Shenandoah valley, 6000; in North Carolina, 8000; South Carolina, 6000. Total, 66,000—infantry 56,000, cavalry 10,000. Of the infantry, 20,000 are now at Richmond, and 35,000 have gone to meet Sherman.

About 70 blockading vessels have been relieved by the capture of Fort Fisher, and the blockade of other points will in consequence be strengthened.

— The Boston Herald's Washington correspondent states that the House Naval Committee have agreed to report a bill for the purchase of land adjoining the Charlestown Navy Yard, and appropriating $75,000 for the proposed enlargement of the yard.

— Hezekiah Payne, a noted Kentucky rebel, was arrested at Detroit a few day ago, and sewed up in the lining of his overcoat were discovered $46 in bills of the St. Albans (Vt.) banks. He was probably one of the raiders.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Brig. Gen. Ames has forwarded his report of the operations of the army at Fort Fisher, in which he pays a high compliment to the skill and valor of every officer and man of the Second division of the 24th Army Corps. He speaks of the late Col. Bell of the 4th New Hampshire as an able and efficient officer, who will not be easily replaced. Among the regimental commanders to whom credit is due for the heroic conduct of their men is Capt. J. H. Roberts, also of the 4th N. H., and Capt. G. W. Hoskins of the same regiment. The following are the killed, wounded and missing of the 4th regiment:

Killed—Col. L. Bell.

Wounded—Sergeants S. H. Measler, C. H. Plummer, E. S. Willey, C. Marden, J. Bartlett; Corporals N. C. Wiggin, A. D. Webster, J. McCarthy, F. Saunders; Privates L. Bean, T. Kerr, D. G. Allen, J. C. Hall, J. M. Dickey, J. C. Brackett, G. Randall, C. Williams; Corp. H. B. Savoy, F. W. Saunders, A. Winthrop, C. Fisher, J. Collins, E. Sturgeon, J. Falon, M. Falon.

Missing—Corp. J. Gerry, J. Gardiner.

—— Rev. Cyrus P. Osborne of Exeter, who is supplying the pulpit of the Congregational Church at Shelburne Falls for this winter, has received a unanimous call from the Church and society to become their pastor.

—— Judge Perley of Concord has been re-appointed Commissioner on the part of New Hampshire, for the Soldiers' National Cemetery at Gettysburgh, to serve for three years from the 1st of January, 1865.

—— The old and tattered battle flag of the 5th N. H. Infantry is on exibition at Concord, together with the magnificent new colors of the 7th and 18th.

—— Died, in Hampton, Va., Nov. 21, from wounds received in battle in front of Richmond, Dec. 27, WILMOT JAY UPHAM, a late member of Co. F, 7th N. H. Vols., in the 21st year of his age. His remains were brought to his home in Salmon Falls, N. H., and interred in Eliot, Me. Thus has another brave soldier fallen in defence of his beloved country.

—— Lieut. Col. R. E. Cross, of the 5th N. H. regiment, who was recently dismissed the service, will probably be restored to his command at an early day.

— Mr. Spence of Liverpool, comes forward again in the London Times to put a good face on the rebel situation. Sheman's march, he says, only aroused the people of Georgia. Supposing Savannah is captured, how many years will it take to conquer the South at the rate of one city per annum? The South are going to bring their negroes into the field, and the Federal finances must give out sometime. Such is the amount of Spence's consolation.

— The rebellion may now be said to be on its last leg. One Foote has left it.

FROM MEXICO.—Letters from Mazatlan to the 14th, announce the arrival there of Captain Beauregard, brother of the rebel Beauregard, in the capacity of private secretary to Mr. Gwinn, formerly U. S. Senator from this State. Captian Beauregard reports that Gwinn has been created a Duke by the would-be Emperor Maximilian of Mexico, and that Sonora, Sinaloa, Chihuhua, Durango, and Lower California had been ceded to the Emperor Napoleon by the Mexican Government in payment for troops furnished by the French Government to subjugate Mexico, and that Gwinn had been appointed Viceroy over these States, and will soon enter upon the duties of this office. This story is not believed further than that Gwinn has obtained certain grants of land, and is authorized to encourage emigration from the rebel States.

The Imperial forces appear to be gradually acquiring possession of the country. Much feeling exists against the Americans on the part of the Imperialists, and at Mazatlan they are harshly spoken of by the Imperial organ. Many Americans, in consequence of their treatment, are returning to California, who intended to stay in Mexico.

FROM HAVANA AND MEXICO.—By arrivals at New York we have Havana dates to the 21st. Reports had been received from Mexico to the effect that Gen. D'Herbal had made a reconnoisance to Oaxaca, where he was fired on, when he fell back to Etla, to organize an attack on the place, which was to be made on the 27th. It is said that Porfiorio Diaz has a force of 8000 men and 65 pieces of artillery, but it was believed in Havana that his force was double this, and is better provided than any of the other Liberal armies. The Church party is now strongly opposed to the Empire. The old mint at Oaxaca is working night and day coining the gold and silver brought there by the churches to aid Diaz.

The new Consul-General of the Mexican Empire for the Island of Cuba has demanded the archives of the Consulate of the old consul, who refuses to deliver them up, insisting that his government is still in existence.

The steamer Lavinia, formerly the U. S. steamer Harriet Lane, was destroyed by fire at Havana on the 18th. The fire is said to have been the work of one of the crew, who was deprived of his pay.

The Blockade runner Zephine from Galveston, arrived at Havana on the 14th, with 1400 bales of cotton.

A report was received at Havana from Key West that the blockade runner Denbigh, one of the most successful of the fleet, had been captured and taken into that port.

The Col. Lamb, a very fast iron steamer, left Havana on the 21st. The general report was that she was to become a rebel pirate. She was reported to have 140 men aboard, though registered as passengers, and was said to have cannon in her hold.

☞ The Smithsonian Institute at Washington, was not totally destroyed: but the lecture room, philosophical instrument apartment, and most of the valuable instruments, the offices in the towers, and the originals of private records and archives of the Institute were destroyed. The top of the principal tower and several battlements fell.

The fire was mostly confined to the main building and above the fourth story, the latter containing the museum, which was damaged more by water than by fire. The wings and corridors were not much injured. The large library in the west wing was not damaged. The furniture of Prof. Henry with other property was injured by its hasty removal.

— Gold, Thursday, 205 1-2.

— The health of Major General John E. Wool, United States Army (retired), is said to be fast failing.

— Twenty new Petroleum companies, represent an aggregate capital of twelve millions of dollars, sprang into existence last week. Total number of companies organized, 374; amount of capital, two hundred and forty-seven millions.

— It appears from recent statistics that England has as many paupers as electors.

A FAMISHED TURTLE.—A few days since complaint was made to the Selectmen of Belchertown, that a sluiceway about half a mile east of the centre was stopped up, and that after a rain the water overflowed the road. Accordingly a surveyor was sent to clean out the channel and repair the bridge. A large flat stone was removed, and the workmen put their bar under what they supposed to be another stone, but it clung to the earth. Another man standing by took hold of the bar, and by the utmost exertion of both it gave way, when to their surprise they found it was a mud turtle measuring three feet in length, fourteen inches in width and weighing thirty-one pounds. He was taken to the poor-house, and as he gave evidence of long abstinence, a pail of swill was given him, which was eagerly devoured. He has since been fed regularly and abundantly, and gains rapidly in flesh. His shell had grown in and around hollow and rough places of the stone, and it is conjectured that his turtleship must have been there under that stone from five to ten years, all the time without food. Perhaps some of the naturalists in the vicinity can solve the question—how long can a turtle live without food?—Springfield Union.

— Mr. S. Drake, an actor in Cincinnati, was made heir by his grandfather to an almost fabulous number of worthless Virginia acres, which have lain unattended ever since—rather an incumbrance than otherwise. Saturday he received a letter from a prospecting company, who have found oil on his premises, offering him the snug little sum of $270,000 cash for his property.

— It is stated that in the late memorable conflict at Fort Fisher, the agents of the United States Sanitary Commission effected a landing on the day of the battle, and were on the hospital ground with ample supplies several hours before the wounded arrived.

"Call and see me," said Quilp to an acquaintance the other day; "latch-string is always outside, and if I'm not at home it's all the same; go right into the parlor, where you'll find the fire—that never goes out."—Post.

— The Smithsonian Institute, at Washington, was totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday afternoon.

THE SECOND EXPEDITION of Admiral Porter was piloted by Joseph Neff, of Michigan. Mr. Neff formerly carried on the commission business at Wilmington, and when the war broke out was unable to leave on account of the large business he was doing there. Although greatly against his will, he remained, and by the most cunning artifices succeeded in evading the conscription, and escaped on a blockade-runner and came home. During the time he remained in Dixie, he became thoroughly conversant with the nature of the defences of Wilmington, including Forts Fisher, Johnson and Caswell. He is also well acquainted with every foot of territory from the above forts to the city of Wilmington. That his information proved correct, the success of the engagement abundantly testifies.

☞ A Vienna paper states that as soon as the Russian Government became acquainted with the nature of the Pope's encyclical letter, a communication was made to France that Russia would support the French Government in any steps, without exception, which might be taken against the pretensions of the Papacy.

The Pope's letter is said to have been received with great joy in Spain — by the priest party from approval of its contents, by many others who hail it as a sign of Papal decrepitude which will result in the liberation of Spain from the spiritual bondage in which she has so long been held.

☞ Three dollar bills on the "Lincoln County Bank," of Wiscasset are in circulation. There is no such Bank.

☞ Butter is accumulating in New York city, there being no shipping demand to keep down the stock.

— The fire at Buffalo, Jan. 26, destroyed about thirty buildings, and a large amount of moveable property. The weather was cold, and the wind blew a gale.

— By Senator Wilson's new conscription bill, principals are made responsible for the desertion of substitutes. Deserters forfeit the rights of citizenship.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it.

Please inclose a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself.

PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the United Petroleum Farms ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Allegheny River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,700 daily, or $42,500 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,375,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $33,000 per day, or $14,445,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Porcupine, and Redfield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Allegheny River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, and is PER SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $6000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above. And in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the soothing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the virtue of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these few other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

☞ By order of the Navy Department, the Naval Rendezvous has been removed from this city to Kittery Foreside. Lieut. Keene is still in charge. We wonder if our Maine friends wouldn't like to move the Custom House over to their side? The new arrangement will not accommodate any body half as well as before, but the Maine people are great sticklers for appearances, and don't like to rendezvous in New Hampshire.

☞ Maj. Geo. Frank Towle, of this city, who has been serving on Gen. Terry's staff as Adj. Asst. Inspector General, is reported as bearing dispatches during the attack on Fort Fisher, "and almost constantly under fire, but not hit;" and as "deserving mention for the conspicuous and distinguished bravery evinced."

— Lieut. Wm. A. Haven of this city is stationed near Norfolk, Va., where Gen. Benham seems to appreciate his ability as a civil engineer by a constant requisition of his labors in that capacity.

☞ The Portsmouth Navy Yard workmen have given $3931 to the Christian Commission.

☞ We observe that the Ballot, like many other prints "about this time," is filled with an endless advertisement for the mails. We think our old friend the bachelor editor of that paper, would do still better by advertising for a female.

☞ Mr. John S. Harvey of this city, after visiting New York and making thorough personal examination of the matter, has decided to accept the agency of two of the most prominent Petroleum Companies. So ye who have any money to invest, and who want to "strike ile" at once, see to it that you know what he advertises, at least.

☞ Mr. Wm. Seavey's lecture on Petrarch the Italian poet, at the Temple Tuesday evening, was a very pleasantly written and well delivered essay, but for its unfortunate length—evincing considerable reading and resource, and thorough study of the subject. The audience was not large, but intelligent and appreciative, and sat out their two full hours in a cold house, with a fortitude showing great respect for the speaker or his subject.—With a liberal pruning by the author, this lecture would be very presentable and acceptable any where, and is worthy frequent repetition.

☞ Messrs. Bidwell & Pike's Theatrical troupe, after a successful season of five months (with but one poor house, when the great Torchlight procession came off in October) have left to give entertainments in Concord, Manchester and Portland.—They will return by and bye.

☞ The alarm of fire on Thursday evening was occasioned by the partial burning of a dwelling house in Melcher street. Not much damage done.

☞ The manufacture of Hats and Combs is getting to be a great business in Newburyport and vicinity. We don't do much in that line about here; but if new hats are not made,—if common report says true, there is a superabundance of the "old" article; and if comb-factories are scarce, "rakes" don't appear to be.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.—The Ballot says, the proverb in regard to the "law's delay" has had exemplification the past week in this court, at Exeter, the progress of which has been remarkably slow.

Case No. 141, Chauncey Burton v. Levi Jewell, was given to the jury Tuesday evening, who came in Wednesday morning with a verdict for the defendant—that he committed no trespass, and that the land in plaintiff, Hatch and Frink for defendant.

Case 144, Scammon v. Legate—assumpsit—was commenced Wednesday.

☞ The Daily Wisconsin newspaper states that Mr. Winslow A. Nowell has disposed of his interest in the house of F. R. Sherwin & Co., in Milwaukee; and has in view a business connection in Chicago; but is to remain in Milwaukee at present.

— In the Canadian Parliament, on Tuesday, Mr. Galt, the Finance Minister, brought down a message from the Governor General, transmitting the estimates for the current year, in which is included some $50,000 in gold to make good the money improperly surrendered in the case of the St. Albans raiders, and claimed by the government of the United States under the extradition treaty.

— Of one hundred and fifty men from the Colorado, sent ashore to join in the attack on Fort Fisher, only twenty escaped unharmed.

— The fifty-fifth part of "The Encyclopædia of Arts and Sciences," in the Welsh language, has been published. This work is interesting, as it will doubtless be the last attempt on a large scale to promote the education of the people of Wales by means of the vernacular. Wales is becoming rapidly Anglicized by railways and the influx of English wealth.

— A New England soldier, says the Journal's Washington correspondent, who has served three year's creditably and received three wounds, was sent in from camp to-day and made to exchange an infantry uniform for a bonnet, dress and hoops—the appropriate garb of her sex, which she had kept concealed from her colleagues.

— The Lowell News states that one of the enterprising business men of that city has absconded to parts unknown, leaving behind an indebtedness of $10,000 unadjusted.

— The Raleigh (N. C.) Progress says General Terry was within eight miles of Wilmington and had demanded of Bragg the surrender of the city, giving the latter until the 19th inst. to decide in. The removal of public property from the city was going on.

— The doctors in Burlington, Vt., are said to be jubilant over the adoption of a charter for a city. On the principle that life in the city is more unhealthy than in the country, they are anticipating "lively work" now.

— The Charlestown Advertiser says Governor Andrew seems to think there are too many ladies in the country, and recommends that some of them be transported at the State expense to California, Oregon and vicinity, in which region they are remarkably scarce.

GYMNASTICS.—The classes are to meet at Mercantile Hall; the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the ladies and gentlemen on the same evenings at 7.

☞ The bad habit of boys coasting upon the sidewalks has become so common as to cause the city authorities to take stringent measures to prevent it; therefore any one found coasting on the public sidewalk, or on the street, hereafter, will be punished according to law. Per Order.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

There is no soap that will begin to compare with the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, and probably no other manufacturer begins to expend one-half as much money to make it worthy of the community, and the maker is richly deserving the patronage bestowed on him. It is a God-send to the world, and all who use it will agree with us that what we say is true. 52

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it must eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. The Wholesale Agents are Wholesale Grocers.

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

AGAIN AND AGAIN.—Our readers may think it strange that we so often urge upon their attention a medicinal preparation. Already have we, for a number of weeks, urged the importance of a supply of Coe's Cough Balsam in the house, ready for immediate use. But our excuse is that the vast amount of sickness, sorrow and death that are the immediate result of sudden coughs, colds and pulmonary attacks; while thousands of our children are dying from croup and lung complaints. Time and experience have proved that Coe's Cough Balsam is the most speedy and reliable preparation ever known to the world. Like magic it relieves the irritation of the throat, removes the stoppages that prevent breathing in croup, and heals all soreness of the throat, chest and lungs. No man should neglect to supply his family with a safe and reliable remedy like Coe's Cough Balsam, any more than he should neglect the supply of their daily bread. It costs but 40 cents, and the bottles contain twice as much as those of any other remedy at the same cost, while in merit it is superior to all others. All drug stores keep it for sale. 4j18dawkm

FRENCH ROLL PAN?
IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.
It is simply a nicely made
IRON PAN,
Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very
QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.
For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Baised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.
IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to
ECONOMISE
in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and
PALATABLE BREAD:
"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."
By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

BAILEY'S
Spring Roll and Cog Wheel
WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.
WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.
We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.
To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

NOTICE.
NEW HAMPSHIRE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

By an Act of Congress, approved July 2, 1862, a portion of the Public Lands was granted to the several States for the purpose of establishing an Agricultural College: each State to receive thirty thousand acres for each Senator and Representative in Congress to which the States are respectively entitled, provided the State should assent to the grant by a legislative act, upon the conditions stated in said act of Congress. One of the conditions named therein was, that no portion of the proceeds arising from the sale of such lands should be expended for the erection and maintenance of any building or buildings.

The State of New Hampshire has accepted the grant by an act of its Legislature, approved July 9, 1863; and by the provision of section 5 of said act, the Governor, by consent of the Council, was authorized to appoint a Committee of ten, whose duty it should be to prepare a scheme for the establishment of such a college within the State, and make a report thereon to the Legislature in June, 1864. Said Committee was appointed and subsequently received from Hon. David Culver, an offer to present to the State his farm, containing 400 acres, situated in Lyme, in Grafton County, and valued at twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) and in addition thereto, thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), for the purpose of erecting the necessary buildings thereon; provided the State would locate the College on said farm, in the town of Lyme. No offer of a donation was received from any other source.

At the June session, 1864, said Committee submitted a report, which was referred to a Special Committee of the House of Representatives, and they reported the following bill and recommended its passage:

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

AN ACT to incorporate and establish the New Hampshire Agricultural College.

It is enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

SEC. 1. An Institution of learning is hereby authorized and established in this State, under the corporate name of the New Hampshire Agricultural College, for the purpose of furnishing greater facilities for education, and teaching, among other things, those branches of learning most nearly related to agriculture and the mechanic arts, and providing a course of study and training adapted to promote practical education among those intending to engage in industrial pursuits.

SEC. 2. The government of the institution shall be vested in a Board of eleven Trustees, one of whom shall be the President of the College, and the remaining ten shall be appointed and commissioned by the Governor with advice of the Council; and all vacancies among those appointed as above, shall be filled in the same manner, and they shall be so classed and commissioned that the office of one of the ten shall become vacant each year.

SEC. 3. The Board of Trustees shall have the general control and management of the institution, and of the property and funds belonging to the same; and they shall see that its affairs are conducted in accordance with the laws of the State, the provisions of the act of Congress donating public lands to the several States and Territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts, approved July 2, 1862, so far as the same are applicable, and with the by-laws and regulations adopted for the government of the institution. They may make contracts for conducting the business of the institution, make conveyances under the corporate seal, may receive and hold the property and funds, and may manage, contract and invest the same, except as is otherwise provided.

SEC. 4. The Board of Trustees may elect a President of the College, who shall, ex-officio, be a member of the Board of Trustees; a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Farm Superintendent, and such professors, tutors, instructors and other officers as they shall judge proper; and shall determine the duties, responsibilities, tenure of office and salaries of the several officers, except as herein provided; regulate and prescribe the course of instruction, including military tactics, and make all needful provisions for the manual labor of students. They may establish, manage and control a primary department for the training and instruction of those not qualified to enter the collegiate department, and may determine the manner of calling, and the times and places of holding the meetings of the Board of Trustees.

SEC. 5. The corporation hereby established may have a common seal, to be under the control of the Board of Trustees; may take and hold real and personal estate by gift, grant, devise or otherwise; may take and hold property in trust for specific purposes and according to the will of the donor or grantor, if not inconsistent with the objects of the institution, and shall have as full and complete corporate powers, duties and liabilities as the Board of Trustees would have if constituted a body corporate by a grant to them; and the corporation is to act by and through the Board of Trustees as provided in this act.

SEC. 6. All the income, interest and profit derived, or to be derived from the land scrip and lands received or to be received by the State from the United States under said act of Congress, and the proceeds thereof when invested, are hereby pledged and set apart forever for the establishment and endowment of said institution, to be used and appropriated agreeably to the provisions and conditions of said act of Congress, and not otherwise.

SEC. 7. Whatever sum of money may be appropriated by future Legislatures, to defray the necessary expenses of establishing said institution shall be paid over by the Governor, when authorized by the same to the Board of Trustees, upon their receipt and that of the Board of Trustees, for further pay, or secure to the satisfaction of the Board of Trustees, the sum of thirty thousand dollars in aid of the College—the location to take effect when the Board of Trustees shall notify the Governor and Council in writing that the terms have been complied with and the location decided by them; otherwise the location shall be determined by the Board of Trustees, subject to the approval of the Governor and Council. When the location shall be established as herein provided, the Board of Trustees shall thereupon, by themselves, or a committee of their number appointed by them for the purpose, proceed to obtain and secure any necessary real estate, by gift, grant or otherwise, and to prepare and put in suitable condition the necessary buildings, by erecting the same or otherwise, and to obtain the necessary implements, furniture and stock, books and apparatus, and to organize and put into operation the institution, and maintain therein a regular course of instruction. But the proposed erections and purchases shall be approved by a majority of the Board of Trustees, and shall be submitted to the Governor and Council, and approved by them.

SEC. 9. The Farm Superintendent shall, under the general direction of the Board of Trustees, have the charge of any experimental farm or real estate belonging to the institution, the farming tools, utensils, stock, crops and provisions thereon; and shall annually, in the month of May, make a full, written report to the Trustees and to the Governor of his proceedings for the year preceding, and of the condition of the farm and property in his charge; of the results of his labors, pecuniary and otherwise, and of such other things as the Trustees shall direct. He shall keep an accurate account of the property and money which shall come into his hands, of his purchases and sales, and give a summary of the same in his annual report; and he shall account for and pay over to the Treasurer any money in his hands, as the Board of Trustees shall direct.

SEC. 10. Before the Treasurer enters upon the duties of his office, he shall give bond to the satisfaction of the Board of Trustees, conditioned that he shall faithfully discharge his duties, and account for all money by him received as Treasurer, and shall annually, in the month of May, and as often as required, make a report of the state of the Treasury to the Board of Trustees, and to the Governor.

SEC. 11. The Board of Trustees shall annually, in the month of May, prepare and furnish to the Governor, for the information of the Legislature, a written report of their proceedings for the year, including an account of the situation, prospects and wants of the College. And they shall annually make and distribute the reports required by section 5 of said act of Congress.

SEC. 12. The Trustees shall be allowed their reasonable charges and expenses in preparing the buildings and grounds, and putting the institution into operation, to be allowed by the Governor and Council, and the Governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant upon the Treasury of the State for the amount allowed. When the College is opened for the reception of students, the Trustees shall be allowed only for their necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties.

SEC. 13. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

The above bill was postponed to the next session of the Legislature by the passage of the following resolution:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, July 14, 1864.

"Resolved, That the further consideration of the bill providing for the establishment of an Agricultural College in this State be referred to the next session of the Legislature, and that the Clerk be directed to publish this resolution in the several newspapers in this State, and invite propositions therefor from the several cities, institutions of learning, and individuals, who may take interest therein, and lay the same before the next Legislature for their consideration."

In accordance with the directions contained in said resolution, and the facts herein stated, I invite all such persons, institutions of learning, towns and cities, as feel an interest in the establishment of the College for the purpose of furnishing education, especially in the department of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, in our State, and are desirous of adding themes by donation, to make and forward their propositions therefor to B. Gerrish, Jr., Clerk of the House, that the same may be laid before the next Legislature, for their action thereon.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats can be confined, or escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grates are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, so no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, there can be no produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is directed in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites the gases as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Chauncy, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

SPECIE.—Where is the metallic currency, estimated to amount to two hundred and fifty millions (estimated by some at about three hundred millions) in the loyal States? It is evident that a small part is in circulation. Why is it so? When the oligarchs waged war against us, it was stated that there were fifty millions of specie (including bullion) in the city of New York alone. There has since been a continued influx of gold from the California mines.—New mines in other quarters have been discovered, yielding large profits. The answer is, it is hoarded up; withdrawn from circulation. The importers of foreign merchandise are required by law to pay the duties in specie, amounting to over a hundred millions the last fiscal year. Their foreign debts are also paid in specie. Therefore they give a premium for gold. The amount received for duties is paid out by the Government towards the interest of the public debt, and the redemption of the national paper currency. But the specie distributed by the Government is purchased at a premium by speculators and gold gamblers (most of whom reside in New York,) with a view to large profits by depreciating the paper currency. Still the amount of specie and the internal revenue collected by the Government is a safe basis for the ultimate redemption of the paper currency. This may be inferred from the financial reports of the Secretaries of the Treasury, Chase and Fessenden, two learned financiers.

The gold gamblers of New York daily vend gold at auction and bid it off at a high premium to suit their selfish purposes, and deceive the public. The N. Y. price current is republished in distant quarters. By such fictious contrivances they have had too much success in depreciating the national currency, and thereby raising the prices of provisions and the necessaries of life. The delusion is passing away and will end by the restoration of peace, when high prices will be largely reduced, and specie will bear but a small premium above the paper currency, which is now a legal tender in payment of all debts. Then such speculators will receive the public reprobation, and many of them be involved in ruin. Who would shed a tear?

The Directors and many of the proprietors of the State Banks, are shrewd calculators. If they had any doubts in respect to the safety and redemption of the national currency, a large proportion of them would not give up their charters, in order to become National Banks and deal in the National currency.

The specie is not withdrawn from circulation wholly by importers and speculators. Many thousands of small property retain it under the idle belief that the vast war debt will prevent the redemption of the State and national paper issues. Considering the inexhaustible resources of our free States—that there is no scarcity of the products of the earth—that the annual aggregate value of our mineral, manufacturing, and agricultural products may be estimated at about thirty-hundred millions, and rapidly increasing—that our vast wealth, population, and prosperity as a young nation are unexampled, and that the whole property of the people is by law virtually pledged for the payment of the public debt, and the redemption of the national notes and bonds, we may mark that person who pretends to believe that the paper currency will never be redeemed, as destitute of patriotism and common sense, or else that he hopes that our Government will be subverted.

Now gold has a charm, and perhaps people generally affix to specie a much higher value than it has. It is the standard of value in exchanges. As such, it is nominal, but it has an intrinsic value for manufacture, although far less than that of our common iron. A redundancy of specie over and above what is requisite for exchanges, can be of no national benefit. This has been tested by the sad experience of certain other nations, especially Spain, after the discovery of the gold mines of Mexico. It may deserve consideration whether an act of Congress prohibiting the export of specie, until after the end of the war if not longer, would not promote the public good by lessening imports of foreign merchandize, and largely increasing the circulating of the metallic currency? Since the discovery of the California mines, a very large proportion of the gold has been exported to England and France to purchase various kinds of goods not requisite for our national prosperity. Our exports ought to balance our imports, and thereby prevent the export of specie for the benefit of foreign countries.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 27, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

In the Army of the Potomac, mud is an obstacle just now.

Many persons have predicted that an evacuation of Petersburg would take place, but as yet there have been no signs of such an event.

The number of deserters coming into our lines is quite large, ranging from twelve to fifty a day, all of whom tell doleful stories of the hardships they endure, scarcity of provisions, &c., and predict that the end of the rebellion is at hand. [Some truth and considerable falsehood among deserters.]

A dispatch from Annapolis says Mr. Blair left Richmond, Wednesday, and arrived at A. on Thursday. He is understood to report that among many of the leaders in Richmond, Jeff. Davis included, there is a strong feeling towards making peace on the best terms they can.

The exit of the rebel gunboats from under the guns of their batteries on James river came near proving a very serious affair to us. Had the rebel ram Richmond not grounded, the whole of our fleet of transports with all the works of Gen. Grant at City Point would have been destroyed, for the naval officer in charge of our forces turned tail and run, for which disgraceful conduct, it is reported, he has been dismissed the service.

At Fortress Monroe and New York, prisoners are arriving from Fort Fisher. Among them portions of the crews of the blockade runners Stag and Charlotte. Another was captured last Sunday morning—name not ascertained.

Nothing of importance has transpired. Our gunboats were gradually feeling their way up the river, and were some four miles above Fort Fisher. Our troops are resting and re-organizing for future operations.

The amount of cannon captured by our armies within the last twelve months would supply an arsenal with sufficient armament for an ordinary war on a European scale.

The Wheeling (Va.) Intelligencer of the 23d says: "Some ten or fifteen thousand troops, belonging to Gen. Thomas' army, were in Bellair yesterday, awaiting transportation on the Baltimore and Ohio Rail road. In consequence of the passage of these troops, there will be no day-trains over this route, from this city to Baltimore, for the next five days.

It appears from the Richmond papers of Monday that there is no truth in the statement that the South has now "200,000 negroes in camps of instruction," preparing for military operations during the ensuing summer. Instead of this, Congress has not yet acted upon the recommendation of Davis to employ negroes in the quartermaster and commissary departments. Nor has the Legislature of Virginia acted upon the earnest suggestion of Gov. Smith for the conscription and arming of the blacks. It is clear from these facts that the policy is yet to be avoided until the very force of desperation shall drive it upon them.

The report that the cotton at Wilmington had been fired is not confirmed by official dispatches. There is considerable speculation as to what the rebels will do with the vast amount of stores that are known to be located in the city. These comprise not only cotton, naval stores and tobacco, but also foreign goods of great value and large amount, which has been run in by the blockade runners during the past two or three years. All the goods received during that period are not, of course, there, but there has been an accumulation there of articles, which could not find a market in the Confederacy, and these, it would seem, must either be destroyed or fall into our hands.

The sum of $60,000 was decreed by the courts to Adm. Porter as his share of the proceeds of confiscated property in the southwest. He refused to retain it, and it was distributed among the officers and men of Porter's fleet.

The steamer United States, from Savannah, brings the report that our forces captured 2000 rebels with their artillery, near Pocotaligo.

The steamer Clyde had arrived with provisions for the Savannah sufferers.

It is said that heavy guns were being mounted at City Point and vicinity on Thursday. Several schooners with cargoes of coal were sunk at Turkey Bend, so as to stop the passing of vessels. The Ironsides and Atlanta were ordered up the James on Thursday.—It is said that Semmes commanded the rebel fleet in their late movement on the James. It consisted of 3 ironclads, 3 wooden rams and 2 smaller wooden vessels. Perhaps Gen. Lee meant to astonish the world in this manner.

The rebel Gen. Shelby was blocking the Arkansas river at Dardville, 85 miles above Little Rock, on the 14th, to prevent vessels passing to Fort Smith with supplies. Detachments sent from Lewisburg attacked Shelby. It is said Shelby evacuated the place after a severe fight.

An important bridge over the Roanoke river on the Weldon Railroad was carried away by the freshet, causing interference to rebel supplies.

The blockade runner Talisman, from Wilmington for Bermuda, foundered at sea Dec 28. Crew saved.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Indian Murders in 1757.—Col. Hart.—Col. Meserve.—State House.—Jail.—Lightning.—Quebec taken 1757.—Rejoicing.

In 1757, the time for which the troops had enlisted having expired, another regiment was raised in this province, and put under the command of Colonel Meserve. He, with the three companies of rangers and one hundred carpenters, accompanied Lord Loudon to Halifax. The remainder of the regiment under Lieutenant Colonel Goffe, joined the army at Albany under General Webb. They were stationed at Fort William Henry, which soon after surrendered to the French. Eighty out of two hundred of the New Hampshire regiment were murdered by the Indians, as they marched out of the fort unarmed, after they had capitulated.

In the year 1758, New Hampshire raised eight hundred men, and gave the command of them to Colonel John Hart, who marched with them to Lake George to join General Abercrombie. Admiral Boscawen arrived at Halifax early in the spring, with a large fleet; on board of which were twelve thousand British troops, commanded by General Amherst. Their first object was the recapture of Louisburg; to which they succeeded. Colonel Meserve was at the siege of that place in 1745, and rendered essential service by constructing sledges, on which the cannon were drawn, through a deep morass. He embarked again with one hundred and eight carpenters, to assist at the siege the second time. Soon after his arrival, his whole party, except sixteen, were seized with the small pox; of which disorder, he and his eldest son died. Colonel Meserve was a gentleman of fine mechanical genius. Being a shipwright by profession, he attained to eminence in his business, and acquired a handsome fortune. His moral and social character was unblemished, and as an officer he was greatly respected. The Earl of London had a high sense of his merit and military talents. He presented him with an elegant silver bowl, on which was inscribed "From the Right Honorable the Earl of Loudon, Commander-in-Chief of his Majesty's forces in North America, to Colonel Nathaniel Meserve, of New Hampshire, in testimony of his Lordship's approbation of his good services at Fort Edward in 1756."

The General Assembly passed a resolve for building a State House in Portsmouth, and appointed Daniel Warner, Henry Sherburne and Clement March, a committee to carry the same into execution. Mr. Adams says in the Annals, "It is built of wood, about eighty feet long, thirty wide, and twenty-one feet post, two stories high. The upper story is divided into three apartments. The easterly room is appropriated for the Council chamber; the middle, for the House of Representatives; and the westerly room for the Courts of Common Law. The lower story is undivided. In the garret are several convenient lobbies." This old Court House stood on what is now Market Square, very awkwardly, between the North Church and High street, having a narrow way each side of it. It was demolished years ago, and the present inferior Court House built in

In 1759, a gaol was built in Portsmouth, at the corner of Prison Lane and Fetter Lane, now called Warren and Chestnut streets. It was constructed of oak timber hewn square and covered with iron bars well spiked to the timber, and lined with plank. A dwelling house was annexed to it; the whole was two stories high.

Monday, the 7th day of May, 1759, about two o'clock in the morning there was a severe thunder storm. The lightning struck the steeple of the south meeting-house, and rending the spire in pieces, quite down to the cupola, descended in the northeasterly and southwesterly corner posts; the former of which it shivered into small strips, from end to end; and shattered one of the main posts, in the end of the house. It seems then to have moved horizontally upon the underpinning, split a considerable piece of the stone at the southeast corner of the building, and entered the ground at ten or fifteen feet distance, making two considerable holes. Three cows and a hog were found dead on the north side of the meeting-house, two of which were in a stable sixty feet from the steeple. The windows in the steeple were all broken. Most of the glass in the westerly end, and some on the south side of the house were broken; and the floor in the west end was forced up.

After the reduction of Louisburg, General Amherst and General Abercrombie, as Commander-in-Chief. Ticonderoga, Niagara and Crown Point were taken by the troops under his command. There were great rejoicings in this town on account of these successes. A number of cannon were discharged, and the bells rung, not only through the day, but the whole of the following night without cessation.

On the 18th of October, there were public rejoicings here on account of the reduction of Quebec, and other successes of the British arms. Public thanks were given to Almighty God for the remarkable interposition of his providence in these great events, and discourses suitable to the occasion were delivered at the respective places of public worship.—After which the bells rang and cannon were discharged from the different parts of the town, from 12 o'clock until evening, and at noon from the ships in the harbor. At 1 o'clock a grand procession was made through the town, under a standard, representing a city besieged, with the motto "Nil desperandum Christo duce." Three cheers were given at every corner. In the evening was a very large bonfire on wind-mill hill, in which the French flag was consumed, and the British preserved from the flames. There was an exhibition of fireworks, and the town was illuminated. Over the front door of the State House was a representation of the city of Quebec in its ruins, after the surrender thereof, with General Wolfe ascending in a chariot, attended by victory, the ships below and above the city, and the English encampments at Point Levi, the bombs and cannon playing on the same; the French flag flying, and the English flag above it, and the King's arms over the whole. Joy appeared in every countenance, and every heart was warmed with patriotic ardor.—Adams.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Democrats of Rockingham County have nominated Daniel Clark Melcher of Exeter for Register of Deeds, John E. Rider of Portsmouth for Treasurer and Wm. Griffin of Hampstead for County Commissioner. The Democratic candidate for Senator in District No. 2 is Josiah S. James, of Raymond.

—— The officers of the N. H. Unitarian Association for 1864-5 are Hon. H. A. Bellows, Concord, President; Rev. James DeNormandie, Portsmouth, Secretary; Chas. L. Richardson, Manchester, Treasurer.

— The Mirror says "Frank Pierce is on his travels en route for Washington. Perhaps he wants to kiss Mrs Davis, or is looking after a contract to build that 'Mausoleum' in which to stow away the preserved g zzards of the defunct Democracy."

—— The Ballot states that the firm of Head & Jowell has been dissolved, the junior partner retiring;—that Mr. Orin Head has formed a copartnership with Mr. Albert Brown, of Kingston, and that the new firm will start up anew the manufacture of carriages in the extensive establishment so well fitted for the business in Exeter.

—— Edward Eaton, 19 years old, was accidentally killed Wednesday, at East Concord, while hunting.

PALMERS v. CONCORD.—In the several cases pending in the Supreme Judicial Court, brought by John B. Palmer and others against the city of Concord, to recover damages caused by the destruction of the contents of the Democratic Standard Office in August 1862, the Independent Democrat says important questions of law have been raised by the counsel for the city by a demurrer filed in the cases, among which is the constitutionality of the law of the law of 1854 which renders town and cities liable for the destruction of property within their limits by persons riotously assembled. The demurrer was argued by Judge Eastman for the plaintiffs and by J. Y. Mugridge for the city. After considering the questions raised, the Court orthem transferred to the law term of the Court for decision.

NEWSPAPER THIEVES, BE CAUTIONED. The Newburyport Herald gives the following paragraph:—part of which applies to our case, and the other part of which we shall try and make apply: "We have been so much troubled by newspaper thieves of late, that we were obliged once more to resort to our very efficient police for protection, and the result was that one James Leonard found himself before the Police Court, where his fine and costs amounted to $12.15, more than twice the subscription price of the Herald for one year, showing that honesty would have been far better policy. Now there are a dozen other persons, so far as we can understand, and among them some females, liable to the same punishment, and we report this case that they may take warning in time."

PROMINENT PRINTERS.—An address recently delivered before the Typographical Society at Washington, stated these facts about honors to printers:

The United States has chosen a printer for secretary, a printer for sergeant-at-arms, while a printer occupies the vice-president's chair. In the House a printer has been elected clerk, a printer postmaster, and on the first Monday of December, 1863, the House of Representatives chose a printer for their foreman or speaker; and also of the fourteen gentlemen who had filled the office of Mayor of Washington, six were printers, namely: Rapine, Gales, Seaton, Weightman, Force, and Towers.

All of which is well enough, only it is a mistake to talk about "honor to printers," as the editor of the Boston Transcript (who is not a typo, and so of course is not fully qualified to be an editor,) does in his introduction to the paragraph above, which we quote. As if there is any higher profession than "the art preservative of all arts?" No,—the most eminent of all printers, Franklin,—the author, statesman, and philosopher, sank all his other titles in that of 'Benjamin Franklin, printer." So don't talk of honor to printers; but tell, if you please, of the highest positions which the craft honor, as they are capable of doing, and are perpetually being called to do.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says Gen. Butler has been exonerated from all blame in the Wilmington affair, and returns to Lowell with flying colors. It is rumored that he will soon have another command. In the matter between him and Brooks, he has also come out ahead, his character having been fully vindicated in respect to the worst charge that has been made against him.

☞ On Thursday evening the Bank of Crawford county, Meadville, Penn., was robbed of $150,000 in United State bonds. The robbers had previously concealed themselves in a back room of the bank. Intense excitement prevails. No arrests have been effected. A reward of $5000 offered for the arrest of the burglars.

GOLD, on Friday, from 208 to 212.

☞ A special dispatch to the N. Y Evening Post says: "The Committee on the conduct of the war have completed the investigation of Gen. Butler's conduct in the first attack upon Wilmington. Their report will soon be presented to the House, and will completely exonerate the General. Per contra, Admiral Porter comes out against Gen. Butler and his report, with a severe blowing up, almost equal to his cannonade on Fort Fisher.

COM. PORTER'S VIEW.—Of Fort Fisher and its adjoining works, Commodore Porter says that their strength was "greatly beyond what he had conceived." "An engineer," he adds, "might be excusable in saying they could not be captured except by regular siege. I wonder even now how it was done." This voluntary justification of the withdrawal of Gen. Butler—for such, no doubt, it was intended to be—is worthy of the proverbial frankness of a sailor. Gen. Butler, it will be remembered, had neither a siege train nor intrenching tools, commanded a much smaller force than Gen. Terry, and had an enemy to confront outside the fort stronger than his own command. But history will set that matter right in due season.—Tribune.

— S. B. Davis, the keeper of the rebel prison at Andersonville, Ga., was detected on the cars between Toledo and Newark, Ohio, by a soldier who had been in that prison. He attempted to pass as Mr. Cummings, a resident of Canada, and presented a passport in support of his identity, but some other soldiers were called in who recognized him, and he was arrested. He will be tried by a court martial as a spy, and it is hoped justice will be done him.

— Colonel North, the New York State Agent, tried before the Military Commission on a charge of forging soldiers' ballots, has been released by order of the Secretary of War.

— The Springfield Republican knows an Irishman who cannot write his name, who has stored up $40,000 in gold and $26,000 in silver coin. He never drank a drop of liquor in his life, and don't stand on the street corners puffing away his earnings in a filthy "dudeen." It is lucky for him that he "cannot write his own name," so he will get rid of endorsing the notes of his friends.

☞ A new Republican paper, with a capital of $500,000, is talked of in Chicago. These papers stated with "capital," never aided any party or any cause a bit yet, and never will. How can a concern which can't stand alone, help bolster up any thing or anybody else?

— A business man in Albany, who has been supposed to be very rich, took a note to one of the banks, a few days since, to be discounted; when it was refused because, from his return of income, his own responsibility was inadequate security.

PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED

IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the United Petroleum Farms

ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Alleghany River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,700 daily, or $642,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,275,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $32,000 per day, or $11,045,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Porcupine, and Redfield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Alleghany River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 3000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these fine other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

Local.

☞ The Ballot is "informed that the insignificant income of Capt. Daniel Marcy, about which so much has been said of late, was assessed at by 'doomage' on the part of the Assistant Assessor. The Captain makes his own figures to be even smaller than the assessor's, claiming to take out the loss on a ship, &c., from his well known income."

In reply to the strictures of the press on the "$600" taxable income acknowledged or allowed by him,—Mr. Marcy, in a letter to the Manchester Union, says he paid the special 5 per cent tax on his Congressional salary for 1863, in this city Dec. 28th last. This of course was in addition to the $600 previously reported, and shows that we were correct in the idea we expressed at the time of publishing the list, that he mistakenly regarded this tax as paid in Washington, when in fact it was only the regular 3 per cent tax which was there paid. So the Hon. had leave to amend his report and it seems did so.

☞ Numerous friends of Mr. Thos. P. Moses, of this city, will be glad to learn that he has been heard from. The first tidings received by his family for many months, recently came to hand through a son of the planter, with whom (he writes) Mr. Moses still resides in South Carolina. This son was a rebel lieutenant in Hood's army, and was wounded and captured by Gen. Thomas at Nashville; and being destitute, he sent to friends of Mr. Moses here, with whom he was acquainted, for aid—which was at once sent him, to Louisville, in the shape of greenbacks, with the wish that he might speedily be restored to the Union, both of his family and the States.

☞ An immense and handsome Porker can be seen at the excellent Provision Store of Mr. John Stokell, on Market Street—who is always fond of making a display of good meat when he can. It was raised by Mr. Taylor of Exeter, and was butchered at the age of 27 months, weighing 843 pounds.

☞ It has been ascertained from an officer arriving from the scene of action at Fort Fisher, that the late Ensign A. Stow Laighton was blown up while engaged in gathering the dead and wounded, having been ordered to this duty. A brother officer had agreed with him that, in case either fell, the survivor would visit the friends of the deceased.

☞ John S. Harvey, esq., is agent for two of the very best of the Petroleum Companies. The time for making these lucrative investments is very short. Read his advertisements, and call on him; and if you don't want to invest, then it must be because you don't love to make money by "fat dividends."

☞ The Ballot states that it is under direction of Mr. Jones S. Davis, formerly of the Sagamore Mill in this city, that the Hadley Co. started to make spool thread at Holyoke, Mass., some four months after the Portsmouth Steam Factory had gone into this manufacture here.

☞ Harriet Hosmer's celebrated marble statue of Zenobia, Queen of Palmyra, as she appeared in the triumphal procession of the Emperor Aurelian, at Rome, — is now on exhibition at Child and Jenks' art gallery, 127 Tremont st. Boston. A large photograph may be seen at Mr. Foster's Bookstore in this city.

HIGH SCHOOLS.—The annual examination of the Boys' Department, took place on Thursday; that of the girls on Friday. Of course all passed off to the general satisfaction, as usual, for there has been no change of teachers, nor any remitting of their devotions to their labors.

☞ A lecture will be given by the Pastor at the Universalist Church, Sunday (to-morrow) evening at 7 o'clock. Subject, the Printing Press.

☞ Mr. F. W. Bird, one of the Councillors of Massachusetts, under some sort of a quibble, refused for a long while to take the oath of office, including that to support the Constitution. He has finally swallowed his qualms, and been qualified; but the Massachusetts papers have made more fuss about it than the subject warranted. To be sure we only judge from very short acquaintance with the "subject"—for we have met with him but once, and that was at the Springfield Fair, where he was introduced as Massachusetts' Bird of Freedom, and made about the most absurd, ill-timed and altogether ridiculous speech we ever heard.

HOW TO BURN A BUILDING.—It is said in Washington, that the fire in the Smithsonian Institute had probably been smouldering for days in the loft at the west end of the main building. The pipe of a stove had been placed in a flue in the south wall, and there was a joist running directly into this flue. But four or five pictures were saved from this Gallery.

HEALTHY OLD AGE.—The editor of the Newburyport Herald says "We met a gentleman this week, 77 years old, of a long-lived stock, his mother having recently deceased at 97 who had never been confined to the house on account of sickness, one day, till this winter, and then only by a cold. He told us he had never smoked a cigar, or chewed tobacco, or drank spirituous liquors. Possibly, however, his abstemious habits had little to do with his good health, for we met another man recently, about 85 years old, who had never been confined to his house by sickness, a hard working man, who never refused to drink spirituous liquors moderately, and has been smoking a pipe more than half the time he has been awake for the last half century. It is seldom, however, that we see such cases of uninterrupted health, which must be reckoned the greatest of temporal blessings."

☞ The Richmond Whig, representing the crippled slave power, in a late editorial, scouts the idea that it would be better to make terms with us than England or France, winding up with—

"No! Better the jaw of the tiger, the fangs of the adder, the teeth of the shark, the sting of the scorpion, than the mercy and the justice of the Yankee, for where there is neither truth nor humanity, there can be no mercy and justice."

The Richmond Sentinel talks in the same vein. It says:

"No wilder hallucination could take possession of the human mind than the belief that we could ever again live with the Yankees on terms of equality, or come under the same government with them, except as conquered people."

Well, let the oligarchy be a conquered people,—the sooner the better: but the working people of the rebel States will be glad to work with us, and live as our equals under the government of the United States.

— The statue of Horace Mann, which by Legislative authority is to be placed in front of the Massachusetts State House, will be completed early next summer, and it is said the work of preparing the pedestal will be commenced in the spring, as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

There is no soap that will begin to compare with the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, and probably no other manufacturer begins to expend one-half as much money to make it worthy of the community, and the maker is richly deserving the patronage bestowed on him. It is a God-send to the world, and all who use it will agree with us that what we say is true. 52

PETROLEUM AND COAL STOCK EXCHANGE,
99 STATE STREET,
BOSTON,

Buy and Sell Oil and Coal Stocks on Commission, in New York, Philadelphia, and in Europe.

We believe we can offer superior inducements to all persons wishing to invest in

Petroleum Stocks.

Such investments, as a class, offer greater inducements to persons of either large or small means, than any the world has ever known, not even excepting the

Siver Mines of Mexico and So. America.

The cost of obtaining this Oil is so comparatively small that

A single Well producing only 10 Barrels per Day

will yield an income, over all expenses, of more than

$25,000 PER ANNUM.

Many wells are now yielding from 25 to 75, and several have reached over 1000 Barrels, while one, (the Noble Well, on Oil Creek, Penn.,) has yielded no less than

3000 Barrels per Day,
Worth $30,000 at the Wells.

The undersigned are Regular Agents for the principal Petroleum Companies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and having no more interest in one than another, persons desiring information can rely upon receiving an unbiassed account of the standing and prospects of the various companies on the market.

Enquiries by mail will receive prompt attention.

Subscriptions received to all first-class Companies upon the most favorable terms.

Receipts and Certificates will be forwarded in exchange for available funds, without charge; and Petroleum and Coal Stocks will be sold at the Brokers' Boards of New York and Philadelphia at the regular rates of commission.

We would call special attention to the following Companies now being organized in this city, viz:—

THE
NEW ENGLAND
PETROLEUM COMPANY,

Whose Lands are now yielding a net profit of $1450 daily, or more than $40,000 per Month,

equal to over 8 per cent. per month on their capital; and this yield is steadily on the increase. Whoever invests in this property will be richly rewarded. Those connected with it are of the highest standing.

CAPITAL STOCK, $450,000.
NUMBER OF SHARES, $90,000.

The inducements to invest which are offered by the properties of this Company, and the well-known character of its managers, fully entitle the confidence of the public.

THE
BOSTON & VENANGO
PETROLEUM COMPANY,

we offer as "A No. 1." Although not producing at present, the prospect at least equals that of the Columbia Oil Company, of Pittsburgh, at the time of its organization, which has paid on an original subscription of $2000 a net profit of $54,500 in two years, and continues to pay in the same ratio.

Full information will be furnished in regard to the above, and all other Companies in the market, upon application at our office, personally or by letter.

P. S.—Parties remitting funds to us will please send by express, except when drafts can be obtained, in which case we will bear the charge of forwarding. In this manner they can obtain reliable receipts.

NOTICE.

NEW HAMPSHIRE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

By an Act of Congress, approved July 2, 1862, a portion of the Public Lands was granted to the several States for the purpose of establishing an Agricultural College; each State to receive thirty thousand acres for each Senator and Representative in Congress to which the States are respectively entitled, provided the State should assent to the grant by a legislative act, upon the conditions stated in said act of Congress. One of the conditions named therein was, that no portion of the proceeds arising from the sale of such lands should be expended for the erection and maintenance of any building or buildings.

The State of New Hampshire has accepted the grant by an act of its Legislature, approved July 9, 1863; and by the provision of section 5 of said act, the Governor, by consent of the Council, was authorized to appoint a Committee of ten, whose duty it should be to prepare a scheme for the establishment of such a college within the State, and make a report thereon to the Legislature, in June, 1864. Said Committee was appointed and subsequently received from Hon. David Culver an offer to present to the State his farm, containing 400 acres, situated in Lyme, in Grafton County, and valued at twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) and in addition thereto, thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), for the purpose of erecting the necessary buildings thereon; provided the State would locate the College on said farm, in the town of Lyme. No offer of a donation was received from any other source.

At the June session, 1864, said Committee submitted a report, which was referred to a Special Committee of the House of Representatives, and they reported the following bill and recommended its passage:

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

AN ACT to incorporate and establish the New Hampshire Agricultural College.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

SECTION 1. As institution of learning is hereby authorized and established in this State, under the corporate name of the New Hampshire Agricultural College, for the purpose of furnishing greater facilities for education, and teaching, among other things, those branches of learning most nearly related to agriculture and the mechanic arts, and providing a course of study and training adapted to promote practical education among those engaged or expecting to engage in industrial pursuits.

SEC. 2. The government of the institution shall be vested in a Board of eleven Trustees, one of whom shall be the President of the College, and the remaining ten shall be appointed and commissioned by the Governor with advice of the Council; and vacancies among those appointed as above, shall be filled in the same manner; and they shall be so classed and commissioned that the office of one of the ten shall become vacant each year.

SEC. 3. The Board of Trustees shall have the general control and management of the institution, and of the property and funds belonging to the same; and they shall see that its affairs are conducted in accordance with the laws of the State, the provisions of the act of Congress donating public lands to the several States and Territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts, approved July 2, 1862, so far as the same are applicable, and with the by-laws and regulations adopted for the government of the institution. They may make contracts for conducting the business of the institution, make conveyances under the corporate seal, may receive and hold the property and funds, and may manage, contract and invest the same, except as is otherwise provided.

SEC. 4. The Board of Trustees may elect a President of the College, who shall, ex-officio, be a member of the Board of Trustees; a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Farm Superintendent, and such professors, tutors, instructors and other officers as they shall judge proper; and shall determine the duties, responsibilities, tenure of office and salaries of the several officers, except as herein provided; regulate and prescribe the course of instruction, including military tactics, and make all needful provision for the manual labor of the students. They may establish, manage and control a primary department for the training and instruction of those not qualified to enter the collegiate department, and may determine the manner of calling, and the times and places of holding the meetings of the Board of Trustees.

SEC. 5. The corporation hereby established may have a common seal, to be under the control of the Board of Trustees; may take and hold real and personal estate by gift, grant, devise or otherwise; may take and hold property in trust for specific purposes and according to the will of the donor or grantor, if not inconsistent with the objects of the institution, and shall have so far and complete corporate powers, duties and liabilities as the Board of Trustees would have if constituted a body corporate by a grant to them, and the corporation is to act by and through the Board of Trustees as provided in this act.

SEC. 6. All the income, interest and profit derived, or to be derived from the land scrip and lands received or to be received by the State from the United States under said act of Congress, and the proceeds thereof when invested, are hereby pledged and set apart forever for the establishment and endowment of said institution, to be used and appropriated according to the provisions and conditions of said act of Congress, and not otherwise.

SEC. 7. Whatever sum of money may be appropriated by future Legislatures, to defray the necessary expenses of establishing said institution shall be paid over by the Treasurer of the State, and the same may be modified by his concurrence and that of the Board of Trustees, and shall further pay, or secure to the acceptance of the Board of Trustees, the sum of thirty thousand dollars in aid of the College—the location to take effect when the Board of Trustees shall notify the Governor and Council in writing that the terms have been complied with and the location accepted by them; otherwise the location shall be determined by the Board of Trustees, subject to the approval of the Governor and Council. When the location shall be established, the Board of Trustees shall, or the Board of Trustees shall thereupon, by themselves, or a committee of their number appointed by them for the purpose, proceed to obtain and secure any necessary real estate, by gift, grant or otherwise, and to prepare and put in suitable condition the necessary buildings, by erecting the same or otherwise, and to obtain the necessary implements, furniture, farm stock, books and apparatus, and to organize and put into operation the institution, and maintain the same a regular course of instruction. But the proposed erections and purchases shall be approved by a majority of the Board of Trustees, and shall be submitted to the Governor and Council, and approved by them.

SEC. 8. The Farm Superintendent shall, under the general direction of the Board of Trustees, have the charge of any experimental farm or real estate belonging to the institution, the farming tools, utensils, stock, crops and provisions thereon; and shall annually, in the month of May, make a full, written report to the Trustees and to the Governor of his proceedings for the year preceding, and of the condition of the farm and property in his charge; of the results of his labors, pecuniary and other wise, and of such other things as the Trustees shall direct. He shall keep an accurate account of the property and money which shall come into his hands, of his purchases and sales, and give a summary of the same in his annual report; and he shall account for and pay over to the Treasurer any money in his hands, as the board of Trustees shall direct.

SEC. 10. Before the Treasurer enters upon the duties of his office, he shall give bond to the satisfaction of the Board of Trustees, conditioned that he shall faithfully discharge his duties, and account for all money by him received as Treasurer, and shall annually, in the month of April, and as often as required, make a report of the state of the Treasury to the Board of Trustees, and to the Governor.

SEC. 11. The Board of Trustees shall annually, in the month of May, prepare and furnish to the Governor, for the information of the Legislature, a written report of their proceedings for the year, including an account of the situation, prospects and wants of the College. And they shall annually make and distribute the reports required by section 5 of said act of Congress.

SEC. 12. The Trustees shall be allowed their reasonable charges and expenses in preparing the buildings and grounds, and putting the institution into operation, to be allowed by the Governor and Council, and the Governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant upon the Treasury of the State for the amount allowed. When the College is opened for the reception of students, the Trustees shall be allowed only for their necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties.

SEC. 13. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

The above bill was postponed to the next session of the Legislature by the passage of the following resolution:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, July 14, 1864.

"Resolved, That the further consideration of the bill providing for the establishment of an Agricultural College in this State, be referred to the next session of the Legislature, and that the Clerk be directed to publish this resolution in the several newspapers in this State, and invite propositions therefor from the several cities, institutions of learning, and individuals, who may take interest therein, and lay the same before the next Legislature for their consideration."

In accordance with the directions contained in said resolution, and the facts herewith stated, I invite all public persons, institutions of learning, towns and cities, as feel an interest in the establishment of a College for the purpose of promoting education, especially in the department of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, in our State, and are desirous of aiding therein by donation, to make and forward their propositions therefor to B. Gerrish, Jr., Clerk of the House, that the same may be laid before the next Legislature, for their action therein. B. GERRISH, JR.,

Clerk of the House of Representatives.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of gases down the pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus using at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store Stone, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

MARRIED AGAIN.

Tear the crape from the shutter,
Fling it wide to the light;
No more may it flutter
Its gloom on the sight;
For its story of sadness
It echoed in vain,
Where was grief there is gladness—
She's married again!

And the tear's silent streaming,
The household of gloom,
And the widow's dear dreaming
O'er the dust of the tomb,
And the little foot-patter,
Waking mem'ries of pain,
Are drowned in the clatter—
She's married again!

Tell it not on the morrow
There's a tear in her eye;
'Tis the chiding of sorrow
Whose love cannot die;
Ah! dirges are winging
Their flight through the strain
Of those wedding bells ringing
Her marriage again;

For they crumble the altar
Where she plighted of yore,
And their iron tongues falter
A vow that is o'er;
And her soul seemeth lonely,
Her joy seemeth pain;
Why is it?—ah!—only—
She's married again!

THIS IS A NATION. — Massachusetts is not a nation; nor is New England, nor New York, nor Virginia, nor any other State or half-dozen of the States composing our Union. Our country is known to the world as 'the United States of North America;' we hope it will yet have a name less lumbering and more convenient; but even this one is rightly understood by mankind as indicating one Nation composed of many States.

When Jefferson Davis in the United States Senate in 1850 asked Henry Clay if he would obey a requisition of Kentucky in contravention of the authority of the United States, Mr. Clay answered promptly and severely "No: I owe a paramount allegiance to my whole country; I owe a subordinate fidelity to my own State." Such is the doctrine so triumphantly maintained by Webster in his memorable debate with Hayne; such is the doctrine quite as emphatically affirmed by Jackson in his Proclamation and other manifestoes against South Carolina's attempt to nullify a law of the United States. Such is the doctrine of American loyalty and nationality, as opposed to the vagaries of Nullification and Disunion.

The Constitutional Conventon now sitting in Missourri has made a distinct and thorough affirmation of this truth a cornerstone of the Free Constitution now in preparation by that body, to the intense disgust of all Rebels and Rebel sympathizers.—Tribune.

THE DRUNKEN BULLY.—The Boston Post has this item:

We do not perceive that converting Louisiana to abolitionism has converted the representatives into any better citizens than inhabited that region before, if we may judge from the conduct of the man chosen as their representative in Congress.

This would be a far hit, if the "man" was an abolitionist, and if the people who sent him were so converted to abolitionism as to represent the ideas of any abolitionist. But the truth in the case is, that the "man" has no proper claim to be an abolitionist; that Louisiana is only half converted, and that all half way means between slavery and freedom are apt to work with great friction. Louisiana is no exception to the rule. U. T.

— The brutal assault upon Judge Kelley by one of the claimants for a seat in Congress from Louisiana, has served only to prejudice the question of admitting the delegates from that State. Plantation manners do not take at the National Capital under present auspices.

FARMING.—A correspondent of the Country Gentleman writes: "When God planted the human race upon this globe He founded but one profession, and in a perfect state of society but one could exist. There was no priest, for there was no sin; no lawyer, for there could be no diversity of interests among men to all of whom their neighbor's happiness was as dear as their own; no physician, where there was no sickness; no merchant, when in a perfect climate every production of the earth was common to every region; no manufacturer, where the earth required only the simplest cultivation, the climate only the simplest protection from the elements, and commerce could not exist. In such a state of society there could be but one calling.

— Marie, Countess de Tocqueville, the widow of the late celebrated writer and statesman, Alexis de Tocqueville, died at Valognes, in Normandy, on the 23d ult., in her 60th year. Madame de Tocqueville was English, the daughter of T. Motley, esq. of Portsmouth. She had lived with an aunt in France from her youth, and was married to M. de Tocqueville after his return from the United States.

If you would enjoy your meals, be good-natured. An angry man cannot tell whether he is eating boiled cabbage or stewed umbrellas.—Exchange.

MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Sherman has issued an order setting apart the South Carolina Coast Island for the negroes freed by his army in passing through Georgia.

The Savannah river is open to navigation.

The preparations for the next campaign have been going on, and the rebels expect a movement upon Branchville. They admit if this is captured Charlestown and Richmond both will have to be evacuated.

The New York Saturday morning papers are filled with peace gossip, in connection with Mr. Blair's visit to Richmond. The Herald, Times and World say his negotiations have proved a failure. The Tribune says the result is unknown to outsiders.

The Herald's Army of the James correspondence says the rebel demonstration by iron-clads was a perfect failure and proved disastrous to them. They landed some troops on Farrar's Island to co-operate, but they were driven off by our forces. The rebel papers say that the demonstration was Gen. Lee's first after his promotion to General-in-Chief, and has proved a failure. —He may astonish us and the world: but so far we don't see it.

By Telegraph—Sunday noon.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28th.—A report reaches us to-night that part of Gen. Sherman's army has advanced to Aiken, S. C., on the South Carolina railroad, which cuts communication between Charleston and Augusta, and probably insures the fall of the latter place, the powder-house of the Confederacy. The balance of the army is understood to be moving directly on Augusta, between the Savannah and Ogeechee rivers. Savannah is held by a portion of the 19th Corps, lately in the valley of Virginia under Gen. Sheridan.

A strong movement is now being made up to Red river from New Orleans. All the troops possible have been collected throughout the West. The capture of Shreveport, with the formidable iron-clads stationed there, is aimed at and will be accomplished, after which Gen. Canby's forces will be at liberty to assail Mobile, if peace should not come beforehand. In this connection it may be well to state that strong rumors are afloat that Mobile is already in our possession, as passengers by the Evening Star from New Orleans state that a report had been received there on the 20th from Pascagoula leading to the conviction that Gen. Granger would occupy the city ere that date.

Military officers in this city are offering bets that the old war-horse Wright is triumphantly in Weldon to-night.

It is current to-night that Adm. Farragut has retorted on the rebels by steaming up the James river with the Ironsides, accompanied by the recaptured Atlanta and several iron-clads, capturing the rebel iron-clads Richmond and Vicksburg. At last accounts the light draft gunboats had dashed beyond the rebel batteries, and were destined for Richmond.

The Richmond Whig of the 27th say the iron-clad Drury was blown up by a Yankee shell, and that a torpedo boat was above.

A special telegram dated Wilmington, 19th, says the Tallahassee, alias Olustee, was captured last night in attempting to run into New Inlet. The Naval Department has no confirmation of the report.

☞ Admiral Porter's last report from the vicinity of Wilmington says:

In twenty-four hours after the fall of Fort Fisher, all the formidable chain of forts in this river at its entrance have fallen into our hands. They are garrisoned for the present with sailors. The rebels left plenty of good stores and provisions, and our men are now subsisting on them.

We have found in each fort an Armstrong gun with a broad arrow on it, and the name of "Sir William Armstrong" marked in full on the trunnions. As the British Government claims the exclusive right to use these guns, it would be interesting to know how they came into forts held by rebels.

I find that immense quantities of provisions, stores and clothing have come through this port into rebeldom; it is all English, and they have received their last cargo. No more will ever come this way.

We picked up a telegram from Lee to his subordinate here, saying if Forts Fisher and Caswell were not held he would have to evacuate Richmond. He says most truly, and I should not be at all surprised if he left it at any moment. We have plenty of force to hold this place against the Confederacy. I have 250 guns bearing on the narrow strip of land where our troops are heavily intrenched. There are vessels in the river and outside, and we only hope they will attempt to retake it. One thousand men in Fort Fisher, with the guns of the squadron would hold the place a long time.

— The Rutland and Burlington railroad send track inspectors in advance of every passenger train, day and night, involving an aggregate travel of 420 miles by the section men.

— About $3,000,000 worth of the new 7-30 National Loan was marketed in New York during the past week.

GENERAL BUTLER AS A "SPECULATOR" IN SUGAR.—The New York Evening Post thus disposes of the story of General Butler's sugar speculation, which has been made the subject of so much malignant comment:

The story was, that when the transports which took down his expedition to New Orleans were returning north, instead of letting them go in ballast, Butler loaded them, on his own account, with sugar, which he had seized in the city; and caused the sugar to be sold for an immense sum in New York, which sum he pocketed. Of course he was a monster of corruption, and here was a glaring instance of the unscrupulous manner in which he was enriching himself at government expense. For nearly a year you could not mention Butler's name to a secessionist or a Vallandigham democrat, without hearing this story.

Well, one day Butler came North, and was officially examined upon his administration in Louisiana. He was asked to explain this transaction, which was the worst with which he was charged by any one. He did explain it. The ships lay in New Orleans empty. They had to be sent North as soon as possible, every day's detention being a heavy expense to the government. They had to have ballast, and could not get it nearer than Ship Island, while to get it would have caused a delay of weeks. Meantime many thousand hogsheads of sugar lay on the levee for sale at a price which would yield a handsome profit upon their sale in New York. A red-tape General would have detained the ships till ballast was got from Ship Island. Butler, with his own money, bought sugar enough to load them all, had it put aboard in the quickest time possible, and sent them off to New York—with a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury, informing him of the transaction and saying to him: "Take the sugar, sell it for government account, and return me the money I advanced." This the Secretary very gladly did, and made a handsome profit for the government.

☞ The Traveller says "the Press is a mighty engine, and its power ought not to be concentrated in cities and large towns, or wielded by political adventurers. It is asserted that four hundred journals have already been extinguished because of the high price of paper. Many, perhaps all of them, were useful publications, promoting the general good in various ways, and spreading intelligence among the people. Nearly all of them were 'country journals,' a class of publications of the highest merit, as a rule, well conducted, and deserving of better support than most of them receive. To uphold a policy that helps limit the number of such journals, or to diminish the effectiveness of those that survive, is suicidal on the part of the government and society.

City journals have their allotted sphere, and they fill it; but they cannot be to the country, and to small towns, what local presses should be, and what they are when their merits are recognized properly. How are the conductors of city journals to know much about, or to have much room for matters that peculiarly interest those highly cultivated and intelligent people who reside thirty, fifty, or an hundred miles from the places where those journals are published? As well might Americans confine their reading to English journals as country people to city journals; but a few country journals will be able to bear up under the burden of high taxes, if the monopolists are to have their way."

☞ The Commercial Bulletin says "There has been a report that the national banks were about to favor the public with an issue of one dollar notes. None have, as yet, been prepared. One thing, however, is certain, were bills of that denomination thrown out, the demand for them would soon advance the amount of the paper issues of the national banks to the limit marked by law. National bank notes are a very popular kind of currency. Our correspondents in the West have been telling us for months, that all classes there consider them on the same footing as 'greenbacks;' in fact, call them 'greenbacks,' and take them, whether they hail from Maine or Missouri, as readily as they take the Chase notes, while all New England currency, even the bills of the old Suffolk Bank are quoted at a discount. The circulation of the national banks is now eighty-three millions, two and a half of which was issued during the past week."

☞ The publishers of "Littell's Living Age" have done the country and the world a great service, by printing a large edition of the "Narrative of privations and sufferings of U. S. officers and soldiers while prisoners of war in the hands of the rebel authorities, being the report of a Commission of Inquiry, appointed by the U. S. Sanitary Commission. With an appendix, containing the testimony." Every friend of a prisoner; every parent who has had a son starved to death by the rebels; every humane person, will wish to read and preserve this monument of the "Barbarism of Slavery" and the slave power. Thanks to the Ruler of All, such wickedness cannot go unpunished. U. T.

— The N. Y. Times says "there is every reason to believe that the opinion which Gen. Sherman has recently expressed, that the war will end in a grand collision between Lee and himself, will shortly be verified."

THE UNCERTAINTY OF GOLD.—The Traveller states that a group of merchants surrounded an eminent banker, and addressed him: "What do you think of gold this morning—will it go up or down?" "Gentlemen," he replied gravely and deliberately, "do you see that apple-woman yonder? well, go and ask her, she knows as much about the ups and downs of gold as I do."

That's a fact, of course she does—but it is not everybody who is wise enough to know it. And one of the most laughable things it is, to hear the learned and labored arguments on finance, which every day's experience knocks the support from under, so that another and equally-idle theory must be formed—as it always is and always has been formed, by the wiseacres.—And as to gold speculation or gambling, it is like any other gambling—the moment anybody can think or predict anything about it, that moment it ceases to be a speculation at all.

THE GOLD MARKET was very stiff Friday afternoon, the "bulls" being rampant and uproarious. The failure of Mr. Blair to bring a committee of "chivalry" with him from Richmond was probably the reason.—The New York quotation at 5 o'clock was 213 5-8. It is hardly possible that the gold brokers believed he would bring any such thing; but the story would do very well for some to make money in buying;—and when the other story came, they might make money again in selling.

From Philadelphia, we have an idle and very doubtful report of the success of Blair's peace mission to Richmond, representing the rebels ready to lay down their arms and return to the Union.

PUBLISHING INCOMES.—We learn that the publication of the list of Income taxpayers in New York city, against which there has been so much absurd outcry, is likely to prove beneficial to the revenue, as well as to the consciences of some of our "best citizens." Already, we understand, considerable sums have been returned to assessors and paid to collectors, by persons who have discovered "errors" in their original returns of incomes since the publication of the lists referred to; and assessors have received valuable information in reference to the incomes of some gentlemen who should, but have not yet, amended their returns.—The penalties for false or fraudulent returns are, first, an assessment in double the amount sought to be evaded; and secondly, a fine not exceeding $1000, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the Court.—Tribune.

The above item is as true and useful here as in New York.

☞ The Commercial Bulletin condemns the practice of allowing sailors to carry sheath-knives or pistols, and says that "although shipowners are slow to arm their ships to protect themselves against the depredations of British pirates, the sailors are not slow to arm themselves to resist their own officers. We are credibly informed that hardly a ship of a thousand tons leaves any of our large seaports without a majority of her crew being armed with revolvers."

"Recently the ship Fleetford, Capt. Salter, bound from Boston for San Francisco, had to put into Rio Janeiro in consequence of a mutiny among her crew. The ringleaders were armed and set the officers at defiance. Shortly after the arrival of the vessel two of them seized a boat and deserted, protecting themselves by their fire-arms. They were arrested on shore, and will be sent home for trial. An examination of the sailors' quarters resulted in the finding of pistols in almost every man's chest, with ammunition to match. We marvel that Capt. Salter did not examine the forecastle as soon after leaving Boston as possible. The capture of several fine vessels by armed ruffians we should think would have suggested a rigid search by way of precaution. If it is deemed necessary to search the chests of seamen for rum, we think it far more so to search for concealed weapons."

— Wilkes' Spirit says, "Mr. Bonner has agreed to give Mr. Noe the sum of $25,000 for his mare Atlanta, by Ethan Allen, provided she can perform the notable feats heretofore done by Bonner's grey mare Peerless. The one to be attempted, if any be, is that of half mile in 1:11 1-2 to a wagon and Hiram Woodruff's weight. This trial is to be had on the Fashion Course, June 15th., good day and track.

☞ The Phrenological Journal and Life Illustrated, for January, appears with 32 quarto pages, and a beautiful illustrated Cover, containing numerous portraits, and treating ably of Ethnology, Phrenology, Physiology, and Psychology. Published at 20 cents a Number, or $2.00 a year, by Messrs. Fowler & Wells, New York.

☞ The Atlantic Monthly for February is received from the publishers, Messrs. Ticknor & Fields.

FREEDMEN'S JOURNAL.—It is well this important class in our nation should have their organ. The American Tract Society, Boston, have commenced the publication of a new monthly paper for the freedmen, called "The Freedman's Journal." It is intended to be more of an "adult paper" than their other publication, "The Freedman," and to contain general news and instructive articles, and not to be wholly a religious paper.

— Henry Isaac has been arrested at New York, charged with inducing two soldiers on a furlough from Governor's Island, to desert. He is said to have brought them to Boston, and enlisted them in a Massachusetts regiment.

— The London Daily News gives a flat contradiction to the report that one of the princesses of England had married a viscount, against the will of the Queen, and in contravention of the Royal Marriage act.

— A morphine powder intended for Sylvester N. Whitney of Shelburne Falls, Me., was given to his infant child by mistake, last Wednesday, and caused the death of the child.

— The colored citizens of New Orleans own real estate to the value of $15,000,000 and they now have a daily newspaper—The Tribune—printed and edited by colored men.

— A correspondent wishes to know if it causes much pain to a saw to cut its teeth. We should say Yes—judging from the excruciating noises sent forth when filing them.

—The rebel Secretary of War has resigned. And no wonder at it, says the Herald, No, and all those fellows must "resign" pretty soon, it would seem.

— Gen. Beauregard authorizes a denial of the report that Gov. Brown of Georgia is in favor of reconstruction. He (Beauregard) says he has just conversed with that gentleman on that question.

— Resolutions censuring Foote for attempting to pass through the rebel lines have passed the rebel House of Representatives.

—Robert Bonner, the New York Ledger man, who delights in riding behind a fast horse, is in receipt of an income of exactly twenty five thousand dollars.—Col. Rogers, of the Boston Journal, we believe was taxed on $20,000 income.

— Catherine McNevins, of Boston, thirteen years died on Wednesday from the effects of injuries received upon her head five days previously by falling on the ice.

— A person who signs himself 'Jones,' asks whether, if Admiral Porter makes any more reports about the Fort Fisher business he ought not to be called Admiral Reporter.

— At sunrise on Friday, the thermometer stood 17 below zero, in Concord.

THE EIGHTH LECTURE,

Judge Thomas Russell,

of Boston,

SUBJECT—"The Elements of National Life."

will be given AT THE TEMPLE, Portsmouth,

On TUESDAY EVENING, Jan. 31st,

Also, A GRAND CONCERT by the

Portsmouth Cornet Band,

on this and every Evening of the Course.

Doors open at half-past 6, Concert at 7; Lecture at half-past 7.

PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED

IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the

United Petroleum Farms

ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Alleghany River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,700 daily, or $612,000 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,375,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February, a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $33,000 per day, or $11,945,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 20th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Forcupine, and Reddell Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Alleghany River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,
For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.
This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.
He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these free other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.
PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

☞ A large gray Eagle with a small bell attached to his neck, has made his appearance in our midst, and may be seen almost any day with his tintinabulistic appendage, soaring up and down the river.

It it said that he was formerly a pet bird of a resident of Cape Porpoise, and in consequence of too frequent raids upon the hens and chickens of that vicinity, was disinherited, and as a penalty for his misconduct, was doomed to wear a sleigh-bell during the remainder of his natural life—a hard lot truly, as he is, as a matter of course, a terror to all feathered bipeds, and thus compelled to wander solitary and alone up and down the earth.

☞ Judge Russell of Boston is to deliver the Lyceum lecture to-morrow evening — and it will be one of the most interesting of the course, beyond doubt. His lecture last season was more popular, we think, than any other; and deservedly is, for he is one of the most earnest, honest, able and eloquent speakers.

CUTTING IT FAT.—Investing in Petroleum Stocks. No other speculations have ever paid like these. Mr. Harvey, the agent in this city for two staunch companies, will give all information about the matter. See his advertisements.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School for ladies and gents, is held at the State St. School House, Monday and Friday evenings.

THE STATE QUOTA.—Gen. Fry informs Capt. Silvey that the revised quota of New Hampshire under the call of Dec. 18th, is 2,072 men. Some time since it was announced on the same authority that our quota was 800; and the Concord Monitor figures out an excess for New Hampshire on the last call of 11,997 years of service! There is evidently a mistake somewhere, or else, as the Monitor suggests, our quota of 2702 men will be required only of those towns which filled their quotas of July, 1864, with one year's men. Gov. Gilmore has telegraphed to Washington for an explanation of the matter, and will, it is said, insist on a thorough understanding of the case before lifting a finger to fill this call.

A Concord dispatch to the Boston Journal says the deficiency of the 1st District is 765; 2d, 525; 3d, 782. The quotas are not announced; they will fall heavily upon places which furnished all one-year's men under the last call. Concord is reported 70 behind.

Gov. Gilmore has issued a spirited proclamation calling upon every loyal citizen to put his shoulder to the wheel to prevent a draft. Quotas partially prepared show Nashua 65 and Manchester 150 behind.—Enlistments since Jan. 1st are to be deducted from quotas.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— On Wednesday afternoon last, Edward Eaton of Concord, went to East Concord, with a lad by the name of Quimby, each carrying a gun. When not far from the East Concord station the charge in the gun carried by Quimby was accidentally fired, and the contents lodged in the head of Eaton, causing instant death. The deceased was about 18 years of age.

—— On Thursday evening, "the citizens of New Hampshire resident in Washington had a meeting to make arrangements for the return home of voters at the coming election. Much interest is taken in the N. H. election, as Mr. Smyth is known by his connection with the National Agricultural Society, and by his labors for the sick and wounded soldiers."

—— New Hampshire, which supposed she was out of the coming draft, has been ordered to raise two thousand men. The first District is called upon for 765.

—Tanners are using petroleum in preparing their leather. It is said they find it quite as good for that purpose as fish oil, which is generally used.

ANOTHER KEROSENE EXPLOSION.—The Herald says that "on Wednesday night, as Mr. Charles R. Sargent of Newburyport was retiring to rest, he set down his lamp and blew out the light, when instantaneously the gas in the lamp blew up, giving a report like a small pistol. The lamp was not broken, the discharge being through the tube, but the oil remaining in the lamp was turned as white as snow." This was the third explosion in that city in one week, and the Herald thinks "proves that we are using very poor oil. The trouble, as we said before, is in the manufacture. The benzine is the explosive element, and in the instances referred to the manufacture was faulty. A lighted match near the surface, without touching it, would ignite the oil. For safety, lamps should be kept nearly full. In two of the three explosions the lamps were nearly empty, and the ignited gas filled the space. In one instance it took fire itself; in the case of Mr. Sargent's lamp the explosion was occasioned by the blowing of the blaze downward upon the collected gas."

UNRAVELING.—A man coming home late one night, a little more than half seas over, feeling thirsty, procured a glass of water and drank it. In doing so he swallowed a small ball of silk that lay in the bottom of the tumbler, the end catching in his teeth. Feeling something in his mouth, and not knowing what it was, he began pulling at the end; and the little ball unrolling, he soon had several feet in his hands, and still no end, apparently. Terrified, he shouted at the top of his voice, "Wife! wife! I say wife, come here! I'm all unraveling!"—Exchange.

Pretty good! And there are plenty of poor devils to be seen anywhere, who are "unraveling" terribly fast; but who never find it out themselves, until they arrive at "the end of their ball of yarn.'

THE NEW ENGLAND FARMER.—We were very glad, with the New Year, to welcome to our table this well conducted journal—the publication of which had been a few months suspended, owing to the publisher's effort to supply it for 1864 at a price ruinously low for themselves. We trust the farmers of New England are now convinced that no paper can be carried on for any length of time at such a loss as has been involved for publishers at the old subscription rates, and they will yield a liberal support to the undertaking — Hon. Simon Brown having resumed the chief editorial management, and the other editors, as well as the publishers, Messrs. R. P. Eaton & Co., being determined to render their paper well worth its present price.

— The Secretary of State has received information that the judicial authorities of Canada had committed Burley for extradition. This assures a speedy return of amicable relations.

GYMNASTICS.—The classes are to meet at Mercantile Hall; the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 o'clock, and the ladies and gentlemen on the same evenings at 7.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it must eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists must all sell it. The Wholesale Agents are Wholesale Grocers.

The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is just the thing to please the ladies. The maker studies their wants and wishes, and leaves nothing undone which will make a washing day a gala day; and from the sale of it we should think it was fully appreciated by them. The lady who does not enjoy the advantage of its good qualities is deprived of a great luxury in the way of nice, white clothes. Go at once and get a supply. 53

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Buy and Sell Oil and Coal Stocks on Commission, in New York, Philadelphia, and in Europe.
We believe we can offer superior inducements to all persons wishing to invest in
Petroleum Stocks,
Such investments, as a class, offer greater inducements to persons of either large or small means, than any the world has ever known, not even excepting the
Siver Mines of Mexico and So. America.
The cost of obtaining this Oil is so comparatively small that
A single Well producing only 10 Barrels per Day
will yield an income, over all expenses, of more than $25,000 PER ANNUM.
Many wells are now yielding from 25 to 75, and several have reached over 1000 Barrels, while one, (the Noble Well, on Oil Creek, Penn.,) has yielded no less than
3000 Barrels per Day,
Worth $30,000 at the Wells.
The undersigned are Regular Agents for the principal Petroleum Companies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and having no more interest in one than another, persons desiring information can rely upon receiving an unbiassed account of the standing and prospects of the various companies on the market.
Enquiries by mail will receive prompt attention.
Subscriptions received to all first-class Companies upon the most favorable terms.
Receipts and Certificates will be forwarded in exchange for available funds, without charge; and Petroleum and Coal Stocks will be sold at the Brokers' Boards of New York and Philadelphia at the regular rates of commission.
We would call special attention to the following Companies now being organized in this city, viz:—

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

... approved July 2, 1862, ... Public Lands was granted ... for the purpose of establishing an Agricultural College: each ... thousand acres for each ... representative in Congress to ... were respectively entitled, ... State should assent to the grant ... act, upon the conditions stated ... of Congress. One of the conditions ... therein was, that no portion of ... proceeds arising from the sale of such ... should be expended for the erection ... or maintenance of any building or buildings ... the State of New Hampshire has accepted ... grant by an act of its Legislature, approved July 9, 1863; and by the provision of section 5 of said act, the Governor, by consent of the Council, was authorized to appoint a Committee of ten, whose duty it should be to prepare a scheme for the establishment of such a college within the State, and make a report thereon to the Legislature, in June, 1864. Said Committee was appointed and subsequently received from Hon. David Culver an offer to present to the State his farm, containing 400 acres, situated in Lyme, in Grafton County, and valued at twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) and in addition thereto, thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), for the purpose of erecting the necessary buildings thereon; provided the State would locate the College on said farm, in the town of Lyme. No offer of a donation was received from any other source.

At the June session, 1864, said Committee submitted a report, which was referred to a Special Committee of the House of Representatives, and they reported the following bill and recommended its passage:

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

AN ACT to incorporate, endow and establish the New Hampshire Agricultural College.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

SECTION 1. An Institution of learning is hereby authorized and established in this State, under the corporate name of the New Hampshire Agricultural College, for the purpose of furnishing greater facilities for education, and teaching, among other things, those branches of learning most nearly related to agriculture, and the mechanic arts, and providing a course of study and training adapted to promote practical education among those intending to engage in industrial pursuits.

SEC. 2. The government of the institution shall be vested in a Board of eleven Trustees, one of whom shall be the President of the College, and the remaining ten shall be appointed and commissioned by the Governor with advice of the Council; and all vacancies among those appointed as aforesaid shall be filled in like manner, and they shall be so classed and commissioned that the office of one of the ten shall become vacant each year.

SEC. 3. The Board of Trustees shall have the general control and management of the institution, and of the property and funds belonging to the same; and they shall see that its affairs are conducted in accordance with the laws of the State, the provisions of the act of Congress donating public lands to the several States and Territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts, approved July 2, 1862, so far as the same are applicable, and with the by-laws and regulations adopted for the government of the institution. They may make contracts for conducting the business of the institution, make conveyances under the corporate seal, may receive and hold the property and funds, and may manage, contract and invest the same, except as is otherwise provided.

SEC. 4. The Board of Trustees may elect a President of the College, who shall, ex-officio, be a member of the Board of Trustees; a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Farm Superintendent, and such professors, tutors, instructors and other officers as they shall judge proper; and shall determine the duties, responsibilities, tenure of office and salaries of the several officers, except as herein provided; regulate and prescribe the course of instruction, including military tactics, and make all needful provision for the material welfare of the students. They may establish, manage and control a primary department for the training and instruction of those not qualified to enter the collegiate department, and may determine the manner of calling, and the times and places of holding the meetings of the Board of Trustees.

SEC. 5. The corporation hereby established may have a common seal, to be under the control of the Board of Trustees; may take and hold real and personal estate by gift, grant, devise or otherwise; may take and hold property in trust for specific purposes and according to the will of the donor or grantor, if not inconsistent with the objects of the institution, and shall have as full and complete corporate powers, duties and liabilities as the Board of Trustees would have if constituted a body corporate by a grant to them; and the corporation is to act by and through the Board of Trustees as provided in this act.

SEC. 6. All the income interest and profit derived, or to be derived from the land scrip and lands received or to be received by the State from the United States under said act of Congress, and the proceeds thereof when invested, are hereby pledged and set apart forever for the establishment and endowment of said institution, to be used and appropriated agreeably to the provisions and conditions of said act of Congress, and not otherwise.

SEC. 7. Whatever sum of money may be appropriated by future Legislatures, shall be disbursed the necessary expenses of establishing said institution shall be paid over by the Governor, when authorized so to do by the same by the Treasurer, to the Trustees, to be by them expended, as herein provided, as the same shall be needed.

SEC. 8. The College shall be located on the premises of the Hon. David Culver, in the town of Lyme, in the County of Grafton; provided he shall within six months from this date, cause of this act convey said premises for the benefit of the College, agreeably to his proposition of March 15, 1864, as the same may be accepted by his conveyance and that of the Board of Trustees, and shall further pay, or secure to the satisfaction of the Board of Trustees, the sum of thirty thousand dollars in aid of the College—the location to take effect when the Board of Trustees shall notify the Governor and Council in writing that the terms have been complied with and the location accepted by them; otherwise the location shall be determined by the Board of Trustees, subject to the approval of the Governor and Council. When the location shall be established as herein provided, the Board of Trustees shall thereupon, by themselves, or a committee of their number to be appointed by them for the purpose, proceed to obtain and secure any necessary real estate, by gift, grant otherwise, and to prepare and put in suitable condition the necessary buildings, by erecting the same or otherwise, and to obtain the necessary implements, farming utensils, stock, books and apparatus, and to organize and put into operation the institution, and maintain therein a regular course of instruction. But the proposed erections and purchases shall be approved by a majority of the Board of Trustees, and shall be submitted to the Governor and Council, and approved by them.

SEC. 9. The Farm Superintendent shall, under the general direction of the Board of Trustees, have the charge of any experimental farm or real estate belonging to the institution, the farming tools, implements, stock, crops and provisions thereon; and shall annually, in the month of May, make a full, written report to the Trustees and to the Governor of his proceedings for the year preceding, and of the condition of the farm and property in his charge; of the results of his labors, pecuniary and otherwise, and of such other things as the Trustees shall direct. He shall keep an accurate account of the property and money which shall come into his hands, of his purchases and sales, and give a summary of the same in his annual report; and he shall account for and pay over to the Treasurer any money in his hands, as the board of Trustees shall direct.

SEC. 10. Before the Treasurer enters upon the duties of his office, he shall give bond to the satisfaction of the Board of Trustees, conditioned that he shall faithfully discharge his duties, and account for all money by him received as Treasurer, and shall annually, in the month of April, and as often as required, make a report of the state of the Treasury to the Board of Trustees, and to the Governor.

SEC. 11. The Board of Trustees shall annually, in the month of May, prepare and furnish to the Governor, for the information of the Legislature, a written report of their proceedings, including an account of the situation, prospects and wants of the College. And they shall annually make and distribute the reports required by section 5 of said act of Congress.

SEC. 12. The Trustees shall be allowed their reasonable charges and expenses in preparing the buildings and grounds, and putting the institution into operation, to be allowed by the Governor and Council, and the Governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant upon the Treasury of the State for the amount allowed. When the College is opened for the reception of students, the Trustees shall be allowed only for their necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties.

SEC. 13. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

The above bill was postponed to the next session of the Legislature by the passage of the following resolution:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, July 14, 1864.

"Resolved. That the further consideration of the bill providing for the establishment of an Agricultural College in this State be referred to the next session of the Legislature, and that the Clerk be directed to publish this resolution in the several newspapers in this State, and invite propositions therefor from the several cities, institutions of learning, and individuals, who may take interest therein, and lay the same before the next Legislature for their consideration."

In accordance with the directions contained in said resolution, and the facts herewith stated, I invite all such persons, institutions of learning, towns and cities, as feel an interest in the establishment of a College for the purpose of promoting education, especially in the department of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, in our state, and are desirous of aiding therein by donation, to make and forward their propositions therefor to B. Gerrish, Jr., Clerk of the House, that the same may be laid before the next Legislature, for their action thereon. B. GERRISH, JR.,

Clerk of the House of Representatives.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room, and the annoyance of shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and pleasant, as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

Cures in from one

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

Cherokee Cure, the great Indian Medicine,

ROOTS, BARKS AND LEAVES.

An unfailing cure for Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, and all diseases caused by self-pollution; such as Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficult Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Eruptions on the Face, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all the direful complaints caused by departing from the path of nature.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞ To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not! the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

☞ For full particulars, get a circular from any drug store in the country, or write the proprietors, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatment in pamphlet form.

☞ Prices, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by express to all parts of the world.

Sold by all respectable druggists everywhere.

Dr. W. R. MERWIN & CO., Sole Proprietors No. 63 Liberty street, New York.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

☞ They had a grand torchlight fete on the ice in Paris recently. The lake in the wood of Boulogne was brilliantly lighted up by blazing torches held by guards, soldiers and servants stationed around it, and most of the skaters carried little Chinese paper lanterns while flying over the ice, and aloft in the air, crossing each other and dancing about like wildfire over a fen, making a very pretty effect. There were also two calcium lights on the ground, the light of which was thrown upon any particular portion of the lake where particular good skating was in progress. About twenty American gentlemen and ladies were present and exhibited the greatest skill as skaters. The crack American skater of this year is Mr. Wm. Marshall, of New York, the engraver of the steel portrait of Washington.

WHY NOT DO IT.—For weary months, the rebel organs have been boasting of the immense, untouched military resource still remaining to them in the persons of their slaves, and threatening that they would, if pressed a little harder or further, let loose upon us a perfect avalanche of negro soldiery, a nightmare of black bayonets. To each and every demonstration of the fearful potency of this reserve and the perfect feasibility of employing it, we respond: "Certainly; the negroes will fight; we have tried them and know; then why don't you bring them on?" This shuts them up very close; and, when they next recur to the subject, they go back to the beginning, and demonstrate over again—quite convincingly but needlessly—the vast military resource possessed by them in their remaining two millions and over of slaves.—Trib.

☞ The returns of the income tax make an interesting revelation of the wealth of the country and its general distribution. The number of men who enjoy fortunes is probably greater in this country than in any other on the globe, and in many instances, the amount is equal to those of old aristocratic houses in England. — Which is all very well, if we only grow in intelligence and virtue as fast as we increase in wealth.

— Some of the Pittsburg manufacturers are experimenting in burning coal so as to save fuel and relieve the atmosphere of coal-soot. The coal is heated in a retort, and the smoke evolved is mixed with atmospheric air at the point of combustion by a peculiar draft. The process is estimated as saving fully one-half of the coal consumed in the ordinary methods.

— A man who formerly published a weekly newspaper in Connecticut, on settling up with a female compositor recently, after four years of service, deducted from her pay the amount of four years' subscription! She had taken a copy of the paper every week, as is customary for compositors in all newspaper printing offices. Small business.

— The following advertisement was published in an English paper during the last two weeks of December: "The daughter of a peer in B——shire being thrown on her own resources for a shelter and maintenance, is seeking a situation as governess. Please address," etc.

— Arthur Leech has written a communication to the London Times, complaining of the desecration of the tomb of John Bunyan. The recumbent statue of the most "immortal of dreamers," he says, has been mutilated, parts of the nose and mouth being completely gone, evidently the result of ruthless violence.

— An omnibus drawn by a locomotive, instead of horses, is now running at Chantenay, in the south of France. It can be turned and stopped with ease; and both inside and outside passengers travel by it without fear.

— Probably the largest salary paid to any church singer in this country, is received by a boy but twelve years—Master Richard Coker of Trinity Choir, New York. This salary is one thousand dollars per annum.

— Persons interested in the manufacture of paper from the husks of corn invite farmers to preserve that article, as it is probable they will command a high price.

— He who spends his life-time in pursuit of an ideal which he can never hope to reach, is like a man chasing his shadow.—It is always before him, but he never catches it.

— The Springfield Union says that since the war tax struck the whiskey in that place, it has become so weak that it is run in candle moulds, frozen, and sold by the stick.

— The Patapsco is the third iron-clad that lies at the bottom of Charleston harbor.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 31, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

A Beaufort, S. C., correspondent of the 25th, states that Gen. Sherman's advance is at Salkehatchie, midway between Charleston and Savannah, on the railroad line. A considerable rebel force is at Ashepoo, and rebel reinforcements have been sent to Branchville to hold that place against Sherman. Several cannon from the outworks of Charleston have also been sent to Branchville. It is currently believed from the persistent accounts of deserters, that Charleston will be evacuated. Movements by the rebels indicate that they are removing the heavy guns from James and Sullivan Islands.

One or two Monitors, and several gunboats, have joined Dahlgren's fleet off Charleston. Gen. Saxton has been appointed Inspector of settlements and plantations.

A Savannah letter of the 19th says the last of Gen. Sherman's army would leave that city on the 20th. Two divisions of the 50th Corps were at Hardeeville, S. C. when last heard from.

Admiral Porter reports to the Navy Department the capture of the blockade runner steamer Blenheim on the night of the 24th, in Cape Fear river. She was from Nassau bound in, not knowing that the place had fallen into our hands. She had a valuable assorted cargo.

The Savannah correspondent of the Herald states that the donations of food sent to the people of Savannah were distributed from the market-house to those formerly rich, but now poor; to white and black, indiscriminately, under the direction of the authorized committee. The kind and eloquent letter of Mayor Lincoln of Boston, to Mayor Arnold of Savannah, was the theme of much approbative comment by old citizens.

The steamer Eclipse, which exploded her boilers in the Tennessee river opposite Johnsonville, on the 26th, had on board the members of the 9th Indiana battery and other troops. In all over 140 lives were lost.

Richmond papers of Friday, 27th inst., have a long editorial denouncing the calls which are being circulated for a convention of the States, and attacking bitterly the submission party which, it intimates, is cropping out in Georgia.

The Wilmington Journal of the 22d says the Federal forces have fallen back and are concentrating at Fort Fisher.

The Richmond Dispatch, speaking of the vast importance of the business of the blockade runners, says that between October 26th and the end of the year, the importation of meat into the port of Wilmington amounted to 8,663,000 pounds. Allowing 200 pounds for a barrel, that would be 43,165 barrels, or nearly 5000 barrels a week. The importation of such a quantity shows that the supply in the South must be short. The rebel pickets in Lee's army say that they have been eating meat sent from England. The supply furnished by the whole country south of Wilmington and by England being at once cut off, the problem of finding meat for the troops in Virginia becomes very serious and troublesome. In every respect Lee's condition is becoming more and more embarrassing.

A slave man employed on a river steamer near Louisville, jumped into the river twice the other day when his master came to reclaim him, preferring death to servitude. But the brutes would not allow him to drown and he was returned to bondage. When will Kentucky take her place with Missouri and Tennessee as a free State?

The N. Y. Herald publishes the rebel Army Roster, obtained, it says, from a most authentic source, which shows their full strength at only 168,000, scattered from the James to the Red rivers, and from the Atlantic coast to the Indian Territory. It also shows Lee's army to be their main dependence.

It is said the rebel Gen. Kirby Smith has been sometime negotiating with Maximilian for the transfer of all the rebel troops in the Trans-Mississippi Department to his standard. We shall see.

Richmond papers say the rebel War Department has no information of Sherman moving toward Augusta. A large lot of blankets, etc., had been delivered to Federal prisoners in Richmond.

Breckinridge has been appointed Secretary of War. Hood's farewell address to his army is published. Dick Taylor succeeds him. No official appointment of Gen. Lee as General-in-Chief has yet been made.

The Richmond Whig reports that the Federals landed a few days ago from their vessels, smashed up the salt works in the vicinity of Ocklockonee river, Fla., took kettles, killed eight mules, carried off negroes and considerable property.

The Richmond Dispatch mentions a report that an order had been issued directing the release from irons or unusual confinement of all the prisoners of war held in the South, who may be so punished or confined, and that all prisoners of war be placed upon the same footing.

A writer in the Mobile Tribune charges that there is a reconstruction party, or at least a submission party, in the Alabama Legislature, operating covertly to that end.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

— It is rumored by some Republican papers that Hon. E. W. Harrington, Democratic candidate for Governor, will decline the nomination of the State convention. The rumor receives confirmation from the fact that Capt. Harrington has not signified his acceptance of the nomination. He evidently does not like the idea of being "sent home in a box next March." Rather doubtful story, we think.

— Col. Joseph C. Abbott, 7th New Hampshire regiment, has been brevetted Brigadier General for gallant and meritorious conduct at Fort Fisher. Gen. Abbott was recommended for promotion last summer, by Maj. Gen. Butler, for conspicuous ability and gallantry. He has proved himself to be a thorough soldier, and nobly earned his promotion.

☞ The Concord correspondent of the Boston Journal writes that the interior of the State House is being torn out in preparation for the great changes soon to be made in that edifice. The Library has been removed to the City Hall, where most of the State offices will be temporarily located. The stone foundations for the porticoes in front and the extension in the rear were laid last November, and the granite to be used hereafter is now being quarried and wrought. The contract for furnishing stone has been taken by the Granite Railway Company, the same firm which supplied the material for the new City Hall, Boston. Mr. Fellows of Concord does the masonry by contract, and Messrs. Mead & Mason the woodwork, in the same manner. As soon as spring opens, the work in all departments of the building will be pushed forward in earnest. The Legislature will probably assemble in the City Hall next summer. The re-modeled State House will not be finished, it is thought, before May, 1866.

☞ The Boston Journal's correspondent states that in Concord "active volunteering has commenced again under very encouraging auspices. The seventh company of the Eighteenth Regiment, now being recruited in Concord, is nearly filled up, and will be mustered into the service and sent to the field this week. Its officers are Willis G. Kimball, Concord; Lieuts. Clarion H. Kimball, Concord, and Noah Tebbetts, Rochester. Recruiting for the eighth company is already going on. Capt. Wm. Graham, of the 1st U. S. Artillery, late mustering and disbursing officer, has opened a recruiting office for his regiment, and is having quite good success in obtaining men. The regular light artillery service presents flattering inducements to young men entering the army."

☞ A few days since a substitute who had deserted from the army and had been arrested, taken to Galloupe's Island, Boston harbor, and securely ironed, succeeded in freeing himself from his irons and made his escape, and the way he managed was a mystery to those in charge. He was shortly after rearrested and returned to his old quarters. The old saying that "murder will out" has proved true in this case, and the mystery connected with his escape has been cleared up. The police arrested several night-walkers, and among them was a girl named Alice McLaughlin. While in the station-house, a conversation was overheard between Alice and another girl, in which she stated that she procured a key made to fit the irons which confined a friend of her's at Galloupe's Island, and that she made a visit to him, secreting the key in her mouth, and when kissing her friend the bounty-jumper, she managed to transfer the key from her mouth to that of the aforesaid jumper, and that it was by means of this key that he freed himself from his irons and escaped. The locksmith who made her the key has been arrested, charged with aiding a soldier to desert—and it is to be hoped they will all get their deserts.

— The news of the capture of Fort Fisher was immediately telegraphed by some rebel sympathizers to their friends in Halifax, and the merchants there at once chartered the fastest steamer in port to carry the news to Bermuda, Nassau, and around generally, to keep the blockade runners out of the trap. A gentleman recently from Halifax says that there were quite a number of blockade runners there in process of preparation to run the blockade, and that upon the reception of the news of the capture of the fort, work upon them was immediately stopped. The Halifax traders felt very ill-natured over the success of Gen. Terry and Adm. Porter.

☞ Gen. Butler's speech to the citizens of Lowell is a very able defence of his own course, and consequently a keen indirect criticism of some other great men. It will be read all over the country, as it has been all over New England already.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER, for this week, contains a sketch of MR. EVERETT'S life from the pen of the great historian, the Hon. George Bancroft, written expressly for the Ledger. Mr. Bancroft was Mr. Everett's life-long friend, and for that reason Mr. Bonner requested him to write this sketch. The 4th page of the Ledger—the page on which Mr. Everett's articles were usually printed, is in mourning, and the entire contents of that page are devoted to the memory of the departed statesman.—N. Y. Evening Express.

AMERICAN VELVET.—The American Artisan says the American Velvet Company of Newark, N. J., have exhibited in New York some beautiful specimens of silk velvets, of every variety of color, plain and plaid, which, by importing the raw silk duty free, they are enabled to sell at less than half the price of imported velvets. The fabrication of these goods reflects the highest credit on American skill, and is another evidence of the successful progress of our domestic manufacturing interests since the war. The capital of the company is $500,000, which is now being distributed among the city capitalists.

☞ Gov. Oglesby of Illinois is a Kentuckian by birth, and doubtless shared the prejudices of his native State; but he has been fighting rebels until he carries a pretty fair allowance of lead in his body, which seems to have operated to clear his brain, since, in his Inaugural Address, he says:

"Is the public sentiment of the country to be checked or delayed in its determination to eradicate Slavery from the soil of the Republic, by the constant inquiry: 'What is to become of the negro after he is free?' It might better be asked, what may not become of him? He can labor, he can learn, he can fight, improve, and aspire; and if, after we shall have tried for as long to make him a useful free man as we have a useless slave, we shall fail, and he shall fail, there will be time enough left in which to solve this persistent question."

☞ The New Yorkers have been in a stew, because the Bureau of Internal Revenue at Washington has permitted the income lists to be published. "Credit," they say, "has been shaken by this exposure." They might have added, that gross dishonesty has thus been exposed. Some of the leading New York papers make a fine reflection upon the morals of monied men in that city, when they say that the Bureau has treated them very unfaitaly in not letting them know beforehand, that their sworn statements were to be published.

DANGEROUS.—In regard to the northern traitors who sell goods to rebels, against the law, a correspondent of the Times illustrates by a story told of the Dutch in the time of Charles II. They were in alliance with England against France, when it was discovered that the Dutch merchants were selling arms and ammunition to the French. The English ambassador remonstrated against such conduct, and the Dutch merchants replied: "We will scorch our sails in hell to make money." — "Historicus," the well-known legal writer of the London Times, publishes a long letter denouncing the instructions by Mr. Benjamin to the rebel Secretary of the Navy as to the treatment of neutral vessels by rebel cruisers. He hopes that whatever else their instructions may accomplish, they will at least make it certain that no rebel cruiser shall again hail from an English port.

— Washington correspondence says that the rebel Congressmen are withdrawing and making for their homes, that Gen. Johnston has refused to take command of Beauregard's department, Lee has declined to take charge of any other army than his own, and that every member of the rebel Cabinet, except Trenholm, has gone out.

How is it? By the returns of the Grand Trunk for the last week, its net receipts are shown no be $1,097.00 more than for the corresponding week last year. How, then, has the passport system ruined the business of the road?—Portland Press.

— Thurlow Weed says, in a recently published letter, that through recklessness or dishonesty in the Commissary Department the government has been recently wronged out of a million of dollars by an open contract for eighty thousand bags of coffee.

Rev. Dr. Blagden preached a sermon at the Old South Church, Boston, Sunday afternoon, for moderate use, instead of total abstinence, as to liquors and other creature comforts. The reverend doctor is supposed to speak experimentally.—Springfield Republican.

— A correspondent of the Country Gentleman says that he "has been quite successful in breaking hens of the inclination to set, by tying a piece of scarlet cloth to the end of their tail feathers. A bit of waxed thread will hold it fast."

One year ago the New York "Leader" advised its Democratic cotemporaries to apply the hated term "Abolitionist" to the Republicans. Now that paper deliberately inscribes the word in big letters on its banner, and calls upon its party to adopt it as its political Shibboleth! Too late, gentlemen, too late.—Statesman.

PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the

United Petroleum Farms

ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Alleghany River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,760 daily, or $642,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,275,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $53,000 per day, or $19,045,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Porcupine, and Redfield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Alleghany River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would otherfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

AFTER THEM.—Police Officer Johnson, as usual, is after the evil-doers—those who spread false reports, as per his notice in our advertising columns. It appears that a sailor from the ship Vandalia offered himself for enlistment, and (being unknown) was, with others, taken to Portland for the purpose. There he declared himself a deserter, and was arrested, as also the agent who innocently took him down; and Officer Johnson went down, and hailed the messenger, and the sailor was returned to his place, while the man who (whether innocently or not) offered him for enlistment, was arrested and taken to Portland—but returned here for trial, and examined last Saturday and held in bail. But Mr. Johnson, we are assured, was not arrested, nor in any way implicated in any charge; and the stories to the contrary he insists are without the least foundation or excuse; and it will be seen he is determined to ascertain their source and make the libeller smart for it.

☞ The Marine Barracks at the Navy Yard are now completed, and present a comfortable and cleanly appearance, everything having been provided for the convenience and comfort of the occupants. The gentlemanly officers stationed there—Capt. James Lewis, and 1st Lieuts. H. J. Bishop and I. H. Washburn,— contribute no little to the attraction of the place and the enjoyment of the visitor. Their "latch-string is always out," and courtesy, cordiality and generosity are prominent in their composition. Any one wishing a short ride, can procure a team, enjoy a pleasant hour at these quarters, and return with a confirmation of the above opinion. We are glad Orderly Sergt. Dunling retains his position, through all the changes.

☞ Rev. Mr. Patterson's Lecture on the Printing Press was favorably received by a great audience on Sunday evening, as indeed all the previous Lectures of the course have been. This Lecture on The Press was from the text, "Of making many books there is no end,"—and it was a very fair and impartial weighing of truth and falsehood in the balances of the sactuary. It should be given to the great public in some way, either by repetition as a lecture elsewhere, or by publication, or both.

☞ Hon Thos. Russell of Boston, gives the 8th Lyceum Lecture, this evening. No matter what his topic, the discourse will be entertaining and instructive.

NEWSPAPER MAKING.—Few people who have not tried it, have any correct idea of the amount of work, — head-work and hand-work, necessary to the production of even a small paper. A distant cotemporary in illustrating "what it takes to make a good newspaper," tells this story — which is true in the main of all of us:

We receive at this office thirteen daily newspapers, and from sixty to eighty weeklies, all of which we make it a point to read. From this mass and labyrinth of matter we carefully select such articles, items, gems and tit-bits as comprise the miscellany of our columns. Each editor acts upon this principle; hence, each individual paper is an epitome of the whole; and in proportion to the extent of the editor's judgment, contains the quintessence of the whole.

It requires more talent to make good selections than it does to write a good leader; hence, we imagine that the popularity of a paper depends to a great extent on its selections. That editor is a fool who imagines he can write better on all subjects than any of his contemporaries. We all have our specialties—some peculiar gift—in which we may excel many others. It is the art of combining these gifts, and culling their choicest gems, that makes the readable, eagerly-sought-for, splendid journal. That is our idea of what a good paper should be; but, bless us, how few of us "fill the bill."

We receive at the Chronicle Office, 21 dailies, regularly: and of weekly and transient, an uncounted pile.

Communication.

☞ The New York Tribune of January 23d, says that as no more legal tender notes are to be issued, prudent people will, in estimating the future course of prices, remember that the inflation of currency, upon which the high quotations of 1863-4 and 1865 are based, has been checked. The military situation makes it probable that from this time onward the volume of currency will be reduced, gold steadily fall, and with this contraction a violent collapse be seen in the price of all commodities. This is very correct. Every Union victory tends to reduce the high prices of the necessities of life, and the gold premium. The gold gamblers of New York, have become alarmed at the prospect of peace, and reduced the latter to $2.01, and it will soon fall fifty cents lower. The present high prices will fall with that of gold. x.

Our correspondent may see that gold has risen and fallen since he wrote.

IMPORTANT LEGAL DECISION.—The Kennebec Journal gives a report of an important case decided a few days since in the Supreme Court at Washington. The suit was that of Going Hathorn of Pittsfield, Me., vs. Josiah Calef of Saco, Me., a stockholder in the Portland and Kennebec Railroad Company. The plaintiff, Mr. Hathorn, sold the company in 1855 several thousand dollars' worth of railroad sleepers. The company was known to be insolvent; but by the law of Maine, and by a provision in the charter of the corporation, every stockholder was made liable for the debts of the company, to the amount of his stock; and to this security the plaintiff trusted, in making sale of his sleepers.

The next year after the plaintiff's debt was contracted, the legislature of Maine passed an act repealing all liability of stockholders for company debts. In 1858, however, having recovered judgment against the company, the plaintiff, believing the act of repeal to be void, brought suit against the defendant and other stockholders to recover the amount of his claim, holding that the liability of the stockholders was of the nature of a contract. Upon the trial, the Supreme Court of Maine decided that the liability of a stockholder was a mere statute liability, and not a contract; that what was created by statute could be taken away by statute, and that the Act of 1856 repealing personal liability was constitutional and valid, and ordered a verdict for the defendant.

The plaintiff denied the soundness of this decision. He contended that the defendant having held himself out to third persons as responsible under the charter of the corporation, and the law of the State, for the debts of the company, and he having trusted the company upon strength of that responsibility, and parted with his property, relying upon it as his security, a contract was thereby created between him and the defendant, within the meaning of the Constitution of the United States, which the Legislature could not destroy, and that the Act of 1856, so far as it attempted to destroy or impair such contract, was unconstitutional and void. He accordingly appealed to the Law Court, but that tribunal reaffirmed the decision of the Supreme Court.

The case was then carried to the Supreme Court of the United States, which has delivered an opinion reversing the judgment of the Supreme Court of Maine, and holding that the liability of a stockholder, when perfected by the creditor's trusting the company and parting with his property upon the strength of it, was not a mere statute liability, but a contract within the meaning of the Constitution of the United States, which the Legislature of Maine could not destroy; and that the Act of 1856, which attempted to destroy the same, was unconstitutional and void.

—Some Canadian girls attending school in Detroit having been refused transportation over the river for want of passports, Mr. Seward has decided that they are not travellers, under the rule, and need no papers.

GYMNASTICS.—The classes are to meet at Mercantile Hall; the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 o'clock, and the ladies and gentlemen on the same evenings at 7.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School for ladies and gents, is held at the State St. School House, Monday and Friday evenings.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Spear's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it must eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. The Wholesale Agents are Wholesale Grocers.

All efforts to rival the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap have signally failed; we do not hesitate to pronounce it the cheapest and best Soap in existence: it will take out grease, spots, or paint, will make nice soft soap, and make clothes of all grades look better after washing than any other article of the kind in the market; it will not injure the finest fabric. Try it,—their Depot is at 112 Liberty Street, New York. Most of the grocers sell it 54

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

PETROLEUM AND COAL STOCK EXCHANGE,
[99 STATE STREET,
BOSTON,

Buy and Sell Oil and Coal Stocks on Commission, in New York, Philadelphia, and in Europe.

We believe we can offer superior inducements to all persons wishing to invest in

Petroleum Stocks,

Such investments, as a class, offer greater inducements to persons of either large or small means, than any the world has ever known, not even excepting the

Siver Mines of Mexico and So. America.

The cost of obtaining this Oil is so comparatively small that

A single Well producing only 10 Barrels per Day

will yield an income, over all expenses, of more than

$25,000 PER ANNUM.

Many wells are now yielding from 25 to 75, and several have reached over 1000 Barrels, while one, (the Noble Well, on Oil Creek, Penn.,) has yielded no less than

3000 Barrels per Day,
Worth $30,000 at the Wells.

The undersigned are Regular Agents for the principal Petroleum Companies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and having no more interest in one than another, persons desiring information can rely upon receiving an unbiassed account of the standing and prospects of the various companies on the market.

Enquiries by mail will receive prompt attention.

Subscriptions received to all first-class Companies upon the most favorable terms.

Receipts and Certificates will be forwarded in exchange for available funds, without charge; and Petroleum and Coal Stocks will be sold at the Brokers' Boards of New York and Philadelphia at the regular rates of commission.

We would call special attention to the following Companies now being organized in this city, viz:—

BEAR-HUNTING BY A WOMAN.—One day a Lapp woman went out to fish on a lake, accompanied by her son, who was fourteen years old. When they had caught a sufficient supply, they landed on a part of the shore which was thickly overgrown with fir and underwood. Presently the woman's quick eye fell on a large heap of boughs, reeds, moss, etc., and on nearer inspection, she found a large hole underneath the mass of rubbish, and felt convinced it was the entrance to a bear's "Hi" or cave. She was a courageous and resolute little body, and nothing daunted by the discovery nor reflecting that she was alone, hastened back to the boat to fetch her axe and rifle (for Lapp a woman generally goes armed, and is usually an expert shot). Now, her sisters in other parts of the civilized world would most probably have been frightened out of their wits, and have beat a speedy retreat under such circumstances. Her only anxiety was lest the bear should get off.

On returning she proceeded to cut down a small fir-sapling, which she pointed at one end, and gave it to the boy to braddle about in the hole to ascertain whether it was occupied or not, while she stood with uplifted axe, a little on one side. No sooner was the pole inserted than out came the head of a great she bear, and down came the axe on her scull, with such force that it remained sticking fast in the wound, and accompanied Brain as she retreated to the furthest end of the cave. Time being up for round number two, and her opponent not putting in an appearance, she determined to try the effect of a shot. No sooner had she fired down the hole, than out bolted a cub about the size of a sheep-dog, which her son cleverly managed to catch hold of by the hind leg. But it was too strong for the little fellow, and, after dragging him for some distance, managed to get away. Determined, however, not to lose him, mother and son went in pursuit and speedily overtook the animal, which had taken to the water. A few well-administered taps with the end of the oar soon rendered him hors du combat.

Having secured him, the courageous little woman went back again to the "Hi" and gave it another stirring up. But all was still. Next she fired a second shot, but nothing moved. Concluding that the bear must be dead, or else escaped during her absence, she determined to dig her out, a work of no small labor. Success, however, attended her exertions, for at length she found the bear lying quite dead, with the axe still sticking in her cleft skull, and by her side another cub as big as the first, with a bullet wound through his neck, also dead. No mean achievement for a woman and her boy!—All the Year Round.

EXTREME INHUMANITY.—The following item, which we copy from the court record of the Philadelphia Press, almost surpasses belief:

Rebecca Reed, residing at 543 North Third street, was arraigned before a magistrate on the charge of cruelty to a colored girl, twelve years old. The evidence in this case presents an array of startling facts. It seems that some time since the guardians of the poor bound this little girl out to Mrs. Reed. The child has had a hard time of it. The neighborhood has often been thrown into excitement by the loud shrieks and screams of the girl. It is alleged that Mrs. Reed was in the habit of beating her most unmercifully with a cowhide, and at other times with a broom-handle. The back of this badly-treated girl was scarred in a terrible manner. Some of her wounds are not yet healed. She was dragged about the room, punched, kicked, thumped, and her flesh was made to quiver under the stroke of the cowskin at early hours in the morning, and at the deep, lone hours of midnight.

On Monday night last, the atmosphere being extremely cold, the little girl was stripped stark naked and made to go into the yard to wash some clothing. She came very near freezing to death. To save herself from death, the child, naked as she was, got out of the yard, and begged of a neighbor for "pity's sake to take her in, that she was freezing."

The half-frozen creature was admitted and wrapped in a shawl. Word was sent to the guardians of the poor of the circumstances of the case, and the arrest of Mrs. Reed was ordered.

The police officers and neighbors testified as to the above facts. The defendant was required to enter bail in the sum of $800 to answer at court. She sent for a number of her neighbors to enter bail for her, but they refused to comply.

FATE OF A BOUNTY JUMPER. The Kennebec Journal has a letter from the army before Richmond, which relates the following incident:

"Last night a private belonging to the 10th Conn. regiment deserted, and met a becoming fate. He had communicated his intentions in the early part of the evening to a friend who was acting with him on valette. His more cautious friend listened to his statement and apparently concurred, telling the delinquent, however, that he thought he should not desert until after he was paid off. Not suspecting his real intentions, the intending deserter left his post at 2 o'clock A. M. and made tracks for rebeldom. His mistrusting friend sent his compliments after him in the shape of a bullet, which took effect instantaneously. —Both men were substitutes. The live substitute, for this act, will have a thirty days' furlough, and a prize of $30. One of the other pickets had also got wind of the affair and was lying in wait for his victim, and was very much disappointed in consequence of the march being thus stole upon him. Securing a furlough is considered a great achievement."

—One of Wheeler's men, at the time he was "cutting up Sherman's rear" so terribly, was going through North Alabama to rejoin his command. Stopped at a house to get dinner. To an old lady's, 'who's you in'e?' replied, 'Wheeler's Cavalry.' 'Whar yoine?' 'To the front.' The old lady put on her spectacles and eyed him intently, then drawled out, 'Mister, some o' the fellows you call Wheeler's hoss critters, been gwine South, some East and some West, some this way and some that; they all sed they war gwine to the front; now, mister, kin you tell me what is the front?' The soldier left.—Rebel Paper.

ARMING THE SLAVES.—As a last and desperate resort, some of the Rebel Rulers propose to arm their slaves and give them their freedom. This has given rise to acrimonious debate in the Rebel Congress. Jeff. Davis is for arming, saying the slaves are of no value. But the rulers know too well that arming the slaves would be a measure full of danger to themselves, by putting arms into their hands: should they have a little discipline, they would rise against their oppressors and crimson the sunny plains of the South with their blood. Out of towards four millions, they could bring perhaps five hundred thousand to join in a general revolt. From all accounts they fully understand that the object of the war was to perpetuate their chains, and that our armies will set them free. Therefore, notwithstanding all the falsehoods told them by their masters, they pray for the success of our liberating armies. About two hundred thousand colored freed men have joined our armies, and are as brave and daring as our white troops, for they are fighting for their freedom. Suppose, then, that a colored regiment under a rebel commander, should face a colored regiment on our side, who can doubt that the former would revolt and join the latter? From all quarters of rebeldom the slaves are making their escape whenever they can be protected by our troops.

The North need feel no alarm, for all the slaves require is arms, which could they obtain, they would soon put an end to the rebellion, with some Northern aid. Arming the slaves! As the dying serpent strikes its poisonous fangs into its own flesh, it would but hasten the long expected result. At this moment, wherever the slaves are numerous, the master has a sleepless night on his pillow, fearful of a general rising of his "goods and chattels."

Ask the citizens of Savannah whether the rebel government will arm the slaves? "Why say they, we have lived in a perfect dread of them as it was, and what should we do if they were armed?" The people of Savannah now feel no alarm, but repose in safety, because the liberated slaves are fully satisfied with the boon of freedom. So it is in Maryland, where the slaves who escaped from bondage, are fast returning to their old masters, to be kindly treated and receive a fair compensation, the only stimulus to industry. JUSTICE.

WASHINGTON FIRES.—A letter from Washington to the Boston Transcript says:

The fire which destroyed so much of the Smithsonian Institute accomplished its work solely through the impotency of the Fire Department of the District. It burnt leisurely, almost without let or hindrance from the firemen. There was not power enough in the steam engines to force a stream of water above the first story. Boston firemen, with a few hand engines, would have confined its ravages to the upper story of the structure. A good story is told of an eastern man who was in the city when the President's stables were consumed. He saw the flames and cried "fire!" A policeman touched him on the shoulder, and cautioned him against making so much noise. "Fire! fire!" bawled the representative of Eastern notions. "You must not make such a commotion," emphatically ejaculated the policeman. "But don't you see that a tremendous fire is raging above there?" retorted the man so ignorant of the habits of the quiet citizens of Washington. "Well, suppose there is, you need not get so excited about it," rejoined the guardian of the public peace. With the last remark, the individual thus admonished went to the conflagration, and saw the stables burnt up before the arrival of the Fire Department!

ACCOUNTED FOR.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post says: "Admiral Porter wishes to know how the 'broad Arrow' came to the Wilmington forts." Answer: Evidently from the long bow that England is apt to draw against this country.—Trans.

What is the difference between a brewer and a flea? One boys hops, and the other takes them.

Why are the rebels like Claudius in the tragedy of Virginius? Because they seem bent on the ruin of Virginia.

Why is a man who stakes his money in a gambling house, like a star? Because he's an ass-to-risk.

What is the difference between a summer dress in winter and an extracted tooth? One is too thin and the other is tooth-out.

Who was the fastest woman mentioned in the Bible? Herodias; when she got a head of John the Baptist, on a charger.

Why are good resolutions like fainting women? Because they want carrying out. And because they are very often faints.

MAXIMS—Never speak badly of others even with a cause; remember we all have our faults, and if we expect charity from the world, we must be charitable ourselves.

A kind word and a pleasant voice are gifts easy to give; be liberal with them; they are worth more than money.—Country Gentleman.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

The Memphis Bulletin says the steamers Chippewa and Annie Jacobs, two of the fleet that went up the Arkansas River to Fort Smith, were captured and burned at White Oak Shoal. Two other steamers were damaged, but escaped.

Steamer Magenta arrived at Cairo, from New Orleans 24th, reports all quiet along the river. A steamer had arrived at New Orleans from Mobile Bay, bringing the report of the evacuation of Mobile. The report was received from the flagship on the 20th.

A SCHEME FOR REBEL RECOGNITION. The N. Y. Tribune, in an editorial, announces that it has a clue to a recognition intrigue. It appears that Jeff. Davis long since sent the Roman Catholic Bishop Lynch of South Carolina to hunt up sympathizers. The Bishop went to Rome and issued mandates to the catholic church that its expansion and predominance throughout this hemisphere depended upon the success of the confederates.

Thereupon the Roman Catholic Powers of France, Spain and Austria, under the guidance of the Pope, have formed a secret league pledged to recognize the Confederacy after the 4th of March next, on the ground that it had taken no part in the last Presidential election.

On receiving the above item, we tacked to it this remark: — viz. "Very sandy ground that, on which to build a church."

At the same time, by telegraph, came this item:

The Tribune also states that the rebels will burn Richmond if in danger of being taken, so as to show Christendom they would rather be exterminated than subjugated.

Here we make this comment: "Rather doubtful this, also: unless they are all gone crazy."

But when we get by mail, the Tribune itself, we find the article closing thus:

We give this story as it reaches us, without assuming that it has other foundation than the sanguine hopes of the Rebels and their European friends. That they expect some such interposition in their behalf, and that this interposition has incited them to repel the advances made to them through Mr. Blair, is nearly certain. We further learn that they are anticipating a fresh and earnest attempt to dispossess them of Richmond, and that, in case of its success, they intend to burn that city to its foundations, so as to leave it a witness to Christendom of their resolve to be exterminated rather than subjugated. But the total destruction of a large city is more easily decreed than effected.

This sends the report into the regions of moonshine.

DOUBTFUL TWAITLE. — The N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch says Blair's mission was not an entire failure, but discloses the facts that there are confusion, jealousy, suspicions, and bickerings among rebel officials; that Jeff. Davis and his associates admit that they will be obliged to submit; that all want to make terms, but no official is willing to assume the responsibility.

The Tribune's despatch says the Democratic members of Congress state that Blair told them that Davis entreated him to secure the passage of the amendment to the constitution abolishing slavery, as slavery had induced dissnion, and the only thing that continued rebellion was the hope of retaining slavery.

☞ The Panama Chronicle says "the U. S. S. Saginaw, with the seven pirates taken off the S. S. Salvador, has arrived at San Francisco. The prisoners have been placed in Fort Alcatraz preparatory to trial. Another piratical plan to prey on American Commerce in the Pacific has just been discovered in San Francisco. One Michael Hayes, the ringleader, has been arrested and if convicted on trial, will be hanged.

☞ The army and Navy Journal says that the Navy Department designs establishing a European Squadron, under command of Rear-Admiral Goldsborough, and will largely increase the Brazil and East India squadrons. The screw steamer Colorado, 52, is to come to the Boston Yard for repairs, and go thence to Europe as the flagship of Rear-Admiral Goldsborough.

— The Mississippi estates of Jeff. Davis and his brother Joseph, ten thousand acres in extent, it is said are to be colonized by blacks, who are to form a community by themselves, and to be protected in the exercise of their rights.

— The Quota of Newburyport is not full; Mayor Jackman received notice from Provost Marshal Johnson on Saturday, notifying him of a deficiency of fifty men. This is different from what was expected there or at the State House, for Gen. Schouler had announced it full, and Mayor Jackman counted 70 ahead.

— A young lady of Greenwood died a short time since on the day she was to be married, and in ten days afterward her intended husband died of the same disease —diptheria.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 29.

Mr. Editor:—Such a "Carnival on Ice" as the Baltimoreans are enjoying at the present time, was never known before. For a week past the cold has been intense, and has put a stop to navigation entirely; not a craft of any kind being able to get up to the city, since Thursday.—But of course the cold weather makes good skating, and the people are improving it too,—ladies as well as gentlemen indulging in the favorite and healthy amusement.

I was down at the "Basin" a few minutes since, and the scene was lively; as many as 2000 persons being on the ice, while as many more were standing on the piers looking at them. Such a scene was probably never witnessed here before, as it is very seldom that the Basin freezes over. Business in skates has been brisk for the last week—thousands buying them to take their first lessons on.

The closing up of the harbor has caused an entire suspension of the Oyster business which, by the way, is a very extensive one here, much more so than anybody would suppose. It is probable that from 2000 to 3000 persons are thrown out of employment by this alone. One of the largest Oyster packers in the city offered $10,000 yesterday to have a track opened so that his Oyster boats could get up—but nobody undertook the job. Way down below Fort McHenry there is still one vast sheet of solid ice. The weather has become a little warmer to-day and it is possible that nature may condescend to do what art fears to undertake—(No reflection on the energy of Baltimore intended.) The Yankees are coming in pretty fast now, and it will not be many years before some things can be done here as well as in Northern cities.—

Truly Yours,

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.

EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS.—In his late speech at Lowell, Gen. Butler explained his theory in regard to exchange of prisoners thus:

I had determined to bring about a system of special exchanges until we should receive all the white men held by the rebels and should give them an equal number in exchange, and thus all our white soldiers would be liberated. When the exchange, man for man, had given us all our white soldiers in their prisons, there would still remain about fifteen or twenty thousand rebel prisoners in our hands and only about five hundred negro soldiers in theirs. Arriving at that point, I proposed to say to the Confederates, we are willing to take these five hundred men and give you an equal number of your soldiers. If the rebels refused that offer, and still held our negro soldiers in bondage and at labor, I designed to say to them, "If you do not deliver me those men like other prisoners of war, and if you work those five hundred, I will work your fifteen thousand," and as Napoleon built the Canal of Languedoc with forty thousand Austrian prisoners of war, so will this Government build the ship canal we want to connect the Mississippi River with the Lakes, by the labor of the rebel prisoners in our hands. My word for it, if that stand had been taken, we should never have built much canal, because when afterward the rebels set some of my negro soldiers at work on the fortifications, and I put an equal number of the Virginia Reserves at work in Dutch Gap in retaliation, the negroes were instantly taken out of the trenches, and treated as prisoners of war. I reported the points of agreement between myself and the rebel agent to the Secretary of War, and asked for power to adjust the other questions of differences so as to have the question of enslaving negro soldiers stand alone to be dealt with by itself, and that the whole power of the United States should be exerted to do justice to those who had fought the battles of the country and been captured in its service. The whole subject was referred by the Secretary of the War to the Lieutenant General commanding, who telegraphed me on the 14th of April, 1864, in substance, "Break off communication on the subject of exchange until further orders." And therefore all negotiations were broken off, save that a special exchange of sick and wounded went on either side went on. On the 20th of April I received another telegram from Gen. Grant, ordering not another man to be given to the rebels. To that I answered on the same day, "Lieut. Gen. Grant's instructions shall be implicitly obeyed. I assume that you do not mean to stop the special exchange of the sick and wounded now going on." To this I received a reply in substance, "Do not give the rebels a single able-bodied man." From that hour, so long as I remained in the Department, exchanges of prisoners stopped under that order, because I could not give the rebels any of their able-bodied soldiers in exchange.

— The Albany Evening Journal tells the following story of Ben Wood:—He began a suit against a debtor in California. The defendant's counsel moved that before the court proceeded further, Wood, under the laws of the State, should be required to take the oath of allegiance. The notice was sent to him; but he indignantly refused to take the oath, and the suit was thrown out of court!

— At Washington, A. J. Burroughs, a clerk in the Comptroller's office was shot dead on Monday afternoon by Mary Harris, a young woman from Chicago. The affair occurred in the Treasury building. The woman is arrested, and says B. seduced her under promise of marriage. If so, a Washington jury will not find her guilty of murder.

— Gold, Tuesday, to 205 1-4 to 210 3-4.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says that Pollock fishing from that port last season was more profitable than ever before. The prosperity of the business was not increased by the number of fish taken, but by their value. The pollock sold at two dollars a hundred pounds, and the livers at about eight cents a pound. There were some twenty vessels and boats engaged in the business; some with few men, and others with crews of eight or ten. The season is from two to three months in the last of autumn and first of winter, and together they stocked some thirty thousand dollars. The highest lines were the Golden Eagle, Perkins, which stocked $2700.

— Major Littler, Assistant Provost Marshall General of Maine, has just issued an order which will throw confusion among substitute brokers and curtail the profits of their traffic. This order is to the effect that the amount of town bounty to be paid recruits must be deposited. Where no town bounty is claimed, the person presenting the recruit must deposit $300 with the mustering officer, the same to be forfeited to the United States Government should the recruit desert before reaching the general rendezvous at Galloupe's Island, in Boston harbor. This order has been issued in consequence of the large number of deserters of late, of recruits en route for the general rendezvous.

TERRY-BLE.—It is reported in military circles that the real secret of the success of our second attack on Fort Fisher is, that the rebels were Terry-fied into submission.

—General Terry, whom Fort Fisher has made famous, has a sister who is a hospital nurse in the department of the South, and is highly esteemed by all who have known her in that capacity. His cousin, Miss Rose Terry, is well known to the reading public as the authoress of many popular magazine stories and verses.

—In the Virginia house of delegates, on the 18th instant, a special committee reported a bill requiring all citizens who have left the concederate states to return within a limited time, or be regarced as expatriated and treated as aliens, and their property to be confiscated.

— Not long since Theophilus Manning, of Chelmsford, Mass., found guilty of disturbing a school, and Walter P. Manning, his son, who tried to stab Mr. Albert T. Dyer, the School Committee-man, while ejecting him from the school, were both fined $10 and costs.

—A young lady who asked a reporter one night in a wooing moment, to "notice the beauty of the silvery moon," was respectfully informed that all notices in his paper were charged for at rates varying with their position in the same.

—It is stated that a theatre is shortly to be opened in Savannah by a Northern manager with Northern actors.

—The number of troops to be raised in Maine at the present time, under the last call, is 8389.

— The Herald states eleven vessels are now building at the shipyards in Newburyport, giving work enough for all the carpenters this winter.

— Fifty vessels are now fitting away for Georges, from Gloucester.

☞ Hall's Journal of Health for February contains a score of short Health Tracts.

— The Richmond Sentinel complains that the precious months of winter are passing away without efficient preparations for the Spring campaign. The rebel Congress is entreated to "wake up" and be doing.

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1865.

PROSPECTUS.

The Military and Naval successes of 1864, with the auspicious result of our Presidential contest, have lifted a heavy weight from the breasts of the Loyal Millions of our countrymen. It is now felt even by those who have been distrustful and faint-hearted that the Union is to emerge triumphant from the dread crisis whereinto our was so wickedly precipitated by her assailants, and that Slavery, her relentless foe, is to encounter the hate of Human Kind. The perils of foreign intervention and of Western insurrection are safely passed; ABRAHAM LINCOLN, no longer assailable by the clamors of a minority, holds the helm of State for four years longer; the Rebellion, palpably weakened by its defeats and losses during the year now closing—with its credit so reduced that its purse-bearer officially declares that its Treasury Notes can only be exchanged for coin at the rate of twenty-five for one, while its bonds command but six cents on the dollar—but awaits the blow which shall soon strike the sword from its parricidal hand and remit its master spirit to the justice, or it may be to the clemency, of a sorely wronged and justly incensed but forbearing and magnanimous People. Such are the auspices which justify our faith that the year soon to open will see the Stars and Stripes float unchallenged from every battlement in the Republic, and the perfect law of Liberty for all immovably imbedded in the Constitution of our Union.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, founded in 1841, will enter upon its twenty-fourth year with quickened hopes and enlarged means of usefulness. Its principles need no restatement: Its aims are the diffusion of intelligence and the inculcation of a spirit of Freedom and Humanity. When this truth shall have been generally recognized and established as the basis of our institutions and polity, that injustice to the poorest, the weakest, the most despised, is a fearful mistake—that no community or State can afford to wrong even its humblest member—then will our land rank once more in the calm sunshine of peace and prosperity.

THE TRIBUNE has for the last year been published with but small profit to its proprietors, when compared with the enormous labor and and outlay devoted to its publication, solely because of the depreciation of our Currency below the specie standard, compelling us to buy paper and other materials at a rate considerably above the full amount received from our subscribers.—On our Weekly edition, the net loss has amounted to many thousands of dollars; while our large receipts from Advertising have been absorbed by the extraordinary expenses for Correspondence, Telegraphing, &c., devoted on by the War.—As we do not suppose our patrons desire that we should work for them at our own cost, and prefer not to be patronized by any who may desire it, we have somewhat advanced for the ensuing year the prices of our Semi-Weekly and Weekly, as some have already done with those of our Daily editions. This increase is purely nominal: there never before was a time when the farmers of our country could buy THE TRIBUNE for the price of their own products or labor as they can by the following

PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the

United Petroleum Farms ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Alleghany River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,700 daily, or $442,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $92,275,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $33,000 per day, or $14,045,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Porcupine, and Reddeld Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Alleghany River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $6000, was offered $460,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound bring within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the central public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

Local.

☞ Before the war, if we had thought of it at all, how easy a thing it would have seemed, to apportion the quotas for districts or towns,—a certain number of men in all, being called for. Yet it is found to be one of the most difficult things to arrange satisfactorily to anybody concerned—and the conflict or discussion between the Government and States and districts and towns, seems almost endless. The difference now is in credits, the State and city reckoning on the three years' men of the last draft being credited, which is refused at Washington. Now there will be none enlisted for more than a year. This will be cheaper for the city, but injurious to the service, as all experience proves that one three years' man is worth five men for one year.

☞ A good chance to buy Watches, Jewelry, &c., cheap. See Mr. Bodge's advertisement. He has a large and fresh stock of nice goods, which he is bound to reduce—so "watch your chance" to make bargains.

☞ Messrs. Walker & Son offer their stock of Furs at prices which ought to "make the fur fly."

☞ We learn that a meeting of "those opposed to the nomination for Congress in the First District," was held at Newmarket Junction one day last week; and adjourned to meet at Dover next Tuesday, Feb. 24: anonymous printed invitations being meantime issued, to all the disaffected to join in the movement. It was not difficult to see the Wheel (er) within the wheel here; but we don't think any of those "disappointed politicians" concerned in this movement, will come to be the top-Sawyer. Gen. Marston is bound to be the next Representative from this District—kick against the pricks who will.

An old subscriber desired us to print a communication on this subject; but when we required his name to it, he declined the responsibility—which, as others do in many similar cases, he wished us to bear. Now while we have no objections to publishing almost any well-written communication, yet we do not choose to make scandalous, not to say libellous statements, about which we know or care nothing.

☞ We wouldn't "give a fig" for any better Figs than those advertized by Lafayette Laighton.

UNCTUOUS.—The Petroleum business: dripping with fat returns. See Mr. Harvey's advertisements.

☞ We are indebted to Laws' Express Messenger, Mr. Albert Chamberlain Jr. for a sample of the new 3-cent U. S. Fractional Currency, the first we have seen.

☞ We are pleased to learn from a correspondent that "Sergt. B. Stowe Laskey, formerly of Co. G, 10th N. H. V., has been promoted to Sergt. Major of the regiment, a position for which he is well qualified and deserving."

EASTERN RAILROAD.—The 30th annual report of the Directors of the Eastern Railroad for the year ending Nov. 30th, 1864, shows the affairs of the corporation to be in excellent condition. The total income appears to be $1,063,741.16; expenditures, $592,318.31; rent of Grand Junction Road, $11,000; net income, $364,814.42.

The sum of $71,918.97 has been paid in taxes. Of these payments, $27,916.23 and $7,055.22, to the States of Massachusetts and New Hampshire respectively, are equivalent, in effect, to an addition of one per cent. to the dividends of the stockholders residing in those States; because they are thereby exonerated from the payment of all State and local taxes on their stock, which, in most cities and towns, now amount to more than one per cent. on property. The same benefit accrues to stockholders residing in other States, whose laws exempt from taxation stock in foreign corporations already assessed. The tax paid on dividends, of course, enures to the benefit of all stockholders.

Among the improvements on the line of the road is that at the Creek Bridge, in Portsmouth, a pile structure some 400 feet in length and 20 feet high. Instead of re-building it of piles, it was deemed best to make it of solid embankment, which could be effected by changing the course of the principal stream passing underneath.—This has been done, at a total cost for the filling, land purchased, and masonry for abutments and culverts, of $16,373.75.

The report refers to other matters relative to the Great Falls and South Berwick Branch R. R., and the Essex Road, and the accompanying tables show the statistics of the road in detail. The profit and loss account shows a balance in favor of the road of $116,853.97. The increased receipts of the road bid fair to provide for all payments of interest and other expenses, and will doubtless leave a sufficient sum to pay regular dividends hereafter to the stockholders, besides leaving a fund for contingent purposes. The annual meeting occurs on Monday, Feb. 6th, at Boston.

☞ Those changes at Avery's are a touch above common quality, we tell you—A-very nice article.

☞ We understand it is designed for Rev. Mr. Cather, a Methodist clergyman of Philadelphia, an agent for the U. S. Sanitary Commission, to lecture in this city and towns in the vicinity, and throughout the county, during the month of February, commencing probably about Feb. 8th.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

SERGT. C. W. THURSTON of Manchester has just arrived, having escaped from Salisbury, North Carolina, Dec. 18th, in company with six others, two of whom were Messrs Davis and Richardson, the news correspondents mentioned in the papers. He reached Knoxville in 26 days from the time of starting; found the poor classes suffering severely, and many of the people in Wilks and Watogee counties, North Carolina, strong Unionists. He brings a list of some 70 prisoners held at Salisbury.

—— The wife of Silas Herrick of Chesterfield, formerly a resident of Brattleboro Vt., was burned to death on Sunday last, by her clothes taking fire from a spark from the stove. Her age was 75 years.

ANOTHER KEROSENE EXPLOSION.—The Herald gives still another kerosene blow-up in Newburyport. Mr. J. M. W. Clement was retiring to bed Saturday night; he placed his lamp on the table by the side of his bed, when it instantly exploded, making a loud report, but doing no damage. "This comes from the adulterations, we are told, of the second hands into which the petroleum passes in the large cities. There was never an explosion in the Pittsburg Kerosene, nor in that of the original manufacturers; but it is a noticeable fact that others sell for less than the wholesale prices, as they do in the rum trade. This they can do by increasing the quantity, or adulterations by an infusion of benzine, from which comes the danger."

—The class of midshipmen recently graduate at the Academy at Newport is to be distributed among the vessels of the Mediterranean fleet. They will be taken out in the Kearsarge and Colorado.

GYMNASTICS.—The classes are to meet at Mercantile Hall; the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 o'clock, and the ladies and gentlemen on the same evenings at 7.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School for ladies and gents, is held at the State St. School House, Monday and Friday evenings.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it must eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. The Wholesale Agents are Wholesale Grocers.

We were never aware that there was so great a difference in the qualities of bar soap until after using the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap; our advice to our readers is, go without delay to your grocer and get a supply, for it is a truly wonderful article, and will not injure the finest fabric; our experience is that it is the best and greatest dirt-extracter known among the many different brands in the market. Their Depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York. 55

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

Buy and Sell Oil and Coal Stocks on Commission, in New York, Philadelphia, and in Europe.

We believe we can offer superior inducements to all persons wishing to invest in

Petroleum Stocks.

Such investments, as a class, offer greater inducements to persons of either large or small means, than any the world has ever known, not even excepting the

Siver Mines of Mexico and So. America.

The cost of obtaining this Oil is so comparatively small that

A single Well producing only 10 Barrels per Day

will yield an income, over all expenses, of more than

$25,000 PER ANNUM.

Many wells are now yielding from 25 to 75, and several have reached over 1000 Barrels, while one, (the Noble Well, on Oil Creek, Penn.,) has yielded no less than

3000 Barrels per Day,
Worth $30,000 at the Wells.

The undersigned are Regular Agents for the principal Petroleum Companies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and having no more interest in one than another, persons desiring information can rely upon receiving an unbiassed account of the standing and prospects of the various companies on the market.

Enquiries by mail will receive prompt attention.

Subscriptions received to all first-class Companies upon the most favorable terms.

Receipts and Certificates will be forwarded in exchange for available funds, without charge; and Petroleum and Coal Stocks will be sold at the Brokers' Boards of New York and Philadelphia at the regular rates of commission.

ARNOLD, THE TRAITOR.—On the 14th day of June, 1801, 63 years ago, at Gloucester Place, London, at the age of 61 years, died Benedict Arnold, the first American traitor. Like the traitors of the present time, he was employed and trusted by his country, received promotion and honor at its hands, and then because a check had been temporarily put to his ambition, basely betrayed the nation that had reposed confidence in him. His fate was that of all traitors. Cursed by the country he had betrayed, he was scorned and despised by the nation to whom he had dishonorably sold himself. At last, unhonored unpitied, he died in merited obscurity, and has become a synonym of the basest treachery wherever the English language is spoken. The following is acrostic on the name, Benedict Arnold. It is unsurpassed in bitterness:

Born for a curse to virtue and mankind,
Earth's broadest realm ne'er knew so black a mind,
Nihgt's sable veil your crimes can never hide,
Each one so great 'twould glut Satanic tide.
Defiant your cursed memory will live,
In all the place that infamy can give,
Curse of all ages will attend your name,
Traitors alone will glory in your shame.
Almighty vengeance sternly waits to roll,
Rivers of sulphur on your treacherous soul,
Nature looks shuddering back with conscious dread
On such a tarnished blot as she has made,
Let hell receive you, riveted in chains,
Doomed to the hottest focus of its flames.

British sentiment concerning this American traitor is sufficiently shown by the following extract from the Proceedings of Parliament:

"March 20, 1782. On the Earl of Surry's rising, in Parliament, to make his motion about removing Ministers, he happened to copy Arnold the American seceding general in the House, sent him a message to depart, threatening, in case of refusal to move for breaking up the gallery, to which the General answered that he was introduced there by a member. To which Lord Surry replied, he might order that condition stay, if he would promise never to enter it again. With which General Arnold complied. This is the second instance of public disrespect he had met with; the king having been forced to engage his royal word not to employ or pension him—a just reward for treachery, which is ever odious."—Curwen, p. 308.

Unless the world is degenerating, the names of Jeff. Davis, Floyd & Co., will yet be equally odious to all men.

NO MORE WASHINGTONS,—No more Websters,—no more Everetts,—no more great men,—say the croakers. It is very amiable to mourn over the loss of the departed great and good. But carried to excess it is only amiable nonsense and folly, says Uncle Toby. There are as good men and as wise to-day as there were fifty or an hundred years ago. And when the present wise ones are all dead, we dare say, their places will be filled by others still, as wise and as good—we hope wiser and better.

"We cannot understand why wisdom is to 'die with the ancients,' and civil greatness, matchless eloquence and military skill not come forth for the benefit of mankind as in all the centuries that have gone before.

The lesson taught by the truth that in every age, men come forward with capacity sufficient to meet even an advancing civilization; the lesson that no man occupies a place which cannot be filled when he is gone; however humiliating to the pride of man, is one which all may learn to advantage. 'We all do fade as a leaf;' and when even the greatest are gone, the world will not long trouble themselves about it, however widespread the immediate grief which succeeded their dissolution."

☞ While the Prince of Wales was at Hebron he and his suite obtained permission to visit the Cave of Machpelah, Abraham's burial place. They are the first Christians who have been allowed to enter it since the Crusades, nearly seven hundred years ago. Dr. Stanely says everything is kept in the most beautiful order, and nothing could be more satisfactory than the state in which the tombs are preserved. Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Sarah, Rebecca and Leah are buried there.

— The Liberator publishes in full the speech which Fernando Wood lately delivered in the National House of Representatives against the proposed anti-slavery amendment to the Constitution. It evidently considers the address to be a good anti-slavery document.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting to the unfortunate victims, cases that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND GLEET.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and Deformities of the Limbs, Skin Eruptions attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system, as Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are treated upon a new and original plan, safe, sure, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield entirely, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of Private Diseases than any physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the United States and Canada.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, of Endicott Street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow continues to has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed. Stoves are highly recommended by families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for the failure is, the combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which lights them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.
It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.
It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.
CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.
☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all impure discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

VOL. XXVI. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. THURSDAY, FEB. 2, 1865 : 33. No. 27.

The Chronicle.

— General Alfred Howe Terry, whose name has been prominently before the public by the capture of Fort Fisher, is a native of Connecticut, and is about thirty-seven years of age. He is a volunteer officer, and has not had a technical military education. At the breaking out of the war, he was practicing law in New Haven, and was clerk of the city council of that city. A description of Gen. Terry's personal appearance, saya he is little over six feet high, very slim and straight, with a large head, brown hair and blue eyes. He is unmarried.

— The substitute camp near Portland, Me., is lighted nights by 40 kerosene lamps which are placed on posts and on fences surrounding the quarters. The cost of placing these lamps, it is declared, was not the cost of one deserter and by their use all attempts at desertion are easily frustrated.

— The newspaper readers of Chicago were somewhat puzzled the other day, over an item in the telegraphic columns of their papers, that a bill was in the Legislature to incorporate "The War Horse Transportation Company; but were relieved in a day or two to find it was only a bill to incorporate "The Warehouse and Transportation Company."

☞ A letter written from Washington says: People living at a distance have no conception of the drudgery imposed upon members of Congress. Most senators and representatives have not only to attend to their public duties, but, at all hours of the day and night, are called upon to answer some call from persons belonging to their State, who insist on having their private business transacted, even to the detriment of the public service. A few members of Congress will not do any of those favors, and they have the easiest times.

MADAM ROTHSCHILD.—In a recent volume of reminiscences we find a very neat anecdote of Madame Rothschild the mother of the well known capitalist. The old lady's wit, which was remarkable, and her intellectual faculties, which were of no common order, remained to the end. In her last illness, when surrounded by her family, her physician being present, she said, in a supplicating tone, to the latter, "Dear doctor, try to do something for me." "Madame, what can I do? I can't make you young again." "No, doctor, I don't want to be young again; but I want to continue to grow older."

Somebody, describing the awkward appearance of a man dancing the polka, says "he looks as though he had a hole in his pocket, and was trying to shake a shilling down the leg of his trowsers."

Why are rebels like Claudius in the tragedy of Virginius? Because they seem bent on the ruin of Virginia.

Why is a man who stakes his money in a gambling house, like a star? Because he's an ass-to risk.

What is the difference between a summer dress in winter and an extracted tooth One is too thin and the other is tooth-out.

Who was the fastest woman mentioned in the Bible? Herodias; when she go ahead of John the Baptist, on a charger!

Why are good resolutions like fainting women? Because they want carrying. And because they are very often feints.

Please Look at This.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians for her relief, without any Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No Sarsaparillas or medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were benefited, and whose friends many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1852.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but without doing grown weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELICIOUS PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking and take no other.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Cahoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.
WYMAN & TYLER, AGENTS,
82 Water St., Boston, Mass.

The Vernatella.
For making the Soles of Boots and Shoes water proof and wear longer, is also for sale as above.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1865.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

A PROCLAMATION.

It is only at this late day that I am enabled to lay before the people of New Hampshire a statement of the quota which they will be required to furnish under the President's call of Dec. 19th, 1864, for 300,000 men. That quota is two thousand and seventy-two men, after the deduction of all credits to which our State is entitled up to the commencement of the current year. These men will, it is supposed, be demanded of those towns which responded to the call of July, by furnishing one-year's men. The quotas of the various sub-districts will be speedily announced by the district Provost Marshals, so that the authorities of towns and cities may be informed what number of men they are required to furnish in order to escape the pending draft.

Supposing the call of Dec. 19th to be little more than a nominal demand upon our State, the citizens of New Hampshire have relaxed their efforts to secure men, and find themselves unexpectedly called upon to furnish 2000 volunteers within the brief space of a fortnight. The task is a difficult one, but it can and must be accomplished. Let every loyal citizen put his shoulder to the wheel and let us escape the disgrace of having history record the fact that the war for the Union closed with a draft in New Hampshire. One more effort and the work which we have set ourselves to accomplish will be done and well done. The glorious victories of Sherman and Thomas and Terry, encourage the hope that we have heard, and are now to answer, the last call. The bounties paid by the State under the present call, will be those specified in my proclamation of January 4th.

JOS. A. GILMORE, Governor.

General Order No. 1, New Series.

HON. LEONARD CHASE of Milford is hereby appointed Superintendent of Volunteer Recruiting for the military, naval and marine service of the United States in the District of Colombia and State of Virginia, with authority to cash all bounties authorized to be paid by the State of New Hampshire under the recent call of the President.

To facilitate the discharge of the duties entrusted to him, Mr. Chase is invested with the rank of Colonel, and will make his headquarters at Washington, receiving only such pay and emoluments as are provided in the law enacted at the Special Session of 1864, regulating recruiting in insurgent States.

His duty will be: First, to enlist men for those towns which shall remit to His Excellency the Governor money with which to cash their town bounties, giving them the preference in the order in which their requisitions, accompanied by the necessary funds, are received. Second, to enlist men for the credit of the State at large, who will be distributed pro rata to the various delinquent sub-districts in the State.

Mr. Chase has already accepted this office, and is now in Washington.

Papers authorized to publish the laws of the State of New Hampshire will insert this order in their reading columns for two weeks, and send their bills to the Adjutant General's Office.

By order of the Governor,
NATT HEAD, Adjutant General.

THE REBELLION.

Late advices from Hilton Head confirm the capture of Salkehatchie, the rebels skulking off on the advance of our troops from Pocotaligo. It was thought the rebels would make a stand at Ashepo.

Guerrillas are troublesome in some parts of Tennessee.

GUERRILLAS IN KENTUCKY.—A day or two since, Capt. Clark, of the 4th Mo. rebel cavalry, entered Danville, Ky., with a force of 40 men, swapped horses with several citizens, helped themselves to boots, and departed. They were followed by Capt. Bridgewater, with 70 or 80 Federals, who overtook them about four miles from Harrodsburg, where two rebels were killed, five wounded, and several taken prisoners.

Rebel Major Jones with 200 men is reported within 4 miles of Elizabethtown. Quantrell of Kansas notoriety is said to be with Jones, with a band of 210 men.

On Friday, Sue Munday's guerrillas dashed into Bloomfield, surprised a party of 17 discharged soldiers, captured 14 and killed them on the spot. They alleged in justification that the soldiers had executed a guerrilla a few days before.

— There was an interesting debate in the rebel House last Thursday on putting negroes into the army. The motion was not finally disposed of. Jeff. Davis was subjected to renewed denunciation. Rebel papers state that Kirby Smith has repeatedly refused to obey orders for him to transfer his troops to the east side of the Mississippi. The opponents of Jeff. Davis grow more bitter every day, and frankly admit that it was to humiliate him that Lee was put in command of the armies.

— The Herald's Fort Fisher correspondent says our losses are officially reported 691; of these, 11 officers and 76 men killed, 39 officers and 472 men wounded and 92 missing.

— The Union force raiding up the Chowan river is said to number from 7000 to 10,000 men.

SEVEN MILES FROM RICHMOND, VA., Jan. 24, 1865.

Mr. Editor: As I am laboring for the Christian Commission, I thought a few words from me might be acceptable to your readers. I came here via Baltimore and Fortress Munroe. The Fortress is very defiant, in its attitude to any one intruding upon the adjacent territory of Uncle Sam. The harbor called Hampton Roads is large enough to float the fleets of the world. As we passed up the James river, we sailed near the ram Atlanta, and were shown the hull of the ill-fated Congress; and also the masts of the pirate Florida, by such a fortunate accident taken out of the reach of diplomacy.

Arriving at City Point, we come to the headquarters of Lieut. Gen. Grant, the idol of American soldiery. But I was not satisfied to stop at the base; my face was set towards the "front",—so here I am, about seven miles from the Confederate Capital. Our station is about 112 miles south west of the New Market road; about three miles from the famous Dutch Gap, called here, the "gaping Dutchman;" about two miles nearly east of the rebel Fort Harrison, captured in a splendid charge by our noble troops Sept. 29, and now named Fort Burnham, in honor of our General who fell there.

Last night and to-day have been quite lively. The rebs came down the river, intent on mischief, with three rams, the Drury, the Fredericksburg and the Richmond. The Johnnies do not seem pleased with the result of their night's exertions, and they have been shelling us, and we them, at a very lively rate this A. M. The shells roar and hiss and scream along the lines. I stand fire pretty well, as long as I keep at a safe distance!

I am distributing papers every day to our noble N. H. boys. They seem very glad to see some one from home, and are very glad to get the papers to read. I hope the citizens of N. H., and especially those of Portsmouth, will not tire of doing for our brave soldiers, who are fighting so nobly for our glorious Stars and Stripes. And I hope none will tire of giving to the Christian Commission, which is doing a noble work. Many valuable lives and many precious souls have been saved through its instrumentality. Yours, in the good cause, D.

FOREIGN COMPLICATIONS.—The possibility that our country may somehow be enmeshed in the toils of European policy, and thus involved in a foreign war, doubtless affords additional reason for closing up our civil war at the earliest moment, and it is very properly urged to promote this consummation. But the bugaboo that, unless we shall have put down the rebellion by the 4th of March next, France and possibly England will then acknowledge the Southern Confederacy, seems to us entitled to no consideration whatever.

Suppose the Confederacy were recognized as independent by half the powers of Europe, what of it? Would that recognition defeat our armies? Would it arrest our recruiting? Would it paralyze our fleets? Would it fill the rebel exchequer? Would it replenish their wasted columns? Would it give them back New Orleans, Norfolk, Memphis, Nashville, Little Rock, Knoxville, Chattanooga, Savannah, and the seaward defences of Wilmington? In short, what would it do toward restoring the equilibrium of forces so seriously disturbed by the victories of Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, Farragut and Terry?

It is well to talk sense. A recognition of the death-struck Confederacy would be an unfriendly, unjustifiable act, but it would amount to very little. Slidell and Mason might attend Court balls and Ministerial dinners more freely than now; but rebel loans could not be floated on any Exchange in Europe while our armies hold or pierce every Slave State and our fleets close every rebel port. Independence is a fact, not a phantasm; and a recognition that the sun shines at midnight would be of no practical account.

We have no belief that even Louis Napoleon—much less Queen Victoria—will recognize the rebels under existing circumstances. We think the French Emperor will be quite content to let us alone so long as we let him alone. The folly that is always vaunting of what we will do to him and his Mexican bantling whenever we shall have used up the Rebellion, is too nearly allied to treason to need exposure; but he is not the man to estimate barking dogs above their value. Our civil war has served him too well to be gravely deprecated by him; and he is a master of the art of improving opportunities as they occur, without, seeking to push success too far. He is most unlikely to give us a fair pretext for sending the sugar of his latest protege, Duke Gwin. His Mexican empire is yet in the gristle, and does not court rough experiments on its vitality. Rely on it, he will very willingly preserve our amicable relations for years yet if not forever.

But, while we do not apprehend European recognition of the slaveholders, we regard it as of little consequence. Intervention is quite another and more serious matter. And that is further off to-day than it was when Lee threatened Washington or when McClellan retreated from before Richmond.—Tribune.

If three miles make a league, how many will make a confederacy?

If four quarters make a yard, how many will make a garden?

If seven days make one week, how many will make one strong?

All kinds of beasts can be reproduced except the have beens.

BOSTON, Jan. 30.

A number of promotions have recently been made in the 3d N. H. Regt., among them Lieut. Daniel Eldridge of Dover, to Captain of Co. C; Lieut. George L. Giddings of Exeter, to Captain Co. K; and 1st Serg. James W. Plaisted of Portsmouth, to 1st Lieut. Co. D, in which are the Portsmouth and Hampton boys. Capt. Giddings entered the service as Corporal in the Exeter Company; Capt Eldridge and Lieut. Plaisted started privates; all have won a deserved promotion by hard duty and meritorious service.

A paper in this city recently published an alphabetical list of traitors, the list being diluted by long lists of third-rate rebels. It is a little singular that the names of the four leaders in treason to our government begin with the first four letters of the Alphabet, Arnold, Burr, Calhoun and Davis. Who is to be the "E"?

The recent decision that N. H. is not out of the draft, must have surprised your citizens somewhat. One effect of that decision will be to give the copperheads a rallying cry against the Union party; and there is too small a margin, for the friends of General Marston to relax their efforts in the least, as from an outside view they appear to have been doing, from the belief that success was certain; "success is a duty" to the Union party in the 1st N. H. Con. Dist., as their success will make the New England delegation a unit in the next Congress.

Gen. Butler's recent address in Lowell, is the leading topic of conversation just now, and has revived the Fort Fisher affair, which was gradually fading out of sight, in spite of Admiral Porter's desperate efforts to keep his head above the level. Gen. Butler followed the advice of an Irishman to another in a row: "whenever you see a head, hit it," and Admiral Porter has had his head pretty essentially rapped in the General's Lowell speech.

In the assault on Fort Fisher, after the three brigades of Gen. Ames' division had lost most of their officers, our advance had been checked and the picket of Gen. Paine's command had been driven in by a rebel force advancing to the assistance of the garrison, when everything looked discouraging, Gen. Terry after much deliberation, ordered up Col. Abbott's brigade, composed of the 3d and 7th N. H. and 6th and 7th Conn. regts., and just at this point all reports are confused except that the Fort was carried after a hard fight of two or three hours; and as has almost always occurred in accounts of battles, other regiments have had the credit due those from New Hampshire. No higher compliment could have been paid to that war-worn, battle-scarred band of veterans, than that summons from Gen. Terry.

The 7th Conn. is the regiment he commanded when he entered the service in 1861, and the 3d N. H. has always been his favorite regiment; he had confidence in their ability to turn the tide of battle in our favor, if any troop could do it, and the result proved that his confidence was not misplaced.

MANNING.

PEOPLE OF GEORGIA.—Advices from Savannah to the 22d state that a great reaction was taking place in the minds of the people in the interior of Georgia, who now openly confess that the attempt to establish a Southern Confederacy is a failure.

On the question of an immediate return to the Union the people are divided. Some are in favor of such a step, but the majority prefer delay until the final battle, which is soon to be fought between the Confederates and Federals is concluded, fearing that prompt action for peace under present circumstances would be an exhibition of undue haste and weakness on the part of Georgia at the expense of honor. Gen. Sherman finds that the people of Georgia have a hearty hatred of the people of South Carolina.

Gen. Sherman was to leave Savannah on the 22d to join his army. He says if the people of the North will provide men and money to carry on the war for four years, it will not last four months longer; but if they fail to do so, there is no telling how long it will last.

The Georgia Appeal learns from Gen. Beauregard that there is no foundation for the report put in circulation with reference to Union meetings said to have been held a few days since at Thomasville, Ga. Such a meeting was projected by a few Yankeeized individuals, but a general uprising of the substantial citizens of the county put a stop to it, and some of the ringleaders were forced to leave the country.—Richmond Whig.

This contradiction reminds Uncle Toby of the effort made by the rebels and traitors three years ago, to show that slavery did not cause the rebellion and war. As the effort to deny, really proved that point,—so the above denial really proves the point that Union men in Georgia are alive.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.—In the National House of Representatives, on Tuesday Jan 31, the amendment to the Constitution forever abolishing slavery in the United States, was adopted by the requisite two-thirds vote, viz. 119 to 57.

— The War Department has been notified of the arrival of the rebel Congressman A. S. Foote within Gen. Sheridan's lines at Winchester.

— Capt. Parker of the Onondaga, whose strange conduct during the attempt of the rebel rams to reach City Point has created a good deal of indignation, has been removed.

— There is living at Ipswich, Mass., (or was a few weeks ago) a widow Brown, who was one hundred and one last Christmas. She is hale and hearty, cheerful and intelligent.

— On the 18th inst., by one mail, over a half a million of letters were received at Savannah.

— Kerosene explosions are becoming quite common; in consequence, it is said, of adulterations.

— A traveller in Africa declares that he met one king who had eleven portly wives, all of whom were weighed monthly, the one that weighed the most being invariably installed mistress of the household until the next weighing.

— They tell of property in the oil regions which a short time since sold for $50 per acre and now brings $10,000 to $20,000 per acre.

— Dolls to the value of three hundred thousand dollars are annually manufactured in Paris, and foreign dolls are sent to Paris in vast quantities to be dressed. An enormous number of human dolls also send to Paris for their dresses.

Petroleum Oil Companies.

I would call the attention of all persons having funds to invest, to place a part at least in the United Petroleum Farms Association and the President Petroleum Co. I have just received a letter from New York as follows, dated January 30th, 1865:

"J. S. HARVEY, esq.:—Dear Sir: I have just left the Oil Regions and arrived home. I examined again particularly the property of the 'United Petroleum Farms Association,' and it is my opinion that their Company or Companies will be the best in the market, and that you never will regret having been one of the organizers of the Company, and a member of the Association."

The Books are CLOSED to Subscribers in New York But a small portion may be subscribed here. I believe it the best investment ever offered.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the

United Petroleum Farms ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Alleghany River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,700 daily, or $642,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,375,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later.—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $88,000 per day, or $12,045,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Porcupine, and Redfield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Alleghany River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case THE IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

PRICE—$1 per Bottle.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by combining to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the original compound. The having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

Local.

☞ Preparations are being made to transfer all the heavy machinery in the Iron Platers' Shop at the Navy Yard, to one of the Timber Sheds, in order to remove the present building for the purpose of accommodating the large vessel being built in the ship-house near by.

SWIFT.—For National Banks to publish their "Statements" in Weekly papers only, when there is a Daily around which always advocates the National cause, including the banking department.

☞ By a notice from the Adjutant General of New Hampshire, it will be seen that towns and cities in New Hampshire may fill their quotas with black soldiers if they proceed according to law.

☞ We have before us, in a neat pamphlet, the first number of the Christian Reporter, published at Concord, and edited by Rev. Dr. Stone, formerly of the Congregational Journal. The Reporter is designed to supply in some measure, the place of the Journal, as a local paper for the congregational and presbyterian Churches and ministers in New Hampshire. It is a monthly, at $1 a year; and ought to be well sustained by the denomination.

☞ Mr. Harvey gives, this morning, an extract from a letter received from an eminent engineer who has just visited the Oil region. He certainly appears to have good reason for the faith which is in him concerning Petroleum.

ENTERPRISING—For "merchants," young or old, to save the expense of subscribing for the only Daily in the city—the interests and success of which Daily are identical with the interests and success of those merchants and that city—and steal their reading of it.

IS THERE PROFIT IN FARMING?—A few years ago a smart, intelligent young man, Mr. George W. Woodwell, purchased a small farm in the lower part of Newburyport, and commenced the growing of onions, putting more and more of his land to the cultivation, till last year he had six acres.—The crop was small, owing to the extreme drouth at the very time when rain was most needed for their growth; still he obtained two thousand bushels, which sold at $1.75 to rising $2 per bushel, and gave him a clear profit of about two thousand dollars, which covered the original cost of his place, six acres of land, dwelling-house, barns, &c. That would seem satisfactory for one year, but at the same time he had only about half a crop for a good season. On portions of the same land he has grown six hundred bushels to the acre; and eight and nine hundred bushels have been grown to the acre in this vicinity. A full crop would have stocked him eight thousand dollars instead of four, with very little additional cost.—Herald.

☞ The Joint Resolution of the U. S. Congress, which has just passed the House, is as follows:

Resolved: "That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said Legislature, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as a part of the said Constitution, namely:

ARTICLE XIII.

Sec. 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Sec. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

REBEL PEACE COMMISSIONERS.—The fact of the arrival of A. H. Stephens, rebel Vice President, Judge Campbell of Alabama, rebel Assistant Secretary of War, and R. M. T. Hunter of Virginia, at City Point, is confirmed by the special dispatches to the New York press, Feb. 1.

☞ In the U. S. Senate, Tuesday, Jan. 31, the retaliatory resolution was taken up, and after a short debate, it was so amended as to leave it in the hands of the President, and passed.

It is said that the evidence of the cession of northern States of Mexico to France has been in the office of the French Legation at Washington for some months. It is also said that Drouyn De L'Huys has asked of Secretary Seward an explanation of the recent censure by Congress of Lincoln's Mexican policy.—N. Y. telegrams.

[It is said, is very poor authority.]

— The official and semi-official papers of France give it up at last, that the condition of the Confederacy is desperate, and have got over calling Sherman's march through Georgia a 'forced retreat.' Per contra, they admit his march to be one of the most extraordinary feats in military history, and put him down in the list of the great generals of the world.

— The Saturday Evening Gazette says, on the authority of a reliable gentleman from Vermont, that butter which has been held there for the rise of seventy-five cents per pound is now selling at thirty, and cheese that sold for twenty-five cents, now brings thirteen. It is well that such facts should be known.

— The N. Y. Commercial's Washington dispatch of yesterday says it is positively asserted that Peace Commissioners Stephens and Hunter are in that city.

— The celebrated turf-ite, Mr. Beckwith, of Hartford, has just bought a jet black stallion, Young Bashaw, for $12,000.

A man with a scolding wife, when inquired of in relation to his occupation, said he kept a hot house.

Regular rations for army correspondents—Exaggerations.

Hay speculations are now carried on on a large scale.

It is a question whether "golden opinions" are worth any more now than they were before the depreciation of the currency.

GOLD, Wednesday, 204.

GYMNASTICS.—The classes are to meet at Mercantile Hall; the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 o'clock, and the ladies and gentlemen on the same evenings at 7.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School for ladies and gents, is held at the State St. School House, Monday and Friday evenings.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is the best article in the market. It requires a little less than one half the quantity to do the same work, and when done, leaves the fabric in much better condition than any other kind of Soap. One trial will convince the most skeptical. Use no other, have no other, and be put off with no other. 56

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it must eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

AGAIN AND AGAIN.—Our readers may think it strange that we so often urge upon their attention a medicinal preparation. Already have we, for a number of weeks, urged the importance of a supply of Coe's Cough Balsam in the house, ready for immediate use. But our excuse is that the vast amount of sickness, sorrow and death that are the immediate result of sudden coughs, colds and pulmonary attacks; while thousands of our children are dying from croup and lung complaints. Time and experience have proved that Coe's Cough Balsam is the most speedy and reliable preparation ever known to the world. Like magic it relieves the irritation of the throat, removes the stoppages that prevent breathing in croup, and heals all soreness of the throat, chest and lungs. No man should neglect to supply his family with a safe and reliable remedy like Coe's Cough Balsam, any more than he should neglect the supply of their daily bread. It costs but 40 cents, and the bottles contain twice as much as those of any other remedy at the same cost, while in merit it is superior to all others. All drug stores keep it for sale. 4j18dawkm

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

☞ Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is manufactured entirely different from any other. Its chemical purity renders it as harmless as the purest flour, and its use will strengthen weak stomachs and cure dyspeptic persons. Use it with cream tartar instead of soda.—It is much better. Try it. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."

By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to eat before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

Spring Roll and Cog Wheel

WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.

WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN Institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all mean immense amount of labor and cost of material.

We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.

To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of extensive and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the great gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never failed, when administered them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Besides his treatment of Gonorrhœa and Syphilis, he has a specific remedy for Seminal Weakness and Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Stricture, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of diseases, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailing of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, nervous irritability, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotten, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief afforded in a few days. So decidedly certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted are joyful recipients in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superiors in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. on the treatment of Private and Secret diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the confidence of the public than DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should call on him.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two red stamps.

Boston, April 7, 1864.—eodly.

His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express, securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients see none but the Doctor himself.

Address DR. BRISCOE, at No. 23 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.

Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secrecy observed in every case.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and tea-iron heater combined, by which the odor of cooking meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water, also a large tin reservoir for boiling water, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no coal dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of kindling every morning.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who have been using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, none possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, rush off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cover can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Cures in from one

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Strictures, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞ To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not; the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

☞ For full particulars, get a circular from any drug store in the country, or write the proprietors, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatment in pamphlet form.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, eye the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research into anticipations of Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add, that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to resort to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
HENRY L. ELLSWORTH.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

SO WIDE IS THE FIELD OF ITS USEFULNESS and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been rescued from apparently alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation; and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate that antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent persons, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish our AMERICAN ALMANAC in which they are given, with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher & T. R. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 28, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla, Syrup, &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure There is no mistake, as the cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed any full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with diseases at my stomach, loss of appetite, and other united up all of my food immediately after eating, and all medicine failed to give me any relief till about a year ago, when I took one bottle of R. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From EDGAR I CRESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWETT: Permit me to express my gratitude for its bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she was so confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, and continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CRESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. may26

LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.

The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting a bottle into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELICIOUS PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.

Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.

Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.

Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Calicoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1865.

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.—We publish this week the bill introduced into the last Legislature for the incorporation of an Agricultural College, and by it referred to the coming session. We desire to call the attention of every farmer and working man in this State to this bill, that public opinion may be brought to bear in the right direction to secure its passage. This is a measure for the people. Congress has donated us 150,000 acres of land, the income of which is to be forever set apart as an endowment, or fund to cover the necessary expenses of conducting a college where the people can receive a practical education, fitting them better for the exercise of their several vocations.

To this gift, Hon. David Culver has added the munificent bequest of his valuable farm in Lyme, worth $20,000 and $30,000 in cash, provided the institution be located at Lyme, in the midst of an agricultural section, and blessed with all the advantages requisite for its successful operation. Practical people would imagine that there would be no longer delay in acceding to this most advantageous offer, than would be required to draw the deeds—but the fact is, the plan was, half rejected, and now awaits the action of the next Legislature.

We understand the opposing plan to be, says the Coos Republican, to throw away Gen. Culver's splendid offer of $50,000 and to give this fund derivable from the national lands to aid in sustaining Dartmouth College at Hanover. Certain it is, this scheme has active adherents.

No one honors Dartmouth undeservedly. New Hampshire is always proud of this celebrated institution of learning; but in this case, continues the Republican, we have yet to see why a legacy designed for the education of the people in the agricultural and industrial arts, should be turned from its intended channel, and made an auxiliary in the support of an entirely different institution, which might indeed graft a chair of Agriculture upon its Faculty, but which from the nature of things could never afford the information on these particular subjects, designed by the Congressional acts or by the generous contribution of General Culver—himself a farmer.

This is a matter which it seems only necessary to understand to adopt. It is the people's business. Let them see that their representatives are made acquainted with their views, and we shall no longer see this strange spectacle of a refusal to accept these munificent endowments.

☞ No sensible man, certainly no loyal man, can believe for a moment, that our government would wantonly call out men to war without necessity, nor wilfully make an unequal or unfair arrangement of quotas. Enemies of the country, of liberty and law, may believe so, and certainly some of them do say so chiefly to mislead their stupid followers. But these miscreants, while they prate of peace, really prolong the war; and while pretend to much mercy, are base hypocrites and cruel deceivers.

☞ The Vote in the U. S. House of Representatives, on the Free Constitution amendment, has some interest. Mr. Sweat, of Maine, was the only New England representative who voted against it. Mr. Marcy, of N. H. was absent, and Mr. English, of Conn. voted for it. Of the New York representatives seven democrats voted for the amendment. There were nineteen votes in favor of the amendment from representatives of slave States, and in all, twenty democrats in its favor. Every republican member was in his seat and voted in its favor.

GOLD, Thursday, 205 1-2 to 203 1-2.—Small lots sold: produce markets dull. The gamblers profit by the peace humbugs.

— It is rumored that the President has gone to Annapolis to meet the Peace Commissioners.

— In Missouri, the Convention has adopted the third section of the Constitution defining the qualification of voters. It declares no person qualified to vote, who has been in armed rebellion, or who aided the rebels, or expressed the hope of triumph of the rebellion, or who have claimed exemption under plea of alienage.

— The Tribune "repeats that the new draft has but to be heartily responded to, and the war is substantially over. Probably not one-fifth of the men called for will ever be required to leave their respective States,—provided the quotas shall be promptly filled."

—— The residence of George Clough, on Warren street, Concord, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday. Loss about $20,000; insured.

—— It is stated that allowance will probably be made for an excess of three years' men heretofore furnished by New Hampshire, which must largely reduce the quota, as now levied.

THE REBELLION.

On the evening of the 27th a disastrous conflagration occurred in Savannah, destroying considerable property, but without loss of life. On the morning of the 28th another fire broke out, destroying two squares; in the 3d District the buildings were torn down to prevent the spread of the flames, as the wind was blowing strong from the East. Some fiend had placed a keg of powder at the side of the Arsenal, corner of York and Walker streets, undoubtedly to blow up the city, as the Arsenal contained some 30 tons of powder. The keg was placed in the shadow of a tree to avoid discovery, with the top taken off. This hellish design is attributed to the rebels, who are in anything but an amicable mood in view of their present condition.

Hon. John Covode, of Pennsylvania, is at Washington to urge upon the Government that the multiplicity of peace rumors is hindering recruiting, and is detrimental to the Union cause in Pennsylvania.

On Wednesday at Washington, the President sent to the Senate a communication from Gen. McDowell relative to the recent attempt to send arms and munitions of war out of the Department of the Pacific to Mexico. Under date of August last he apprizes the Government of the seizure of a large quantity of arms nominally going to Colorado, but really to Mexico, and also states that a French ship had been in the harbor six weeks, supposed to be taking in supplies for the French fleet at Acapulco.

At Havana, it is said there were a number of steamers preparing for privateers. The blockade runners Vulture, Lark and Wren were at Havana. Three more were reported at St. Thomas and several at Nassau. The steamer Arcadia cleared at Havana, ostensibly for Bermuda, with a cargo of 320 kegs of powder, bars of iron, rope, &c.

General Singleton has just returned from Richmond. He is of the firm belief, that there will be no peace between us and the rebels, and that there can be none unless they abandon the idea of independence, or we abandon ours of reunion. He says the rebels are sanguine of conquering their independence. [Just what we expected him to say.—And there is no doubt the leading rebels say they are sanguine, &c.—The real prospect of peace is through our army, navy, and people, putting down the rebel tion.]

A dispatch, dated Wilmington, January 28th, says 4000 bales of cotton had been burnt up at that place, and two car loads near the city. It is not stated whether the fire was accidental, or in accordance with the recent order issued by the rebel government.

It now appears the rebel guerrillas in Tennessee did not kill 14 discharged soldiers.

A fight took place at Danaville, Arkansas, on the 15th ult., in which it is reported that Shelby was whipped and obliged to evacuate the place.

A reconnoissance from General Thomas's army at Eastport, Miss., showed that the main portion of Hood's army was at Tupelo, Miss. On the appearance of the Union troops before Corinth, some 400 rebels stationed there left the place after burning the railroad depot and the Tishemingo House. Between 30 and 40 of them were captured.

It appears that the rebels turned over to Sherman, in and about Savannah, 286 serviceable cannon.

The N. Y. Herald's Savannah correspondence reiterates the statement that the Union men are holding meetings in Georgia. Nine counties have been engaged in the movement. Ten thousand bales of cotton have been shipped north for distribution. The supplies of food from Boston and N. Y. had elicited thanks from a public meeting. The gunboat "Daiching" got aground in the Cambeche River and was destroyed by the rebels.

In New Orleans and vicinity, Jan. 26 was a great festive day in honor of emancipation in Missouri and Tennessee.

Natchez letters state that Gen. Davidson, has extended his lines on the road leading off that city, so as to protect the plantations. All the troops are now encamped out of the city. The office of Mayor is abolished, and the Provost Marshal is exercising the functions of that office. All the contrabands in Natchez and Vidalia have been ordered to work on the farms back of the latter place, and furnished with rations.

A variety of rumors about what somebody will do, are afloat in Richmond and Wilmington—not worth printing or copying.

U. S. steamer Warrior arrived at Fortress Monroe on Tuesday, from Fort Fisher 29th. Gunboats were moving up Cape Fear river towards the rebel fort.

Steamer Cahawba has arrived at Hilton Head with 500 rebel prisoners. One portion of Sherman's army had moved direct from Savannah and another portion from Beaufort. Both were advancing against Charleston. The latest news says that they were within 40 miles of C. The rebels were offering resistance at every point, but were gradually being driven from every position. Forage and subsistence found in large quantities by our troops. Foster's army is co-operating with Sherman. A battle was not probable until they arrived within a few miles of Charleston, where the rebel force has been concentrated.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.— At Exeter Saturday in the case Stephen Scammon v. Sidney S. Legate — assumpsit to recover $367.52, money paid by plaintiff on execution, Newmarket Bank v. Legate, Smith and Scammon — the jury returned a verdict for the defendant. Hatch and Frink for plaintiff, Bell for defendant.

The next case tried was No. 125 — Edmund Adams v. David C. Palmer — assumpsit to recover one half the amount of two notes signed by plaintiff and defendant, sureties with one Daniel M. Adams. Defendant contended that plaintiff had security, and lost it by want of ordinary care and diligence. Verdict for defendant.

Murder Trial. — The case State vs. Wm. Young of Deerfield, for the murder of Sarah M. Atwell, alias Fanny Morgan, was commenced Monday forenoon—Attorney General Clark and Solicitor Bell for State, and D. H. Christie of Dover and Alva Wood of Exeter for respondent. The jury finally empannelled to try the case, after the rejection of several persons by counsel each side, consisted of J. Chaplin Carr, Portsmouth, foreman; John D. Brown, Henry D. Lane, Raymond; Nathan M. Barker, David J. French, Stratham; John A. Trefethen, Charles H. Jones, Rye; H. Fellows, Sandown; H. Pease, J. N. Clark, South Newmarket; J. M. Goodwin, South Hampton, N. E. Daniels, Nottingham.]

The indictment charges William Young, a practising physician of Deerfield, with the murder of Miss Sarah M. Atwell, alias Fanny Morgan, at Deerfield, by means employed by him to procure abortion or premature birth.

The case was opened Monday afternoon by C. H. Bell, Esq., County Solicitor, who stated that the State would present evidence tending to prove that Sarah M. Atwell, alias Fanny Morgan, a young unmarried woman about 24 years of age, employed in a factory at Clinton, Mass., left that place on the morning of the 8th of August last, being then in a condition of pregnancy, arrived in Deerfield, N. H. on the afternoon of the same day, went into the house of Dr. Young, and there remained until she died, on the 16th day of the same month, when she died; and that her death was caused by operation performed or drugs administered by Dr. Young to procure abortion.

The examination of witnesses (of which there appear to be a great number, mostly females) commenced on Tuesday morning, and thus far has proceeded very slowly. The trial excites considerable interest, judging from the number of spectators in attendance, and would be a rich one for reports in the daily sensational papers; but we believe no reporters are in attendance. As our space would not admit of the publication of the evidence in detail, even if we had the taste to present it, (we quote from the Ballot and endorse,) our readers will excuse us for not attempting even a brief abstract of it. The trial will doubtless occupy the whole of this week, and perhaps longer. We understand that the coroner's inquest on the body of the deceased exonerated Dr. Young, but an indictment against him was found by the grand jury at the last term of this Court at Portsmouth. The Doctor is about thirty-five or forty years of age, of rather slender form, dark complexion and pleasing address. Being under bail, he is not confined, sits beside his counsel at the bar, and appears as unconcerned in regard to the testimony as the majority of the spectators. His friends are confident of his acquital.

— By the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court that U. S. Bonds used as bank capital were not taxable, New York city will have to refund some three million dollars to the banks of this city, which were forcibly levied in 1863-4.

— The Philadelphia Inquirer has a letter from the blockading fleet off Galveston which says that a regular line of steamers from Galveston to Nassau, via Havana, make their regular trips without any trouble. Two steamers had just run out during a bright moonlight night without being caught. They had a large number of passengers.

FROM SAN DOMINGO.—The Turk's Island Standard of January 7, has private advices from Santiago, showing that the Dominicans continue to defeat and scatter the Spanish forces in all quarters, whenever they present themselves beyond fortified positions. The Spaniards have surrendered Guerra and Hato Mayer; the town of Seybo was expected to be given up from day to day. Los Minos, in sight of the city of St. Domingo, has been abandoned, and the Dominican guerrillas shoot down the sentries upon the very walls of the city. The last skirmish was at La Canola, in the district of Azua; the Spaniards there attacked Gen. Cabral and were completely routed by him, leaving 72 dead on the field, besides a number of wounded. The Dominicans captured all their stores and ammunition and 40 mules. The same correspondent says the Spaniards are very loth to abandon their grip, but they cannot sustain it any longer. Col. Ernez Romain, Aid-de-Camp to President Geffrard of Hayti, had been at Santiago negotiating some kind of arrangement to cover a decorous retreat for the Spanish forces from the island and to solicit a renewal of the old connection with Hayti. His mission has failed. A rumor from Samana stated that the negroes were threatening to attack the town, and that the Spaniards had evacuated and destroyed some of their fortifications to prevent them from falling into their hands.

— There is a sensation among old lawyers in Washington, caused by the admission of a colored lawyer, named J. S. Rock, of Boston, to practice in the Supreme Court, on motion of Mr. Sumner. This virtually upsets the Dred Scott decision. So says an exchange. It deserved to be upset, as a relic of the dark ages, and a wicked attempt at injustice under form of law. It dies in infamy—let it pass speedily into oblivion

A "COUNT" COUNTED OUT. — The papers inform us, that one George Jones applied to the Supreme Court in New York for a mandamus to compel Justice Dowling to issue a warrant for the arrest of Mr. Fisk, one of the editors of the Leader, for publishing a libel. The application was refused.

PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the

United Petroleum Farms

ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Allegheny River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 300 Barrels per day, worth at the present price of Oil, $1,700 daily, or $644,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $94,375,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later.—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $33,000 per day, or $12,045,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Porcupine, and Redfield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Alleghany River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

Petroleum Oil Companies.

I would call the attention of all persons having funds to invest, to place a part at least in the United Petroleum Farms Association and the President Petroleum Co. I have just received a letter from New York as follows, dated January 30th, 1865:

"J. S. HARVEY, esq.:—Dear Sir: I have just left the Oil Regions and arrived home. I examined again particularly the property of the 'United Petroleum Farms Association,' and it is my opinion that their Company or Companies will be the best in the market, and that you never will regret having been one of the organizers of the Company, and a member of the Association."

The Books are CLOSED to Subscribers in New York. But a small portion may be subscribed here. I believe it the best investment ever offered.

It will instantly arrest the hair from falling off; causes the hair to grow on BALD HEADS when fallen off by disease; and is a complete dressing for the hair, keeping it moist and glossy and perfumed longer than any other preparation in the market.

This article is warranted to do as represented, or the money will be refunded. It is positively the greatest discovery in hair preparations of the age.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

Please inclose a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off, and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

PRICE—$1 per Bottle.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of each be removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these few other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

CARTER'S
CLARIFIED MOLASSES CANDY!

Local.

☞ Judge Russell's Lecture, Tuesday evening, before the Lyceum, on the "elements of national life," was a most enjoyable discourse of an hour or more, on the social, moral and physical components of nationality. We shall attempt no report of his remarks, which entirely covered the wide field opened by his comprehensive theme. Mr. Russell is one of the most easy, fluent and interesting orators of the day; and speaks entirely without notes, and in the most natural and thorough manner,—evincing always thorough acquaintance with his subject, whatever it be, and hearty appreciation of goodness, greatness and truth. A Portsmouth audience will always welcome Judge Russell.

☞ The U. S. steamer Merrimac left the Navy Yard on Wednesday afternoon, and while lying in Lower Harbor, on Wednesday night six substitute sailors seized the opportunity to escape. A large number of shots were fired at them, but none seemed effectual to induce them to return. Two of them were caught, however, by some of the soldiers at Fort McClary. The remainder are at large.

☞ Mr. Stokell's big hog we noticed last week, 849 lbs. at 25 cents, came to $212.25.

☞ Robt. E. Shillaber, 1st N. H. C. has arrived home in this city, on sick furlough.

☞ On the coming in of the Supreme Judicial Court at Exeter, on Monday morning, S. Dana Wingate esq. was admitted to practice as an Attorney under the Statute.

J. Gilman Moses of Portsmouth pleaded not guilty to an Information filed against him by the Solicitor for neglecting to attend as a juror when duly notified, but was decreed guilty, and fined $20 and costs $11.93.

☞ We learn that the Boston & Lowell and Nashua & Lowell Railroads have made an arrangement with the Concord Railroad, by which the business of the latter Road will go over the former road, instead of by the Boston & Maine Road. The arrangement went into effect on the 1st inst., and it is to continue for thirteen years, and it will prove a good more on the part of the Managers of the Nashua & Lowell line. This route has a double track the entire distance from Concord to Boston, and five passenger trains run daily from Boston to Concord over the Lowell Road.

☞ The Portsmouth Cornet Band we think never played better than at the Lyceum, Tuesday evening. Their programme was very fine, too, including the sacred anthems, "Jehovah's Praise" and "Wake the Song of Jubilee," especially arranged for the Band by their leader, Mr. Thompson. Our whole city is deservedly proud of "their Band," which, while holding the highest position for street playing, have proved themselves highly creditable performers in the concert-room,—surpassingly so, all circumstances considered. We hope for that drum-solo, at the next Lyceum—which nobody can roll out better than Frank Mahan.

☞ The Ballot reporter says "a stirring little episode has somewhat delayed the progress of the murder trial at Exeter, and varied the entertainment of the spectators. On Monday afternoon the Attorney General read to the Court an affidavit of B. P. Cilley, charging Uri Lamprey with tampering with a juryman, and moving that an attachment should issue against Lamprey for contempt of court. The Clerk was appointed commissioner to receive the evidence in the case, and Mr. Lamprey's deposition, in which he disclaimed any intention to influence the juror, who was subsequently excused from serving on the trial, was taken, and on Tuesday afternoon the case was argued with much spirit by Mr. Hatch for the respondent, the Attorney for the State, and Mr. Christie, counsel for Dr. Young. On Wednesday morning the Court ordered that attachment against Lamprey should issue; by which we understand that he is to be held for trial on the charge."

☞ Edward P. Sherburne, son of Mr. Andrew Sherburne, of this city, has been appointed by Hon. Daniel Marcy a cadet at West Point.

☞ Hon. Daniel Marcy still remains at his home in this city, convalescing but not well.

☞ We regret to see it announced that J. S. Bedlow esq., for several years the energetic and efficient Superintendent of the District of the American Telegraph Co. extending from Boston eastward, has resigned the position he has so ably filled in this connection. We hear that Mr. B. is to accept a similar appointment with the United States Telegraph Co., and we regard it as a fortunate thing for the latter Company that they have been able to secure the services of a gentleman so well versed in the business as is Mr. Bedlow, one in whom the public have so long enjoyed the fullest confidence as a faithful and accomodating Telegraph manager. Mr. B. remains in this section of the country.

☞ Among the passengers by the Steamer Canada, which sailed from Boston for Liverpool on Wednesday, we notice the name of Mr. Charles W. Kennard, formerly of this city.

LIBERALITY.—We certainly have not the least desire to detract one iota from any credit due Mr. Marcy, for any donations he may have made to soldiers—about which so much has been said by his supporters—notwithstanding he himself assigns only the inferior motive of humanity for his action, discarding the loftier inspiration of patriotism. But let us hear what a Washington correspondent of the Manchester Mirror has to say in comparing the action of all our M. Cs. together. We give as we find the following extract:

A distinguished Democrat of that district has sent for evidence of the liberality of Mr. Marcy to the soldiers—which evidence has been sent, and shows that he has paid about two hundred dollars at the N. H. Rooms. No doubt the letter will be published. Now I can name some three or more clerks, who have received but twelve hundred dollars a year, while Mr. Marcy recieves three thousand a year, who have expended more than that distinguished member for the cause of the soldier in time and money, and are constantly working and paying in the same cause.

Mr. Mason, State Agent, informs me that Senator Clark has paid in upwards of 1200, and been constantly in the hospitals in behalf of the soldiers; and it is of common notoriety here that Messrs. Rollins and Patterson have much exceeded the amount of Mr. Marcy in their benevolence and generosity, and take not "note of expense" for political purposes. Gen. Marston spends thousands in the cause to Mr. Marcy's two hundred, and does not allow any one to excel him in benevolence. And yet these men lay no claims to consideration on that account. Patriotism, blood, are what is wanted. Democrats will hunt in vain for certificates of these in Mr. Marcy's history."

☞ The Herald gives it as a suspicious circumstance that "on Saturday, on the arrival of the last train from Boston on the Eeastern Railroad at Newburyport, a man and boy got out of the train, and had for baggage 17 trunks, all of which were very heavy. Five of these trunks were taken to a hotel, and the remainder locked up in the baggage room. On Monday the parties and trunks left in the first train. There is no doubt but the baggage was designed for the Southern Confederacy, via Halifax. From the weight of the trunks they were supposed to contain percussion caps."

Rev. W. L. Gage, who is now in Europe engaged in collecting materials for an elaborate biography of Prof. Ritter, has also concluded to translate Ritter's great work on Palestine and Arabia. The Life of Ritter will be published in Edinburgh by W. Blackwood & Sons; the Holy Land by T. & T. Clark. We believe that Charles Scribner, of New York, will be the American publisher of both works.—Transcript.

GYMNASTICS.—The classes are to meet at Mercantile Hall; the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 o'clock, and the ladies and gentlemen on the same evenings at 7.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School for ladies and gents, is held at the State St. School House, Monday and Friday evenings.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is the best article in the market. It requires a little less than one half the quantity to do the same work, and when done, leaves the fabric in much better condition than any other kind of Soap. One trial will convince the most skeptical. Use no other, have no other, and be put off with no other. 56

☞ Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is manufactured entirely different from any other. Its chemical purity renders it as harmless as the purest flour, and its use will strengthen weak stomachs and cure dyspeptic persons. Use it with cream tartar instead of soda.—It is much better. Try it. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

LOMBARD & GORE,
BOSTON
PETROLEUM AND COAL STOCK EXCHANGE,
99 STATE STREET,
BOSTON,
Buy and Sell Oil and Coal Stocks on Commission, in New York, Philadelphia, and in Europe.

We believe we can offer superior inducements to all persons wishing to invest in

Petroleum Stocks.

Such investments, as a class, offer greater inducements to persons of either large or small means, than any the world has ever known, not even excepting the

Siver Mines of Mexico and So. America.

The cost of obtaining this Oil is so comparatively small that

A single Well producing only 10 Barrels per Day

will yield an income, over all expenses, of more than

$25,000 PER ANNUM.

Many wells are now yielding from 25 to 75, and several have reached over 1000 Barrels, while one, (the Noble Well, on Oil Creek, Penn.,) has yielded no less than

3000 Barrels per Day,
Worth $30,000 at the Wells.

The undersigned are Regular Agents for the principal Petroleum Companies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and having no more interest in one than another, persons desiring information can rely upon receiving an unbiassed account of the standing and prospects of the various companies on the market.

Enquiries by mail will receive prompt attention.

Subscriptions received to all first-class Companies upon the most favorable terms.

Receipts and Certificates will be forwarded in exchange for available funds, without charge; and Petroleum and Coal Stocks will be sold at the Brokers' Boards of New York and Philadelphia at the regular rates of commission.

We would call special attention to the following Companies now being organized in this city, viz:—

THE

Full information will be furnished in regard to the above, and all other Companies in the market, upon application at our office, personally or by letter.

WHAT IS A

FRENCH ROLL PAN?

IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.

It is simply a nicely made

IRON PAN,

Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very

QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.

For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.

IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to

ECONOMISE

in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and

PALATABLE BREAD:

"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."

By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to eat before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

E. A. STEVENS.

BAILEY'S

Spring Roll and Cog Wheel

WASHING AND WRINGING

MACHINES.

WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.

We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.

To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the great gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that never have been before introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Besides his treatment, which ends the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of groin and loins, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, Painful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief obtained in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted persons rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and delicate diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which has attracted patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Boston, April 7, 1864.—codly.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT

UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!

DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, of whatever nature, incident to females. He continues, with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Engorgements, Leucorrhœa, Whites, General Debility, &c., and Suppressions of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Bladder, &c.

His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, will receive prompt attention.

Office, No. 32 Endicott street.

Persons at a distance can consult DR. BRISCOE, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicines securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients see none but the Doctor himself.

Address DR. BRISCOE, at No. 32 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.

Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secrecy observed in every case.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the cast is being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plates, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason is not obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the fire, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to compare the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of the building.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Shaw, and others.

THE MAIDEN'S DREAM.

A rustic maid sat on the bay,
Under an apple tree;
And softly the song of the summer day
Chimed with her revery.

The music of the mower's scythe,
The cricket on the wall,
The bird song, ever sweet and blythe,
Breathed through her musings all.

"Oh! would I were a lady fair,
In a castle by the sea!
And I'd sit and dream till the livelong day,
While the waves should sing to me.

I'd dream that a fairy skiff should land
Neath my castle by the sea,
To bear me away from the golden strand—
My lordly knight and me.

To a palace grand on another shore
We'd go—my knight and I—
And we'd happy be forevermore,
While the hours of life flew by."

So the maiden dreamed, but dreamed aloud:
A stalwart mower heard,
As he stopped to watch a passing cloud—
And he answered this bold word:—

"Play then that the breeze in those grand old trees
Is the murmur of the sea;
And, faith thou art a maiden fair,
As any queen could be.

Play I'm the knight, for I love thee well,
As any knight can do;
And I'll be to thee—no tongue can tell—
How good and brave and true.

There are blushes bright on each fair cheek—
Do they bid me stop my ballad?
Or shall I tell of a cottage meek,
'Neath an elm tree grand and hale?"

The maiden blushed at her dreams agone,
But said, nor tried to sigh.—
"Together and ever we'll happy be,
While the hours of life fill by."

She cared no more for the castle grand—
The silver waves above;
The maid had found her heart's demand
In the yeoman's honest love.

POSITION OF FRANCE.—The Paris correspondent of the London Morning Post, writing on the 11th inst., says:

"We seldom get over a period of three months without a report, which is eagerly accepted in Paris, viz., that the French Government is about to recognize the Southern Confederacy of America. This assertion is once more on the tapis, and some persons have given themselves the trouble to inquire at headquarters if it be true. There is no reason to suppose that the French Government has in any way modified its policy toward North or South, or that the Emperor and his advisers contemplate doing so."

NUTRITIOUS FOOD.—While mutton, the most nutritive of animal food contains only 29 per cent. of nutritive matter to 17 pounds of water, wheat flour contains 90 per cent. of nutriment to 10 of water. Potatoes, on the other hand, contain 22 1-2 per cent. of nutriment to 77 1-2 of water; and turnips contain but 4 1-2 per cent. of nutriment to 95 1-2 of water. Cabbage is little more nutritious, containing only 7 1-2 per cent. of nutriment.

The most nutritious of all vegetable food, however, is the white bean, which yields 95 per cent. nutriment to 5 pounds of water. Of the fruits, the cucumber is the least nutritious and the plum the most. Fish forms the least nourishing kind of animal food. It thus appears that the most nutritious (and of course the cheapest) articles of food for man are:—mutton, beef, poultry, flour, bread, meal, beans and rice.—Hall's Journal of Health.

TRAINING DOGS.—In the course of some conversation in relation to dogs, Gov. Anderson of Ohio related a Texan practice in training dogs with sheep:

"A pup is taken from its mother before its eyes are opened and put with an ewe to suckle. After a few times the ewe becomes reconciled to the pup, which follows her like a lamb; grows up among and remains with the flock, and no wolf, man or strange dog can come near the sheep; and the dog will bring the flock to the fold regularly at 7 1-2 o'clock, if you habitually feed him at that hour.

— The statement of the Little Rock Democrat, that the election of W. D. Snow to the United States Senate by the Legislature of Arkansas was a farce, proves to be untrue. He was legally elected, more than a quorum of the General Assembly being present.

ANOTHER KEROSENE EXPLOSION.—On Tuesday evening, Mr. George C. Burrill, shoemaker, was at work in his shop on Water street, Newburyport, with his lamp before him, when an explosion took place, smashing the lamp to pieces.

— In the Massachusetts Legislature, on Tuesday, a petition was presented from Aaron Morrill and 240 others of Amesbury and Salisbury, against the extension of the charter of the Newburyport bridge.

— Postage stamps are worth more than gold in rebeldom. The Richmond papers advertise to pay three dollars a piece for three-cent U. S. postage stamps.

— Wednesday was Candlemas, which is thought to be mid-winter—it requiring as much fuel for fire, and hay for stock, after as before this date.

— Robert Lincoln, son of the President, it is said, intends entering the army soon, as an aid on the staff of Gen. Grant.

What is the difference between a toad and a toady? One loves little bugs and the other big bugs.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Cahoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.
WYMAN & TYLER, AGENTS,
82 Water St., Boston, Mass.
The Vernatella,
For making the Soles of Boots and Shoes water proof and wear longer, is also for sale as above.

THE REBELLION.

The Houston (Texas) Telegraph of Jan. 9th says it has information which leaves little room to doubt that an early attack will be made on the coast of that State, and earnestly appeals to the people to make immediate preparations to resist.

The rebels say their losses at Fort Fisher were about one hundred killed, four hundred wounded, and two thousand five hundred captured.

Gen. Rosecrans, in referring to the battle of Chickamauga, says:—"The brave and devoted Army of the Cumberland sustained and successfully resisted the utmost power of a veteran rebel army, filled with the spirit of emulation and hope, and more than one-half larger than itself; inflicted on it much more damage than we received, and held the coveted objective point, Chattanooga. What we attempted we accomplished. We took Chattanooga, from a force nearly as large as our own, and held it after our enemy had been reinforced by as many men as we had in our whole command."

Colonel George B. Latham, of the Sixth West Virginia cavalry, has been dismissed from the service of the United States, on the finding of a court martial, for allowing the post of New Creek, West Virginia, to be surprised by rebel raiders some time ago, and the garrison captured.

Wednesday's Nashville Union says intelligence, entirely reliable, reports Taylor's, late Hood's, army as rapidly disbanding and deserters by hundreds are coming into our lines.

The late fire in Savannah destroyed more than 200 buildings. A bombardment of the city, lasting two hours, was occasioned by the fire reaching the magazine. Several persons were killed and wounded, and the screams of fright and despair were appalling.

THE HARBOR OF SAVANNAH OPEN.—The Savannah Republican of Jan. 23 announces that the obstructions have been removed from the main ship channel of the harbor. The rebels expended a great deal of labor and time in erecting these obstructions, which were of the strongest kind and exceedingly difficult to remove. Huge pens, formed of piles driven into the bed of the river and interlaced with the heaviest kind of iron chains, were filled with paving stones and rocks of all kinds, the whole being cemented with vast quantities of clay. The day before, the steamships Oriental and Ajax—the former drawing fourteen feet and the latter fifteen feet—passed through the obstructions without the slightest difficulty, landing below the bluff safe and sound. A passage of one hundred feet has now been cleared, and steamers of the heaviest draft will now be able to come directly to the city. Some portions of the river are still obstructed by sunken wrecks, which will be removed on the arrival of the requisite machinery, chains, &c., from the North.

— Alex'r H. Stephens, R. M. T. Hunter, Judge Campbell and other peace commissioners arrived at Fortress Monroe on Thursday afternoon from City Point, in Gen. Grant's special dispatch steamer. Sec. Seward was on board the steamer River Queen waiting to receive them. Immediately on the arrival of the commissioners both steamers proceeded to anchorage in the stream, side by side.

— Burleigh, the Lake Erie pirate, was delivered to the U. S. Provost Marshal at Suspension Bridge, N. Y., on Friday.

GOLD, Friday, 209 5-8.

☞ The newspapers of Friday is their editorials and dispatches, gave a variety of speculations, alias guesses, about the President's visit to Fortress Monroe, and the errand of the Southern visitors who were at the same place. None of them are of much consequence, when a few hours will give us all the material facts in the case.

— The St. Louis Republican reports, on the authority of a Federal officer, that the famous General Rhoddy has become tired of the rebellion, and has procured a full pardon from President Lincoln. Rhoddy is represented to be one of the ablest rebel cavalry commanders, and his disaffection would greatly injure the Confederate cause in the Southwest.

☞ The Tribune says "a majority of the American People have decided that Slavery shall die, because sore experience has taught them that its perpetuation is inconsistent with the integrity and safety of the Republic. They seek for a genuine, lasting Peace; hence they have voted to eradicate that 'root of bitterness' which has distracted and nearly ruined her. We will not doubt that those who voted adversely to our convictions sincerely believed theirs the true way to Peace: we will not doubt that these will rejoice with us to see their forebodings dispelled and our hopes realized."

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Earthquake 1760.—Fire.—Baptismal font.—Spring Market.—Independent Church.—Stage.—Daniel Treadwell.—John Wentworth.

On the 8th of November, 1759, John Wentworth, Esq., only son of his Excellency Governor Benning Wentworth, died greatly lamented. His remains were interred on the 22d of the same month. A discourse, suitable to the solemnity, was delivered in the Queen's chapel, by the Rev. Arthur Brown. Mr. Wentworth's benevolent and charitable disposition, inoffensive life and conversation, had justly recommended him to all his acquaintances.

Of those who have promised to figure in the republic of letters, Daniel Treadwell, the son of Jacob Treadwell, takes a conspicuous place. His father was a native of Ipswich, in Massachusetts, removed to this town, and carried on the business of a tanner. The son early discovered a taste for literature. He received the first rudiments of his education under the instruction of Major Hale, who for many years was master of the grammar-school here. He entered Harvard College in 1750, and during his residence there applied so diligently to his studies, that he obtained the reputation of a good scholar, and was particularly distinguished for his knowledge of mathematics. He received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1754, and was the same year elected professor of mathematics in King's College, in New York, over which institution the Rev. Samuel Johnson, D. D., presided. He was recommended to this office by Doctor Winthrop, who entertained a high opinion of his talents, and proficiency in that branch of academical knowledge. Nor were the corporation who elected him disappointed. He continually rose in their esteem, and the President on a visit at Stratford, in Connecticut, in 1759, expressed the greatest anxiety that he had been obliged to leave this valuable young man in a declining state of health.—Mr. Treadwell was attacked with a complaint on his lungs, which terminated in a consumption; and early in the spring of the year 1760, he fell a sacrifice to that disorder, greatly lamented by all who knew him.

On the 3d of February, 1760, at three o'clock in the morning, an earthquake was felt here and in the neighboring towns.

Sunday morning, January 25th, 1861, a fire broke out in a barber's in King's street, (now Congress street,) which communicated to the house of Mr. James Stoodly, innholder, and raged with such fury as in two hours to consume his house, barn, and other out-houses.—Its progress was then arrested by the exertions of the inhabitants.

The daughters of Colonel John Tufton Mason, presented to Queen's chapel an elegant marble baptismal vase with a brazen cover, on which is inscribed "Sarah Catherina et Anna Elizabetha Johannis Tufton Mason Gehortis structoris filiæ ornatissimæ hoc baptisterium, ex gallicis manubiis apud Senegallam, subauspiciis predicti Johannis acquisitum, ecclesiæ Anglicanæ apud Portsmouth in provincia, vulgo vocata New Hampshire, liberaliter contulerunt Anno Domini 1761 et vicessimo sexto præsidicationis Arthuri Browne; Wiseman Claggett et Samuel Livermore ecclesiæ procuratoribus."

In 1761, the town built a house for a market on Spring Hill, one story high. Thomas Wallingford, Esq., of Somersworth, gave one thousand of boards towards it.

A ledge of rocks extended across Court street, a little below the north meeting house. On these rocks, nearly in the middle of the street, was erected a watch-house of brick, about ten or twelve feet square.

A number of persons withdrew from the other churches in town, and formed an independent congregation. The reasons of their separation were, to establish a society to be regulated by the Cambridge platform in discipline; and in doctrines, by the New England confession of faith. A church was collected by the assistance of the Rev. John Palmer and Paul Parks of Connecticut, who occasionally visited them, and administered the sacraments. They purchased a lot of land in Pitt street, on which they erected a meeting house, which was so far completed, that they met in it in the spring of 1761. They invited Mr. Samuel Drown of Bristol, Rhode Island, to settle with them in the ministry, which invitation he accepted. He was ordained to the pastoral care of this society on the 21 of November, 1761. The Rev. Alexander Miller, Paul Parks, and John Palmer, all of Connecticut, assisted at the ordination.

On the 20th of April, 1761, Mr. John Stavers commenced running a stage from this town to Boston. The carriage was a curricle, drawn by two horses, sufficiently wide to carry three passengers. It left this town on Monday morning, and proceeded as far as Ipswich the same day, and reached Charlestown ferry the next day.—It left Charlestown on Thursday, and arrived here on Friday. The fare from this place to Boston was thirteen shillings and sixpence sterling, equal to three dollars. It is supposed that this was the first stage which was ever run in America.

— The Free Constitutional Amendment has been signed by President Lincoln; and the Legislature of several States, being now in session, have the matter before them; in some it is already ratified.

— The pirate Burley, whom the Canadian courts have decided shall be given up to the United States in compliance with provisions of the extradition treaty, is said to have been greatly enraged when the decision was announced in court. He sneered at the Chief Justice's conclusions, and swore that he would yet have his revenge.

LONDON ITEMS.—The London Globe authoritatively states that the reports from America that British troops are about to embark for Canada to meet the contingency of a possible war from the contemplated recognition of the South, are absolutely without any foundation.

Capt. Corbett, commander of the steamer Sea King, prior to her conversion into the rebel cruiser Shenandoah, had again been before a magistrate charged with enlisting seamen to serve on the Shenandoah. Further conclusive evidence was adduced, and the prisoner was committed for trial.

The New York correspondent of the London Herald asserts that Gen. Sherman had become insane.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News makes the important announcement, that at the same time the Emperor made Prince Napoleon Vice President of the council, he resolved, in case of his death during the minority of the Prince Imperial, that Prince Napoleon should be Regent. The resolution was taken with the consent of the Empress.

GEORGIA. — Late advices from Savannah allude to great efforts being made by the people in Central and Southeastern Georgia to return to the Union. The first step taken by these people was to swear vehemently that they had never been out of the Union. The movement extends over nine counties — among them Laurens, others lying along the Gulf Railroad. The citizens have held meetings, organized mutual protection clubs, passed bold resolves, and sent to Gen. Sherman for assistance. Restoration of the Union being the paramount idea with Gen. Sherman, he has undoubtedly given them to understand that he will aid them in their good work as far as lies in his power. Rebels have come to think Sherman's power extends a great way.

In conversation a short time since with several citizens of Savannah on the subject of the war, Gen. Sherman, in his characteristic manner, remarked: We wish to cultivate friendly feeling with your people; if they love monarchy, we will not quarrel with them; but we love a strong republic and mean to maintain it.

General Grant, Captain Fox and other officers have recently paid a visit to Fort Fisher, and after a thorough examination, Gen. Grant expressed the opinion that the work could not have been carried, if the naval fire had not dismounted all the guns on the side assaulted by the soldiers. Numerous circumstances were found confirmatory of the belief that the rebels supposed that the main assault was made by the sailors and marines, and were but poorly prepared for Terry's assault on the other side.

So says the Herald;—and if so, then it was well that Butler and Weitzel backed out,— and that the attack was finally made with a force adequate to the task and with the earnest co-operation of Ad. Porter and his fleet.

WOOD'S RESOLUTION. — Fernando Wood on Tuesday astonished the House of Representatives by offering the following resolution:

"Resolved, That it is the duty of the President to maintain, in every constitutional and legal manner, the integrity of the American Union as formed by the fathers of the Republic; and in no event, and under no circumstances, to proffer or accept negotiations which shall admit, by the remotest implication, the existence of any other federal or confederate government within the territory of the United States."

Seeing that this was submitted immediately after the return of Mr. Singleton, the Copperhead from Richmond, the incident is significant, to say the least.

A SMALL POX PANIC.—The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal says:

The small pox has assumed the form of a virulent epidemic, and is spreading alarm in all parts of the city. The great tenement houses on the east and west sides of the city are regular pest houses. Some of them contain from a hundred and fifty to two hundred families, and in some of them every room has a case of this terrible malady. Nervous and sensitive women are driven almost out of their wits. A slight cold, producing a huskiness of the throat and a pain in the head, is regarded as the advance guard of this malignant destroyer. Many send their children away, take to their beds, and wait for the enemy to approach, who are in no more danger of the small pox than of being struck with lightning.

TRADE TROUGH MEXICO.—It is said, now that Wilmington is closed to the rebel trade, that attention will be wholly directed to Mexico, through which ports, it is claimed, sufficient cotton can be sent abroad to pay regularly the interest on the rebel bonds, and keep a handsome balance on hand beside. The rebels assert that they have the money in London to meet the March and September payments.

— N. B. Davis, the rebel bearer of dispatches from Richmond to Canada, and identified at Newark, Ohio, as keeper of the Andersonville (Ga.,) prison, has been sentenced to be hung on Johnson's Island Feb. 17.

—A prize fight came off Thursday, near Wilmington, Del., between Ward and Farrel. Ward was badly whipped. The military surrounded the party, arrested 150, marched them 6 miles and handed them over to the civil authorities.

PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the

United Petroleum Farms

ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Allegheny River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,780 daily, or $642,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,275,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $83,000 per day, or $14,045,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Porcupine, and Redfield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Allegheny River—embracing about 3,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

Petroleum Oil Companies.

I would call the attention of all persons having funds to invest, to place a part at least in the United Petroleum Farms Association and the President Petroleum Co. I have just received a letter from New York as follows, dated January 30th, 1865:

"J. S. HARVEY, esq.:—Dear Sir: I have just left the Oil Regions and arrived home. I examined again particularly the property of the 'United Petroleum Farms Association,' and it is my opinion that their Company or Companies will be the best in the market, and that you never will regret having been one of the organizers of the Company, and a member of the Association."

The Books are CLOSED to Subscribers in New York. But a small portion may be subscribed here. I believe it the best investment ever offered.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

Please inclose a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "Dye," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

PRICE—$1 per Bottle.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

CARTER'S
CLARIFIED MOLASSES CANDY!

Local.

☞ On Friday morning, as Mr. Thacher T. White was quietly wending his way from his home in Kittery to his work at the Navy Yard, he was knocked down by a horse and sleigh driven by a marine named Doughty or Doughface, who turned out of the middle of the road apparently with the above intent. Mr. White also came very near being trodden upon by the horse, and was somewhat injured by being thus suddenly "knocked off his pins," but managed to pick himself up, and, hailing a passing sleigh, told the driver thereof to catch the offending team, which was done just as it reached the Navy Yard Bridge.

Here the scene changed somewhat: Mr. White jumped out, seized the head of the horse, turned him round, and then grasping the whip from the marine's hand, gave him such a thrashing as will not encourage him to repeat the experiment. It is reported that this is no new trick of this airy soldier's, as he has before attempted similar things. He was accompanied by two women of the town, one of whom showed fight to Mr. White, who informed her that it was only her sex that saved her from being treated like her gallant companion.

DICKIES.—Gray's patent Molded Collars can't be beat, that's a fact; but they are counterfeited, that's another fact, and pity 'tis 'tis so. And any dealers who sell the spurious, are warned by the advertisement we give elsewhere. As to the collars themselves, they are the greatest preserver of even choler we know of,—always just the thing you want, when you have procured the right size, which is an easy matter with the Gray pattern. The greatest objection to them is, that after you have become accustomed to these, you regard any other collars as mean and inferior; which might work badly, when all the Company can make are in such demand. And so cheap, too—why after being soiled upon one side, they can be turned, and look and feel better then than any other dickey we could ever find. We speak from long experience of the turn-downs; and having now got a supply of the uprights, we expect to be able to hold our head still higher than ever for the future, in view of all the good news we are having. Gray's molded Collars forever!

THE PRESIDENT HAS "STRUCK ILE," not Mr. Lincoln, but the President Petroleum Company. Mr. Harvey has received the following Notice.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1, 1865.

JOHN S. HARVEY, esq, Dear Sir:—"Received notice by telegraph that a 500-barrel well has been struck on Hemlock Creek."

L. H. SIMPSON & Co.,
Treasurer President Petroleum Co.

A 500-barrel Well per day at $11 per bbl. is worth from one to two millions of dollars.

J. S. HARVEY.

The books for subscription to the stock, at original price, are open in Portsmouth till Feb. 15th.

☞ Kentucky Lottery circulars, from New York, are circulated freely through the Post Office. Anybody who should be fool enough to put money into such a scive, deserves to lose it as he will.

☞ Members of the Old Folks Choir, so long silent, and others of our readers who are interested in Music, will find in our advertising columns, a couple of notices of interest to them.

☞ The fourth Temperance Lecture of the series being delivered by the different clergymen of the city, will be given by Rev. Mr. Holman, in the Methodist Church, State street, to-morrow (Sunday) evening at half-past 7 o'clock.

☞ For a variety of desirable articles, from Sewing Machines to sewing cotton, and from a pulpit to harnesses, see auction advertisement of H. F. Wendell, this day.

☞ The Herald notices "a good supply of pine wood in Newburyport market, which comes from neighboring towns in New Hampshire. On Wednesday, were two big loads, one of them rising fourteen feet from the ground, measuring four cords, and the other but a little short of that. They were drawn in from Hampton Falls, nine miles, by Mr. John Batchelder, who cuts this season 400 cords. There is no man who sends bigger loads of wood or drives fatter cattle this way than he."

—— First Lieut. Geo. W. Nixon, 2d N. H. regiment, tried and convicted by court martial for various offences, has been sentenced to be dismissed.

—— Lieut. Wendell R. Cooke, 5th N. H. regiment, who was sentenced by Court Martial to be reduced to the ranks, in consequence of his former good conduct as an officer has had his sentence remitted.

BUTTER COMING FORWARD.—Our produce dealers had large quantities of butter, tons of it, offered for sale yesterday by persons who have evidently been keeping it from the market in the expectation of higher prices. But with the advance of the season and the fall in gold, they will not only fail to get a higher price, but also to keep the article up to present prices. Shrewd buyers predict that the butter market will be glutted by the last of the month, with a heavy fall in prices.—Springfield Union, 1st.

GYMNASTICS.—The classes are to meet at Mercantile Hall; the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 o'clock, and the ladies and gentlemen on the same evenings at 7.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School for ladies and gents, is held at the State St. School House, Monday and Friday evenings.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

Said a venerable preacher—Fellow sinners, if you were told that by going to the top of those stairs, (pointing to a rickety pair at the other end of the church) you might secure your eternal salvation, I really believe hardly one of you would try it; but if I should proclaim that J. Monroe Taylor had put a few bars of his celebrated Gold Medal Soap on the top stair for the one that would get it first, I'll be bound there ain't one of you but what would use your utmost exertions to gain the prize; my wife says there ain't anything like it, and she would recommend the whole parish to use it. 57

☞ Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is manufactured entirely different from any other. Its chemical purity renders it as harmless as the purest flour, and its use will strengthen weak stomachs and cure dyspeptic persons. Use it with cream tartar instead of soda—it is much better. Try it. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

LOMBARD & GORE,
BOSTON
PETROLEUM AND COAL STOCK EXCHANGE,
[99 STATE STREET,
[BOSTON,

Buy and Sell Oil and Coal Stocks on Commission, in New York, Philadelphia, and in Europe.

We believe we can offer superior inducements to all persons wishing to invest in

Petroleum Stocks.

Such investments, as a class, offer greater inducements to persons of either large or small means, than any the world has ever known, not even excepting the Silver Mines of Mexico and So. America.

The cost of obtaining this Oil is so comparatively small that

A single Well producing only 10 Barrels per Day

will yield an income, over all expenses, of more than

$25,000 PER ANNUM.

Many wells are now yielding from 25 to 75, and several have reached over 1000 Barrels, while one, (the Noble Well, on Oil Creek, Penn.,) has yielded no less than

3000 Barrels per Day,
Worth $30,000 at the Wells.

The undersigned are Regular Agents for the principal Petroleum Companies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and having no more interest in one than another, persons desiring information can rely upon receiving an unbiassed account of the standing and prospects of the various companies on the market.

Enquiries by mail will receive prompt attention.

Subscriptions received to all first-class Companies upon the most favorable terms.

Receipts and Certificates will be forwarded in exchange for available funds, without charge; and Petroleum and Coal Stocks will be sold at the Brokers' Boards of New York and Philadelphia at the regular rates of commission.

We would call special attention to the following Companies now being organized in this city, viz:—

BOSTON

Full information will be given on application at our office, in person or by letter.

THE
NEW ENGLAND

The inducements to invest which are offered by the properties of this Company, and the well-known character of its managers, fully entitle the confidence of the public.

THE
BOSTON & VENANGO
PETROLEUM COMPANY,

we offer as "A No. 1." Although not producing at present, the prospect at least equals that of the Columbia Oil Company, of Pittsburgh, at the time of its organization, which has paid on an original subscription of $2000 a net profit of $54,500 in two years, and continues to pay in the same ratio.

Full information will be furnished in regard to the above, and all other Companies in the market, upon application at our office, personally or by letter.

RELIGION—WHAT IS IT?

BY BISHOP HEBER.

Is it to go to Church to-day,
To look devout and seem to pray,
And are the morrow's sins goes down
Be dealing slander through the town?

Does every sanctimonious face
Denote a certain reign of grace?
Does not a phiz that scolds at sin
Oft veil hypocrisy within?

Is it to make our daily walk,
And of our own good deeds to talk,
Yet often practice secret crime,
And then mis-spend our precious time?

Is it for sect or creed to fight,
To call our zeal the rule of right,
When what we wish is at the best,
To see our church excel the rest?

Is it to wear the Christian's dress,
And love to all mankind profess,
And treat with scorn the humble poor,
And bar against them every door?

Oh, no, religion means not this:
Its fruit more sweet and fairy is—
Its precept this—to others do
As you would have them do to you.

It grieves to hear an ill report,
And scorns with humane joys to sport—
Of other's deeds it speaks no ill,
But tells of good or keeps it still.

And does religion this impart?
Then may its influence fill my heart;
Oh! haste that blissful, joyful day,
When all the earth may own its sway.

MILITARY SURPRISE AT SHERMAN'S SUCCESS.!—The originality of Sherman's Savannah campaign is well illustrated by the story, told by a foreign correspondent of a New York paper, of two high officers of the French army. As they met, and took each other by the hand, one said in a tone of disappointment, "Well, Sherman has got safely through." "No ?" was the only reply, and then there came over the two men's faces such an expression of astonishment, deceived hope and incredulity, as told plainly the nature of their thoughts, and thus they stood a full quarter of a minute, with hands grasped in silence, separating at last without any further utterance. The event was too big to be attacked without reflection.

☞ The first instalment of the Atlantic telegraph was dispatched on the 16th inst., and thus a most important step forward was taken in the means of providing a telegraphic communication between England and America. Her Majesty's ship Amethyst, an old sailing corvette, which for some years past has lain at moorings in the Medway, had received in the iron tank which has been constructed in her hold a coil of two hundred and seventy-nine miles of the cable, and was duly towed down to the Medway, where she will be laid alongside the Great Eastern to deliver up the first instalment of the Atlantic cable. The entire cable will be ready by June next.

☞ In the libel case — Adams v. Foster on trial at Portland, before Judge Davis, the jury, after being out three hours on Saturday, failed to agree. The suit was brought by the editor of the Portland Argus against Mr. Foster of the Press, for charging Mr. Adams with disloyalty and treason, and stating that his (Mr. Adams') paper was "reeking with treason and with the blood of our loyal sons who have fallen in this unnatural strife." The Argus report says that the jury stood equally divided between plaintiff and defendant, as was understood.

BALTIMORE.—Considered with reference to size, population and wealth, Baltimore is the third city in the United States. Whether it is so commercially, is another question. Their harbor has been recently closed by ice to the distance of eight miles, and the only effort made toward its removal was by the Norfolk line of steamers, one or two of the boats of which were seriously damaged by their exertions. The city has no ice boat.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—Papers transmitted to the Senate in answer to a call for information of the Secretary of War, show Col. Wolford of Kentucky was arrested in compliance with a telegram from Lieut. Gen. Grant for making speeches, charged of an insurrectionary character and discouraging enlistments. Subsequently he pledged himself to refrain from opposition to the Government, and was therefore released.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet and Gonorrhœal Rheumatism of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D... devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving a description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system, Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon scientific pathological principles, speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate cases invariably yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to his profession, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall Stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler, and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated, in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in the city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of the valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites these as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the stove can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney-flue hottest part of your building.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleave, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is specially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in females; where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, eye, and health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

PEORIA, Ill., Jan. 26.

Since writing you from Dubuque, I have roamed extendedly,— East to Rockford, through Galena and Freeport, both now towns of considerable activity—thence west again to the Mississippi at Burlington, Iowa, and east through central Illinois to this point.

Rockford is a city with a rapidly increasing population,—now ten thousand, located on both sides of the Rock river, extendedly settled, each residence surrounded by extensive grounds tastefully laid out and cultivated, to which Summer must bring much adornment.

The "Manny Reaper" Mills are located here, and a large wooden mill is soon to be established, the admirable water-power giving a lively impetus to the manufacturing spirit of the community, and conducing largely to the growth and increasing prosperity of the place. Rockford has innumerable fine residences, substantial and commodious school-houses, and a dozen good churches,—the Unitarian edifice is called the handsomest, being a model of architecture, built of freestone with tall spire, and is symmetrically proportioned throughout. Rev. Wm. G. Nowell, formerly of your city, occupies the pulpit. To the Society is attached a wide-awake, lively and growing Sabbath School, numbering upwards of one hundred scholars.

Through northern and western Illinois from Rockford, I journeyed to Burlington, Iowa, one of the larger Mississippi cities and a point of considerable business,—as it commands a good wholesale trade from the interior Iowa towns. It has blocks of large brick stores,—red brick, not yellow, as in the places N. W. of it. It was during the warm spell of last week that I reached the river, and the ice being too weak to support teams, as two express wagons had proved the day before, the only alternative was "footing it;" several inches of water lay on the ice, which added but very little to the agreeability of this pedestrianism; the accomplishment of which only left one in blissful ignorance whither in returning next day, he would be obliged to ride across, walk across, swim across, ferry across, or not get across at all. Cold and snow came with the second night, and between and over the swift current rolled the omnibusses triumphantly—and for fifty cents.

As among the improvements on railroads, I may mention two on the "Chicago, Burlington & Quincy"—an arrangement of oval looking glasses in gilded frames along the sides of the car,—one in each panel over each seat. You will realize that these relieve one of the heretofore imperative necessity of staring impolitely directly into the faces of all the pretty young girls—and old ones' in the cars; certainly one great improvement. The other is the heating of the cars by a furnace attached beneath the coach at the center, and having a regular parlor-register directly over it, and one at each end of the car, with connecting tubes under the flooring. This furnace is fed through a conduit six inches in diameter, descending from the floor just back of the centre register, and "raked" by a connecting rod at the same point; both put out of sight by a tightly-fitting iron cover nine inches square. The whole arrangement is compact, convenient, and ceases the unending nuisance of stoves. No one likes to have a car stove in, either for the purpose of heating the car or breaking people's necks.

Will write you next from Springfield, the Capital of this, the greatest of all the great Western States.

Progressively yours, N.

In Michigan, notwithstanding the drain upon the male population created by the war, the men largely outnumber the women. But bachelors who find their lady acquaintances putting too high a price upon themselves in the matrimonial market, need not drown or hang themselves after all. It appears from Gov. Andrew's message that there are 29,166 women between 15 and 40 years old in Massachusetts more than can possibly find husbands in that State. What a splendid field for disappointed wooers! How much better to take a railroad trip to the Bay State, than to stretch a rope, tumble off a bridge, or swallow "cold poison."—Detroit Tribune.

—Three girls, employed in making fireworks, were burnt to death by gunpowder, on Thursday afternoon, at Weymouth, Mass.

—The new fashion in hair is helmet fashion on the top of the head and frizzy curls by way of relief.

—There has been a great snowstorm at Madrid—the first within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Cahoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.
WYMAN & TYLER, Agents,
82 Water St., Boston, Mass.
The Vernatella,
For making the Soles of Boots and Shoes water proof and wear longer, is also for sale as above.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

The Tribune's City Point dispatch of the 1st inst., says it is understood there that Jeff. Davis and his Cabinet instructed Stephens to make peace on the best terms he can, but to make peace any way. It was also though that Stephens would not return to the Confederacy if he did not succeed in his mission.

The Times' Washington dispatch says it is understood there that Messrs. Lincoln and Seward are on their way back, but nothing is known of the result of the conference.—They reached Washington, Saturday.

The Tribune says Gen. Gilmore has gone to take command of South and North Carolina, Georgia and Florida — superseding Gen. Foster.

It is stated that Beauregard is to command Hood's late army. 1000 paroled Union prisoners have started for our lines but were detained by ice in the James River.

By the arrival of the Empire City from New Orleans 25th, we learn that rebel deserters from Mobile state that it was generally believed the city would soon be evacuated without waiting for the advance of General Granger, whose force numbers 25,000 men.

We have dispatches from the Southwest that the noted Gen. Chalmers, one of Hood's best officers, has announced to his troops that the Confederacy has gone under, at the same time expressing his intention to lay aside the sword. Another rebel Gen. (Morrow) is also stated to be repentant.

By Telegraph—Sunday noon.

Messrs. Lincoln and Seward spent from four to five hours with Mr. Stephens and companions, on board the steamer River Queen, lying in Hampton Roads. The rebels disclaimed having any credentials or authority to make peace, or coming in any official or authorized capacity; but met only as citizens of States, to see if some kind of peace negotiations could not be started. When introduced, the parties are said to have greeted each other most cordially. A general interchange of views then followed. [Here follow the usual "rumors" which have been coming hourly for days.] Mr. Lincoln is said to stick to Union and freedom; and the rebels to propose an armistice and convention of the States.

☞ The U. S. House of Representatives have unanimously passed a bill giving a gratuity of $300 a year to each of the five surviving revolutionary pensioners in addition to the pension of $100 which they now receive. In January, 1864, there were only twelve remaining, seven of whom have since died. The names of the only survivors are as follows: Lemuel Cook, enlisted in Hatfield, Mass., 98 years of age, now residing at Clarendon, Orleans Co., N. Y.; Samuel Downey, enlisted in Carroll Co., N. H., 98 years of age, now living at Edenberg, Saratoga Co., N. Y.; William Hutchins, enlisted in Newcastle, Me., 100 years of age, residing at Penobscot, Me.; Alexander Maroney, enlisted at Lake George, N. Y., as a drummer boy, 94 years of age, residing at Yates, Orleans Co., N. Y.; James Beartham, a substitute for a drafted man in Southampton Co., Va., living in Missouri, in his 101st year.

A HISTORICAL PRECEDENT.—The Boston Journal says the fact of President Lincoln and Secretary Seward meeting the representatives of the rebels on ship board in the waters of the Chesapeake to talk over matters of peace is not without a historical precedent. Napoleon, it will be remembered, once met the Emperor of Russia and the King of Prussia upon a raft moored in the centre of the river Niemen, a little below the town, June 25, 1807, and there signed the Treaty of Tilsit, which put an end to a long and bloody war.

— The Manchester Union in a jeremiad about the Constitutional Amendment, says:

"It cannot, of course, pass legally, but it will pass, nevertheless, and we shall be obliged to recognize it as a part of our fundamental law. We shall never do it."

You won't, eh? How can you help yourself, when it is ratified by three-fourths of the States? We fancy we see brother Campbell seceding from the American Union, because a few thousand rebels are not to be permitted to eat their bread by the sweat of other men's brows, hereafter, without compensation. About what time do you propose to evacuate Uncle Sam's heritage?—Monitor

— Some of the London papers attempt to be very severe on Mr. Seward and the Brazilian government for the supposed settlement of the difficulty regarding the seizure of the rebel pirate Florida in the port of Bahia.

— Burleigh, the Lake Erie pirate, was delivered to the U. S. Provost Marshal at Suspension Bridge, N. Y. Feb 3.

— No person is fit for a higher position, who fails to do his best in the one he now occupies.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A muskrat is said to have once let the ocean in upon Holland. Recently one let the waters of Hayes' canal, in Farmington, back into the Cocheco.

—— The Rockingham Q. M. was held with the F.W. Baptist Church in Danville 18 and 19 ult. Ten churches were reported, and the session was interesting.

—— The library of Raymond has been in successful operation one year, and has recently been increased by about forty dollars' worth of books.

—— Sergt. M. C. Shattuck, Co. B. 13th Regt. received a furlough on the 25th of Jan. for twenty days, on the back of which was endorsed "Best soldier in 3d Division, 24th army corps."

—— Hampton Academy is flourishing, having 60 pupils. Mr. Western, a graduate of Dartmouth College in the class of 1864, is Principal, and Rev. Mr. Durgin of Hampton is Assistant.

—— We learn from Concord that Gov. Gilmore is again very seriously ill of erysipelas.

THE TRIBUNE is probably the best and most complete newspaper in this country, or the world. We have published the prospectus for 1865 elsewhere; and having thus let them tell their own story so well, we shall not attempt to "bush" their "good" concern farther. It is only of prices we are going to say a word now.

Formerly the Weekly Tribune was circulated for the miserable pittance of $1 a year, while for our Weekly Gazette we charged $1.50; and the Daily Tribune was only $5, while the Daily Chronicle was $4. But in these shifting times, the Tribune has gone above us, their Daily now being $10 to our $8, and their Weekly $2.50 to our $2.

We have never paid much if any regard to other people's prices; those who want our papers, or other wares, at a fair, remunerative rate, can have them—those who don't, can let them alone. The Tribune folks say they don't want any customers who wish to get their paper without paying a fair price for it—nor do we. And the prices of our papers, compared with most others, are lower relatively now than ever before.

THE RIGHT KIND OF RETALIATION.—A. D. R., the well known correspondent of the Tribune, who was a prisoner to the rebels for a long time, is in favor of retaliation—and in a long article he says, of the common rebel soldiers:

Retaliation upon them would be unavailing as well as undeserved. The Richmond authorities care nothing for them, except as they represent muskets, and often treat them almost as barbarously as they do our prisoners.

The rebel officers are our effective material. Hurt them and Richmond shrieks. When the rebels had selected Sawyer and Flynn for execution, our Government did not protest or threaten, but quickly ordered the commandant at Fortress Monroe, the moment he should learn that they had carried out the menace, to execute Lee and Winder.

One day last summer the Richmond authorities received a letter running in this wise: "Learning that you have placed certain negro soldiers of the United States at work on your fortifications under fire, I hereby inform you"—what? "That I protest against it?" No. "That I propose to appoint commissioners to adjust it?" No. "That we will retaliate unless you stop it?" No. But "I hereby inform you that I have placed an equal number of your officers at work on my fortifications under fire, and shall keep them there till you extend to the negro soldiers the treatment due to prisoners of war.—And I have the honor to be, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, Benjamin F. Butler, Maj. Gen. Commanding." Before this day's sun went down in Richmond the negroes were put back in Libby Prison, with the other prisoners of war; and they never were placed in the fortifications afterward. * * * * If there are any better and wiser measures, in God's name let them be adopted. If not, there is a demand, in tones which ought to be very audible in Washington, for an immediate General Exchange, or Immediate Retaliation in kind upon rebel officers.

PROPOSED VISIT TO REBEL PRISONS DENIED. — The U. S. Christian Commission last week proposed to the rebel authorities to send Bishops McIlvain, O'Jane and Lee and Horatio Jones of Philadelphia to visit the rebel prisons and ascertain the condition of the Union prisoners. Gen. Grant forwarded an application to Gen. Lee with his approval endorsed, giving permission for an equal number of clergymen and other civilians from the South to visit the military prisons in the North on a like errand. These visits, Gen. Grant added, would do much to relieve anxiety in the public mind on both sides, caused by exaggerations or misrepresentations as to the treatment of prisoners. Monday a reply was received from the rebel government through Commissioner Ould, declining a permit for the visit of the Bishops as inexpedient.

It would be quite inexpedient for the rebels no doubt, because it would show to the whole country and to the whole world, the barbarism of the would-be slave empire, in contrast with decent treatment of prisoners by the United States. — The rebel denial of Gen. Grant's request, however, shows the same thing, but not in quite so clear a light. Discerning men may see it. The stupid may not.

THE FIRST N. H. DISTRICT.

"A CONVENTION of a portion of those republicans opposed to the election of Gilman Marston" was held at Dover Feb. 2.—After various preliminary steps, they passed a preamble and resolution:

"Whereas, We believe the nomination of Gilman Marston as a candidate for Congress is not binding upon the Republican party," therefore

"Resolved, That a convention of the loyal people of the district opposed" —— be called to meet at Dover Feb. 22, to nominate a candidate.

A reporter for the Boston Journal says:

The meeting is private, but the grounds of opposition to Messrs. Burleigh and Marston are well known, and it is understood that they have been violently denounced by several speakers.

Mr. Burleigh was temporarily Chairman of the Convention when Gen. Marston was nominated.

I do not learn that Samuel Wheeler, the leading opponent of Marston in the Convention, is connected with this movement.

I have no doubt that is the intention to defeat Marston, and by schism and division to allow the present Democratic incumbent (Daniel Marcy) to be re-elected.

It is contended that if he had not been sick at home he would have voted for the Constitutional Amendment, and that the interests of the district will not be prejudiced by his serving another term.

The Boston Journal is "requested to state that Mr. Wheeler is in no way connected with nor responsible for the movement."

Looking away from the Dover Convention, and the suggestion that Mr. Marcy would have voted for the abolition of slavery, we turn to the Manchester Union, which says:

Mr. Sweat of Maine gave the proudest vote New England ever cast—solitary and alone against the Abolition amendment. Unfortunately Mr. Marcy is on the sick list at home, or Mr. Sweat would not have worn the honor alone.

And then, coming back to Portsmouth and Sebastopol, we find the Captain's own organ—the most bitter pro-slavery and pro-rebel document extant—giving the best evidence that the Union understands Capt. Marcy's position. If he is a convert to abolitionism, he is very still about it, to say the least.

Now let us look at the District. Last Fall the District cast 11,994 McClellan and 12,225 Union votes, giving a Union majority of 1231. 400 of this majority came from soldiers in the field, leaving 800 majority on the home vote. How many soldiers may get home to vote in March we know not,—but the most of them who come will be likely to vote for Gen. Marston.

If the loyal gentlemen "opposed" as above, can get 1200 votes for Mr. —— or Mr. Scattering, they may possibly defeat Mr. Marston and thereby elect Mr. Marcy. But we see, and they see, no prospect whatever of electing any man whom they can name, under the circumstances of the case.

We have no wish to disparage either of the candidates already named,—but the official record of both is before the people. Gen. Marston's vote in Congress was always with and for the government; Capt. Marcy's always with the opposition. One of these men will go to Congress. The people must say which one.

The late convention, in their official and conversational reports, declare that Gen. M. is "not the candidate of the people." This they cannot know, till after election. But this we do know, that in the city of Portsmouth there were 700 of the people present and voting at the primary Union meetings, and that there was an earnest canvassing against Gen. M. for days beforehand. Yet the delegates who voted for him were chosen by a large majority. In this sense he was the choice of our people, not unanimous to be sure, but quite decided.

But they are "not bound by the nomination." Certainly not, in a legal sense: a nomination is not an election. Nor will anybody be bound by the new nomination yet to be made, if any.

The "loyal people" of the District are no doubt a majority. If they choose to throw their majority away by division, and thus send an opponent to Congress to weaken the administration,—doubtless they can do so. But of the wisdom of such a course, we have not a word to say.

PIRATE FLORIDA'S CREW LIBERATED. The crew of the rebel steamer Florida captured in the harbor of Bahia, who have been confined in Fort Warren, were liberated by order of the Government and sent to Halifax in the steamship Canada. They numbered about thirty in all, and were taken from the Fort by a tug and put on board the Canada in Light House channel.

— There will be another International Exhibition at Dublin this year. It is wholly undertaken by Irish gentlemen. One special feature of this exhibition, not attempted on any former occasion, will be an international display of musical instruments.

— Speaking of the "Life of Cæsar," the Pittsburg Chronicle says Mrs Eugenie Bonaparte is spending a power of money on her transcendent wardrobe; and if her husband does not write a book, or strike oil, there is no telling but he may be published some bright morning in the Insolvent List. We shall see.

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can claim Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have been an agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far, as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle of your PANACEA, or medicines shall pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mav26

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

SO WIDE IS THE FIELD OF ITS USEFULNESS and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation; and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedy; but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish our AMERICAN ALMANAC in which they are given, with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

I hoes who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMPOUND SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass. and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher W. E. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.

PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED

IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the

United Petroleum Farms

ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Alleghany River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,760 daily, or $642,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,375,000, and is already paying about 24 per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later.—and on the first of February a dividend of about 24 per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield 838,000 per day, or $14,045,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Porcupine, and Rediield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Alleghany River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case THE IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

I examined again particularly the property of the United Petroleum Farms Association,' and it is my opinion that their Company or Companies will be the best in the market, and that you never will regret having been one of the organizers of the Company, and a member of the Association."

The Books are CLOSED to Subscribers in New York But a small portion may be subscribed here. I believe it the best investment ever offered.

CARTER'S
CLARIFIED MOLASSES CANDY!

Local.

☞ Our venerable citizen Mr. Benjamin Akerman, on whom the public have long looked as a specimen of vigorous manhood, extending itself beyond the common bounds of life, is now suffering under a paralytic affection of the throat, and is in a dangerous state. He was born on the 5th of Feb. 1776, and is just entering on his 90th year. He has pursued his usual avocation of shoemaking, more or less up to within a few days; and on the day he was smitten with his sickness, busied himself considerably out of doors, in sawing wood and shovelling snow—perhaps exerted himself too much, against the protestations of his family.

The Journal states that there is but one older man now in this city, Capt. Daniel Fernald, now in his 98th year. Two of our citizens older than Mr. Akerman are now residents in other cities. Capt. Hanson M. Hart in Portland, and Benjamin Carter, esq., in Boston.

☞ A court martial is now in session on board the U. S. ship Vandalia, for the trial of Corporal Clements, of the U. S. Marine Corps, for smuggling liquor on board the Vandalia. Lieut. Henry J. Bishop, U. S. Marines, is President of the Court, Paymaster W. H. Gilman, Recorder, and Wm. H. Hackett, esq., is counsel for the accused.

☞ A marine guard, consisting of 1 sergeant, 2 corporals, and 30 privates,—all old soldiers,—under the command of Lieut. I. H. Washburne, left this station on Saturday, for Boston, on their way to Admiral Dahlgren, at Wilmington.

☞ Rev. Charles W. Reding, a Son of Portsmouth, is now settled at Webster, Mass., and upon the recent occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Baptist Church in that town, delivered an historical Discourse, giving a carefully prepared and interesting history of the church from the time of its organization.

☞ A beef ox standing on Market Square, on Saturday, took a medium-sized dog belonging to a farmer, on his horns, and threw him about ten feet into the air — and when the poor animal struck earth again, it was with a broken leg; which was set, and the dog taken home.

☞ The beautiful U. S. Ship Nightingale built in our harbor by Mr. Hanscom of Eliot, in 1851, is advertised by the Navy Agent of Boston to be sold at public auction on Saturday next, 11th inst. Her tonage is 1066, built of white oak, and she has always had the reputation of being a fast sailer.

☞ Rev. Mr. King, agent of the Freedmen's Association, received during two weeks stay in Portsmouth the following contributions: From the Universalist and Methodist societies' collections $80 each: Middle St. Baptist Society $100,35 cents: North Congregational $50. From other sources, in all, about $300.

ZENOBIA.—In reference to Harriet Hosmer's Statue of "Zenobia," now on exhibition in Boston, at Childs & Jenks' Gallery of Art, Hon. Charles Sumner writes to a friend in that city as follows:

"As I passed through New York, on my way to Washington, I made it a point to see "Zenobia" and enjoyed the opportunity much. The Statue tells its story most successfully; it lives and moves, with the solemn grace of a dethroned queen; character and drapery are both given with consummate skill. I know enough of the sculptor's art to recognize the labor as well as talent which Miss Hosmer must have brought to this master piece, not only in its original conception, but in the details of its execution. I rejoice in such a work, by an American artist, as in a new poem."

"We learn that the exhibition of this work in New York and Boston has been the most successful every way, of any work of art ever shown in those cities."

A fine imperial Photograph of the Statue can be seen at J. H. Foster's, in this city.

☞ Hon. John E. Rider was nominated in a Democratic Convention for the office of County Treasurer. In reply to the Committee he says: "I respectfully decline the nomination, from a thorough conviction that the evasions and subterfuges practiced by the Democracy of this State on the important questions which the war has, and is fast placing before the Country for its decisions, has left a want of confidence in my own mind in regard to the principles on which they intend to stand at the coming election, and which should be so clearly set forth and defined, as to afford no opportunity for misrepresentation."

GYMNASTICS.—The classes are to meet at Mercantile Hall; the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 o'clock, and the ladies and gentlemen on the same evenings at 7.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School for ladies and gents, is held at the State St. School House, Monday and Friday evenings.

— Judge Field has made a partial atonement for the disgrace inflicted on himself and the nation, by his recent drunken assault upon Judge Kelly, by asking the pardon of his congressional friends.

Why is a hungry man waiting for his breakfast willing to be a martyr? Because he longs to go to the steak.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

Said a venerable preacher—Fellow sinners, if you were told that by going to the top of those stairs, (pointing to a rickety pair at the other end of the church) you might secure your eternal salvation, I really believe hardly one of you would try it; but if I should proclaim that J. Monroe Taylor had put a few bars of his celebrated Gold Medal Soap on the top stair for the one that would get it first, I'll be bound there ain't one of you but what would use your utmost exertions to gain the prize; my wife says there ain't anything like it, and she would recommend the whole parish to use it. 57

☞ Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is manufactured entirely different from any other. Its chemical purity renders it harmless as the purest flour, and its use will strengthen weak stomachs and cure dyspeptic persons. Use it with cream tartar instead of soda.—It is much better. Try it. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambucci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it must eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

AGAIN AND AGAIN.—Our readers may think it strange that we so often urge upon their attention a medicinal preparation. Already have we, for a number of weeks, urged the importance of a supply of Coe's Cough Balsam in the house, ready for immediate use. But our excuse is that the vast amount of sickness, sorrow and death that are the immediate result of sudden coughs, colds and pulmonary attacks; while thousands of our children are dying from croup and lung complaints. Time and experience have proved that Coe's Cough Balsam is the most speedy and reliable preparation ever known to the world. Like magic it relieves the irritation of the throat, removes the stoppages that prevent breathing in croup, and heals all soreness of the throat, chest and lungs. No man should neglect to supply his family with a safe and reliable remedy like Coe's Cough Balsam, any more than he should neglect the supply of their daily bread. It costs but 40 cents, and the bottle contains twice as much as those of any other remedy at the same cost, while in merit it is superior to all others. All drug stores keep it for sale. 4j18dawkm

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,) 76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full account of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend to all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

WHAT IS A
FRENCH ROLL PAN?
IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.
It is simply a nicely made
IRON PAN,
Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very
QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.
For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.
IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to
ECONOMISE
in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and
PALATABLE BREAD:
"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."
By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

BAILEY'S
Spring Roll and Cog Wheel
WASHING AND WRINGING
MACHINES.
WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME an institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.
We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.
To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

A NAVAL HERO. — The Herald says they have in Newburyport some of those brave men, who have made the reputation of the American navy: worthy successors of such sailors as fought under Hull of the Constitution, with Perry on Lake Erie, and under Farragut of the present,— Mr. Nathan Magowin, who served twelve years on board an American man-of-war. He was in the Cumberland, when the first rebel iron-clad came down the James river to play such mischief with our fleet, and might have done worse for us, but for the timely appearance of the first Monitor. The Cumberland went down, but the crew never flinched. The waters were upon the gun decks before their shots stopped, and the last gun fired was by Nathan Magowin, who had only time after, to leap from the port hole. He could not swim, but a boat came in time to save his life. He was then transferred to another ship; and about two years ago, when on the Jamestown, was struck upon the head by a spar from aloft, which felled him to the deck, from which he was taken up for dead, and has not entirely recovered to this day."

ARREST OF AN ARMED BURGLAR IN ANDOVER, MASS.—Between 12 and 1 o'clk. Tuesday morning, the book store of Warren F. Draper, in Andover, was entered through a window in the back part of the store, by a young man of the town, who, after igniting a store lamp, proceeded to rifle the money drawers. The store having been previously entered three times, and from some appearances, by the same person, Mr. Draper put himself upon the watch for him this time in the store, armed with a revolver. Seizing a convenient opportunity, he assailed him, and so successfully, that he said he would surrender, and submitted to be ordered to a position near the door. While Mr. D. was in the act of opening the door to call for help stationed outside by previous arrangement, the burglar drew a pistol and fired, the ball striking the head of Mr. D. at the foot of the hat-crown, making a slight wound two or three inches above the eye, and passing out through the top of his hat. He then ran, extinguishing the light as he went, and escaped where he entered. Mr D. in the meantime and in the darkness, firing his revolver at him twice without effect. The villain being known to Mr. D. was arrested at his house by police officers in the morning. The most serious inconvenience to Mr D. is the filling of his face with powder, the removal of which occupied the doctor most of the forenoon. Other stores and shops in town have been entered in the same manner, within a few months, and from the nature of the depredations, it is judged that they were made by one or more taking their first lessons in crime.

— General Sherman has been elected an honorary member of the Society of California Pioneers, in San Francisco. In an swer to the notification of the fact, the General wrote a letter in which he said: "I recall with exceeding pleasure my early adventures in that land of gold, and think I learned during my wanderings over its plains and mountains the lessons of patience and endurance which have enabled me to lead armies successfully in this war."

☞ Speaking of the business and trade in New York, "Burleigh" says:

The same men that deranged the railroad stocks and involved so many persons in ruin about a year ago, have got hold of the gold market. Gold scampering about from two hundred to two hundred and nineteen, racing up and down all day, sets trade at defiance. Merchants will not sell when in twenty-four hours it may cost them twenty per cent. advance to replace the goods sold. Country traders will not buy, when before they can get their goods home the price may have fallen twenty per cent.

— Mr. Sumner thus closed his pointed, eloquent, and convincing argument in the Senate, against retaliation in kind: "It is long since I first raised my voice in this chamber against the "barbarism of slavery," and I have never ceased to denounce it, in season and out of season. But the rebellion is nothing but that very barbarous armed for battle. Plainly it is our duty to overcome it; not to imitate it. And here I stand."

— A petition is in circulation in Newburyport, asking the legislature to establish a State inspection of Carbon oil, under whatever name it may be sold. It will probably be endorsed by the City Council, and forwarded to the legislature. It is also expected that the City Council will take action, on their own behalf, for an examination of the kerosene now for sale in that city.

— A man in Pennsylvania died lately from paralysis, produced by buckling his skate straps so tight around his ankles as to prevent the blood from circulating.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven in perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper boiler for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the ashes and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and pleasant to—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and rot out in order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the after inspection of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at medicine in all diseases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unbearable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all impurities, discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

OIL AND DIAMONDS.—The Atlantic Monthly for February tells of a somewhat rustic Roe of one of the fortunates of the oil region, whose income is several thousand a day, concluding to see the wonders of the East. After driving and luxuriating to his heart's content in Philadelphia, and making a present of a fine span of horses to a livery man who had treated him well, he proceeded to New York.

One of his first calls there was on Ball & Black.

"Have you any diamond rings?"

"Yes," said the clerk, and showed him one of one or two hundred dollars' value.

"Pretty," said Petroleum; "haven't you any finer?"

"Yes—here's one, at five hundred dollars."

"That's better—that shines; but is this the highest price I can give you have?"

The clerk looked amazed and suspicious, but brought another at two thousand dollars.

"Oh!" said Petroleum, "that's brilliant—that suits better. I like that. But can't there anything more stylish yet?"

The clerk, dumbfounded, displayed the six thousand dollar diamond ring, the most valuable in the store: and his customer, exhibiting great wonder and joy in surveying it, asked:

"Now hasn't you nothing higher, better?"

"No," said the clerk; "that's the best in the country," never dreaming the fellow could buy it.

"Well," said Petroleum, "I'll take that," and forked over the six thousand dollars.

THE FIVE CRADLES.—A man who had recently become a votary to Bacchus, returned home one night in an intermediate state of boziness. That is to say, he was comfortably drunk, but perfectly conscious of his own situation. Knowing that his wife was asleep, he decided to attempt gaining the bed without disturbing her, and by sleeping off his inebriation, conceal the fact from her altogether. He reached the door of his room without disturbing her, and after ruminating a few moments on the matter, he thought if he could reach the bedpost, and hold on to it while he slipped off his apparel, the feat would be easily accomplished. Unfortunately for his scheme, a cradle stood in a direct line with the bedpost, about the middle of the floor.

Of course, when his shins came in contact with the aforesaid piece of furniture, he pitched over it with perfect looseness; and upon gaining an erect position, ere an equilibrium was established, he went over it backwards, in an equally summary manner. Again he struggled to his feet, and bent foremost over the bower of infant happiness. At length, with the fifth fall, his patience became exhausted, and the obstacle was yet to be overcome. In desperation he cried out to his sleeping partner:

"Wife! Wife! how many cradles have you got in the house? I've fallen over five and here's another before me!"

THE POTATO DIET. — As prices are now, there is scarcely an article of more expense than the potato. The potato is cultivated over a greater range of latitude than any other plant, and is used more extensively as an article of food than almost any other vegetable, yet it has very little nutritious food in it. Of its constituent elements 75 parts are water and only 25 dry food out of 100 parts; and of this dry food there is less in it to nourish, less to give strength and enable a man to undergo fatigue — than any other vegetable that is generally used, except rice.

There are three vegetables greatly used by different races of people, and Prof. Johnston, in his "Chemistry of Common Life," says that the three races who use them are distinguished by the size and prominence of their stomachs! The Hindoo who lives on rice, the negro who lives on plantain, and the Irishman who lives exclusively on potato, are all said to be thus marked. This peculiarity is, in part, ascribed to the necessity of eating a large bulk of food in order to be able to extract from it a sufficient amount of necessary substance.

But the potato is now firmly rooted in the affections of the Anglo Saxon as well as the Celtic race, and will be a prime article of food as long as it continues to be wholesome. Its price has been steadily rising for some years past, while the quantity raised, has also been greatly increased. There is no surer crop to find a good market than potatoes, and there is scarcely any food that poor people buy so much of and get so little out of it.—N. Y. Observer.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
SO WIDE IS ITS USEFULNESS and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation; and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
We can only assure the public that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it has ever been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.
Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish our AMERICAN ALMANAC in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.
Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA the root by to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass. and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher W. R. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Giver to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Calicoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.
WYMAN & LEVIEN, AGENTS,
82 Water St., Boston, Mass.

The Vernatella,
For making the Soles of Boots and Shoes water proof and wear longer, is also for sale as above.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

The Richmond papers say that Gen. Lee will remain in the field with the army around Richmond. He publishes a significant appeal for arms, and calls for the delivery of all arms in the hands of the citizens to the authorities.

The Atlanta correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says it will require several months to rebuild the railroads in Georgia destroyed by Sherman. He also says a most threatening dissatisfaction prevails in Georgia and North and South Carolina.

Gov. Brown of Georgia has called an extra session of the Legislature.

The Richmond Enquirer has an article on arming the slaves; says the time has not come for so doing, neither for emancipation, but both of these measures will be resorted to before reconstruction. The Examiner says the country is in such a temper that it will not sustain any resistance to any measure requiring a sacrifice of property to the common welfare. The Whig has a severe article on Gen. Bragg, whose whole career, it says, is one line of disaster.

The Examiner says most of Gen. Thomas' army has been sent East to reinforce Grant and Sherman. The Dispatch adds that Thomas can spare 30,000 men for the Eastern army, and still retain 30,000 in Tennessee. The Richmond papers have no news from Gen. Sherman, but express the opinion that he is menacing both Augusta and Branchville.

Resolutions against employing slaves as soldiers, and in favor of putting every white man in the army in the South, were introduced in the rebel Congress on Wednesday.

Correspondence from Sherman's army says the left wing under Slocumb had reached Slater's Ferry, fifty miles above Savannah, without meeting opposition.—Two divisions of the 20th corps had considerable difficulty in getting through the swamps. The other troops who marched up the Georgia bank of the river had no such embarrassment. The right wing of the army is operating in a better country for marching and at some distance from the left wing, but with uninterrupted communication.

Dispatches from Gen. Thomas's army say deserters report the remnant of Hood's army at Tuscumbia, Ala.; also that Gen. Ripley had relieved Hood in command.

The steamer Eclipse on the way from Eastport to Paducah, burst her boilers and 105 lives were lost, besides a battery.

Richmond papers say that during a discussion in the rebel House on arming slaves, Mr. Wigfall in reply to those who said they were not fighting for slavery, declared he was fighting for slavery, and nothing else.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 3d says a large number of stragglers have returned to Hood's army.

The Whig says Gen. Hindman and Mr. Foote are on their way to Sonora.

The N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch thinks the negotiations for peace are not an entire failure and considers it the opening of the door to reconciliation. Submission to the Union and Constitution are the President's terms to the rebels. There are rumors regarding a new amnesty proclamation.

The N. Y. Times Washington dispatch gives an authentic version of the peace conference. The rebel ultimatum was recognition of the independence of the Southern States as a preliminary condition, absolutely indispensable to any negotiations whatever concerning peace. President Lincoln on the other hand, distinctly informed them that the United States could stop the war and arrest even temporarily the movement of its armies only on the condition that the authority of the United States government should be recognized and obeyed over the whole territory of the United States.

At Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 5, fifteen deserters, from the rebel Tennessee infantry, including a surgeon, came in and took the oath. The surgeon was from Tupelo, Miss., where Hood's army had gone into winter quarters. He contradicts the report that Cheatham had made a speech to the rebel troops advising them to go home and remain there, as the rebel cause was hopeless. They had only been furloughed; and being promised winter quarters, better clothes and pay, many had returned.

☞ Perley telegraphs from Washington that the rebel peace commissioners made a recognition of the Confederacy their first proposition, and that their adherence to this inadmissible demand prevented all negotiation.

Another writer says, "It is impossible for the President Lincoln or Secretary Seward to say to what extent the negotiations have failed or succeeded, until the report of the rebel Vice President Stephens and his associates at Richmond is received.

NEW ENGLAND VS CALIFORNIA.—A very intelligent correspondent of the Country Gentleman writes thus sensibly, and we have no doubt truly:

The large per centage of the finest arable land throughout the country, is greater than any section of the United States that I have visited, excepting the Western Prairie lands. But strange to write, Indian Corn is not and cannot be grown in this State. Stranger where the heat of summer is extreme, and where there is no early or late frost. Yet, so it is. I say it cannot be grown. By this I mean as a crop. A little inferior is grown in favored localities for market purposes, and it does well as a crop, in Russian River valley, and some peculiarly favored spots of limited extent—also in the southern part of the State; but as a State crop it does not exist. The crops of grapes, fruits, wheat, oats and barley, are here superior. Potatoes and onions are superior, and root crops do well, but are not superior to those of the West.

Much has been said of the extreme size and perfection of the celery here. In quality it is inferior to that of the East, and what I have seen, not superior in size. The potato grown here is a red variety, in many instances very large, but in quality very inferior to many of our eastern marketable varieties. Strawberries, and very fine, are to be purchased here every week in the year, but they are from hot-houses when out of season. Of shell fish they have some of a very inferior quality. Of fish they have nothing eatable in my opinion, except salmon, which they say is fine; but many say that it is inferior to the eastern. But there is an undeniable dearth of good eatable fish on the Pacific coast. They have no lobsters.

At the East I was again and again told, there are no house-flies in California; this is a mistake; they are as plenty as elsewhere, and musquitoes are as thick in this city of hills, as on the Jersey marshes.

They will tell you that a climate must be healthy, where you can kill beeves at any season of the year, and the meat will not taint or decompose, but dry up. This has always been publicly and privately stated, but, reader, I must dissipate this delusion. A large ranchero of the San Joaquin, tells me that flies are oftentimes so troublesome, that if a horse breaks his skin, or any animal, it almost proves incurable, from the torment of flies and the deposits of eggs. That before a beef can be skinned, it will be covered with flies, wasps and bees, by droves; but that by hanging it high in air, it will keep until a portion, and only a portion of it is eaten; also that you cannot corn beef here, that will keep longer than a few days, and then if it does not taint, it will harden, and be as uneatable as a log of mahogany.

Are you aware, reader, that nowhere in California can you pack or cure meats—beef, pork, or fish? Packing has been tried and tried again, but always failing of success. Hence tens of thousands of cattle are useless, except for their hides and tallow. Their numbers will be reduced by famine this year two-thirds, and is looked upon by many as a public blessing. The market mutton here, is, in my opinion, the best meat, though the best beef is excellent. The average price of stock cattle the last few months, has been under five dollars per head, and here, where the expense of labor and living is very much greater than east.

"Distance lends enchantment to the view." Much of the coleur de rose that surrounds California life, in the East, will disappear on a closer acquaintance, and if I can give a truthful and unbiassed description of this land of gold, of the trials, disappointments, and failures of most, it may make many hesitate about coming, who by so doing, would sever family ties, and subject those dependent on them, to trials and sufferings undreamed of. A man of family should hesitate long before so doing. The few prizes, or those who drew them, be reads of, or hears about, but the blanks, aye, the blanks, they are as silent as the grave. A sum of money that would bring a man and his family here, would give him a good start in the east; and one word of caution—let no man come, I mean a married man, without sufficient means to buy him a farm, or start himself in business.

The great want of the country is capital, not clerks, or professional men, or men without means, for of these there has ever been a great surplus. As I am not paid for these articles, I cannot be supposed to be biassed by any sordid motives, and I ask nothing for my advice. You will, of course, like thousands before you, go and do as you please. But if you come, and are of a phlegmatic temperment, you will find this a lively community, especially if you are not thick skinned, for if the fleas here don't make you active, then there is little of smart about you.

There is no one thing of which a Californian boasts so much as of the climate, clear, cloudless days, and some of the writers will almost go into fits in their description of the fascinating atmosphere, tints of the landscape, sunsets, etc., etc., etc. It is peculiar, very, but a peculiarity not exactly agonizing to a sensible man. Hills rounded, dry, barren, treeless, and the atmosphere filled with either fog or dust. I speak now of San Francisco, the bay, and the surroundings. I have been here two months; there has not been one clear sunrise or sunset, unobscured by either dust or fog. For three days in the Sonoma Valley, I did not see its hill surroundings, not three miles distant.

They say they do have days in San Francisco when the sun rises and sets unobscured, but I very much doubt it, and if any, they are very, very seldom—like angel's visits. You cannot have glorious sunsets without clouds to reflect their softened and prismatic hues, colored to entrancing beauty by the great source of light and heat. These, here, you have not, but all along this coast, for thousands of miles, a cold fog, driven by currents from the Arctic ocean, obscures the sun. Go to your Burlington, Vt.; look out upon the blue waters of the lake, over and beyond, where fine distinct ranges of the Adirondack can be clearly traced, peak upon peak, cloud and snow capped, reflecting the gorgeous sun tints—go there and look upon beauty intensified, agony piled up, and after that you will prate less of what is not likened unto it.

☞ Dr. Franklin's celebrated receipt for cheap sleigh-riding runs as follows: "Sit in the hall in your night clothes, with both doors open so that you can get a good draft—your feet in a pail of ice water—drop the front door key down your back—hold an icicle in one hand and ring the tea bell with the other. He says you can't tell the difference with your eyes shut, and it is a great deal cheaper."

Which only goes to show that the old Doctor, with all his wisdom and all his philosophy, didn't know a horse from an ass, and didn't appreciate riding, any more than he did music, poetry and love. Why, the mean old curmudgeon refused, you remember, to marry a girl he was sweet on, because her father wouldn't pay a hundred pounds for him! Old Benjamin was one of those iron-sided, india-rubber sort of fellows, who never need any out-door exercise, and never crave any amusement but business and study. All right, if they like it, for them; if a man prefers boating to riding, let him sail; and if he hasn't human nature, or any other nature, sufficient to appreciate either or any other amusement, let him go without. But don't account it to him for virtue or credit. F.

"Hurrah, hurrah, keep the motion,
Every man to his own notion."

A SKATING LECTURER.—Prof. H. S. Quinn of New York, who has been lecturing in the Northwest, recently arrived at Quincy, Ill., on skates, having skated all the way from St. Paul, Minn. He left St. Paul on the 9th, and reached Quincy on the 23d of January, travelling the whole distance of 850 miles in fourteen days, stopping on the way to deliver lectures. He found the ice smooth and beautiful, and clear of air holes. He had a clean stretch from St. Paul to Quincy, and he bowled down the globe over five degrees of latitude, without meeting with an impediment. It is one of the most extraordinary feats on record.

☞ James Devlin, who was shot on Governor's Island, New York, Thursday, for desertion, had enlisted in several regiments and then deserted, but very likely would have escaped detection and punishment had he not also deserted his wife to live with another woman, upon whom he lavished the money obtained by bounty-jumping, leaving his wife and children to starve. Incensed by his inhuman conduct, the outraged wife informed against him, and he was tried and convicted; but on finding that her husband was to be shot she became frantic with grief, and her interviews with him before execution were painful to witness. Devlin parted from her without emotion, and met his fate unmoved. A Devil-in, sure enough.

☞ About a week since, Dr. J. C. Jeffries a Government detective, doing duty under orders from post headquarters at Cincinnati, left there for Lexington, Ky., from which place he was to make a trip into Bourbon County, for the purpose of investigating the case of some guerrillas who were supposed to have their headquarters at the house of a woman in that vicinity. Jeffries took with him a rebel deserter, whose knowledge of the country and of the men with whom he was to deal, was to be brought to his aid in the affair. It seems, however, that, instead of succeeding in his work, the unfortunate detective was betrayed into the hands of the guerrillas, who murdered him, took from him his gold watch, diamond ring, pin and revolver, and left his body in the woods, where it was found last Saturday.

☞ For a number of weeks the detectives, by the authority of the general Government, under Chief Detective Young, have been engaged in ferreting out the incendiaries who lately attempted to burn New York City. They traced them to Canada, where they mixed with them and gleaned much information of value. They also effected the arrest of a number of alleged participants in the plot, including Capt. John Yates Bell, Capt. A. C. Kennedy and Wm. McDonald, who are now all in confinement. Kennedy admitted that he was the person who attempted to burn Barnum's Museum.

☞ Our files of the little Savannah Daily Republican, (we say little, for it is only about half as big as this Chronicle, but still is plenty big enough for the position,) are up to the 27th of January. Of course the news is superseded by telegraph; but Sam Mason the ever cheerful editor says:

Since we started in the enterprise of publishing the Savannah Daily Herald, we have found more friends than we expected in a city and an army where we were comparatively strangers. We have met none who were not charitable, and ready to make the allowance necessary for perplexed individuals, trying to keep, with a dilapidated secesh press, eccentric rebel ink, and press-men just from slavery, engagements which they made in good faith, before the length, breadth and depth of their difficulties were comprehended.

— The present rebel conscription takes all men between the ages of 18 and 55.

— Apples sell in Boston at from seven to ten dollars a barrel.

— It takes twice as much milk for a pound of butter as for a pound of cheese.

CALIFORNIA FLEAS.—A correspondent of the Country Gentleman is of opinion that the California fleas are made of gum rubber, and any genius who can invent a machine for killing them, will not only make his fortune, but prove a public benefactor. He says "a fair crop at night, when you shake your drawers and under-shirt over the white wash basin, is a half pint, more or less, under the circumstances. On several occasions I have caught them between thumb and finger, and pinched and twisted, and rolled and pinched the varmint, supposing him, 'hors du combat' at least; but in looking for him off he jumps, apparently getting strength and activity from the pressure."

— The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin was sold by auction on Thursday, for $89,000. Gibson Peacock was purchaser.

PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the

United Petroleum Farms

ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Alleghany River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,760 daily, or $642,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $92,375,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $89,000 per day, or $17,045,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.
Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $6 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Porcupine, and Redfield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Alleghany River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $6000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

I would call the attention of all persons having funds to invest, to place a part at least in the United Petroleum Farms Association and the President Petroleum Co. I have just received a letter from New York as follows, dated January 30th, 1865:

"J. S. HARVEY, esq.:—Dear Sir: I have just left the Oil Regions and arrived home. I examined again particularly the property of the United Petroleum Farms Association, and it is my opinion that their Company or Companies will be the best in the market, and that you never will regret having been one of the organizers of the Company, and a member of the Association."

The Books are CLOSED to Subscribers in New York. But a small portion may be subscribed here. I believe it the best investment ever offered.

CARTER'S
CLARIFIED MOLASSES CANDY!

Local.

☞ Well, our old friend B. F. C., esq, did "ask us in," with hosts of his friends, and afford all opportunity to rejoice with him in his good fortune,—on Saturday and Monday evenings, at his rooms in this city which were tastefully ornamented and decorated for the occasion, with flags, banners, pictures, mottoes, &c. The tables were bountifully spread, and the hospitalities of the occasion liberally dispensed by the host and his lady, to a very large number of changing guests. It was allowed on all hands, that the affair was most successfully Engineered, and the decorations not easily got aHead of.

☞ A chance to buy valuable real estate on Christian Shore, is offered at auction next Saturday.

Also eligible estates at private sale by Mr. Hackett.

☞ All who really care to advance the cause of music in our city, should regard the notice calling a meeting of singers on Wednesday evening—for the object of mutual enjoyment and improvement.

It will also be seen that the Old Folks Choir meet on Sunday evening next; and t is designed to have a rehearsal each Sunday evening for the winter.

☞ The Herald says that "for some days, last week, a young man was about the streets of Newburyport, wearing goggles, false whiskers, and otherwise disguised, whose object was not apparent; but on Saturday he called upon constable Fitts to arrest a young woman in the neighborhood of the James mill—a sister, by whom he had been robbed. They were from a town in Maine, of very respectable family, and the woman, some thirty years old, had been a school teacher in Maine and also had worked in one of the mills; but more frail than fair, she had fallen into various temptations, and at last had robbed her brother of $65 in money, notes for some $300, and some U. S. bonds, which had occasioned his pursuit and at last arrest of her. She was brought before Judge Marston, but was delivered to her brother to be taken home, on her promise of showing where she had concealed the stolen papers. The money had disappeared, except a few dollars. Constable Fitts showed much ingenuity in thus disguising the young man and starting him on his successful search."

ANOTHER COAL GAS TRAGEDY. — A family of six persons moved into a house in New York, and not being able to put the beds up that night, all slept in one room. Groans were heard issuing from the room, and persons went in, and found one of the children of the family dead, and the other persons gasping for breath, and unable to help themselves. The damper of a coal stove had been so turned as to prevent the gas from going up chimney, and it had filled the room. The gas was also escaping from the gaspipe, the light having apparently been blown out instead of turned off, the night previous. Efforts were immediately made to restore the sufferers, but it is reported that two of the children are dead.

This is horrible enough; but nothing compared to the aggregate evils which result from lack of ventilation everywhere. No wise person would ever be in much danger of such an accident as that; for such a person would never sleep with a coal-fire or a furnace, nor in any room without a window open.

☞ Says the Belfast Age: "A man named Creed, master of the Alice Parker, has been arrested, charged with stealing forty half barrels of mackerel from a wharf in Gloucester, and is awaiting a requisition from Massachusetts State authorities. The skipper and crew seem to have gone on a general pilfering expedition. The vessels loaded up river with potatoes, old junk, &c., and before sailing they stole the overcoat belonging to the skipper. Anchoring in one of the harbors on the route, they stole a bell from one of the vessels lying there; they also stole a portion of the old junk and a part of the potatoes which they had sold, arriving in port with a short cargo. They there stole the mackerel for return cargo.

— The famous sanitary sack of flour belonging to Mr. Gridley, which was resold so many times in Nevada and California, was sold at auction in St. Louis, realizing $3772 in behalf of the Soldiers' Orphan Home. The sale was continued on Friday, at St Louis, after which the sack will be taken to New York.

— The New York Commercial, after deducting the probable amount of cotton that has gone out of the Confederacy, since the commencement of the war, or that has been destroyed within it, thinks there cannot be less than three millions bales left at the present time.

— Garabaldi is going to Liverpool in the course of the coming spring, this time on the invitation of a gentleman of that town, and will not probably be sent away as he was before.

— Truth lies at the bottom of a well. So does health, says a cold-water drinker.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. Samuel Noble, of Boston, who had attained the age of ninety-nine years, died on Friday last week. He was a native of Durham, N. H., and born August 10th, 1765. He was the oldest man in Boston.

—— A dispatch received from Washington by Gov. Gilmore, says, "Recruiting can go on for the First New Hampshire Cavalry, by order of the War Department. This is an exception to the rule forbidding recruiting for anything but infantry. Recruiting officers will be sent on at once."

—— Col. Harriman, of the 11th, received the communication sent by flag of truce concerning the peace commisioners. He also was one of the deputation to escort them to Gen. Grant's headquarters.

— In the English county of Northumberland, a woman, when she marries, always as a part of her trousseau, procures her grave clothes, and these are put away, and from time to time carefully aired until they are needed. In moments of gloom a woman will take them out and try them on, and find comfort in the inspection of the mourning linen.

— Mania for speculation is well illustrated by an incident which lately occurred in New York. A wealthy broker was suddenly killed, and yet his brother-in-law, a man of fortune and President of a Railroad running into New York, could not forego his usual visit to the evening board, where he remained buying and selling gold until 12 o'clock the same night.

— To love and to labor is the sum of living; and yet how many think they live who neither labor nor love.

— Love is not preserved by gifts and sacrifices, whose influence soon disappears, but by words and looks of love.

GYMNASTICS.—The classes are to meet at Mercantile Hall; the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 o'clock, and the ladies and gentlemen on the same evenings at 7.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School for ladies and gents, is held at the State St. School House, Monday and Friday evenings.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

Said a venerable preacher—Fellow sinners, if you were told that by going to the top of those stairs, (pointing to a rickety pair at the other end of the church) you might secure your eternal salvation, I really believe hardly one of you would try it; but if I should proclaim that J. Monroe Taylor had put a few bars of his celebrated Gold Medal Soap on the top stair for the one that would get it first, I'll be bound there ain't one of you but what would use your utmost exertions to gain the prize; my wife says there ain't anything like it, and she would recommend the whole parish to use it. 57

☞ Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is manufactured entirely different from any other. Its chemical purity renders it as harmless as the purest flour, and its use will strengthen weak stomachs and cure dyspeptic persons. Use it with cream tartar instead of soda.—It is much better. Try it. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be secred.

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it most eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

WHAT IS A
FRENCH ROLL PAN?
IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.
It is simply a nicely made
IRON PAN,
Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very
QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.
For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.
IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to
ECONOMISE
in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and
PALATABLE BREAD:
"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."
By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.
E. A. STEVENS.

BAILEY'S
Spring Roll and Cog Wheel
WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.
WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.
We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.
To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial, If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

THE HORSE.—The London Spectator and other journals inform us that the taste for horseflesh is not increasing in Paris, and the physicians are not recommending its use, although its advocates are zealous and able in urging it, and savans of high renown have relished the feasts got up to dispel the ancient prejudice against it. They also from time to time inform us that proprietors of traction-engines and steam-carriages continue to be prosecuted if they run faster than ten miles an hour in the country or five in cities, or otherwise contravene the locomotive act. The mayors of Jersey City and Roxbury will not allow noisy 'dummies' to run in their dominions; and all sorts of horse-jockeys are "running the the horse into the ground."

If in the present state of the markets we could sell horse-flesh at nearly the prices of beef, mutton, and pork, it would be a blessing to those interested in this noble animal. With three or five weeks' fattening, he would do for eating and boarding-houses, and sixty to a hundred dollars might be got, instead of two-and-a-half, or nothing; and the city would be saved $60,000 a year for carting dead horses; and the smell of boiling them would be got rid of in certain localities; and the horse might look forward to another age of employment.

But as the case stands, he depends for his future existence much upon the authority of mayors and clean-sweeping country, magistrates and locomotive acts, and other temporary defences against the innovation of steam, that already does the work of six million horses on English rail-ways, and as many in this country. His friends can't much longer make money by working him; he is being driven from English farms, and owes his employment in cities to franchises and other artifices to prevent competition; and if he is to be forever shut out of the meat-market by a taste inherited from dark ages, he may make up his mind to turn out of the world after the red-skins who will neither strengthen themselves with tools and machines, nor work under those who, though slowly and on constraint, submit to such improvements.—American Artisan.

Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is more SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of rendering their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and this is now pending—which unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

EYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but all to no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWEET'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Sweet's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintance, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since. I am the agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1852.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWEET. Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without any natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she was reduced almost to your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or bottles of Dr. Sweet's medicines with the bottle or bottles, in which case we will bear the charges of forwarding. In this manner they can obtain reliable receipts.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, NO. 19 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never failed, in all cases they have attended, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath this head are all the terrible results of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and distresses in the regions of the kidneys, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms, consequent on the disease. Diseases made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D.. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness at the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, nervous forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has in his hands the French Capottes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted are again rejoiced in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases, and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

Cures in from one

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Heat, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to heal in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites: its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unbearable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

SKETCH OF DR. GWYN.—Dr. Gwyn, who is asserted to have become the agent of the French in Northern Mexico, is a Tennessean by birth, and an officeholder ever since the days of General Jackson's Presidency. Gwyn was the son of a Methodist preacher, was educated and studied medicine at Transylvania University; studied law afterwards, but became United States Marshal of Mississippi in 1833, since which time he has been member of Congress, Superintendent of the New Orleans Custom House construction, and Senator from California.

He bore the reputation of an ambitious, somewhat unscrupulous, bold man; and consorted chiefly with the roughest of the slaveholders in Congress. When these seceded and rebelled, Dr. Gwyn was confidently expected to join them. He set out from San Francisco, as was supposed, for that purpose, and was arrested by Gen. Saunder, who brought him a prisoner to New York. When he was released, he went first to Washington, and later, it was reported, to Richmond; but little has been known publicly of his movements for the last two years. He was born in 1805, and is therefore sixty years of age. The Emperor of France has in him a thorough adventurer—the kind of tool he likes to work with, because, when he is done with it, he can readily cast it aside.

The above sketch, (says Uncle Toby,) is very fair as far as it goes:—but it ought to be added, that Gwyn is as great a rascal as the emperor himself;—and that the "ring" in California, which sent him to Congress, murdered one or two better men to do it,—and were finally crushed by the Vigilance Committee.

☞ The N. Y. Post says, "Not only has paper become high priced, but it has become bad. We are sometimes obliged to present our journal printed on paper that we are ashamed of. The style of printing in our newspaper press all over the country has miserably fallen off within a few years past in clearness and distinctness.—All this (the Post says, but we don't exactly believe it,) is due to the high duty on printing paper. The paper-makers are protected from competition, and may give us paper of whatever quality they choose."

— The Messrs. Steele have a ranch, on the coast south of San Francisco some forty miles, 18,000 acres. They have a dairy of some fifteen hundred cows, the product of which is made into cheese. They presented the Sanitary Fair with a cheese, six feet in diameter, two feet thick, and weighing in round numbers some four thousand pounds. This cheese has been out and sold, and it is seldom that one eats of better.

— The Snow is from four to five feet deep in the northern part of Maine, Vermont and New York. Along the seacoast of Maine it is about two feet deep. In the White Mountain region snow has fallen to a great depth. Some of the drifts in the roads are from twelve to fifteen feet deep, and the snow is so dry that the wind blows it into most fantastic shapes.

— The alien law just passed by the Canadian Parliament excludes from Canada all Southern refugees who violate the right of asylum by organizing aggressions upon the territories and peace of the United States. The passage of this law may be regarded as satisfactory evidence of the determination of the Canadian Government to prevent in future any such violation of international law.

— Each recruit at the conscript camp, New Haven, Conn., is required to give all his money, excepting $20, to the paymaster upon arrival. This is a guard against robbery and bounty-jumping. The paymaster has received $51,000 from recruits in the last few days.

— Lynn appropriates $150,000 for the expenses of the current year. Their appropriation for the School department $36,000: and for the Poor department $27,000. That gives $7000 more for the schools than poor, while the Newburyport poor cost twice as much as the schools.

— Alfred Tennyson has been created a Baronet, a meed of distinction well merited, but the prefix can add no lustre to the name the world honors. We shall continue to address him as plain Alfred.

— Progress of opinion: The Rhode Island Assembly is trying to abolish the laws of caste, which forbid colored people attending school with white.

— The Lawrence American says that strong suspicion attaches to the burglar recently arrested in Andover as the probable incendiary at Phillips Academy.

— A Vermont paper says the rumor that the high price of eggs is owing to the fact that the hens have to "stamp them" is without any foundation.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Cahoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.
WYMAN & TYLER, AGENTS,
82 Water St., Boston, Mass.

The Vernatella,
For making the Soles of Boots and Shoes water proof and wear longer, is also for sale as above.

THE REBELLION.

Rebel dispatches from Charleston, Feb. 2, say that "the enemy (U. S. troops) advanced Feb. 1, across Whippy Swamp, driving our cavalry on our left six miles from Braxton Bridge. There is a column of cavalry on the Augusta road moving for some unknown point.

"Whippy Swamp is about thirty miles northwest of Pocotaligo, and about the same distance southwest of Branchville. Before reaching the latter place, Sherman's troops will have to cross several tributaries of the Combahee, as well as of the Edisto. The enemy has possession of McBride's bridge, and skirmishing is going on in front of Braxton Bridge. The enemy is certainly marching on Branchville.

"A dispatch from Adam's Run says the enemy came up in barges to Gering's Island, Feb. 1, about noon, drove in our pickets, fired several buildings on plantations, and are retiring. Three steamers are off White's Point, and a landing isthreatened. Adam's Run is about twenty miles southwest of Charleston."

The World's Washington despatch says it is reported that the rebels have adopted a new war policy. Richmond is to be evacuated and the whole Atlantic coast abandoned, and a stand made inland. A proposal is made in the rebel Congress to buy and arm 100,000 slaves and give one to each white soldier in the rebel service.

A letter from the Army of the Potomac says quite an artillery duel took place Saturday evening near the Appomattox, lasting from 7 to 7:30 o'clock.

The rebel Commissioners passed through the lines on Saturday en route to Richmond.

Advices from the U. S. Minister at Rio Janeiro, received at the State Department, bring the gratifying intelligence that the Government of Brazil has issued a decree excluding the pirate Shenandoah from the ports of that empire. At the date of these advices, Mr. Seward's answer in the case of the Florida had not been received at Rio Janeiro.

The reported evacuation of Mobile is confirmed by New Orleans papers received at Cairo. The Times says the information is undoubted. 12 refugees who left Mobile on the 16th ult. state that the evacuation commenced on the 15th; that the guns and ordnance stores were going to Selma by rail and water. Simultaneously with this movement a sweeping conscription was going on among the citizens of Mobile, to escape which the people were fleeing from the city by squads. It was the general impression in Mobile that no defence of the city would be attempted. Its garrison was small and composed of militia under Gens Taylor and Maury.

An official report from our Gen. Kelly says, A cavalry scout of Gen. Sheridan's encountered the force of the rebel Major Harry Gilmore Feb. 5th, near Moorfield, and whipped it handsomely, capturing upward of 20 officers and men. Among the officers captured was the noted guerrilla chief and noted chief and robber Harry Gilmore himself.

It is reported that the notorious guerrilla, Capt. Hedge, was killed at Garrettsville, Ky., by a party of Taylor's guerrillas under Capt. Hays.

THE PEACE CONFERENCES.—The N. Y. Herald has a prominent editorial, touching for its facts, in which it says:

Before Mr. Blair returned to Washington the first time, Jeff. Davis gave him a letter, expressing a strong desire for peace and offering to waive all formalities. The letter was adroitly couched and a hasty reader would not detect the cloven foot concealed in it. It showed a cunning effort to throw the odium of continuing an unnecessary war on President Lincoln.

Our sagacious President sent back assurances of a desire for peace without sticking for technicalities, would listen to any messenger sent by Davis or any other prominent rebel, provided the necessity of preserving our own as the one government of the whole United States were first conceded. The conference was held, when it turned out that all they wanted was an armistice, the consideration of the maintenance of the Union to be put off to a more convenient season. President Lincoln told them the only cessation of hostilities he would agree to, was a final one.

The Tribune says the rebels required of the President immediate and unqualified cessation of hostilities, leaving in abeyance all questions concerning the integrity of the Union and the rightful authority of its government over the people of the several States, which the President courteously, promptly, but decidedly apprized them that he was neither authorized nor disposed to concede. There the conference terminated.

THE PRESIDENT'S PEACE-MAKING POWER.—It is within the power of the President of the United States, as commander-in-chief, to consummate any conference and in any form which he may please, which does not embrace treaties, with an enemy.—Boston Herald.

GOLD opened on Tuesday at 216,—and wavered all the forenoon between that and 215.

A proverb is the wisdom of many and the wit of one.

FERNANDO WOOD CHANGED.—In the course of his speech in the House of Representatives, last Saturday, Fernando Wood enlisted himself among the war men, as will be seen by the following extract:

"He, for one, thanked the President for making an honest effort to prevent the further shedding of blood and the exhaustion of the energies of the country. Rumor said the negotiations had failed. This was to be regreted, but if they failed in consequence of the indisposition of the rebel authorities to return to their allegiance and duty on the basis of our common constitution, they might as well know that, so far as he represented the peace sentiment, he would not sustain them in their position.

He was opposed to the war because he was opposed to a dissolution of the Union, and it had been one of his complaints against the administration, that so far from making overtures, it had prevented propositions of peace by denying the admittance of commissioners from the Southern government: but if the door had now been thrown open by the President, and if the answer to that was that they would accept recognition and separation, and nothing else, then he desired to say, with his humble efforts he should aid the conquering armies of his country to obtain by force what it has been unable to obtain by peace."

☞The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, telegraphs:—

Hon. Fernando Wood, in a brief speech in the House to-day, on the Naval Appropriation bill, came out squarely on the war platform, and attached himself to the war Democrats. No speech that he has made in Congress has created as much sensation as this. The dismay and almost petrifaction which this defection from their ranks created among the peace men was ludicrous. They seemed to think that the heavens were certainly falling, and denounced him in no measured terms for the step he had taken. Thewar Democrats congratulated him upon his rather tardy but effectual conversion. Br. Ben was greatly exercised, and left for New York to-night, threatening terrible things in the columns of the Daily News towards his able but recusant brother.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Coos County is contemplating the purchase of a county farm for its poor.

—— The owners of maple orchards are making unusual preparations to secure a supply of sugar the coming season.

—— There is a family in Tuftonborough, composed of the following members: 2 grandmothers, 3 mothers, 1 father, 3 sons, 3 daughters, 2 aunts, 4 sisters, 4 grandchildren, 2 cousins, 2 brothers, 1 niece and 1 nephew. How many persons does said family contain?

—In Newburyport, an Irish woman, named Brown, went to the Police Office and delivered herself up to the officers, saying she had murdered a man in self-defence. The officers went to the house to see what had happened, and found that the woman, laboring under delirium from hard drinking, had supposed a clothes-horse to be a man, who had struck her, when she caught up a shovel and beat the clothes-frame to pieces. Not doubting that a human being had been brought to a sudden end by her assault, she gave herself up. She was not drunk at the time, but crazy from drink. When sober she is a smart, capable woman, and by her own labor, manages to support a family of four children.

☞ The finances must be put on a war footing again. Jay Cooke & Co. expect to sell three or four millions of 7-30 notes daily for the next two or three months.

They also expect, with such a sale, if Sherman is successful, to be able greatly to advance the value of greenbacks.

— The financial writer for the N. Y. World says peace is considered more than probable by the business men of that city, and that it is desired by a very powerful and numerous party in the rebel States.

— The editor of the Tribune is not inclined to believe, maugre all reports to the contrary, that the peace effort was a failure. He says: "We believe in an early peace; but we do not even guess just how or when it will come, and we feel certain that it will be hastened by the most prompt and vigorous provision for continuing the war."

— The resolution before the Senate calling on the President for the facts relating to the late peace negotiations will probably pass. Mr. Lincoln, it is said, will be glad to lay them before Congress, and it is confidently believed that it will be shown that the Richmond deputation demanded an armistic as conditional before they would name any terms of peace.

☞ Our thanks to Messrs. Adams, Sampson & Co. for a copy of their complete and excellent New England Business Directory for 1865. While sending this, their apology for not complimenting us with their Boston Directory as usual, also, is that the edition was long since exhausted—double price ($4.) having been in vain offered for copies. A revised edition will be issued in May.

— A company of forty-three women recently attempted to flee from the bonds of Mormonism in Utah, but they were overtaken and carried back to their masters. It is said that the females in Utah are becoming so determined to escape from their degrading bondage, that a crisis in Mormon affairs will necessarily come soon.

☞ The Commercial Bulletin says "a New York 'old line-back' state bank delegation, has been visiting Washington for the purpose of obtaining a revision of Mr. Lewis' decision, that certified checks are in circulation, and therefore liable, when issued by State banks, to the tax of one per cent. per annum. The Commissioner's decision is in strict accordance with the letter of the law, and the banks of New York are denouncing a feature of the National Bank Act which they should have understood and been prepared for at the first. If certified checks are not circulation, we would be glad to know what is. At any rate they are clearly understood to be so by those Boston banks which have been in the habit, in contravention of the law, of urging them upon customers drawing to meet bills payable' in times of scarcity of currency. We trust taxation or something else will put them out of fashion. This little taxation item now in dispute between New York State banks and the Bureau, is but one of the many 'little' burdens which the old State banks seem destined to sweat under if they persist in refusing Uncle Sam's national banking yoke. The committee returned from Washington with no definite settlement of the difficulty in relation to the tax on certified checks.

But the path of national banking is not entirely rose-strewn. The reorganized banks were encouraged to believe that they assume the liability of the old banks, including their circulation still out-standing.

This belief was founded upon the theory that there was a blood relationship between each reorganized bank and the State bank, its predecessor. The commissioner decides that the connection does not exist. In effect, he argues, the old bank dies, the law prescribing the exact time it may have to die in—and when its circulation is at an end by redemption or outlawry, not before, is the breath out of its body. The old bank is a taxable institution, alive and kicking, as long as it owes a bill-holder, let bank cashiers ignore its existence as often as they please in their returns.

And so Mr. Deputy Commissioner Rollins has decided. It is held that the tax imposed upon circulation is outstanding, notwithstanding the banking business has been relinquished. This tax should be returned by or in the name of the old bank.' And one of their burdens is this decision. They are also troubled about the matter of redemption. What are the national banks to do with all these multiplying national issues bailing from Pike's Peak and all stations this side, which as national banks, they are asked to take from everybody, but which nobody is obliged to take from them? We reply, let the cumbering issues of distant national banks, which are so sure to float to our seaboard, be redeemed by subreasurers in the seaboard cities; let the Custom House, everywhere, give the banks greenbacks for them. This will solve the problem.

If any one asks, what shall Mr. Chandler do with a lot of bills dated Kalamazoo or Chicamauga, which he may receive from a Boston bank, we answer, let him pay them out here again to those wanting them, or send them West or elsewhere to pay Uncle Sam's bills—(Uncle Sam being supposed to be a debtor in all places)—in those localities where the said bils are known, and are redeemable in greenbacks; or at least, where soldiers, sailors and contractors will receive them as readily as greenbacks."

— False friends, like our shadows, keep close to us in the sunshine, and vanish in the shade.

An old author named his work, "Highheeled shoes for Dwarfs in Holiness."

PETROLEUM!
I would call the attention of the Citizens of Portsmouth to the following notice of the President Petroleum Company and the opinion of Professor Agassiz, who is one of the greatest Geologists of the age. It is taken from the Independent of Feb. 2d:
"A GOOD INVESTMENT.—On looking over the book of the President Petroleum Co., we see that Prof. Agassiz of Harvard University, Cambridge, is one of the subcribers to the stock of this company. The Professor has given it as his opinion that the property of this company is of "immense value," and this belief has induced him to subscribe. The stock is nearly all taken up, and we think there is no doubt but it will prove a good investment. We would advise those of our readers who intend to invest in this kind of stock, to go and do as the Professor has done."
Please to call and subscribe, for the Subscription list will be closed in about a week.

PETROLEUM.
THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED
IN PORTSMOUTH.
The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the United Petroleum Farms
ASSOCIATION,
Situate on Oil Creek and the Allegheny River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.
There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,750 daily, or $642,400 per year.
The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,275,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.
There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.
The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSEDin New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.
It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $68,000 per day, or $14,045,000 per year.
Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,
No. 47 Congress Street,
and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.
JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.
Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,
PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,
Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.
Capital Stock, $5,000,000,
In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.
Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.
This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Porcupine, and Reduced Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Allegheny River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.
Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.
The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.
The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.
The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.
Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

Petroleum Oil Companies.
I would call the attention of all persons having funds to invest, to place a part at least in the United Petroleum Farms Association and the President Petroleum Co. I have just received a letter from New York as follows, dated January 30th, 1865:
"J. S. HARVEY, esq.:—Dear Sir: I have just left the Oil Regions and arrived home. I examined again particularly the property of the United Petroleum Farms Association,' and it is my opinion that their Company or Companies will be the best in the market, and that you never will regret having been one of the organizers of the Company, and a member of the Association."
The Books are CLOSED to Subscribers in New York. But a small portion may be subscribed here. I believe it the best investment ever offered.

CARTER'S
CLARIFIED MOLASSES CANDY!

Local.

☞ U. S. screw-frigate Minnesota, 50 guns, Commodore Joseph Lannon, from Fort Fisher, has been ordered to this Navy Yard, for repairs. It is expected she will go out of commission, as she needs considerable overhauling, and that her officers will be ordered to some other vessel.

☞ Don't forget that Music Society meeting this evening, nor that some things can be done as well as others; and perhaps we may be allowed to suggest, that the only way to throw discredit on the croakers, who will have it that music is dead in Portsmouth, is for all who "can sing," to take hold and do so—to which, the fact that we have now in the city, for the first time for years, two music teachers who can pull together, is no small encouragement.

POLICE COURT, Feb. 4.—Harry Gray for assault on a party of sailors in Water street,—fined $10, costs $5.74.

Lucy Marston, larceny of a pair of gloves from Henderson's store, and a pair of socks from Tidd's store, paid $16.60.

Feb. 6th.—Teeny Sheppard, common prostitute, sentenced to House of Correction for 30 days and pay costs of prosecution, $4.80.

Benj. Powell, for drunkenness, fined $3 and costs, $4.10.

☞ At a social gathering recently among our friends, the refreshments of which were clam chowder served in the most approved style, splendid cider and other "fixins," the following toast was offered:—

New England Clam Banks—Though "left out in the cold," their deposits have to-day met with a warm reception in the stomachs of loyal men.

Such a sentiment should have elicited a patriotic reply from our reporter, but he was unfortunately afflicted with a severe cold, and did not respond. In default of which he begs leave to submit the following:

The Sailmakers—In the voyage of life may they be favored with a long and pleasant passage, never be forced to unbend their sails, and at last, make the desired port.

☞ The reception given in this city on Saturday and Monday evenings by B. F. Chandler, Esq., to his numerous friends—of which brief mention was made in yesterday's issue—was a well-gotten up affair, and reflected no little credit on the manager. The room was splendidly decorated, every niche being festooned with flags, with appropriate mottoes and the names of some of the heroes of the present day posted conspicuously in different parts of the apartment. Among the latter we observed the names of Bailey and Murray, both of whom have distinguished themselves in the contest for the Union. Upwards of two hundred guests were announced on both evenings, and everything in the shape of edibles was furnished that could tempt the appetite of the daintiest epicure; and at the same time we were pleased to note the absence of intoxicating liquors, the over-indulgence in which so frequently mars the interest of an occasion of this kind.

Such social gatherings, conducted in such a manner as was this, serve to cement the links of friendship which bind man to man. REP.

☞ It is reported that the Bank of New Hampshire, in this city, is to become one of the Nationals. This will leave the staunch old Rockingham alone under State charter.

☞ We learn that Dr. N. W. Oliver, of this city, leaves home to-day for New York, whence he will take the Bremen steamer, for a four months' trip in France, England, &c. His numerous friends will wish him a pleasant trip and safe return.

☞ Mr. Cobb has taken the famous old store "No. 29 Market Street," and with a larger stock and more room than ever, is better prepared to supply his patrons with musical merchandise and varieties.

☞ A rare chance to buy one of the river Farms at Gravelly Ridge, is offered by advertisement this morning.

☞ Mr. Bodge is determined to lessen his stock—and is giving great bargains in Watches, Jewelry and Fancy Goods.

☞ Mr. Hahn has gone into the "slaughtering" business too. See his advertisement.

NAVAL.—U. S. steamer Wateree (double ender), Capt. F. H. Murray, was at Mare Island (California), Jan. 14, refitting. It was expected she would pay a visit to Sacramento City.

The monitor Camanche at San Francisco was very nearly completed.

U. S. steam-sloop Lancaster, flagship of Admiral Pearson, was at Callao on the 12th ult.—U. S. ship Cyane arrived at Valparaiso Dec. 5.

Admiral Porter has made over the prize-money due him for the capture of the ram Albemarle to Lieut. Cushing, in recognition of the heroism of the brave young officer, who effected the capture.

GLOUCESTER.—The Gloucester Telegraph says: "The arrival of several vessels from Newfoundland with full cargoes of fresh herring has provided the George's vessels with bait, and a few of them have sailed on their first trip, to be followed in a day or two by the rest of the fleet."

THE DIFFERENCE.—While some folks always growl at whatever price they are charged, for anything; others always think things are cheap enough. So some of our subscribers, while they pay it, profess to regard the Weekly dear at $2 per year cash; but our best subscriber has for years paid more than we asked him;—when the Gazette was $1 a year, he always sent $2 at least; and now it is $2, he sends $3. Long may he wave, but never waver!

—On Sunday morning last, a little child with a lighted fluid lamp in her hand, crept under a bed at the Belleville Hotel for something she had lost, and by so doing set the bed on fire, which burnt a portion of the floor before being discovered. It was put out without an alarm.

—Wooly people are getting to be something. In Ohio recently a sale of sheep took place, when 28 ewes commanded $650 each; one buck brought $2500, and another $3500.

—The Christian Commission received the past year $1,297,755,28 in cash, and other articles sufficient to swell the whole value of the receipts to $2,882,347,86.

—Paul Morphy, the celebrated chess-player, has settled in Illinois, and is known as a loyal man. His present avocation is the collection of claims in the United States and State courts.

"Mary," asked Charles, "what animal dropped from the clouds?" "The rain, dear," was the whispered reply.

Welcome that axe,
Though sharp its edge may be,
That lops the ailing branch,
And saves the tree.

Misapprehension.—Common taters, said Mrs. Partington, after the preacher had ended his sermon—he having alluded to some commentators of the good book—common taters, she continued, well all sorts of taters this year are poor enough, but what has that to do with the gospel? Not half so much as the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap long, for that will make the outside of the platter clean, if not the inside, besides it keeps folks from scolding or complaining; it is the best soap and needs no revival. 58

WHAT IS A
FRENCH ROLL PAN?
IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.
It is simply a nicely made
IRON PAN,
Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very
QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.
For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.
IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to
ECONOMISE
in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and
PALATABLE BREAD:

"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."

By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

BAILEY'S
Spring Roll and Cog Wheel
WASHING AND WRINGING MACHINES.

WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.

We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.

To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

Instead of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

EYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWAYNE'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. SWAYNE'S in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many happy effects from it since I have been an agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1852.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

Press ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWEET: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Sweet's medicines shall have payforit, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEET, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. may26

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the great satisfaction of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of the back and loins, Weakness of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; confusion of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receipt of a description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotte, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate cases yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH HAIR DYE. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

Cures in from one to three days.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in females, where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an alley or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and can on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. XXVI. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. THURSDAY, FEB. 9, 1865 : 40. No. 33.

The Chronicle.

THE RE-ESTABLISHED INDEPENDENCE OF SAN DOMINGO. — It must have been profoundly mortifying to the pride, not only of the Spanish ministry, but of the Spanish nation, to admit that a power which but recently claimed a rank among the acknowledged grand powers of Europe, has been compelled by a small American State, not numbering more than 200,000 inhabitants, to consent to a humiliating peace. But there was no choice left. The finances of Spain are in such a wretched condition that no Minister of Finance could be found willing to advocate any longer the continuance of the vast expenditure for the attempted subjugation of the heroic Islanders of San Domingo.

The Ministers have consequently prepared and presented to the Cortes a bill, which proposes a repeal of that of the 19th of May, 1861, by which the territory of the Dominican monarchy was incorporated with the Spanish monarchy, and the adoption of the necessary measures for the execution of this law. The failure of Spain in the Dominican war is now so glaring that the Ministerial bill makes hardly any effort to palliate it by the common diplomatic generalities and perversions of facts.

It is frankly admitted, that the chief reason on which a former Ministry had based the right of annexation, viz., the unanimous call for annexation on the part of the Dominicans, has been found to have been entirely fictitious. It is admittted that the whole or nearly the whole people of San Domingo had shown themselves opposed to Spanish rule, and that a continuance of the war on the part of Spain would make the war one of conquest, which, the Ministry declare, is contrary to the "rational, just, pacific and disinterested policy" of Spain.

It is further admitted — and this must have been the most mortifying part of the confession — that the Spanish troops have been fairly beaten, for, says the bill, "the agitation increased and gained towns and frontiers, extending over the whole of the territory, and at the same time the Spanish portion of the Island of San Domingo presents to the civilized world the spectacle of an entire people in arms."

Of the adoption of the bill there can be no reasonable doubt. Nearly all political parties, though from different motives, are in favor of it, and popular opinion in Spain, we are told, has received the announcement of the bill with enthusiasm. After the experience of the last three years and the present manifestations of the public will, no ministry or party will ever advocate again the re-annexation of San Domingo.

Thus the patriotism exhibited during the last three years by the Dominicans has been gloriously rewarded, and their independence successfully restored. For Spain, this unexpected issue may have much more serious consequence than the mere abandonment of the small Dominican Republic. It has exhibited, in an unmistakeable manner and before the eyes of the entire world, the weakness of its rule in its American possessions. Cuba has long had the nucleus of a party of independence, which the present exhibition of exhaustion by the mother country cannot fail to strengthen and to encourage.

Any insurrection in the Spanish dominions in America, which gathers sufficient strength to maintain during some time a belligerent character, will be sure to compel the Spanish Government to abandon the combat by the heavy drain upon Spanish finances. And the more the independent States of the American continent can come to a common understanding about their relations with Europe, the sooner will every power of Europe see the impossibility of calling their rule upon this continent. Tribune.

"ONE ARMY AHEAD." The Army and Navy Journal thus felicitously puts the advantage we have obtained in the war by Sherman's successful march:

"Our own belief is that Sherman's great campaign will be found to have cut the gordian knot of the war. By widely dividing his army, and then whipping his adversary's entire force with one-half, he has put us one army ahead of the enemy—a fatal superiority of pieces on the board of war. So soon as that terrible discovery was made known to the Southern people, the cry for terms began to burst forth. It was a splendid stroke, whose influence, we prophecy, will yet come to be felt as the masterpiece, hitherto, of the war.

THREE NAMES IN A DAY.—A painful yet somewhat romantic incident has marred the happiness of a wedding couple. Mr. Croft, the only son of Sir Archer Denman Croft, on the 17th inst., was married at Weybill, Hants, to the eldest daughter of Mr. Marsh, the Liberal M. P. for Salisbury. The very same evening Sir Archer died, very suddenly, from an affection of the heart, at his house in London. Thus, the bride on her wedding day underwent three changes of designation. In the morning she was Miss Marsh, in the afternoon Mrs. Croft, and at night Lady Croft. The deceased baronet's mother was the sister of the late Lord Denman. Sir Archer was one of the Masters of the Court of Queen's Bench. The present baronet, who so inopportunely inherited the title on his wedding day, is in his 26th year. The increase of heart disease more and more forces itself upon public attention.— Birmingham Post.

— The Empress of France and of Fashion, has thrown out the hoops, and wears petticoats of a moderate size. All the Court ladies do the same. It is fair to presume that our streets will hereafter be swept with birch brooms, and not with silks and satins. But we shall see.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, have heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Calhoun Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

On Sunday morning, Feb. 5, a movement was made by a portion of the U. S. army of the Potomac; and severe skirmishing lasted all day; our lines were advanced somewhat, and all the attempts of the enemy to break or flank them were repulsed with fatal effect. Our loss was about 100.

A City Point correspondent, writing on the 6th, says the result of the movement of the 5th and 6th corps south of Petersburg was the capture of a large rebel accompanying train and the destruction of a grist mill, besides securing an advanced position.

Our forces are building a Railroad from Newbern to Kingston.

The expectation is that the exchange of prisoners will go on regularly.

Henry S. Foote of the rebel Congress reached Baltimore on Tuesday morning from Washington, and left for the North in charge of Mayor F. O. Newhall. It is supposed that he is on his way to Fort Warren.

There was another exciting debate in the rebel House last Friday, on the bill to arm negroes. A strong opposition was made to the measure.

Mr. Orr of South Carolina, said that 999 (in one 1000 we suppose) would join the national army if given their choice. Jeff. Davis received his usual abuse.

Richmond papers of the 6th claim encouragement at the prospect of having new leaders. The activity of the armies of the North is set down as a guarantee of their weakness. A cotton famine in Europe is promised, which is to redound to the benefit of the South.

The Richmond Sentinel says the loss of Wilmington will immediately carry the cotton question home to the nations of Europe.

The Charleston Mercury claims for Charleston the po[illegible] the cause, and that there the Confederacy must win or fail.

ENLISTMENT FRAUDS.—Col. Baker, the War Dept. Detective, who has been in the city of New York three weeks endeavoring to get at the bottom of the enlistment frauds, succeeded in possessing himself of all the proofs of most gigantic frauds and forgeries against the Government by substitbrokers and soldiers on Governor's island. Twenty-seven of the principal parties have been arrested.

Most astounding disclosures are made, showing an extent of crime little dreamed of. Col. Baker is still continuing his labors, but has very nearly broken up the frauds. Some of these scoundrels realized fortunes, amounting from $50,000 to $250,000 in their nefarious business.

☞ A fire broke out in Philadelphia, on Wednesday morning about 3 o'clock in the coa oil works on Ninth and Federal streets. About fifty dwellings were consumed, occupying two squares on both sides of Ninth street, besides a few houses on Wharton and Federal streets. Fifteen lives are reported lost. [illegible] streets at the time were flooded with snow water and oil. The oil ran along the streets in full blaze, setting fire to the lower portions of the dwellings, and preventing the escape of the inmates. Four children are said to have perished in one house.

—St. John News of the 1st instant says on the previous Saturday night, a man named John Mead, a tailor, a native of Lexington, Mass., was drowned at the Carleton Ferry Landing. He walked over the floats, and before he was rescued life was extinct. The Globe says Mead was a deserter from the Federal service, and, with three others, had walked across the suspension bridge, and was drunk at the time of the accident.

— A great catastrophe has occurred in Edinburgh. On the 13th ult., a fire broke out in the Theatre Royal, and two men were killed by the fall of a chimney through the cupola of a neighboring church. While an attempt was being made to rescue them, the north wall gave way, and buried seven or eight persons in the ruins, including Mr. George Lorrimer, the Dean of Guild.

— A wedding in Washington has put the female hearts there in a delicious flutter. The bride was Miss Albrecht and the groom Charles M. Walker. Ex-Secretary Chase gave her away and Miss Nettie Chase was first bridesmaid. The ladies were all lovely and so were the dresses.

— A relative of Gen. Sherman writes to the Cincinnati Gazette that the General is a grandson of Wm. Sherman, who was a younger brother of Roger, who entered the service on the breaking out of the Revolutionary War as a private, and left the army when peace was restored, a major.

A San Francisco letter tells of three tons of gold in bars arriving in that city from Sacramento.

The demon of the pit — Small Pox. A pet role with the public—Pet-roleum. Seasonable vegetables: Capers and Hops.

Communication.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE.—We think that the President judged correctly in meeting the rebel commissioners on the Seaboard to confer on the subject of making peace, instead of meeting them at the national capitol. We also think that the conference will be the harbinger of peace, or else lead to a more immediate vigorous prosecution of the war on our part. That there will be many idle rumors in respect to the result of the conference there is little doubt. The rebel commissioners are anxious for peace, as are all good men in the Union, and desire to be informed by our President upon what terms it may be concluded. They will at first, make higher claims than they can expect will be acceded to. They will contend for a treaty acknowledging their separate National Independence, and for that, if they could not have it without, would agree to a treaty stipulation, that slavery should forever be exterminated from the land. The President would explicitly inform them that the loyal States by their public servants will not agree to a dissolution of the Union; but the rebel States may have peace, at any time, by laying down their arms, and returning to their allegiance to the Federal Government. So far it is pretty clear, but what next? The commissioners may then say that the acknowledgment of their national Independence is a sine qua non, without which they will not lay down their arms. Any further conference would, therefore, be futile.

But suppose that the rebel rulers, now fully convinced that it would be useless to longer contend against our victorious armies, have given instructions to their commissioners, that they will lay down their arms, and again rally under the old star-spangled banner, upon the condition that the President will grant an amnesty to all, including, of course, the chief instigators and treasonable prosecutors of the war, whose lives are forfeited upon conviction of high treason; would the president agree to that condition? We think he would, and ought to, for the following reason, but not that they do not observe the death penalty, but that it would be better to pardon them in order to put an end to the further effusion of the blood of our loyal citizens, and the waste of treasure in longer prosecuting the war. Hanging may be too good for the comparatively few rulers, who waged this cruel and unholy war; still hanging might do little or no good. While we hold that shedding blood by courts for crimes cannot be justified upon christian principles, yet this war is of such an aggravated character, that we would fight in the defense of the priceless heritage bequeathed to us, for the benefit of the present and future generations. Should an amnesty be granted to all, the public reprobation of the ruling traitors, like that of Benedict Arnold, would be a punishment like that of Cain, "more than they can bear." They may fly to foreign realms. Now the Southern oligarchs must despair of longer supporting their new political edifice as its corner stone is knocked out. They know that is dead, beyond the power of resurrection, and that under existing circumstances, the best thing they can do for their safety and vital interests is to return to their allegiance, and accept the amnesty condition. Nothing can result from the conference except that it may lead to a general pacification. But should the result be otherwise, there is some probability that they would evacuate Wilmington, Charleston and Richmond, and retreat back to their mountains and valleys, in order to carry on a guerrilla warfare; thus leaving a broad belt on the seaboard under the command of our navy and armies. But such a warfare could not long be continued. From their demoralized army, there would be constant desertions, and loyal men of influence would arise to induce the common people to form associations and claim the protection of our military forces, and unite in repelling guerrilla attacks. All foreign supplies would be cut off. "Money is the sinew of the war." That the rebel government does not profess to pay their armies. With the general distress and devastations of war, and several millions of slaves to guard from escaping to our lines, surely the few remaining rebel States must despair of gaining national independence. Under the existing state of things, the speedy restoration of peace may be a reasonable prediction. PACIFICUS.

— A five-year old boy in one of the Syracuse, N. Y., schools, made a liberal distribution of medals among his little schoolmates, from a bag which he brought to school. The medals proved to be gold coin, and investigation showed that the boy had found the bag secreted in an old clock, and that his mother and another woman who had been living upon public charity, were the possessors of $1400 in gold, which they had secreted in their shanty. It took some time to hunt up and recover the little fellow's disbursements.

— A valuable cow in North Bridgewater was poisoned to death last week by eating turnip sprouts which had grown in a dark cellar.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——The New Hampshire Patriot says: "Maj. George P. Folsom, of Dover, Paymaster in the army, has been sent to the Albany Penitentiary upon sentence of a Court Martial for defalcation."

——It is reported that two companies of the 8th regiment (B and C), 200 strong, were recently captured by the enemy while on a raid near Vidalia, Louisiana.

☞ The passenger express-train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, which left Pittsburgh at 4:35 on Saturday afternoon, met with a serious accident when within a few miles of Johnstown. The train was coming round a curve in the road, which is overshadowed by a huge mass of rock, covered by great icicles. The sleeping car, which was the third from the rear of the train, ran off the track, broke the coupling which fastened it to the car ahead, and swung around until it lay directly across the track, with one end up against the overhanging rock. The great mass of ice, which had become somewhat thawed by the rain and moderate weather of the few days previous, came crushing like an avalanche into the sleeping-car through the end that lay up against the rock, making it almost a complete wreck. No one was killed, although the car was filled with ladies and gentlemen, many of whom were in their berths. Altogether there were perhaps 12 or fifteen persons hurt, the majority of them slightly—among whom were Gen. J. K. Moorhead, member of Congress from Pittsburgh, and his two daughters.

THE NEW ILLUSTRATED EDITION OF WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY.—The N. Y. Albion says, this seemingly dry and certainly ponderous book has its peculiar charms. Here is collected and tersely set down, a vast quantity of various and useful knowledge, such as is indispensable to educated men and women. Here are an hundred and fourteen thousand words, defined with clearness, fullness, precision and wealth of illustration, that denote the soundest scholarship, and the most entire fidelity to laborious details. Altogether the work is a marvelous specimen of learning, taste, and thorough labor. We praise it heartily, because we believe it deserves the heartiest praise.

— The San Antonio Herald (rebel) says the French, on arriving in Matamoras, complimented the Confederate flag with a hearty salute, while they passed by the Yankee flag in silent contempt. The rebel flag is reported to be waving over stores, taverns and saloons all over the city of Matamoras. It is the intention of a large number of members of the confederate Congress to visit their homes and the army, and address their fellow citizens on the duties of the hour.

The Seven-Thirty Loan is going with a rush. The subscriptions since Saturday are $3,098,200, and we trust there will be $3,000,000 a day for the next thirty days. Such a success would be a blow at the rebellion as severe as the taking of Charleston. All the National banks, State banks, and private Banks are agents for this loan, and it can be taken in sums ranging from fifty dollars to five millions.—Transcript.

— The high price obtained for the land in State street, Boston, induced a bank officer to see how many silver dollars would cover a square foot. He found that sixty-five American silver dollars could be put into the space. The land in question was sold for $92.30 per square foot.

Sue Munday is reported to say that she won't marry any man. We guess she is reserving herself to marry Satan. The poor Devil will have a hard time of it. Sue will broil him on his own gridiron, butter him with his own brimstone, and turn him with his own pitchfork.—Prentice

A WONDER.—The Boston Courier says: "The island of St. Domingo, or Hayti, has been, for several years, the theatre of a desperate struggle, which seems about to end, as ours is, by the triumph of freedom and the right. The facts concerning it are set forth in an excellent liberal and loyal French paper, published in New York, called La Messager Franco-Americain."

— A man came to the Duke of Wellington—"What have you to offer." "A bullet-proof jacket, your grace." Put it on."—The inventor obeyed. The Duke rang a bell. An aid-de-camp presented himself. "Tell the captain of the guard to order one of the men to load with ball and cartridge." The inventor disappeared, and was never seen again near the Horse Guards. No money wasted in trying that invention.

— The oldest clergyman in England recently died. He was very nearly setting at rest the vexed centarian question, for he had attained the age of ninety-eight years. He has been seventy years a clergyman and forty years an archdeacon.

— Sarah Jane Smith, of Washington county, Arkansas, was sentenced to be hung, on the 25th of the present month, by a military commission, at St. Louis, for cutting Government telegraph wires.

— Just before leaving New York for Europe, some of the New York friends of Gen. McClellan presented him with $30,000 in gold.

PETROLEUM.

THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED

IN PORTSMOUTH.

The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the

United Petroleum Farms

ASSOCIATION,

Situate on Oil Creek and the Alleghany River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.

There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1,780 daily, or $642,400 per year.

The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,275,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten-fold.

There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.

The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.

It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $33,000 per day, or $11,045,000 per year.

Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,

No. 47 Congress Street,

and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.

JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,

PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,

Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.

Capital Stock, $5,000,000,

In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.

Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.

This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Forcupine, and Redfield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Alleghany River—embracing about 8,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.

Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share,—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case the IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.

The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.

The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.

The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.

Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

JOHN S. HARVEY, Agent.

PETROLEUM!

I would call the attention of the Citizens of Portsmouth to the following notice of the President Petroleum Company and the opinion of Professor Agassiz, who is one of the greatest Geologists of the age. It is taken from the Independent of Feb. 2d:

"A GOOD INVESTMENT.—On looking over the book of the President Petroleum Co., we see that Prof. Agassiz of Harvard University, Cambridge, is one of the subscribers to the stock of this company. The Professor has given it as his opinion that the property of this company is of "immense value," and this belief has induced him to subscribe. The stock is nearly all taken up, and we think there is no doubt but it will prove a good investment. We would advise those of our readers who intend to invest in this kind of stock, to go and do as the Professor has done."

Please to call and subscribe, for the Subscription list will be closed in about a week.

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "Dye," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. CARTER'S CLARIFIED MOLASSES CANDY!

Local.

☞ The quota of Portsmouth is being filled slowly; four substitutes had been enlisted up to Wednesday noon, towards our quota of 56.

☞ The money for the payment of the workmen on the Navy Yard for the month of January, has arrived, and payments will be made on the 15th of this month. Upwards of $159,000 will be disbursed.—There are 2500 men at present employed on the Yard.

☞ The Steamer Agamenticus, will soon be ready for sea. Many improvements have been made on the original design, and it is expected that she will even supercede the Monadnock — which is of the same model and detail.

☞ Work on the U. S. steamer Franklin progresses slowly, and it will be some time before she is ready for sea. She ought to be sent away immediately, as she would make a splendid store-ship.

☞ The steamer Emerald is again hauled up for repairs. If she was labelled "good for one trip only," it would save disappointing those who are strangers to this innovation.

☞ The steamer Minnesota was reported off Cape Cod on Tuesday. If so, she is already overdue here.

☞ Rev. Mr. Cather, of Philadelphia, will probably present the cause of the Sanitary Commission to the public, in this city, on Sunday evening next, at one of our churches.

☞ We don't think Navigation has exactly closed in the port of Portsmouth; but there have been no entries on the entry-book since Jan. 20th.

☞ "Bad day for the race," yesterday, wasn't it? whether you take it the human race, or any other race—and as to the sleighing race, that seemed to be pretty well run, or is running fast down street in streams.

☞ The weather was too bad for Masters Joseph Maloon, and Albert Sides, who are big enough to go to the High School, to venture out with their lists of the Chronicle, Wednesday morning; so, at the last moment, we sent Col. Burley's little boy, about half their size, (but who, like his father, is always on hand and prompt to business,) with the West list—and any tardiness or omission in delivery, must be laid to his non-acquaintance with the route. For the South list, we had also to improvise carriers, but it was done in good "Stiles." What an idea of moral responsibility a boy must have,—and his parents to let him—thus to default in his contract, and disappoint us and hundreds of readers, because the weather is hot or cold, wet or dry, or a carrier is a little sick or a good deal lazy. Well, well, just wait till we make that afternoon Chronicle, that's all.

☞ A good Carrier is wanted at the Chronicle Office—who can earn more money before brakfast, than most store-boys get for working all the day.

☞ Why ought all to be satisfied with the sloshy weather? Because all goes on swimmingly.

☞ Dr. Baker's old Snow Plough did good service on Wednesday, in guttering the streets, that's a fact.

☞ One of our particular friends a day or two since, encountered an animal which is celebrated for diffusing its fragrance in the most lavish manner, and under the impression that it was a cat, handled him most familiarly, the result of which was that he was "tabooed" from society for a day or two. Powerful animals those—worse than a fox.

☞ The Messrs. Ham (which is almost a traditional name in Portsmouth in connection with the watch business,) announce a new partnership in watchmaking, &c. at the old stand of Mr. H. H. Ham, Exchange Buildings.

☞ We notice from our Central American Exchanges, the sinking at La Union of a launch load of Indigo during a sudden storm. Among the sufferers from this accident we regret to notice Mr. Jas. S. Pierce of this city, who thus lost Indigo to the value of some $8500, the fruit of great industry and toil. Mr. Pierce was just on the eve of retiring with his earnings to settle down here at home, where at the present price of gold his money would have realized him quite a snug little fortune.

☞ A $1 altered to $5 was passed at the grocery store of Messrs. Carter, Wednesday evening—on the Great Falls Bank.

— The Boston Post says a Winsted (Conn.) man has lately made $50,000 out of "ile."

10,000 Newspapers Wanted.

GYMNASTICS.—The classes are to meet at Mercantile Hall; the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 o'clock, and the ladies and gentlemen on the same evenings at 7.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School for ladies and gents, is held at the State St. School House, Monday and Friday evenings.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

☞ Kerosene Oil of prime quality, and the best quality Chimnies and Fixtures, may always be had at H. H. & F. W. HAM'S, Exchange Buildings, Portsmouth. f9tf

Fernelius calls disease an affection of the body, contrary to nature: a perturbation of its habit; a derangement of its courses. What disease is, sometimes eludes human intelligence, but some diseases are known—their origin, action and even their antidotes. Whoever has discovered an actual remedy for one disease, has done something for his race. Dr. Ayer has done more, for his medicines afford us the means to control and cure several dangerous disorders. We rarely speak on medical subjects, preferring to leave them to physicians, who understand them better. But such effects as are seen in our midst, on affections of the lungs by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on scrofulous complaints by his Sarsaparilla, and on the several complaints that they cure by Ayer's Pills, should not be ignored.—Keokuk (Iowa) Journal. 107

☞ Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is manufactured entirely different from any other. Its chemical purity renders it as harmless as the purest flour, and its use will strengthen weak stomachs and cure dyspeptic persons. Use it with cream tartar instead of soda.—It is much better. Try it. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it will eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

Misapprehension. — Common taters, said Mrs. Partington, after the preacher had ended his sermon—he having alluded to some commentators of the good book—common taters, she continued, well all sorts of taters this year are poor enough, but what has that to do with the gospel? Not half so much as the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap has, for that will make the outside of the platter clean, if not the inside, besides it keeps folks from scolding or complaining; it is the best soap and needs no revival. 58

AGAIN AND AGAIN.—Our readers may think it strange that we so often urge upon their attention a medicinal preparation. Already have we, for a number of weeks, urged the importance of a supply of Coe's Cough Balsam in the house, ready for immediate use. But our excuse is that the vast amount of sickness, sorrow and death that are the immediate result of sudden coughs, colds and pulmonary attacks; while thousands of our children are dying from croup and lung complaints. Time and experience have proved that Coe's Cough Balsam is the most speedy and reliable preparation ever known to the world. Like magic it relieves the irritation of the throat, removes the stoppages that prevent breathing in croup, and heals all soreness of the throat, chest and lungs. No man should neglect to supply his family with a safe and reliable remedy like Coe's Cough Balsam, any more than he should neglect the supply of their daily bread. It costs but 40 cents, and the bottles contain twice as much as those of any other remedy at the same cost, while in merit it is superior to all others. All drug stores keep it for sale. 4j18dawkm

FRENCH ROLL PAN?
IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.
It is simply a nicely made
IRON PAN,

Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very

QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.

For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.

IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to

ECONOMISE

in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and

PALATABLE BREAD:

"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."

By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

BAILEY'S
Spring Roll and Cog Wheel
WASHING AND WRINGING
MACHINES.

WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.

We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tube, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.

To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

HYMN OF FAITH.

BY MRS. SIGOURNEY.

God sent me in this world to stay,
And he will take me hence away,
Whene'er his wisdom shall decree
It is the fitting time for me.

Where'er the sphere, or what the task,
It is not meet for me to ask;
Since he who gave the being first,
And lent the breath that stirred its dust,
Hath a full right to fix its date,
And as he wills to legislate.

Why need I fear alone to tread
The unseen regions of the dead?
To earth I came without a guide,
And found my every want supplied.

I'll reach my hand to Death, and say,
Blest angel, lead me hence away,
Where'er his love appoints my lot;
Thou canst not go where God is not;
And wherso'er his sway is known,
There Truth and Goodness fill the throne.

It is not mine to choose the way,
Mine but the provinces to obey;
And so I lift this trustful song,
Bidding my soul be glad and strong
In him who will not do it wrong.

SCRIPTURE IN THE SENATE.—The Copperheads seem to have concentrated all the resources of their memories on those texts in the Bible which they choose to pervert into the support of chattel slavery, and to have overlooked the rest of the Scriptures. This was curiously apparent in a debate in the Senate on Friday. Mr. Powell, of Kentucky, was caught trippling even on the record of such a "chivalrous cavalier" and "born ruler" as Herod:

Mr. Powell spoke against the civil government of Louisiana, the President's amnesty proclamation, &c. In reply to some remarks of Mr. Doolittle, he said: Herod, the king, once ordered the slaughter of even first-born child.

Mr. Cowan—Will my friend allow me to correct him?

Mr. Powell—Certainly.

Mr. Cowan—My reading of the Scriptures is to the effect that Herod ordered the slaughter of all children under two years old, and not of the first born. (Laughter.)

Mr. Powell—Well I don't know about that; but I think I am right. (Laughter.) But my friend, the reporter knows more scripture than I do, and he will put it down as it is in the text. (Laughter.)

— The National Intelligencer says editorially: "We almost state by authority when we say that the rebel leaders who attended the recent Conference, declared that civil war would follow in the South were a proposition of restoration to be submitted to the Southern people. Now this sentiment is either a wanton misrepresentation of the facts in the South, or it means that there is a formidable Union sentiment in the Southern States ready to take up arms for the old flag. For certainly we cannot suppose that these men meant by such declaration that they would be glad to hazard the proposition as a government for restoration, if they were not fearful that the unpopularity of such a step might lead to revolt against themselves."

We think the rebel leaders let out some truth in the statement: for no doubt thousands of the Southern people wish for Union and peace with us; but the leading criminals there, who made the rebellion, would not stop at any crime to keep up their own consequences. These criminals must be put down by force and arms,—and then the loyal Southern people can show themselves.

☞ The correspondent of the Boston Recorder expresses his regrets on finding that there are only three out of the forty-nine white churches in Washington City where there is ever heard the voice of public prayer for the freedom of the slaves. He adds: "All the ten black churches are anti-slavery of course. But to be anti-slavery in Washington alienates the native population, without winning the leading Government officers. Neither the President, Vice-President, nor a single member of the Cabinet attends a church that has shown any sympathy with the proclamation of emancipation."

A SCENE IN COURT.—The Manchester Union is good for the following article:

Rev. Mr. Thomas, in his prayer at the opening of the Supreme Court, in this city, yesterday, put up at least one excellent petition as follows: "O Lord, we pray that thou wouldst bless the lawyers now before thee. Grant, O Lord, that they may at all times speak the truth. May they learn a lesson from the season, that life is short, and waste no precious time in circumlocution and windy declamation."

On the conclusion of this portion of the prayer, many of the audience outside of the bar responded with an emphatic 'amen.'

— There are only two newspapers published in Persia, the Rouz Nameh Elmirjah (scientific journal) published in Teheran, and the Journal of the Nation, published at Tauris. Both papers are lithographed, letter press printing not being practiced in Persia. The Persians fancy their style of printing the finest in the world, and prefer it to the pure Arabic characters from which it is derived.

BOSTON,
Buy and Sell Oil and Coal Stocks on Commission, in New York, Philadelphia, and in Europe.

We believe we can offer superior inducements to all persons wishing to invest in

Petroleum Stocks.

Such investments, as a class, offer greater inducements to persons of either large or small means, than any the world has ever known, not even excepting the

Siver Mines of Mexico and So. America.

The cost of obtaining this Oil is so comparatively small that

A single Well producing only 10 Barrels per Day

will yield an income, over all expenses, of more than

$25,000 PER ANNUM.

Many wells are now yielding from 25 to 75, and several reached over 1000 Barrels, while one, (the Noble Well, on Oil Creek, Penn.,) has yielded no less than

3000 Barrels per Day,
Worth $30.000 at the Wells.

The undersigned are Regular Agents for the principal Petroleum Companies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and having no more interest in one than another, persons desiring information can rely upon receiving an unbiassed account of the standing and prospects of the various companies on the market.

Enquiries by mail will receive prompt attention.

Subscriptions received to all first-class Companies upon the most favorable terms.

Receipts and Certificates will be forwarded in exchange for available funds, without charge; and Petroleum and Coal Stocks will be sold at the Brokers' Boards of New York and Philadelphia at the regular rates of commission.

We would call special attention to the following Companies now being organized in this city, viz:—

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of the loins, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attendant on this disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D.. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded, such as Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician on experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr Dow has also for sale the French Capotites, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Dr. D. is invariably certain in the mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the care of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Cures in from one

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa; and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in females where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, cooling and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, on receiving address, a full treatise.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these; those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

SINGING AND PREACHING IN SAVANNAH.—It will be seen by the following extract from "Carleton's" letter in the Boston Journal, that several Yankee laymen have got the start of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, and have already exhorted and sung Paritan tunes in a redeemed rebel city:

I was amused last Sunday. At St. John's church, in the morning, the singing was led by W. H. Baldwin, Esq., of Boston, superintendent of the Sunday School at the Church of the Unity. At the Presbyterian church there was no choir. The minister requested any one who could lead in the singing to do so. Gen. Littlefield of Illinois, a relative of President Lincoln, who has in charge the organization of the negroes brought in by Sherman into regiments, struck into Old Hundred and the congregation joined. At the second singing a correspondent of the Boston Journal had his fingers upon the keys of the large and fine toned organ, leading off with Dundee—the first Boston Yankee I dare say who has played it. This at the Presbyterian church, while at the African church the pastor, Rev. Mr. Cox, after the introductory service, being unable to preach, introduced Thomas Drew, Esq., formerly editor of the Worcester Spy, and later a business agent of the Atlantic Monthly, who gave an address, his theme being what the Lord had done for the colored race in the United States. So well pleased was the audience that the speaker had to undergo a brotherly and sisterly hand-shaking after the service.

☞ The Herald tells how a Newburyport trader got caught, the other day. A lady went into a dry goods store on State street to purchase some sheeting. Having selected the quality she desired, she inquired the price of it. On being told by the trader that it was sixty cents, she remarked that she used to buy the same for ten cents. Well, said the trader, I will sell it for that now, if you will pay me in gold. How much will you sell me? asked she. As much as you wish, was the reply. I will take four pieces, said the purchaser. The trader rather demurred, after finding himself caught, but the lady held him to his trade, took the cloth, and paid him the "shiners."

In another case there, just an opposite result was reached. A woman went to one of the grocers for some brooms, for which forty cents was asked. She objected, saying that formerly they were worth but twenty cents. He replied that he would sell them for ten cents apiece if she would pay in specie, but after hunting for two days, she returned and paid him the forty cents, saying she did not believe there was a ten cent piece left in the country.

— Winter in Edinburg his rather severe. Frost, says a correspondent, is pleasant enough in its season—but it is terrible in Edinburgh; dreaded alike by the cab-horse and the pedestrian. And this arises, firstly from the hilly nature of many of the pathways, and secondly from the disgraceful manner in which they are kept. The elements are the scavengers of Edinburgh, and Heaven the superintendent of streets. Snow falls, and it remains until thaw comes. And as the weather in this part of the world hardly for twenty-four hours at a time knows its own mind, and is continually thawing and freezing, the steep streets are very dangerous.

— Sir Christopher Tawny (a great favorite in the North), has some wonderful old port wine, which, he says, he laid down at the time of the birth of his eldest daughter; the wine is undoubtedly remarkably fine; but the most wonderful thing about it is, that whereas the wine is 32 years old, the young lady, who is still unmarried, is only just entering her three-and-twentieth year. Sir Christopher says that his daughters so far differ in body and temper from his wine, that the longer he keeps them the younger he finds they grow.

— The Army of the Tennessee, says the Meridian (rebel) Clarion, will probably winter at Tupelo and Saltillo. It needs rest and reorganization very much. It has marched and countermarched, fought and been shattered from Rocky Race to Atlanta, thence back to Nashville, and now drops down to the spot where it quartered during the winter months of 1862. The Clarion adds, very significantly, "alas, how its columns have been thinned since that time on every field from Nashville to Atlanta."

— Gen. Robert L. McCook was brutally murdered in an ambulance by guerrillas about two years ago. It is now stated that the man who shot him is Davis, the keeper of the Andersonville prison, who was captured in Ohio recently; has been tried and convicted as a rebel spy, and will soon be executed. Thus will the death of that brave officer be partially avenged.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of filling something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Cahoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.

For making the Soles of Boots and Shoes water proof and wear longer, is also for sale as above.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1865.

THE REBELLION.

Richmond papers of Monday announce the return of Stephens, Hunter and Campbell, and that the conference at Fortress Monroe was without result. The Sentinel says the terms offered to the Commissioners were abolition of slavery and restoration of the Union, which it declares is an insult to the South. The Commissioners, who the Sentinel now declares were appointed by Jeff. Davis, are preparing to address the people of the South. The Richmond papers are for war, and call on the people to choose between independence and subjugation.

Col. Mulford, the Exchange Commissioner, arrived Wednesday. He says that a cartel has been agreed upon between Gen. Grant and the rebel Commissioner Ould for a general exchange of all the prisoners. The first boat load has already arrived, and three thousand per week will be exchanged. Our men in North and South Carolina will be transported to Richmond for exchange.

The Richmond papers of Tuesday state that Sherman's forces are within nine miles of Branchville, S. C., and that it is doubtful if they (the rebels) could hold it.

It is reported that the cavalry at Dinwiddie Court House captured 20 of the enemy's wagons and 100 horses.

It is said the rebels don't fight as well as formerly. Grant's tactics of keeping them in motion from one point to another bewilders them, and they give themselves up whenever an opportunity occurs.

There was a report in Washington Wednesday, that Lee was evacuating Richmond, and Grant's movement was to cut him off on the Southside Railroad. Our despatches state that it is satisfactorily ascertained that up to this time, Lee has sent but few troops South.

The Tribune's special despatch of the 7th, says the rebel attack on the left of the 5th corps was gallantly repulsed by Ayres's fighting division with considerable loss to the enemy.

The left of the 5th corps now rests on the Bodydston plank road, and the entire front of the 5th and 2d corps is being strongly fortified to the left of the old position, which is held by the 5th corps.

Gregg's corps is still on a reconnoissance toward the Southside Railroad.

The whole number of rebel prisoners reported Wednesday evening was about 300.

The N. Y. Herald's City Point despatch of the 7th says the enemy abandoned his ground in front of the 2nd corps and left his dead for us to bury. We still hold and intend to hold all the ground in the direction of Hatcher's Run. Our loss yesterday and the day before in killed and wounded was between 250 and 300 in the 2nd corps, and about 200 in the 5th corps.

Can't you with your large corruption fund, bribe some one to swear that we have robbed a bank? Can't you convict us of horse-stealing? Prove counterfeiting upon us? You have not made out a case plain enough to keep loyal men from supporting us for Governor, and if something is not done, we really expect to be elected. And when these rascals are convicted by our courts of high crimes, and sent to the penitentiary, we may be slow to pardon them out."

DROP LETTER—No. 6.

LEXINGTON, Mass. Feb. 7.

Pleasant as are the rambles in this vicinity during the summer, they do not lose all their interest while under the reign of the Frost King, especially when he furnishes such fine sleighing as for six weeks past. Monadnock and Wachusett, lifting their snow-crowned heads in the purple distance—the lords of a train of lesser mountains—form a beautiful picture in the clear winter air.

Then a ride to West Cambridge is amply repaid by the busy sight presented on Spy Pond, where three large firms reap abundant harvest from the cold crystals that sparkle on its surface. Some idea of the enormous ice crop gathered from this pond during the present season, may be gained from the fact that one of the firms had over 5000 tons of ice in their houses at the pond a few days since, notwithstanding the constant drain from the same. The men and horses on the pond,—clearing off the snow, ploughing, sawing and removing the ice—the skaters enjoying the newly formed ice, and the numerous teams with noble draft horses removing the staple from the ice-houses, all show that even a cold climate has some advantages.

Returning from a visit thither, we invited a pedestrian to accept a spare seat in our sleigh, and, apropos to the subject in question, found him to be Capt. Phelps, a gentleman who, hale and hearty beyond the allotted threescore years and ten, lays claim to having carried to Malta the first cargo of ice ever landed in that island. An English firm having a monopoly for supplying the island with snow for twenty years, (which snow was brought from the base of Mount Etna, thirty miles overland, and taken across the strait in open boats,) procured an injunction against Capt. Phelps' landing the ice; but on trial the court decided that snow and ice were two different articles, and thus Yankee enterprise was triumphant. The ice was landed and stored in an old catacomb, and subjects of Old England in the Mediterranean partook of a luxury from New England.

Many of the old apple orchards here are being cut down, but not to be cast into the fire. The wood is wanted by furniture manufacturers, for which its fine close grain and little shrinkage makes it peculiarly fit.

Tens of thousands of dollars are raised with little effort to erect a memorial to the distinguished Everett—a man who lived to see fruition of many of his works, and for a long series of years honored and loved by the nation; but the martyrs who fell on the first American battlefield—the men who stained the green of Lexington with their hearts' blood, and failed to see the end of the long conflict then inaugurated against British tyranny—nearly a hundred years later still lie under a stone that would disgrace almost any country graveyard, were it not for the inscription thereon. There is talk of a new monument to those heroes, and we hope that the old saw: "vox et preterea nihil," may not be applicable in this case.

Artemus Ward's hit at the students is one of his best, when he describes Harvard College as being "pleasantly situated in the bar-room at Parker's." ION.

— We enjoyed last week a brief call upon our former townsman B. Partington Shillaber, in Boston. Ben. has a snug office on Franklin St. We are not informed of the precise designation of his official duty, but we believe he is aid to one of the aldermen. Our worthy friend preserves his geniality as of yore, and notwithstanding his prosperity, his popular disposition permits him to allow his grand-children to speak to their associates just as if their grandpa was not an editor.—Portsm. Cor. Ballot.

REBEL PRISONERS WISHING TO STAY. Out of a detachment of 500 rebel prisoners at Camp Chase ordered to be placed upon the exchange list, 260 voted to remain in prison. The rest will be sent forward. This does not show that our government or our officers treat rebel prisoners badly;—but it does contradict the statements of the the New York News and other copperhead sheets, and brand them as lies and liars.

SOUTH CAROLINA. — The Charleston Mercury of a late date says:

Let everything from Combahee to Charleston, and from Branchville to Charleston, be promptly stripped for fight. Let all humanitarianism be buried as dead as Julius Cæsar and as deep as Tophet. Strip the State for a death-struggle, and let every officer and man strip his heart likewise of all weak longings and lookings backward. Inch by inch let us fight the enemy; let us mark every track that he makes with his life-blood; let us not yield that inch until forcibly beaten from it. Let every creek be a point of fight, every marsh a battle ground.

VALLANDIGHAM, K. G. C. — At the session of a U. S. Military Commission in Cincinnati on the 3d inst., Amos Green of Illinois testified that he visited Windsor, Canada West, and there initiated Mr. Vallandigham into the order of American Knights, putting him through all the degrees, except that of the Supreme Council, in a single day. Mr. Green was at the time Grand Commander of the State of Illinois.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Capt. J. Homer Edgerly, of Dover, of the 3d N. H. regiment, was the first to enter Fort Fisher. He captured the colors of the fort, taking them from the flagstaff, presenting them to Col. Abbott, who gave them to Gen. Terry, and by him were presented to the Secretary of War.

—— A letter to the editor of the Laconia Democrat from the 12th N. H. regiment, states that Sergeant Batchelder, of New Hampton, and private Benjamin B. Thompson of Wolfborough, who were taken prisoners last fall, made their escape from Richmond by cutting up a piece of canvas and tying it together for a rope to let themselves down from the window. They took with them a piece of canvas for a blanket, procured some clothing from the negroes, and by travelling nights and lying by days, after nine days, through snow and rain storms, succeeded in reaching our lines. Thompson has since received a commission as Captain in the 18th regiment, and Batchelder as First Lieut. in the 12th.

—— The Concord Ind. Democrat says, "the arithmetic of the Provost Marshal General's office beats us. There is a report that the number demanded of this State (2072) has been reduced one half. Whether this is true or not, we don't know."

—— Hon. Levi Parker died at his residence in Sugar Hill (Lisbon), on Monday, Feb. 6th, after a long and painful illness. He was a member of the Executive Council during the first year of Governor Gilmore's administration.

—— Major Whittlesey has been relieved from duty at the camp rendezvous for recruits in Concord. Maj. Caldwell takes his place.

—— The Manchester Union says:—"On Saturday, Jan. 28th, Mr. Nathaniel Bean, an old and feeble man, left Northfield with a horse and sleigh, to visit some friends in Andover. In the evening he left the house where he had been stopping, and in attempting to go by a cross road through a pasture, lost his way, and froze to death. He was not found until the next Wednesday. He had taken his horse out of the sleigh, hitched up the tugs and tied up the reins, and led him two or the miles around the pasture in the deep snow, trying to find the road, and finally lay down to his last sleep within a few rods of the road and near where he left the sleigh. The horse was found almost famished, with the reins accidentally fastened to a bush, having been exposed to cold with nothing to eat for four days."

EASTERN RAILROAD.—By an oversight we have omitted mention of the annual meeting held at the depot in Boston, Monday. Mr. Franklin Story controverted an inference that might be drawn from the directors' report, that $850,000 had been appropriated from the earnings of the road during the last ten years, to pay income bonds. That money was procured from sources independent of the income of the road; it had been derived by sinking the value of the Grand Junction Railroad, the Reading Railroad, etc. The President said Mr. Story was quite right; certain values were charged off. But in regard to equipment, that was worth twice what is stated in the report, as it was deemed advisable to go over the entire account the present year.

Mr. S. A. Chase, of Salem, referred to the balance sheet, at the end of the report, as showing the condition of the corporation on the 30th Nov. 1864, as compared with May 31, 1856. During that time the liabilities of the company have been reduced $500,000, and upwards of $100,000 had been applied for objects increasing the value of the stock. The corporation was about $650,000 better off on the 30th of Nov. 1864, than on May 31, 1856.

Mr. Huntington, of Salem, offered a vote which was unanimously adopted; That the Directors be authorized to provide for the remaining debt of the company, as it falls due from time time, including the bonds of the Essex Railroad, by the issue of new bonds for extended periods, or of stock within the limits authorized by law, as may be found expedient.

Judge O. P. Lord, of Salem, proposed a vote, which he explained as making the Eastern and Essex Railroads one corporation, and superseding the necessity for more than one board of management.

The President read a record of the action of the Directors of the Essex Railroad, and also of the stockholders, ratifying the sale of the franchise of the road to the Eastern Railroad. The vote of Judge Lord, was unanimously passed.

For Directors 9476 votes were cast, all for the following named gentlemen: Geo. F. Browne, Samuel Hooper, Benj. E. Bates of Boston; Micajah Lunt, Newburyport; Franklin Haven, Boston; Wm. L. Dwight, Portsmouth; Henry L. Williams, Salem.

The act of the Legislature allowing the Eastern Railroad to build another bridge across the Merrimac River, and strengthen their track somewhat, was accepted by the stockholders.

PETROLEUM.
THE BEST INVESTMENTS EVER OFFERED
IN PORTSMOUTH.
The Subscriber has been appointed AGENT for the United Petroleum Farms
ASSOCIATION,
Situate on Oil Creek and the Alleghany River, Venango County, Penn., which is the centre of the Oil Regions.
There are now some FIFTEEN WELLS, and the same number going down—producing about 200 Barrels per day, worth, at the present price of Oil, $1700 daily, or $642,400 per year.
The entire property cost the present Subscribers $2,275,000, and is already paying about 2½ per cent. per month, and will, no doubt, in 60 days pay double that amount, and perhaps within the year increase it ten fold.
There is room on these Farms to put down 2000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation.
The whole of the Stock is nearly subscribed, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 27th of January, and to Agents in about 10 days later,—and on the first of February a dividend of about 2½ per cent. per month since October 27th will be declared on the earnings of the wells in operation since that time.
It is proposed to put down 150 wells this year, and it is thought these will yield $82,000 per day, or $14,045,000 per year.
Those wishing to subscribe will please call at once to my Office,
No. 47 Congress Street,
and see Circular and Plan, and all information given.
JOHN S. HARVEY, AGENT.
Portsmouth, Jan. 26th, 1865.

President Petroleum Company,
PRESIDENT, VENANGO COUNTY, PA.,
Organized under the Laws of Pennsylvania.
Capital Stock, $5,000,000,
In Shares of $25 each, par value. Subscription price $5 per Share.
Parties subscribing in this Company will be entitled to an equal interest in two adjoining Companies, without further charge.
This enterprise is one of great magnitude and importance, and it is our firm belief it will prove one of the best paying Companies in the United States. The Land owned by the President, Forcupine, and Reddield Petroleum Companies embrace two and one-half miles frontage on Alleghany River—embracing about 3,400 acres—nearly equal in extent to the whole of Oil Creek.
Another Company has 400 acres, IN FEE SIMPLE. The Stock was originally sold at $2.50 per Share; it has been sold since at $250 per share.—One gentleman who had 2000 shares, which cost him $5000, was offered $450,000 for them. A great many similar cases could be cited. THERE ARE NO REASONS WHY some of the properties belonging to this Company should not produce Oil as copiously as the wells mentioned above, and in that case THE IMMENSE AMOUNT of this property would make its value almost beyond calculation.
The Wells on this property are being sunk with great vigor, and promise large supplies of Oil.—Dividends will be declared on the par value on the Stock as soon as the Company's finances will permit, and subject to order free of charge.
The Subscriber has been appointed Agent for Portsmouth and vicinity for subscriptions to the above Company, and would cheerfully recommend it to his friends as worthy of their attention.
The Stock is nearly all subscribed for in New York and Boston, and the Books will be CLOSED in New York on the 1st of February, and to Agents very soon after.
Circulars can be obtained, and Maps and Plans seen, at my Office, No. 47 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H.
JOHN S. HARVEY, Agent.

PETROLEUM!
I would call the attention of the Citizens of Portsmouth to the following notice of the President Petroleum Company and the opinion of Professor Agassis, who is one of the greatest Geologists of the age. It is taken from the Independent of Feb. 2d:
"A GOOD INVESTMENT.—On looking over the book of the President Petroleum Co., we see that Prof. Agassiz of Harvard University, Cambridge, is one of the subscribers to the stock of this company. The Professor has given it as his opinion that the property of this company is of "immense value," and this belief has induced him to subscribe. The stock is nearly all taken up, and we think there is no doubt but it will prove a good investment. We would advise those of our readers who intend to invest in this kind of stock, to go and do as the Professor has done."
Please to call and subscribe, for the Subscription list will be closed in about a week.
☞ On the 15th of February the Subscription Price of this Stock will positively be advanced to $10 per Share, instead of $5—if any remains.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

Please inclose a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases of BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

PRICE—$1 per Bottle.

CARTER'S
CLARIFIED MOLASSES CANDY!

Local.

☞ The Minnesota arrived in Lower Harbor on Thursday morning. She is a fast class screw frigate of 3,307 tons, and carries 49 guns. This steamer comes direct from Fort Fisher, and being considerably damaged in the fight at that place, will need a thorough overhauling.

We give her list of officers:

Commodore Commanding—Joseph Lanman.
Lieut. Comd'r and Ex. Officer—James Parker.
Lieutenants—M. S. Stuyvesant, Edwin F. Stoodward.
Paymaster—Chas. C. Upham.
Asst. Surgeon—Wm. S. Fort.
Captain Marines—George Butler.
Acting Chief Engineer—A. K. Eddowes.
Acting Ensigns—James Birtwistle, Wm. H. Jennings, F. A. O'Connor.
Asst. Engineers—J. E. Cooper, Guy Sampson, Herman A. Julius, John C. Kafer.
Boatswain—William Bunker.
Gunner—Robert H. Cross.
Sailmaker—Thomas Odion Fassett.
Carpenter—A. O. Goodnoe.
Paymaster's Clerk—M. B. Moody.
Commodore's Clerk—O. B. McCondy.
Paymaster's Steward—David Vaughan.
Surgeon's Steward—Charles Janvier.

☞ Messrs. Varney & Co., of Great Falls have taken the store of Mr. B. Harding, and renovated and refitted the same; and we have no doubt will conduct it in a satisfactory and unexceptionable manner. They are old hands in the manufacture and sale of confectionery, and will doubtless restore the high repute that excellent stand formerly bore.

☞ Miss Emily Shaw, of Nantucket, who reads before the Lyceum next Tuesday evening, comes with the strongest recommendations from Dr. O. W. Holmes, Rev. Mr. Weiss, Rev. E. H. Sears, Prof. Bailey of Yale College; the Boston Transcript, Providence Journal, and Norwich Bulletin; and has the very highest references. If recommendations ever mean anything, Miss Shaw will prove very interesting in her renderings of drama and poetry.

☞ Charles A. Manson of this city, recently appointed an Acting Asst. Surgeon in the Navy and ordered to the "Ohio," has been detached, and ordered to the gunboat "James Adger."

☞ The Pension Agent in this city has been directed not to pay any pension on a power of attorney, where the pensioner is not disabled from going to the agency in person for his pension, unless residing too far off; and satisfactory reason for not applying in person must appear in the vouchers. The pension certificate should also be produced.

☞ Rev. Mr. Cather, of Philadelphia, an Agent of the Sanitary Commission, is spending a few days in this city and vicinity, and designs lecturing in Portsmouth, Greenland, Hampton, Newmarket and South Newmarket, Raymond and Candia, and perhaps other places. He can be addressed at the Chronicle Office. He presents the subject in a somewhat new light, and explains the working of the Commission in some important departments not generally understood.

☞ "L." of the Ballot, who knows everything, says "The Chronicle didn't remember correctly about the income of Chas. O. Rogers, of the Boston Journal, for 1863. It was $50,000, not $20,000. Some newspapers pay, even in these times." So they do, but our income don't come within nothing (0) of that. And who would think that Col. Rogers overtopped Bonner? He only paid tax on a quarter of a hundred thousand.

☞ We are sorry to record the death of Boatswain John H. Downs of this city, on board the Iroquois on the Brazil station, in November last. He was about 37 years of age, and leaves a wife in this city. Mr. Downs was much respected by all who knew him, being a man of upright demeanor, treating his fellows as he would be treated.

☞ Mr. Harvey, who has given considerable attention to the subject, has the fullest faith in Petroleum; and there is, beyond doubt, money in it. The only question is, how to get it out—and he thinks he can show you. See his notice this morning, of the stock doubling in value.

☞ Our delinquent carriers didn't enjoy the notice we gave them yesterday—tho' of course they didn't admit any blame to themselves—we never saw a boy who did. And they had the supreme impudence to call for "pay" for such services as theirs. The only pay they deserve, is to have half a thousand outraged and irate subscribers calling on them for their papers.

☞ We lent Br. Foster, of the Stars and Bars, perhaps two or three dollars worth of printer's ink, more or less, last fall; and when we sent a messenger twice to inquire after it, the last time yesterday, he returned word for us to "go to hell!" As he probably used our ink on his delectable sheet, no doubt we should find it there; but we don't propose to follow his lead just yet. However, perhaps he ought not to be blamed if he is a little crabbed just now; but how will he feel after election? A comfortable fellow to lend to, truly.

☞ We learn that the good ship New Hampshire, of this port, has been sold in Liverpool for £6000 stg.

☞ It is stated that the Rockingham Bank in this city, also will soon adopt the National Banking system.

☞ Rev. T. M. Latham has been made the recipient of a generous donation by the members of the First Society of Rye, in money, clothing, provisions, &c.

☞ We are glad to learn that Col. Jackson has consented to drill the High School Boys in military exercises. A better thing could not be done—physically or patriotically considered, and the little fellows will study all the better for the exercise.

☞ One Edward C. Parks, of South Berwick, owes us a bill of long standing, of $5 or so; and another, a debt of honor, (if there be any honor in such fellows,) of $25 or more. How much are we offered for the same? We purpose to ask this question, Daily and Weekly, till he or somebody else answers it. dawtf

☞ The Ballot says Mrs. Whipple's Recitations at Exeter Town Hall last Thursday evening appeared to give pretty general satisfaction; and that Mrs. W. has an easy and graceful manner, a pleasing voice, a remarkable memory which enables her to go through the evening's programme without reference to the book, and gives an agreeable, if not an astonishing entertainment.

☞ Thermometer, at four o'clock this morning, 16°.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT AT LYNN.—As the Eastern Railroad afternoon Portland train for Boston was passing through Lynn at 7 1-4 o'clock Tuesday evening, the engine struck a man named Owen Hughes, who was walking on the track, causing death in a few hours. Mr. Hughes was about 59 years of age. There does not seem to be the least reason for censure of the managers of the train.

☞ Mr. A. C. Hoyt's Writing School for ladies and gents, is held at the State St. School House, Monday and Friday evenings.

☞ Save your rags and old papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

☞ Kerosene Oil of prime quality, and the best quality Chimnies and Fixtures, may always be had at H. H. & F. W. HAM'S Exchange Buildings, Portsmouth. f9tf

Fernelius calls disease an affection of the body, contrary to nature: a perturbation of its habit; a derangement of its courses. What disease is, sometimes eludes human intelligence, but some diseases are known—their origin, action and even their antidotes. Whoever has discovered an actual remedy for one disease, has done something for his race. Dr. Ayer has done more, for his medicines afford us the means to control and cure several dangerous disorders. We rarely speak on medical subjects, preferring to leave them to physicians, who understand them better. But such effects as are seen in our midst, on affections of the lungs by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on scrofulous complaints by his Sarsaparilla, and on the several complaints that they cure by Ayer's Pills, should not be ignored.—Keokuk (Iowa) Journal. 107

Misapprehension.—Common taters, said Mrs. Partington, after the preacher had ended his sermon—he having alluded to some commentators of the good book—common taters, she continued, well all sorts of taters this year are poor enough, but what has that to do with the gospel? Not half so much as the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap has, for that will make the outside of the platter clean, if not the inside, besides it keeps folks from scolding or complaining; it is the best soap and needs no revival. 58

WHAT IS A
FRENCH ROLL PAN?
IS A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.
It is simply a nicely made
IRON PAN,
Or rather a series of Pans connected in one, of such peculiar form that all parts of the material contained in them receive an equal amount of heat, thus insuring a very
QUICK AND LIGHT BAKE.
For Sponge or Drop Cake, Muffins, French Rolls, Corn Bread or Raised Flour Biscuit, these Pans are Invaluable.
IN these days of high prices, it is worth while to
ECONOMISE
in any way. We give below a receipt for making a Cheap, Wholesome, and
PALATABLE BREAD:
"Stir into a pint of Cold Water sufficient Graham Flour to make a thin batter, adding a little Salt. Heat the Pan thoroughly, grease it a little, pour in the batter, and bake about half an hour in a hot oven."
By using Sweet Milk, instead of Water, as above, and adding 2 Spoonsful of Sugar, biscuit can be made fit to set before a King. We have sold nearly a thousand of these Roll Pans in about one year, and the sale is still increasing.—Try one.

BAILEY'S
Spring Roll and Cog Wheel
WASHING AND WRINGING
MACHINES.
WRINGING MACHINES HAVE BECOME AN institution in the land. Thousands and tens of thousands have been sold during the last three years, and they all save an immense amount of labor and cost of material.
We now offer to the public a Machine that will WASH as well as WRING the Clothes. It is very heavy and strongly built—the Rolls are large and so fastened with screws as to be secure from turning on the shaft. The Cog Wheels give power, and the Spring Roll makes it do its work with ease and perfection. The Machine is secured to a bench, independent of the wash tubs, consequently there is no trouble of fastening it every time it is used.
To any person who wishes to obtain an article to do both washing and wringing in a Public House or Private Family, we say give this a trial. If not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.—Call and see it.

Morning Chronicle.

— A formerly notorious London courtezan, and great crony of Lola Montes, and who was called the most beautiful woman of her class in the world, and who married an English "Honorable" named Thistlewayte, repented of her ways and joined the Church under "great tribulation" Cummings, — is now in Paris with her husband, giving Sermons in the parlor of an English residence there on Sundays and week days. She is said to be still very beautiful—wanting only wings and an absence of crinoline to lead to the illusion that she is an escaped angel.

— "Rev. Dr. Bushnell," says the Springfield Republican, "has raised another alarm in theological circles by his freedom of discussion. The nineteenth of his recent volumes is declared as a "feeler" in reference to a new theory of the atonement. The difficulty seems to be that Dr. Bushnell refuses to look at the atonement as a commercial transaction, and inclines to a more spiritual interpretation of the great mystery."

—The Lyons journals state that a diminutive lady, of English birth, calling herself the Countess Gayton, has just made her appearance at the Cafe de Paris, in that city, where she takes part in the concerts by singing English songs. The editor of the "Salut Public," whom the coutess honored with a visit, states that she is 20 years of age, of good figure, and shorter even than Gen. Tom Thumb.

— The Houston Telegraph says the nitre and mining bureau in Texas is now producing nitre enough to supply the department with gunpowder. It is capable of producing five thousand pounds per day.

— Lady Effingham, of Brighton, who, a few years since, when upwards of seventy, married a young man, a Scripture reader in the town, has died. She has not left any property to her husband.

— The Portland Press announces that there will be six eclipses this year, two of the sun, two of the moon, one of Jeff. Davis and one of the rebellion.

— Punch says: "It is not generally known that Donato, the one-legged dancer, has six toes. One is at the end of his name, and with the other five he performs his graceful evolutions."

— The bishops and archbishops of France are boarding Louis Napoleon, and what is more serious, his wife sides against him apropos of the encyclical.

— The winter in Europe has been very severe. The Seine and the Loire have been frozen over, and the railways always clogged with three feet of snow.

— At a fire near Galesburg, Ill., last week, two young ladies dragged out a safe which required the full strength of four men to put into the house.

— The ice-dealers of Washington are, for the first time in ten years, laying in their supplies from the Potomac, instead of buying it in New England.

— Donna Leopoldina, of Brazil, has married a fine fellow, the Prince August of Saxe Coburg Gotha. He stands six feet in his stockings.

— Prices to the pit of La Scala at Milan have been raised from 60 cents to $1. A row among the populace was the consequence.

— Blondin, the rope dancer, lent his agent £12,000. His agent has failed and Blondin is so much out of pocket.

— A country girl gave birth to a child in the open street at Cork, Ireland, the other day.

— "My Diary in America in the Midst of War," is what Sala calls his new volume of abuse of us.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 20, 1865.

General Order No. 1, New Series.

HON. LEONARD CHASE of Milford is hereby appointed Superintendent of Volunteer Recruiting for the military, naval and marine service of the United States in the District of Columbia and State of Virginia, with authority to cash all bounties authorized to be paid by the State of New Hampshire under the recent call of the President.

To facilitate the discharge of the duties entrusted to him, Mr. Chase is invested with the rank of Colonel, and will make his headquarters at Washington, receiving only such pay and emoluments as are provided in the law enacted at the Special Session of 1864, regulating recruiting in insurgent States.

His duty will be: First, to enlist men for these towns which shall remit to His Excellency the Governor money with which to cash their town bounties, giving them the preference in the order in which their requisitions, accompanied by the necessary funds are received. Second, to enlist men for the credit of the State at large, who will be distributed pro rata to the various delinquent sub-districts in the State.

Mr. Chase has already accepted this office, and is now in Washington.

Papers authorized to publish the laws of the State of New Hampshire will insert this order in their reading columns for two weeks, and send their bills to the Adjutant General's Office.

By order of the Governor,
NATT HEAD, Adjutant General.

99 STATE STREET,
BOSTON,

Buy and Sell Oil and Coal Stocks on Commission, in New York, Philadelphia, and in Europe.

We believe we can offer superior inducements to all persons wishing to invest in

Petroleum Stocks.

Such investments, as a class, offer greater inducements to persons of either large or small means, than any the world has ever known, not even excepting the Silver Mines of Mexico and So. America.

The cost of obtaining this Oil is so comparatively small that

A single Well producing only 10 Barrels per Day

will yield an income, over all expenses, of more than

$25,000 PER ANNUM.

Many wells are now yielding from 25 to 75, and several have reached over 1000 Barrels, while one, (the Noble Well, on Oil Creek, Penn.,) has yielded no less than

3000 Barrels per Day,
Worth $30.000 at the Wells.

The undersigned are Regular Agents for the principal Petroleum Companies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and having no more interest in one than another, persons desiring information can rely upon receiving an unbiassed account of the standing and prospects of the various companies on the market.

Enquiries by mail will receive prompt attention.

Subscriptions received to all first-class Companies upon the most favorable terms.

Receipts and Certificates will be forwarded in exchange for available funds, without charge; and Petroleum and Coal Stocks will be sold at the Brokers' Boards of New York and Philadelphia at the regular rates of commission.

We would call special attention to the following Companies now being organized in this city, viz:—

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a PRIVATE AND DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the great satisfaction of being able to treat those with medicines that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Mercurial Disease, Rheumatic distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Gleets, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D.. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving remittances of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are fully treated upon new physiological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may come to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 3 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

As to the skill he possesses, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH PREMBRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Boston, April 7, 1864.—eodly.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!

DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, of whatever nature, incident to females. He continues, with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Engorgements, Whites, General Debility, &c., and suppressions of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Bladder, &c.

His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, will receive prompt attention.

Office, No. 23 Endicott street.

Persons at a distance can consult Dr. Briscoe, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicines securely put up, and forwarded, to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients see none but the Doctor himself.

Address DR. BRISCOE, at No. 23 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.

Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secrecy observed in every case.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CHEROKEE MEDICINES.

Glad News for the Unfortunate!

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

Cures in from one

to three days.

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are soothing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will send it free, to any address, a full treatise.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

Cherokee Cure, the great Indian Medicine,

ROOTS, BARKS AND LEAVES.

An unfailing cure for Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, and all diseases caused by self-pollution; such as Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficult Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Eruptions on the Face, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all the direful complaints caused by departing from the path of nature.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞ To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not! the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

☞ For full particulars, get a circular from any drug store in the country, or write the proprietors, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatment in pamphlet form.

☞ Prices, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by express to all parts of the world.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these; those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

THE NOBILITY OF LABOR.

The drones of the community! They feed
On the mechanic's labor; the starved hind
For them compels the stubborn globe to yield
Its unshared harvest. Many faint with toil,
That few may know the care and woe of cloth,
Such an unnatural line of drones do heap
Toil and unavoidable penury
On those who build their palaces, and bring Their daily bread! (Shelly.

It is a fact worthy of note, that some of the most gifted of earth's sons, who were as good as they were great, have lifted up their eloquent voices, or consecrated the products of their prolific pens, from time to time, to the advancement of the laboring classes. They have spoken, too, with firmness and without fear, as well as with their usual power and beauty of thought. Such men deserve to be remembered and held in grateful esteem by the working classes, in whose behalf they dared to raise their voices in condemnation and against the continuance of the wrongs and indignities of their more wealthy and aristocratic oppressors.—Boston Daily Voice.

CUTTING AND COOKING MEATS.—The dead waste of our clumsy, coarse way of cutting meats is immense. For example, at the beginning of the present season the part of a lamb denominated the leg and loin, or hind quarter, sold for thirty cents a pound. Now this includes, beside the thick portions, a quantity of bone, sinew, and thin fibrous substance, constituting full one-third of the whole weight. If we put it into the oven entire, in the usual manner, we have the thin parts overdone, and the skinny and fibrous parts utterly dried up, by the application of the amount of heat necessary to cook the thick portion. Supposing the joints to weigh six pounds, at thirty cents, and that one third of the weight is so treated as to become perfectly useless, we throw away sixty cents. Of a piece of beef at twenty-five cents a pound, fifty cents worth is often lost in bone, fat and burnt skin.

The fact is, this way of selling and cooking meat in large, gross portions, is of English origin, and belongs to a country where all the customs of society spring from a class who have no particular occasion for economy. The practice of minute and delicate division comes from a nation which acknowledges the need of economy, and has made it a study. A quarter of lamb in this mode of division would be sold in three nicely prepared portions. The thick part would be sold by itself, for a roast, compact little roast: the rib bones would be artistically separated, and all the edible matter scraped away would form those delicate dishes of lamp-chop, whi h, fried in bread-crumbs to a golden brown, are so ornamental and so palpable a sidedish; the trimmings which remain after this division would be destined to the soup-kettle or stew-pan.

In a French market is a little portion for every purse, and the far famed, delicately flavored soups and stews which have arisen out of French economy are a study worth a housekeeper's attention. Not one atom of food is wasted in the French modes of preparation; even tough animal cartilages and sinews, instead of appearing burned and blackened in company with the roast meat to which they happened to be related, are treated according, to their own laws, and come out, either in savory soups, or those fine, clear meat-jellies which form a garnish no less agreeable to the eye than palpable to the taste. — Mrs. Stowe.

PHENOMENA OF GLASS.—That glass resists the action of most acids, science has abundantly proved. Its weight is not diminished by use or age. It is more capable than any other substance of receiving the highest degree of polish; if melted several times over, and properly cooled down in the furnace, presenting a polish which almost rivals the diamond in brilliancy. If it be made into a vial, with the bottom much thicker than the sides, and suddenly cooled in the open air, instead of being tempered in the usual manner, the result on its susceptibility to fracture is the most extraordinary. It will bear a heavy blow, or severe pressure from any blunt instrument, uninjured; but if any hard and angular substance even so small as a grain of flint, or a sharp sand be dropped into the vial, the bottom will crack all around, and fall off. A small fragment of iron has been passed through the thick bottom with apparently as little resistance as if dropped through the web of a spider. Instances have occurred in which one of these vials has been struck by a mallet with a force sufficient to drive a nail into some descriptions of wood, without causing fracture, while a small fragment of flint dropped gently into the vial, has cracked the glass to pieces.

TOUGH ONES. — According to a biographical sketch in Harper's Magazine, John Jocob Astor was never known to do a charitable act outside his own family. He said "no" to all petitions for relief, even among his own countrymen, the Germans. He was a curmudgeon, though a first-rate "governor," and died worth $20,000,000. The estate, in the hands of his son, who is a better man, is now estimated at $40,000,000. Girard, the Philadelphia millionaire, used to biggle about pennies with his best friends. The first founded a library to perpetuate his name, and the last a college to perpetuate his fame — so that they did some good, after all, tough ones as they were.

— The lost books of the annals of Tacitus, so long gone, have been discovered in pulling down an ancient edifice in Catenea.
